STAHL MAY BE INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGE

He Made Affidavit That Lusitania Was Armed — Federal Grand Jury Starts Investigation

NEW YORK, June 11.—The federal grand jury, now in session here, it was stated today, will make a thorough investigation to determine whether there was a conspiracy to defraud the United States by persons who obtained the affidavits, submitted to the state department in which it was asserted that the steamship Lusitania carried four guns several weeks. Roger B. Wood, the assistant United States district attorney who is directing the inquiry, said that the grand jury would follow the evidence as far as it might lead.

The arrest yesterday of Gustave Stahl, a German resident, who made one of the affidavits given to the German embassy for submission to the state department, is regarded by the federal prosecutors as only an incident of what is likely to be a far reaching investigation. Stahl, who is charged with perjury in repeating before the grand jury the substance of his affidavit, is held in $10,000 bail for a hearing before a United States commissioner on June 24th.

Thus far Paul Koenig, also known as Stemler, who, the federal authorities say, is head of a secret service department of the Hamburg-American steamship line, is the only man they name as being involved in the alleged conspiracy. The proceedings against Koenig were initiated to establish the charge that he used improper influence to induce Stahl to make his affidavit.

Josephine Weir, Anton Grieve and a man named Bruckner, who also made affidavits in the Lusitania case, have been questioned by agents of the department of justice, and can be summoned before the grand jury if their testimony is desired. Their affidavits tended to corroborate Stahl's statement that the Lusitania was armed.

FIERCE BATTLE FOUGHT ON BANKS OF DNIESTER

Petrograd Announces the Capture of 6500 Officers and Men and Many Guns—Italians Defeat Austrians at Gorizia With 10,000 Loss—Steamers Sunk

Following their success in the Baltic regions, the Russians now claim an important victory in Galicia. The Austro-German forces which are attempting to advance on Lemberg from the south are said by the Russian war office to have been defeated in a fierce battle along the Dniester near Zorawna, east of Stry. Many prisoners and guns were captured by Russian forces.

An unofficial despatch from Geneva states that the Teutonic forces were driven back at two points on the Dniester.

The first large battle of the Italian campaign is now under way, having been brought on by an attempt of the Italians to force the Isonzo river, which enters the Gulf of Trieste from the north. Despatches from Cologne and Geneva mention heavy fighting, particularly near Gorizia, on the east side of the river, 22 miles northwest of Trieste. The Cologne report states that the Italians were repulsed at the battle, as well as near Gradisca and Monfalcone. Capture of Monfalcone by the Italians was announced officially from Rome yesterday. According to the Geneva advices, the battle has not been decided. Austrian losses in the Gorizia fight are placed at 8000 to 10,000 and accordingly a distinct Italian victory is believed to have been secured.

The British fishing smacks in the North sea were attacked and sunk by Zeppelins. Submarines sank the British steamer Strathcarron of 2800 tons and a Russian bark. No loss of life was reported in any case.

LONDON HEARS OF GREAT VICTORY BY RUSSIA ON DNIESTER

LONDON, June 11, 12.15 p. m.—British observers of the war, forming their opinions on the latest despatches from Russia, believe that the Austro-German forces threatening Lemberg from the southeast have been checked in their advance. Russia, they declare, has delivered a return blow and a hard one. The great masses of German and Austrian troops which have forced a passage of the Dniester river near Zorawna have, according to the latest announcement of the Russian war office, been flung back with heavy losses in both men and material.

Thus for the moment Lemberg is thought to be safe for now, as well as the Galician front have the Teutonic allies been making progress recently with the exception of course of their southern extension into Bukovina.

News was received yesterday that Russian reinforcements were moving south along the Dniester river from Mikolajow to Rohatyn, but it was hardly expected here that they would achieve such quick results. If this victory has been decisive it is the first real check delivered by the Russians since the start of the new Austro-

German rush through Galicia. Here it is characterized as giving renewed faith to Britain and France in the cooperative powers of Russian arms.

Nothing new has been heard in London concerning the fighting in the Baltic provinces.

The Italians are now less than 20 miles from Trieste, the chief port of Austria.

On the western front the methodical French advance would appear for the moment to have ceased but on the other hand the German counter-attacks do not seem to have been successful.

PARIS OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE FIGHTING IN THE DARDANELLES

PARIS, June 11, 2.30 p. m.—An official announcement concerning the Dardanelles, given out in Paris this afternoon reads as follows:

"In the Dardanelles we have consolidated the results obtained by us in the fighting of June 4."

"At the right end of the ravine of Kereve Dere, we were successful with minor engagements, in making some further progress."

"Prisoners who fell into our hands confirmed previous reports that the losses of the enemy have been considerable."

SWEDISH STEAMER OTAGO, BOUND FOR HULL, TORPEDOED AND SUNK

LONDON, June 11, 1.40 p. m.—The Swedish steamer Otago, bound for Hull, was torpedoed and sunk last night.

The Otago, of 979 tons, net, was 241 feet long and was built in 1882. She was owner in Solvesborg, Sweden.

GLASGOW STEAMER WAS TORPEDOED WITHOUT WARNING BY GERMANY

CARDIFF, June 11, 2.29 a. m.—The Glasgow steamship Strathcarron was torpedoed yesterday without warning by a German submarine while outward bound from Barry. The crew, which put off in boats, was rescued by a steamer and landed here.

The Strathcarron was a vessel of 2507 tons, built in 1912, at Greenock, and was owned by the Strathcarron Steamship Co. of Glasgow. She sailed from Barry May 28 for Barry where she arrived June 2 and was reported to have entered the government service.

AUSTRIANS LOSE 10,000 IN BATTLE WITH ITALIANS AT GORIZIA

GENEVA, via Paris, June 11, 4.55 a. m.—A Laibach despatch to the Tribune says: "The Italians began their march against Gorizia on the morning of June 8. When the first detachments were near the city Austrian artillery opened fire and heavy masses of infantry which were thrown forward forced the Italians to fall back several times."

try which were thrown forward forced the Italians to fall back several times.

"Italian artillery posted east of the city opened great gaps in the Austrian ranks but up to the morning of the ninth neither side had gained a decisive advantage. The Austrians lost from 8000 to 10,000 men. Gorizia is overflowing with wounded who are being cared for at private houses because of a lack of hospital space."

ENGINEER WITH PLANS FOR NEW PAWTUCKET BRIDGE COULDN'T REACH LOWELL

The special meeting of the municipal council scheduled for 9 o'clock this morning and called for the purpose of taking further action on plans, contract and agreements in connection with the new Pawtucket bridge, did not materialize, the council receiving word from Engineer Denman that it would be impossible for him to come to Lowell today with the necessary plans and papers. The mayor called to order, however, and the council adjourned without further ado.

There is a bridge at Nashua that was built by Mr. Denman and as the council had more or less spare time on its hands the members decided to go to Nashua and give the bridge the once over. The trip was made in automobiles and it was a nice day for a ride.

CHINESE-AMERICAN BANK BOSTON, June 11.—Participation of Boston financiers in a proposed Chinese American bank was the subject of a conference arranged for today between Cheung-Hsun Chang, president of the honorary commercial commission of China, and several local bankers. The project, which was recently discussed by the commissioners with New York bank heads, is said to be well under way.

Commissioners were escorted to Lawrence today to inspect several textile mills.

COMMENT ON U.S. NOTE SAYS THAT IT IS PACIFIC

Very Little Support for Bryan's Attitude That it is Warlike — Delivered in Berlin Today

WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the publication today of the latest American note to Germany concerning the sinking of the Lusitania, officials of the United States government and diplomats generally discussed among themselves the probable character of the German government's answer. The feeling in German quarters was that a favorable response was likely, as the note seemed to open the door to a solution compatible alike with the interests of both Germany and of the United States.

The note, it was said, was purposefully phrased so that it would give Germany an opportunity to meet the wishes of the United States with dignity and in conformity with German public opinion. Many officials wondered why Secretary Bryan declined to sign the note. They claim its friendliness was the very means that he had suggested—persuasion to accomplish the American purpose. In official circles there were few who agreed with Mr. Bryan that the note might lead to war. Germany's answer to the note was not looked for under ten days or two weeks.

Unofficial advices received here said that the note, which had been considerably delayed in transmission, had been received by Ambassador Gerard in Berlin. It was to be presented today to Herr von Jagow, the German foreign secretary.

However, that Germany will await the arrival of Meyer Gerhardt, personal representative of Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, who now is enroute to Berlin to outline the attitude of the American government before making response.

The note which brought on the crisis in President Wilson's cabinet and culminated in the resignation of William J. Bryan as secretary of state, although friendly in character, firmly renews previous demands that the German government give assurances that American lives and vessels shall hereafter be safeguarded. What action the United States will take in the event that Germany refuses to give such assurances is not indicated in the note.

The note further declares that in the view of the American government, the contention that the Lusitania was carrying contraband of war or that these munitions were exploded by a torpedo, "are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel."

"It is upon this principle of humanity," the note adds, "as well as upon the law founded on this principle that the United States must stand."

The note informs Germany that it must have been misinformed when it assumed that the Lusitania carried guns, but the opportunity is given to Germany to learn of any evidence that American officials did not execute their tasks thoroughly in inspecting the Lusitania before sailing.

The text of the American rejoinder to Germany will be found on the last page.

SIX WERE KILLED

Miners Cut Into Drift of Abandoned Mine — Were Buried

JOPLIN, Mo., June 11.—Six men were buried beneath tons of water, earth and rocks in the Louisa-Chapman mine near here late last night, when they cut into a drift of an abandoned mine. A seventh man was rescued after being hauled nearly 700 feet by the force of the cave-in. The six are believed to have been instantly killed.

IN POLICE COURT

George Walsh, who came to this city some months ago and stole 15 Boston & Maine trip tickets, the property of William H. Noonan, the Centralville druggist, walked into the police station last night and gave himself up. He claimed that his conscience has troubled him ever since the theft. He had no visible means of support and when his case came up in police court before Judge Enright this morning he was sentenced to one month in jail.

William Lamsigne came into the clutches of the law for failing to provide for his wife and six children. Mrs. Lamsigne testified that her husband contributed only $7 towards maintaining their home since the first of May, and that all the money he gets he uses to buy drink.

Judge Enright ordered defendant to pay his wife $5 a week and to keep away from drink. If he fails to abide by the court's decision he will go to jail for four months.

A young man was in court charged with too frequently expressing himself in profane language. After a heart to heart talk with Judge Enright, in which the young man promised to do better his case was placed on file.

There were four drunken offenders released through the efforts of Probation Officer Slattery.

STAHL ARRESTED

Charged With Perjury in
Story of Lusitania
Guns

NEW YORK, June 11.—A federal grand jury investigation to determine whether there was a conspiracy "to defraud" the United States in connection with the affidavits submitted by the German embassy to the state department to prove that there were guns aboard the steamship Lusitania, was begun here yesterday by the federal grand jury.

It is specifically directed against Paul Koenig, also known as Stenier, who according to the federal authorities is head of a secret service department maintained by the Hamburg-American Steamship Line.

The first result of the investigation was the arrest yesterday for perjury of Gustave Stahl, a German reservist, who made one of the affidavits submitted by the embassy, and who is alleged to be closely associated with Koenig. The warrant on which he was arrested alleges that he committed perjury in an investigation by the jury against "Paul Koenig, alias Stenier, and others," under that section of the penal code covering conspiracy to defraud the United States.

He was taken into custody immediately upon the conclusion of his testimony and sent to the Tombs for lack of the $10,000 bail demanded by the government.

Stahl, in his affidavit, which was made before a city notary public, swore that he visited the Lusitania on April 20, the day before she sailed, and saw four guns on her deck concealed by leather covers. The repetition of this story when he was called as a witness in the investigation of Koenig's activities was the basis of the perjury charge.

In addition to the statement by Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port, and by officials of the Cunard line that the Lusitania was unarmed, the government authorities still last night that they had evidence by which they would prove that Stahl was not on board the Lusitania, either on April 20 or on any other day before the departure of the Lusitania on her fatal trip. This has been gathered by agents of the department of justice, who, since his disappearance a week ago, have been investigating his activities.

Stahl was located Wednesday in Albany, and immediately brought here. While not under arrest, he was kept under close surveillance by the federal agents and submitted to a searching examination. Certain information which Stahl furnished, together with other evidence collected in the case, is understood to have led to the empanelling of the special grand jury which met yesterday.

It was intimated, however, that when called upon before the jury to repeat this information, Stahl was not so communicative. During the two days since he was brought back here, he was permitted to consult counsel and was in consultation with Edward Sandford, who acted as attorney for the Hamburg-American line in the government's case against it, charging violation of the neutrality laws. When arraigned before United States Commissioner Houghton after his arrest, he asked that Mr. Sandford be communicated with.

"Mr. Stenier (Koenig) got him for me," he told the commissioner in German.

Questioned about the case last night, Mr. Sandford said he was acting for Koenig in the case and would get Stahl another lawyer. Koenig had nothing to conceal in the matter, he declared, and had already given full information to the government authorities. His client, he said, had executed the affidavit from Stahl in good faith.

SAYS ALLIES FACE CRISIS

SIR WILLIAM R. NICOLL CALLS ON
BRITAIN TO STAND BEHIND THE MINISTER OF MUNITIONS

LONDON, June 11.—"Where Germany once had a marked superiority in men, she now has a superiority in ammunition, an advantage she will press to its fullest. The only way for the allies to avert disaster is to equip themselves, and to this end, Britain must stand behind David Lloyd George as minister of munitions as one man. Moreover, if he is not given a free hand he may resign."

Sir William Robertson Nicoll thus sums up the situation as he sees it, in the current issue of the British Weekly, one of the best of the journals in England. Sir William is the editor of the publication and, in addition, he is a close friend of the head of the newly created ministry of munitions. He writes:

"We say with certainty that the next three months of the war will be extremely critical ones for the allies. The superior strength of Germany in

NERVOUS CHILDREN

From early spring until July is the time that St. Vitus' dance usually develops and nervous children should be carefully watched during that time for symptoms of the disease. Irritability is one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome, cannot be amused and does not sleep well. The jerky movements and weakness characteristic of the disease come a little later. The patient becomes pale, languid, has little appetite and is usually constipated. Such a child should not be allowed to study but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. If unusual symptoms develop or if the nervousness continues to the point of hysteria, a physician should be called. In most cases the tonic treatment of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is sufficient. Without treatment, St. Vitus' dance may become chronic.

Parents of nervous children should write to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy of the free booklet, "Nervous Disorders, A Method of Home Treatment," and a diet book called "What to Eat and How to Eat." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with directions for use.

WHAT THE FRENCH MAID SAID

DRESSING A LIBRARY TABLE

"Father thinks we should have a covering for the library table," petulently complained Marjorie to Marie. "but I think the table is so beautiful and has such good lines it is a shame to hide it. What do you think?"

"I think I must agree with you in reference to the table," answered Marie. "If it had good lines and a fine polish I would leave it as truly bare as possible."

"A handsome mat might protect the place where your reading lamp stands. This mat could be of embroidered crash or, still better, a handsome piece of Chinese or Japanese embroidery in rich colors."

The leather spreads are used on such tables, but to my mind they are much more suitable for mission tables and for use in dens or strictly masculine rooms.

"The only difficulty in leaving your table uncovered is the greater danger of its being marred when in use, and, personally, I dislike to have in a living room any article of furniture too good to be used for the purpose for which it was designed."

"Comfort and utility should be the first considerations in selecting living room furniture. In some rooms and on some tables the extra linen runners are very effective, but I do not think I should care for one on your mahogany table of the Queen Anne period.

"The Oriental embroideries or some dainty lace or embroidered mats would be better, preferably the former, since the table is a library table and designed to hold books, a reading lamp, etc."

"If it were a parlor table designed

KILLED BY HORSE

John Robeson Kicked
by Farm Horse at
Tyngsboro

John Robeson, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Robeson of Tyngsboro, was almost instantly killed late yesterday afternoon when he was kicked on the head by a horse while adjusting a trace. Besides his parents the victim leaves a brother George, and a sister, Clara.

The young man was plowing on land belonging to a Joseph Bekstrom, a neighbor, when a trace attached to one of the horses became twisted. Robeson suddenly kicked, striking him on the head. Mr. Bekstrom saw the man fall and rushed to the spot where he found him unconscious. Help was summoned but the victim died a few minutes afterward.

Associate Medical Examiner T. B.

Smith showed the body and pronounced death due to a compound fracture of the skull.

REPORT IS WITHHELD

TAUNTON CASE INVOLVING DEATH
OF INSANE PATIENT INVESTIGATED

TAUNTON, June 11.—A committee of the trustees of the Taunton Insane Asylum has reported on the death of William C. Quinn, a patient from Quincy, at a meeting of the trustees. Quinn died on April 21 of multiple injuries inflicted while at the hospital, according to the findings of Judge Frederick E. Austin, who presided at the inquest. It was voted to submit the action of the trustees to the state board of insanity, when a report will be held next week, when the conference will probably be made public.

THE RINGLING CIRCUS

GREAT AGGREGATION CERTAINLY
GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Well, the big show, in the words of Billy Banty "has come and went," and the attendance at Ringling Brothers' circus, it is stated on all sides, discounted all former circus attendances in this city. It was almost a case of "standing room at the circus," and "little wonder that the circus people were happy. As to the merits of the show it may justly lay claim to the title, the greatest show on earth.

For the first time in the circus history in Lowell women were requested to remove their hats. The stenographer, present to doff their hats. Most of the dear things removed the scenery, but some of them made militant faces and allowed their hats to remain. The fact that the great canvas was not big enough to hold the attendance speaks well for the prosperity of Lowell.

The small boy said the circus was a "dandy." There were thrills, but none of the type popular a few years ago, when the performers risked their lives to make the cold shivers run up and down the back of the audience for a few brief moments. The Ringlings have decided that the public wishes to be entertained, not horrified.

Crowds? Yes, a plenty and funny, with new conceits. A good imitation of Charlie Chaplin was among the number, not to mention many take-offs on fads and fashions of the day. There was a miniature replica of the Kaiser of Germany. The clowns appeared at opportune moments and furnished much fun in a program that was not allowed to drag.

The show opened with what the program described as Ringling Bros.' stupendous new spectacle feature, "Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. Hundreds of bespangled and richly costumed people had a part in the production, which was presented on a stage at one side of the tent. It was really a magnificent production. Solomon's decision to divide a baby equally between two women claiming to be his mother, was well portrayed.

SPLIT IN PEACE SOCIETY

MASSACHUSETTS ORGANIZATION
REJECTS PEACE RESOLUTIONS
PROPOSED BY REV. C. F. DOLE

BOSTON, June 11.—The Massachusetts Peace society split apart at its annual meeting yesterday over peace resolutions proposed by the Rev. Chas. F. Dole of Jamaica Plain, after a vigorous verbal battle at the end of which the resolutions were defeated.

On the ground that this is no time to complicate the international affairs of the country by crying for peace, a majority of the members present, following the lead of the Hon. Samuel J. Elder, the Hon. Joseph Walker and Alonzo Rothschild, refused to support the resolutions, which declared in part that it is better for the United States to have a delayed justice through the willing consent of those who have hurt us than to seek to compel justice by bloodshed.

HOW SHE ENDED TEN YEARS OF SKIN TORTURE

Oct. 25, 1914.—I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. They itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I would not go amongst people. I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned."—(Signed) Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Weatherford, Okla. Every drug-gist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and doctors have prescribed the Resinol treatment for twenty years.

TO HAVE PRETTY HAIR

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would give a plant to make it grow healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, stimulate the hair roots and bring out the new hairs. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it's because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and all dandruff disappears.

An inexpensive tonic, called Parisian Sage, which you can get from any drug counter, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff, makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the hair of dirt and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily have beautiful hair; and pretty hair will surely increase charm and beauty.

UNSIGHTLY BLACKHEADS

Blackheads are so unsightly we wonder how people tolerate them, as many do. To treat blackheads, cleanse the face and throat with a good cleansing cream, then steam the face for ten minutes, wipe moisture off and press out the blackheads with a little metal blackhead extractor which can be purchased at any drug store.

If there are any pimples, massage the face with a good cream for ten or fifteen minutes each day. Wipe the cream off, dampen a portion of a soft towel with toilet water and mop the face all over very gently, then a little fine face powder may be used. If the treatment is taken at night, do not use either the toilet water or the face powder.

Once or twice a week is as often as the face should be treated. The cleansing cream should be used every night. This rule holds good for every face as it is so much better for the skin than soap and water. All pimples that form a yellow head should be opened very carefully with a sterilized needle and the contents pressed out very gently with a blackhead instrument, never with the finger nail. When there are no pimples, the massage cream should be used for the massage. Remember that getting rid of blackheads prevents pimples as well.

DESTROY ANY U. S. SHIP CARRYING CONTRABAND

Germany's Latest Note on Sinking Frye Claims Right to Sink Vessels Carrying War Supplies

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Germany's latest note to the United States on the sinking of the American sailing ship William P. Frye by the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, received today, makes the far-reaching claim of a right to destroy any American vessel carrying contraband, while agreeing to pay damages for the act.

Two points made by the United States are rejected by Germany. One was the statement of the American government in its note of April 28 that prize court proceedings meant unnecessary delay, all matters concerned being susceptible of prompt settlement through diplomatic channels and the other was that the destruction of the Frye was "unquestionably a violation of the obligations imposed upon the imperial government under existing treaty stipulations between the United States and Prussia."

Under the Prussian-American treaty of 1828 the binding force of which was admitted by Germany in its note of April 5 the right of citizens of either country to ship arms and ammunition as well as all other kinds of contraband in their own vessels was granted in time of war but each party had the right to detain such contraband and make payment for it if confiscated.

The note from Germany today enlarges upon the treaty of 1828 by claiming that while the treaty did not specifically permit the destruction of a ship, nevertheless, if its contraband could not be removed in any other way it could "in the extreme case be effected by the destruction of the contraband and of the ship carrying it."

The effect of Germany's answer today, if its assertions are accepted by the United States, would be to throw into the prize courts for decision all cases of whether destruction of an American vessel constituted an extreme case of military necessity.

International law, outside of treaty stipulation, has contained many a moot case on that point. While the declaration of London established finally that in case of military necessity a ship whose cargo was more than half contraband could be destroyed after passengers and crew were removed to places of safety the declaration was not ratified by the United States, express notice having been given again by the American government to Germany in the note of April 28 that the declaration was not regarded as in force.

The following is the German reply: Foreign Office, Berlin, June 7, 1915.

The undersigned has the honor to make the following reply to the note of His Excellency, Mr. James W. Gerard, ambassador of the United States of America, dated April 30, 1915, foreign office No. 3231 on the subject of the sinking of the American sailing vessel William P. Frye by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

The German government cannot admit that as the American government assumes the destruction of the sailing vessel mentioned constitutes a violation of the treaties concluded between Prussia and the United States at an earlier date and now applicable to the relations between the German empire and the United States or of the American rights derived therefrom. For these treaties did not have the intention of depriving one of the contracting parties engaged in war of the right of stopping the supply of contraband to his enemy when he recognizes the supply of such as detrimental to his own interests.

On the contrary, Article 13 of the Prussian-American treaty of July 11, 1828, expressly reserves to the party at war the right to stop the carrying of contraband and to detain the contraband. It follows, then, that if it cannot be accomplished in any other way the stopping of the supply may in the extreme case be effected by the destruction of the contraband and of the ship carrying it. As a matter of course, the obligation of the party at war to pay compensation to the parties interested, of the neutral contract, the party remains in force whatever be the manner of stopping the supply.

"According to general principles of international law, any exercises of the right of control over the trade in contraband is subject to the decision of the prize courts, even though such right may be restricted by special treaties."

"At the beginning of the present war, Germany, pursuant to these principles, established by law prize jurisdiction for cases of the kind under consideration. The case of the William P. Frye is likewise subject to the German prize jurisdiction, for the Prussian-American treaties mentioned contain no stipulation as to how the amount of the compensation, provided by Article 13 of the treaties cited is to be fixed."

"The German government, therefore, complies with its treaty obligations to a full extent when the prize courts instituted by it in accordance with international law proceed in pursuance to the treaty stipulation and thus award the American interested an equitable indemnity. There would, therefore be no foundation for a claim of the American government, as the prize court should not grant indemnity in accordance with the treaty; in such event, however, the German government would not hesitate to arrange for equitable indemnity notwithstanding."

"For the rest prize proceedings of the case of the Frye are indispensable, apart from the American claims for the reason that other claims of the neutral and enemy interested parties are to be considered in the matter."

"As was stated in the note of April 14 last the prize court should have to decide the question whether the destruction of the ship and cargo was legal, whether and under what conditions, the property sunk was liable to confiscation and to whom and in what amount indemnity is to be paid provided application therefor is received."

"Since the decision of the prize court must first be awaited before any further position is taken by the German government, the simplest way for the American interested parties to settle their claims would be to enter them in the competent records, in accordance with the provision of the German code of prize proceedings."

"The undersigned begs to suggest that the ambassador bring the above to the knowledge of his government and avail himself, etc."

"Von Jagow, Minister for Foreign Affairs."

REPORT DENIED

Despatch Stating Captain of Eitel Arrested Unfounded

PARIS, June 10, 5.05 a. m.—The captain of the German converted cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich has been arrested while disguised as a cook aboard an Italian steamer, says an Algeiras despatch to the Havas agency.

Commander Thierichens, of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, interned his vessel at Newport News on the night of April 7. He and his officers gave their parole to the United States authorities, there by agreeing not to leave American soil, although they had the freedom of the country.

The Prinz Eitel Friedrich entered the harbor at Newport News March 10, ostensibly to make repairs and take aboard supplies. This port of refuge was reached by the German cruiser after an adventurous cruise in which she destroyed many merchant vessels sailing under the flags of the allies. Commander Thierichens was expected to make a dash for sea after necessary repairs to his ship had been completed but is supposed to have abandoned the plan because of the careful watch kept by British cruisers off Newport News to prevent his escape. There has been no previous intimation that he had left the United States.

REPORT UNFOUNDED

NORFOLK, Va., June 10.—Captain Thierichens, recently returned from a leave of absence and now is aboard the Prinz Eitel Friedrich at the Norfolk navy yard.

Third Surgeon Nolte is away from the ship and an inquiry is being made. At the navy yard it was said Third Surgeon Nolte went away on leave about a month ago. He failed to return on time and the matter was reported to the navy department.

L. FRANK'S APPLICATION

GOV. SLATON WILL BEGIN HEARINGS ON PETITION FOR COMMUTATION ON SATURDAY

ATLANTA, Ga., June 10.—Gov. Slaton announced today that he would begin hearings next Saturday on Leo M. Frank's application for commutation of his death sentence. He indicated that the hearings might last until Monday night. Frank's execution is set for June 22, eight days later.

W. M. Howard, in charge of Frank's case, said Frank's attorneys would have no evidence to present except that submitted at the recent hearing before the prison commission which recommended against commutation.

FOR N. E. CHAMPIONSHIP

HARTFORD, Conn., June 10.—Only two matches were played during the morning in the annual tennis tournament for the New England championship here today. In the fourth round of the singles J. N. Mitchell, captain of next year's tennis team at Trinity, defeated his teammate, T. W. A. Peck, in straight sets. In the second round of the doubles Holcombe and Roberts won a closely contested match from Berg and Merritt. Summary: Singles: Fourth round—Mitchell beat Peck, 6-1, 5-8. Doubles: Second round—Holcombe and Roberts beat Berg and Merritt 1-6, 6-0, 6-4.

M. C. O. F. CONVENTION

TWO LOWELL MEN AMONG THE OFFICERS WHO WERE CHOSEN AT FALL RIVER

Joseph N. Gregoire, chief ranger of Court St. Antoine, C. O. F. of this city will represent the Lowell members of the Catholic Order of Foresters at the international convention of the order, which will be held in Providence, R. I., next August. He was chosen a delegate.

J. N. GREGOIRE,
Delegate to International Convention

gate at the state court convention held in Fall River this week. Another Lowell man, Paul T. Charbonneau, past chief ranger of Court St. Paul, was also honored at the state convention, being chosen a trustee of the state court.

The Lowell delegates who attended the convention were J. N. Gregoire and Dr. Adelard Payette of Court St. Antoine, the latter being vice chief ranger of the state court; Paul T. Charbonneau and Raoul H. Montier, both past chief rangers of Court St. Paul.

The election of officers for the state court at this week's convention resulted as follows:

Chief ranger: N. V. Marcotte, Cambridge; vice chief ranger, J. A. Daugherty, New Bedford; secretary, Steven Viger, Lawrence; treasurer, J. B. N. Seullieres, Worcester; trustees, Eugene Lapaine, Fall River; Camille Champagne, Haverhill; John J. Murphy, Boston; W. C. Lanouereux, Southbridge and Paul T. Charbonneau, Lowell.

Delegates chosen to the Providence convention are: J. N. Gregoire, Lowell; Oscar Paquette, Fall River; E. P. Talbot, Fall River; A. Robitaille, Taunton; G. Parent, Lawrence; E. Chabot, Haverhill and P. Allard, Southbridge.

The international convention was scheduled to be held in Ontario, Canada, but on account of a large number of delegates being of German descent, it was deemed advisable in this time of war to hold the convention in the states and accordingly Providence, R. I. was chosen as the convention city. This will be the second time Lowell delegates attend the international convention, for four years ago Dr. Adelard Payette attended the convention held in Cleveland, O.

HAVERHILL HEARING HALTED

Civil Service Commissioners to Decide Whether Miss Marshall Is Legally an Office Holder

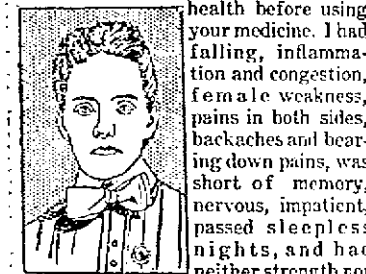

HAVERHILL, June 11.—The hearing on charges of inefficiency against Miss Alice C. Marshall, superintendent of the tuberculosis hospital, was adjourned by the municipal council yesterday until this afternoon to allow the civil service commissioners to report on her legal standing as an officeholder.

Miss Marshall was appointed provisional superintendent at a salary of $120 a year at a time when there was no "eligible list." Since then her salary has been increased without the approval of the civil service commissioners, so that she is said to be not legally an officeholder, her former place having been vacated when she accepted more salary. The finding of the commissioners will affect the superior court from the municipal council's decision in her case.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R. F. D. 1, Box 22, Shamrock, Missouri.

All our testimonials are guaranteed genuine and truthful. They came to us entirely unsolicited and are sincere expressions of gratitude for actual benefits received from the medicine.

SPOT CASH BOUGHT

60 Full Pieces of Blue Serge

NEVER in the history of my Lowell store have I shown you a stock of woollens so exclusively high grade. I don't hesitate to make the broad statement that not another concern in New England is showing a line of serges that begins to approach my stock during this

JUNE BLUE SERGE SALE

When I make that assertion I have in mind, of course, alone the high priced houses, because I don't for an instant associate my qualities, even in comparison only, with the grade of goods that usually find their way into the construction of medium priced clothing.

Men who have never traded with me or who have never taken the trouble to investigate my claims or examine my stock may falter before they believe that I could have goods worthy of such sweeping praise. But I am conscious of what I say herein, and stand ready to prove it to the most usual observations of any man who has been accustomed to wearing $25.00 to $35.00 suitings.

Believe me when I tell you nice goods are scarce today---and they promise even scarcer in the cloth marts of the country. There is a problem in front of the clothing and tailoring trade. The great American people demand nice stuff. The market is empty and where some of them are going to get the goods of required quality is hard to see. I can sell my stock wholesale to the biggest houses in the land at a big advance in ten minutes.

Instead, I am giving them to the people who stuck by me through my six years in Lowell.

Buy them, gentlemen, on my recommendation. You can't go wrong. I have them in light and heavy weights. I am giving you a lot more than I would be able to do under conditions today, but not a bit more than you are entitled to.

INDUSTRIAL AND STORE NEWS

The majority of the store clerks observed their second Thursday afternoon off by attending the circus. Arthur Flanders of the Jamson Store Service Co. will try out his new motorcycle in the Oakland on Sunday. Business at the Saco-Lowell shops is on the increase and several of the employees are employed six full days a week. Nearly all the shoe concerns of the city are running to capacity, while business in the other industries is also good.

The majority of the mill employees were given a brief respite yesterday during the parade hour and they enjoyed the long and gorgeous pageant. Circus night affected the labor men, and but few meetings were held, the majority of members being in attendance at the big show.

Walter Lyons, the well known manager of the South End ball team, has accepted a position at the Saco-Lowell shops. He was formerly employed at the Hamilton Manufacturing Co.

Seventy-five national and international organizations have been formed during the past 19 years out of local unions directly chartered by the American Federation of Labor.

Unions in Toronto, Canada, are insisting on the appointment of a "fair wage" officer who will enforce the payment of prevailing rates on city work.

Great indignation has been aroused in Lowell by the knowledge that about 2000 Germans and Austrians are still being employed in certain London hotels.

Easton Gibbs & Sons, contractors for North dockyard, Scotland will give women whose husbands have been called to war house rent free in the village during their absence and also a certain amount of coal each month.

Walter McEvoy of the Bon Marche Co. says there will be something doing every minute at the camp on Sunday. Walter is chairman of the committee in charge of the outing to be conducted by the members of the Upper Five.

The past year 225 charters have been issued by the American Federation of Labor. This number (two were granted Internationals, one state branch, 129 trade unions, 50 federal unions and 44 central bodies).

James Liston, formerly employed at the U. S. Bunting Co. and now attending to local high school, is playing great ball for his school team. "Jimmy" is a catcher, but he has been placed in the outfield because of his great hitting abilities.

Clyde E. Hockmeyer, a graduate of the Lowell Textile school, is now actively connected with the Waterhead mills, of which his father, Otto Hockmeyer, is the head. He is also treasurer of the new concern that has started operations at the plant.

It is said that Traffic Officer "Billy" Grady holds court with the pigeons in his stand at the corner of Market and Central streets every day. The officer, it is reported, carries a pocketful of corn to work every morning and never misses a day in feeding the birds, which have also acquired the habit of coming around on an appointed hour.

Painters Union

The Painters union held its regular meeting despite the circus, and there was a good attendance. President Geo. Finold was in the chair and called to order promptly at 8 o'clock. A list of routine business was transacted and a number of reports and communications were read and passed on. Business Agent Dale's report showed business to be picking up and the members well employed. Several of the members spoke on the good of the union, and the secretary's report showed the organization to be in a flourishing financial condition.

Graft in Purchasing

It may be that the textile alliance won't be able to uncover, prove and stop the graft that does so much in the purchase of supplies by textile mills, but it can be stopped. The way to stop it is for the mill agent, or superintendent, to do the buying. A little worse mill up in New Hampshire made a change in the soap used for scouring wool. The lucky salesman in this instance put in his soap at 5 1-2 cents. He was not asked for any graft, and thought he had one good customer. He sold ten barrels of soap in a few weeks later another ten barrels, the third ten barrels a little later, and very recently a fourth ten barrels. The other day the soap salesman called at the mill, and was told that his soap was no good—that it had spoiled about 1,000 pounds of wool in the scouring. The salesman said that if his soap spoiled the mill's wool, the soap company would pay for the wool, but he must go out into the mill to see the material that was spoiled. So the soap salesman went out into the scouring room and for the first time saw the boss scourer. The salesman explained to the boss scourer that it was funny that 30 odd barrels of soap were used without making any trouble, and that it was then discovered that the soap was no good. The scourer said to the salesman, "Can I talk with you?" He then explained that for all the soap that had been used in the past the mill paid 5 1-2 cents, and that he got a cent a pound graft from the soap maker. He thought he ought to have something on this new soap. The salesman explained that at 5 1-2 cents there wasn't any chance to buy graft. He did, however, give the boss scourer a $10 bill. Then the salesman went home and threw up his job. We know of a very large worsted mill that pays 5 cents for palm oil soap. We are certain that the mill could get the same soap for 3 1-2 cents, and still give the soap maker a margin for graft. We know of a small carded woolen mill which pays 7 1-2 cents for the same palm oil soap—at least a cent a pound too much. Where does the excess price go? There is only one answer.

So far as the several large dyestuffs manufacturers and merchandising houses are concerned, we believe there is much little graft being done, but it is the dyestuffs people themselves who have put an end to it. Small dyestuffs chemical concerns, however, are not so clean. There are soap manufacturers who will not pay a cent of tribute. Those concerns are well known by name, we imagine, to every textile manufacturer. There are other soap makers who, we believe, do more business by far on a graft basis than on the level. We do not know that graft is increasing—we believe otherwise. We were told recently of a sales of hobbling being dependent upon graft. We heard of an engineer who turned around and found a $10 bill on the coal pile just after an oil salesman left. It is a dirty business all through. The meanest end of it is for its effect on the taxman. Where graft makes the sale, selling ability counts for nothing. Industry is not rewarded. Sundry is not dependent upon personal effort.

RICKARD SHOE COMPANY DECIDES TO GIVE UP ITS LYNN FACTORY—HAS EMPLOYED 350 HANDS

LYNN, June 11.—After much deliberation, the Rickard Shoe company, which for four years has operated one of the most successful factories in Lynn, decided yesterday to remove to Haverhill. The firm has employed 350 hands.

Edward M. Rickard, the president, refused tonight to discuss the reasons for the decision to leave here. He came here as superintendent of the Watson shoe company and eight years after the firm of Rickard & Gregory was formed. Four years later Mr. Rickard retired and organized a company bearing his name.

Boston Elevated Road Petitions Public Service Commission—Spot Pond Station to Be Moved

BOSTON, June 11.—Because the Metropolitan water and sewerage commission feared that Spot pond might be polluted by crowds at the Middlesex Fells station of the Boston Elevated and Bay State Street railways, the two companies and the commission have agreed upon a new site for the station about 100 feet nearer Stoneham. The new station will also mark the fare limit on the Elevated.

The Elevated road has prepared plans and sent a petition to the public service commission to build loops in Broadway, Somerville, for the operation of trailer cars on the Highland Avenue Viaduct line at the southern carhouse at Arlington Heights, at Harvard Square and in Beacon Street at the reservoir.

The space between the tracks on Dorchester Avenue, from Summer Street to Andrew square will be widened and a new curve will be built from Summer Street into Chauncy Street.

Americans in Lower
California

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, San Diego, Cal., June 11.—Feeling against Americans is being exhibited at the Mexican west coast ports of Manzanillo and Mazatlan, held by Carranza forces, according to radiograms received by Admiral Howard today. No overt acts of any kind have been reported, however.

Villa forces remaining in the southern district of lower California are said to be expressing willingness to leave for Guaymas, Sonora, without further fighting.

A MARRIAGE ANNULLED

MAN MARRIED HIS MOTHER'S HALF-SISTER EIGHTEEN YEARS
AGO

NORTH ATTLEBORO, June 11.—The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Hunt, which took place 18 years ago, was annulled yesterday by Judge Ingham in the superior court at New Bedford, on the ground of blood relationship.

Mr. Hunt is a son of Mrs. Hunt's half sister. The couple lived together 15 years knowing of the relationship, but did not know that the marriage was illegal. The relationship was not brought out at the time the marriage was celebrated.

Three children have been born to the couple. A few months ago divorce proceedings were started, and when the papers were drawn up the relationship of the couple was noted.

THE WHITNEY WILL CASE

PARTIAL VERDICT EPHOLDS WILL —LEGALLY EXECUTED AND TEST-
TAMOR OF SOUND MIND

BOSTON, June 11.—The jury in the Whitney will case, after having been out 23 hours, rendered a partial verdict yesterday morning, sustaining the will on two issues, holding that it was legally executed and that the testator was of sound mind, but the jury could not agree on the question of whether undue influence was exerted by Mrs. Amy H. Parker on testator, Theodore D. Whitney. The judge discharged the jury.

Ex-Congressman Joseph F. O'Connell, counsel for Mrs. Whitney, widow of testator, declared his intention to have the case tried again, if possible as early as next fall. George I. Mayberry, counsel for the will, would make no comment on the outcome.

NEW ENGLAND SICK GET BACK HEALTH

Victims of Digestive Disorders Tell of
Wonderful Effect of Remedy

Many New England stomach sufferers, and in fact, people all over the United States, have found remarkable results from the use of May's Wonderful Remedy.

Hundreds in this state alone have taken this remedy and tell today of the benefits they received. Its effects come quickly—the first dose convinces; no long treatment. Here is what two who have taken it say:

MRS. S. E. JOHNSON, 81 Whitmore street, Hartford, Conn., wrote: "My pains left me the next day after taking the treatment. It is simply wonderful how it relieved me."

MRS. CLARE SHAW, 433 Dexter street, Providence, R. I., wrote: "I received your treatment and it saved my life. I am better now than I have been for twenty years."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

PAPER OFFICE WRECKED

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE AT
JURED

BUTTE, Mont., June 11.—The plant of the Butte Socialist, a weekly newspaper, was wrecked by an explosion, presumably of dynamite, early today. The interior of the building was wrecked and the front was hurled into the street. A gallery at the rear was blown loose and fell on machinery below. The police believe the explosion took place in the rear of the structure. The upper story of the building, occupied a rooming house, was not badly damaged. So far as is known, no one was hurt. An investigation is in progress.

NO MENTION OF AMERICAN NOTE
BERLIN, June 11, via London, 4.45 a. m.—None of the morning newspapers refers in any way to the American note or the fact that it has been received and there is no comment on the general situation.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Another ten-strike feature may be recorded to the credit of the management of the R. F. Keith theatre, with the presentation of the Metro five-part picture called "The Shooting of Dan McGraw," in which, Edmund Breece, the eminent American actor, is cast in the leading part. Yesterday this wonderful picture was given twice, and on each occasion the audience followed breathlessly the development of the story. Breece in his character study of the man whose wife was stolen from him, and who for 12 years faced the world with revenge burning at his heart, will contribute a punch which is seldom duplicated even on the legitimate stage. How he found the man who wrecked his home in the Maltese saloon, found him with his wife, and how the two turned on each other and "shot up" the place, furnishes a climax that is tremendous. A natural scenery brought forward in this picture is of the highest possible class.

OPENED NEW QUARTERS

A pretty gathering of friends took place at the new quarters of the Young Men's Hebrew association, 231 Central street, last evening, the occasion being the formal opening of the new rooms and the inspection of the same by the many friends of the organization. The special guests of the evening were the members of the Young Women's Hebrew association, an auxiliary body.

A varied entertainment program was carried out in Post 185, G. A. R., hall, with Neyman's orchestra in attendance. Among those who participated in the entertainment were the following:

Percy Lightman, Miss Sarah Paterlosky and Master William L. Abrams, Leopold Albertson, John Dalton, Samuel Kopelman and others. The principal speaker of the evening was Ben-Zion Silverblatt, who outlined the high aims of the organization and congratulated the members upon the success already attained.

Refreshments were served by a committee of young women of the Y. W. H. A., comprising Misses Frances Goldman, Elsie Horlink, Fanny Silverblatt, Ida Lashowitch and Beatrice Brains.

The reception committee included Mrs. Sarah Klein, Mrs. S. Porter and Mrs. A. S. Goldman, of the Y. W. H. A.

The committee in charge of the general arrangements were: Julius Neyman, chairman; Leopold Albertson and Max Goldman.

ALWAYS MORE FOR LESS

THE STORE THAT GIVES VALUE

Sale Before Stocktaking Commences Today

Every garment in our establishment must go regardless of cost. It is easier for us to count money than to take count of our stock, therefore we have decided to hold a special sale right now, in the heart of the season, the time when you need your summer garments.

Every garment in our establishment is fresh and new, up-to-date in style, and superior in quality. We have not got to praise our merchandise. It is well known to the public, not only in Lowell and vicinity, but all over New England. Our make has been established for the past twenty years, and is not only known to private trade, but to retailers all over New England as well, that the Boston Ladies' Outfitters have always planned to manufacture the best that money could produce. When you buy from us you buy direct from the manufacturer.

This before stock taking sale will surely break the records of all sales ever heard or seen for legitimate, honest made garments. We want to call your attention to the fact that our sale is not a hurrah sale, it is not a fake sale, and it is not a lot of rubbish picked up, neither is it seconds or damaged merchandise or misfits, nor soiled merchandise, nor sweepings of shops. We are putting before you honest merchandise manufactured in our own factory, the Boston Ladies' Outfitters, a concern with a reputation. We are not gypsy travelers who travel from town to town misrepresenting themselves before the public with a lot of rubbish or rags. Keep your eyes open when you see such fake advertisements and paper talk. Do not be humbugged by them, and do not give them an opportunity to think they can fool the public. We are sure of the fact that the public of Lowell and vicinity are too wise for that class of fakers.

Our before stock taking sale began this morning. Come yourself and bring your neighbors. There are hundreds of styles and bargains awaiting you. You do not have to buy, but come and see what we have to offer you at this monster stock taking sale. We are sure that you can buy two honest garments of good quality for the price that you will pay for one elsewhere.

Look everywhere. See what you can get. Keep your eyes open. Use your own judgment. Pay no attention to fake advertisements. Visit our store—The Boston Ladies' Outfitters, 94 Merrimack street, and that will convince you.

MINERS' TROUBLE

National Guard on Patrol at Johnson City to Prevent Clash

JOHNSON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Three companies of the Illinois national guard were patrolling the streets today as a precaution against further disturbance between American and foreign miners, growing out of the lynching of Joseph Strando, one of the foreigners.

Strando with three others was accused of shooting to death W. E. Chapman, a wealthy resident of this place, and wounding his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Schull, wife of the manager of a local mine.

Several members of the mob which yesterday hanged Strando carried arms today in expectation of attack from the foreign quarter.

DEFFY'S BODY FOUND

WILSONVILLE, Conn., June 11.—The body of Hugh Duffy who has been missing since last Wednesday night was found last night in a small pool one-quarter of a mile from the home of James Welch, with whom he lived.

Since the disappearance the woods and fields for miles about the house have been searched. The pond in which he was found had been dynamited in attempts to locate him. A reward of $100 had been offered for the finding of the body. Suffering from rheumatism Mr. Duffy is thought to have become temporarily demented and to have wandered into the pond.

MR. BRYAN AGAIN

HE ISSUES ANOTHER NOTE, THIS TIME TO GERMAN AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the issuance today of another statement—an appeal to "German-Americans," William Jennings Bryan was expected to rest his case. This is his third since his resignation. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the statement in advance.

In his second statement, addressed to the American people and which was coincidentally issued with the publication of the American rejoinder to the German government's reply to the note following the sinking of the Lusitania, Mr. Bryan asked the public to "sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than share responsibility for it."

He contends that the American note conforms to the standards of the old system of force, while he is an advocate of the new system of persuasion and "as a humble follower of the Prince of Peace," pleads that the United States lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Mr. Bryan expresses confidence that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, but says good intentions are not enough. He adds that if the public verdict is against him he asks no mercy, declaring that public men must be "willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution."

A MURDER CONFESSION

BOSTON, June 11.—Joseph, alias Delevan Rogers, one of the two implicated in the murder of Samuel Cohen, the South End junkman, at 114 Springfield street, on May 29, arrived at police headquarters yesterday from Jersey City in custody of Sergeant William Livingston and Inspector Thomas Towle.

Rogers, who had already made a confession in Jersey City to the Boston office, confessed it when he made a lengthy statement to Captain Anstey Armstrong.

Rogers plainly showed the ordeal he has been through, and he told the officers that he realized his position, but denied that he fired the shot that killed Cohen after he and his accomplice now at large had robbed him of $56.

GARMENT WORKERS CASE

TWO JAIL SENTENCES IMPOSED AND ABOUT FIFTY DEFENDANTS FINED

BOSTON, June 11.—Judge Irwin of the superior criminal court yesterday disposed of 62 strike cases, the aftermath of the recent strike of the garment workers. Pleas of nolo were accepted in some cases and pleas of guilty to various offenses in others, and the remaining defendants were discharged. Although the judges in the lower courts had imposed many prison sentences in disposing of the cases, only two imprisonments, of one month each, were given by Judge Irwin.

Giuseppe Festa, one of the strikers, charged with disorderly conduct, and Rinaldo Leone, charged with assaulting a garment worker, were the two sentenced to prison. Max Vally was at first sentenced for the same term, but when Judge Irwin learned he had just purchased a business of his own, and has a wife and two children, one of them in the hospital, he placed the case on file.

Fines of $50 each were imposed on Meyer Segal and David Stefano, who were charged with striking the proprietor of a shop, and Max Silverman was fined $20 and Vincenzo Savignano $25 for assaults. Max Cohen was fined $20 and Max Lipren $15, also for assaults. Lipren paid his fine but the others were committed to jail in default of the money.

SACRED HEART FEAST

OBSERVED BY CHILDREN OF ST. MICHAEL'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL THIS MORNING

The feast of the Sacred Heart was observed in an impressive manner by the children of St. Michael's parochial school this morning, who attended mass at 9 o'clock, which was sung by Rev. Fr. Mullen in the absence of the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw. A feature of the service was the consecration of the children to the Sacred Heart, each child receiving a Sacred Heart badge which was blessed during the mass, the children reciting in unison the act of consecration. Fr. Mullen preached on the apostleship of prayer and love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The music incidental to the service was inspiring, being given by the entire school, a chorus of over 500 juvenile voices and the hymns sung were "Hymn to the Sacred Heart," "O Salutaris," "Tantum Ergo" and "Holy God We Praise Thy Name." There were many adults at the mass.

KING OF GREECE TAKING THE DARDANELLES

His Condition Shows Little if Any Improvement

LONDON, June 11, 3:35 a. m.—The bulletin issued at Athens last evening regarding the condition of King Constantine, says a Reuter despatch, was as follows:

"The king's temperature is 98.5; his pulse 102 and his respiration 17. There is an abundant flow of matter, which is not of good quality. The inflammation in the kidneys continues with a slight increase of albumen."

CONDUCTOR CONROY DEAD

VICTIM OF YESTERDAY'S ACCIDENT PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

The many friends of Walter J. Conroy and especially the members of the Street Car Men's union, will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred last evening at St. John's hospital, where he had been removed in the morning following a car accident which took place in Bridge street shortly after nine o'clock.

As was stated in yesterday's issue of The Sun, Mr. Conroy was changing the signs of his car which was going to Dracut Centre, when he was struck and thrown to the ground by an inbound car, receiving a fracture of the skull. After an examination at the hospital all hope for his recovery was given up and despite the best of medical attendance the young man passed away shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Deceased was 34 years of age and is survived by his wife, two children, Edward W. and Francis A., his mother, Mrs. Anna Conroy, three brothers, James, Frank and William, and two sisters, Mrs. William Smith and Miss Anna C. Conroy. He was a member of local 250, Street Railway Men's union. For a number of years Mr. Conroy was conductor on the Nashua line, where he made a host of friends through polite manners and genial disposition. Deceased was always very courteous with the passengers and all who knew him had a good word for him. His demise will be keenly felt by his many acquaintances and particularly by his superior officers, who were well aware of his efficiency as a railroad man.

CAPTAIN VON MUECKE SAYS IT IS IMPOSSIBLE—SAYS WATER SUPPLY CAN BE CUT OFF

VIENNA, via wireless to London, June 11, 8:45 a. m.—An interview with Captain von Muecke, formerly of the German cruiser Emden, in which he says the forcing of the Dardanelles and the taking of Constantinople are impossible, is published by the newspapers here. He declares submarines are likely to cut off the water supply of allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula which would compel them to surrender as they would be unable to return to their transports.

Captain von Muecke says the guns of the British warships have been damaged by hard usage and super-dreadnought Queen Elizabeth soon will be compelled to withdraw on this account. He asserts that the Turks have plenty of ammunition and are magnificent fighters. They lost heavily at first, but now have dug themselves in and are using the best means possible to destroy allied landing parties.

Captain von Muecke apparently has arrived at Vienna on his way to Berlin after having piloted the landing party which was under his command when the Emden was sunk, from Cocos Island to safety at Damascus, whence it was not difficult for them to reach Constantinople.

BEATEN AND ROBBED

LEWISTON, Me., June 11.—Thomas McNamara was beaten into insensibility by three men near his home, two miles out of this city, last night and robbed of between $500 and $700. Mr. McNamara was unable to give any clue to his assailants, one of whom wore a mask. The assault and robbery took place on an unfrequented road and the police believe the men escaped in an automobile.

LOST NURSE FOUND

FRAMINGHAM, June 11.—Following a search of the past few days which involved the police departments of five cities and towns, Miss Helen Carter, 28, a nurse, who disappeared from Framingham, was located Wednesday at the home of a brother in Revere. Miss Carter, it is understood, was suffering from a mental strain.

Going Out of the Furniture Business

The above statement is not merely a catch phrase to create some extra business, but a fact. For the past several years we specialized in handling stove repair parts, carrying same in stock, for all kinds of stoves and ranges. This branch of our business has grown to such an extent that we must give it more space, and in order to accomplish this we have decided to give up everything in the furniture line and in the future confine our stock to Stoves, Floor Coverings and Bedding only and an increased stock of stove repairs.

YES WE ARE SELLING OUT

Entire stock of Refrigerators, Go-Carts, Baby Carriages, Buffets, Dining Tables, Dressers, Art Squares, Linoleums, Oil Cloths and Bedding reduced to prices never heard of before. Act quickly. Our stock is not large and will not last long. This is a chance of a lifetime for you to get some real bargains.

REMEMBER, we are not going out of business and we are not going to move from our present location. Our future business will be confined specially to stove repair parts for all kinds of stoves and ranges and an increased stock of stoves, iron and brass beds and floor coverings of all kinds. Nothing in furniture. We are going to change our name, too. It will be Quinn Stove Repair & Supply Co.

ANOTHER VICTORY OVER LEWISTON

Lowell Earned Verdict

Lowell triumphed over Lewiston yesterday for the second time in as many days, defeating the Maine club by giving a fast, heady exhibition of the national pastime to a 3-1 finish.

Opposed to the local batters was a person named Whittaker and this same person can pitch by the way. Lohman was on duty for Lowell and his heavy-duty was also good although classy fielding behind him helped him on several occasions. Whittaker twisted the edge ball.

Two of Lowell's runs came across as the result of squeeze plays and the other tally was scored when the Lewiston pitcher cut loose a wild heave with Barrows on third. The game in detail:

First Inning
Lohman took Maloney's grounder and umpire McGauley called the runner out. The play was close. Becker hit a grounder toward center and beyond McGauley's reach to the bleachers and Becker went to second. He was caught off second, taking a big hit. Sweeney's grounder was taken by Prysock while coming in hard. It was a slow grounder and the Lewiston pitcher played it the only way to get the speedy Sweeney. Whittaker hopped into the air and took Deeg's grounder either the ball went beyond his reach or he was too slow. Barrows' bat swept the ball over Becker's head for a long triple to center. It was a great clout and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Deeg at the bat, Whittaker was wild and his fourth ball was a Bernie. Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Simpson's grounder over second and threw to Deegville a second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was inspired by the same method as Simpson. McGauley struck out, the first sacker not swinging at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Second Inning
Denoville struck out going after Lohman's curve on his last strike. Sweeney trotted into the diamond near the box where he caught McCarthy's high fly. Fahey then made a great stop of Phillips' hard smash over his head, but found it in time to get the runner at first. Ritter tried to drive a liner through our third sacker, but this time the ball was low enough for Fahey to hold onto. Barrows' bat swept the ball over Becker's head for a long triple to center. It was a great clout and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Deeg at the bat, Whittaker was wild and his fourth ball was a Bernie. Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Simpson's grounder over second and threw to Deegville a second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was inspired by the same method as Simpson. McGauley struck out, the first sacker not swinging at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Third Inning
Prysock drove out a double to left. Sweeney trotted into the diamond near the box where he caught McCarthy's high fly. Fahey then made a great stop of Phillips' hard smash over his head, but found it in time to get the runner at first. Ritter tried to drive a liner through our third sacker, but this time the ball was low enough for Fahey to hold onto. Barrows' bat swept the ball over Becker's head for a long triple to center. It was a great clout and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Deeg at the bat, Whittaker was wild and his fourth ball was a Bernie. Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Simpson's grounder over second and threw to Deegville a second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was inspired by the same method as Simpson. McGauley struck out, the first sacker not swinging at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Fourth Inning
Becker's short fly to left was gathered in by Simpson though it looked as if the ball would drop in safe territory. Barrows' bat swept the ball over Becker's head for a long triple to center. It was a great clout and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Deeg at the bat, Whittaker was wild and his fourth ball was a Bernie. Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Simpson's grounder over second and threw to Deegville a second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was inspired by the same method as Simpson. McGauley struck out, the first sacker not swinging at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Fifth Inning
McCarthy's bat crashed through the atmosphere three times. Lohman took care of Phillips' line drive without moving from his tracks. Ritter hit a fly that was fairly a few feet in short left. Deegville drove the ball and Simpson allowed him to make the catch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Denoville juggled McGauley's ground-

MANAGER "CUKE" BARROWS

er but managed to field it in time to Whittaker who covered the sack for a put-out, or at least the umpire called it that. McGauley did not look any better today on his decisions than yesterday. Fahey's fly in right center went into Phillips' hands. Lohman was easily thrown out by Whittaker on his weak grounder to the box. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Sixth Inning
Lohman speared Prysock's grounder and threw him out at first. The visiting pitcher was a weak proposition at the bat, his three swings in this inning being useless. Fahey made a nice stop of Maloney's hard grounder along the third base line, but could not cover it in time to get the batter. If the blow had gotten by Fahey, Maloney would surely have gone to second. Becker drove a long triple to right center which easily scored Maloney. Becker overran the bag and Ahearn pointed out to McGauley that a catcher in the third base coaching box had touched Becker. McGauley called him out and a host of indignation came from the Lewiston bench as the players surrounded the ump. After a lot of talking the game was resumed. Under protest of the Lewiston team, their claim being that the runner touched the coach instead of the reverse. One run, two hits, no errors.

Sweeney singled to right but Deeg, following him, hit into a double play when he grounded to Whittaker. The batter threw to second, forcing out Sweeney and Deeg shot off at first. Prysock scooped up Barrows' creeper and his throw to Denoville sent the Lowell players back to their holding positions. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 1.

Seventh Inning
Deeg pulled down Holmes' short drive toward left and Fahey tucked away Denoville's infield fly. McCarthy dumped a Texas leaguer into short center and then stole second. Ahearn's throw being slow, Phillips was able to reach first when the umpire called four bad ones. Ritter then struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Lewiston players made several satirical remarks about Ahearn. They claimed that he was influencing the umpire's decisions. "Ah, get a job as an umpire, one of them valley while Ahearn asked if he could be carried Ahearn with him to call balls and strikes. Some of the remarks were very funny. Bowcock died on a grounder to McCarthy. Simpson's long smash was tucked away by Becker. Ahearn concluded the seventh round with a strike-out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 1.

Eighth Inning
Fahey yanked down Prysock's grounder and pegged to McGauley for the runner's retirement. Bowcock threw out Whittaker on his slow roller. Maloney slashed a single between Fahey and Deeg in the left but went out a moment later when he tried to steal second. Ahearn's peg being O. K. runs, one hit, no errors.

McGauley hit to throw Prysock. Prysock picked up the ball a few inches from the ground and threw to first. The ball was low and went to the first base bleachers, McGauley taking second. The umpire called him out. Prysock ruled that Prysock made a clean catch of the drive. Fahey crossed up the Lewiston defense when he bunted safely and then stole second. Lohman hit to Maloney at short left Sweeney was thrown out at first by Ritter. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 1.

Ninth Inning
Becker went on a close decision on a grounder to Deeg. Deeg also threw out Denoville. No runs, no hits, no errors.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The West Ends of the Acre defeated the North Chelmsford White Sox on Saturday by the score of 17 to 2.

The Junior A. C. made it five straight Saturday by defeating Beechard's team in the morning by the score of 21-14 and the Methuen A. C. in the afternoon by the score of 14-2. We will play Beechard's team Saturday morning at 9 o'clock for a quarter ball.

The Pleasant Street Stars would like a challenge from any 2 or 10 year old team in the city. Our lineup is as follows: J. Macafee, C. H. Renc, P. F. Flinnerty, 1b, J. Burns, 2b, C. Hancock, 3b, E. Carver, ss, J. Hainesworth, lf, Garvey, rf and H. Monahan, lf. Send all challenges to Manager Austin Brennan, 165 Pleasant street.

The South End Juniors would like to challenge any 12 or 13 year old team in the city for one quarter ball. Send manager at 87 Summer street. The lineup is as follows: Walter Witham, c, J. J. Lowe, p, Edward Doughy, lf, John Patten, 2b, William Ryan, ss, Michael Flood, 3b, Michael Zavan, rf, Armond Evans, lf, Manuel Farner, cf.

ATHLETE ACTORS

Princeton Stadium the Scene of Greek Plays
Today and Tomorrow

PRINCETON, N. J., June 11.—Princeton's athletes will perform in the stadium this afternoon, but in the role of actors and not as athletes. A number of the prominent football and crew men have responded to Granville Barker's call for students to supe in his Greek plays, which are to be given in the Palmer stadium.

The list includes I. Swart and W. Swart, R. Nourse, track and football man; Heyniger and Longstreth, substitute guards; Kaufman and Balsey, two freshmen eleven men, and McKibben, Hedron and Winant of the crew. Present indications point to a crowd of about 1000 at the performances this afternoon and Saturday morning.

DIAMOND DAZZLES

Lowell looks like a different aggregation nowadays than the club which well might be disgusted with its ragged fielding and poor judgment. One couldn't ask for better baseball than the locals have furnished during the last two days at Spalding park.

It looks as though Pres. Rauch was jinxed. There hasn't been a sign of ivory displayed since he found himself a seat on the home bench. Perhaps the thoughts of last night's defeat have cleared up what was there was among the local players.

Walter Ahern must be given the largest share of credit for the present finger among our ranks. The big catcher has fastidiously more life in the team than it seemed possible.

The Lewiston players surely took a dislike to Ahern yesterday. The Lowell catcher talked to Emory McGauley quite frequently and the visitors accused him of diving decisions. Perhaps he did at that. Anyhow the umpire did not approve Ahern's crew.

Out of the cellar at last and now let's see that we stay out and climb up into faster company. The kind of baseball we have seen the past couple of days is too speedy for any place other than the top positions.

Matty Zieser of the Lowell team is on a fair way to long up a record for hitting players. If he continues at his present pace, he will be hitting .300. Up to Wednesday he hit 11 players, which is an unusually large number. On May 1, he hit Garfield of Worcester; May 6, Sullivan of Boston of Fitchburg; May 8, Kibben of Manchester; May 11, Lynch of Lynn; May 18, Duggan and Smith of Fitchburg; May 27, Collins of Worcester; June 1, McCoskey and Kane of Manchester; June 1, Flaherty of Lawrence; June 7, Keegan of Worcester. —Lawrence Tribune.

If any one wants a jinx for a pet or companion he may obtain a well-trained one from Raymond Keating of Bridgeport, Conn. and the Polo Grounds. Ray is of the opinion that Leon Ames' old Polo Grounds jinx wishes to be adopted by the Keating family, and brother jinx hangs around despite "Keats" warlike objection.

History is repeating itself for Ray. Last season the big ball artist took a game early in April, which was his lone triumph until last July. He went into July with one win and ten defeats, despite the fact that he pitched some pretty fair ball. After that, however, he was a different ball player. He closed the season with seven victories against eleven defeats.

This season Keating is moving along in his ball manner. He won his first game from the Red Sox, 2 to 0. Since then he always has pitched good ball but is generally on the short end by one run. The Athletics beat him, 10 to 1; the Indians, 10 to 3; the White Sox, 7 to 5; the Red Sox, 2 to 3 (thirteen innings); and the Tigers, 2 to 2. It is any wonder that "Keats" feels certain that he and the fates are on bad terms?

The oldest baseball in existence is owned by the president of the East and church baseball league in Pittsburgh. The ball is nearly 50 years old. It was used in a championship game between the Eclipse team of Kingston, N. Y., and the Hudson team of Newburgh, N. Y. The game was played June 20, 1862 and ended 19 to 15 in favor of the Kingston team. The ball is made of one piece horsehide sewed in the center. The ball carries $300 burglary insurance and $500 fire insurance. It was given to its present owner by John Miller, who is 80 years old and who played first base on the Eclipse team.

Jesse C. Burkett of the Worcester team lost Catcher, Walter Ahern because Worcester was on the road last week. Ahern wrote to Burkett, but Burkett did not get the letter until he got back to Worcester. In the meantime Walter signed with Lowell. —Exchange.

Our old friend Hube DeGroot has been heard from and the old boy is just sticking in old time form for the Wilkesbarre team of the New York State League. When Manager Pete Noonan signed up the former Lowell outfielder the fans of Wilkesbarre yelled murder at Noonan at getting a player who was supposed to be "all in." The Hube has shown them that he is far from being "all in" and he is hitting the ball very hard, while his fielding has been excellent.

Billie Peters of the Lawrence Tribune says: "There has been a load on my shoulders for some time and I know of no better time to shake it off. When Dan Noonan announced last winter that he had traded Larry Mahoney to New London for Jake Warner we yelled 'murder' falling for the hook that Warner was an 'old truck horse'—that the locals were getting stung. It so happened the Eastern association did not start and Mahoney was saved to the champs, for which turn of affairs the fans were most thankful. As for Warner, he may be an 'awkwardly slow feller, who covers no ground,' but if this characterization is so Jake has not shown it in the games he played for Lawrence to date. Warner is the premier second sacker of the New England league and performing to the satisfaction of the club and the fans."

"The game played between Worcester and Lowell May 1 was really the shortest game played in the New England league this season. The full nine innings took up one hour and 23 minutes. Manchester and Worcester played a game in one hour and 20 minutes May 11, but it was only eight and one-half innings."

The veteran Benny Bowcock is back in the New England league, playing with Lowell. Bowcock went west last fall and this spring joined the Seattle club of the Northwestern league along with Louie Courtney. Courtney was released by Lynn, while Portland gave Bowcock that liberty. Courtney returned east some time ago.

If the Fitchburg reports are correct—that Mike Lynch threw the third sack into left field he should be forcibly reminded that he is but a small fish in a big pond. He did a "fish" thing here last Saturday when just because Lynn lost he threw the ball last into play into right field. —Lawrence Tribune.

Harry H. Aubrey has yet to umpire a game in Lowell. The season is long, yet Harry has not worked in the Spindle city.

INJURIES TO ATHLETES
MALDEN, June 11.—After a controversy the athletic board of Malden high school has agreed to pay Capt. Arthur C. Doyle of the baseball team $35 for medical treatment following an injury sustained by him during the football season last fall. Doyle was hurt during a contest, but the athletic board refused to pay the bill when it was first rendered.

Walter Powe of this season's baseball team will receive $1.50 to have repairs made on two teeth which were damaged when he was struck in the mouth with a bat.

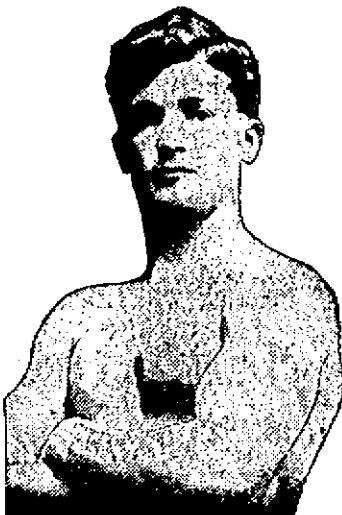

TO GET RID OF UNSIGHTLY HAIRS

There is only one safe and sure way to get rid of hairs—and that is to dissolve them—then you kill the hair roots entirely. To do this, get one ounce of simple sulfo solution from your druggist—apply with the finger tip—keep the hairs moist for a minute or two. You will see them gradually shrivel up and dissolve—wash the parts with warm water—and you will find that the hairs have disappeared entirely—leaving the skin soft and smooth as velvet, without a mark or scar of any kind.

People Used to Call Me "Skinny"

But Now My Name Has Changed
Gained 15 Pounds and

Look Like a New Man

A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. Have gained 15 pounds and an excellent 'look like a new man,' declared a man who had just finished the Sargol treatment."

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work. I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put 10 pounds on me in 14 days," writes W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

Would you, too, like to quickly put from 10 to 30 pounds of good, solid "stay-there" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bones? Don't say it can't be done. Try it. More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the test, and that Sargol does succeed, does make thin folks fat even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic emulsions, no massage, oils or diet. Fresh cream, massage, oils or diet. Louis K. Liggett Co., Carter & Sherburne Co., Falls & Burlington, C. F. George & Co., E. J. Butler & Co., Fred Howard, Lowell Pharmacy, Phelps' Pharmacy, Thos. C. Walker, Roy F. Webster, A. L. Fields and other leading druggists in Lowell and vicinity sell SARGOL in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

HIS NOSE BROKEN

Bobby Schang Got an Awful Bang in the Face

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—Bobby Schang, the Pirate catcher, is in a hospital today suffering from injuries received during batting practice yesterday, when a bat slipped from the hands of Bill Hinchman and struck him in the face. Schang's nose was broken in two places, three teeth were knocked out and he was badly bruised. Although his injuries are painful, physicians do not believe he will be kept out of the game long.

CHARLEY WHITE
Charley White, the Chicago lightweight, now has a record of winning seven of his last eight bouts with knockouts. He naturally feels that such performances entitle him to a match with Lightweight Champion Welsh, but he isn't passing any of the tough nuts up on his way to the championship goal. He shows this by taking on Young Brown, the rugged New Yorker, at the American Sporting club next Wednesday night. Brown won his last bout with a knockout, too, and enjoyed the distinction of having put Al Wells flat on his back when the latter was England's champion lightweight.

THE MARRIED TEACHER

BOSTON CHAIRMAN OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND SUPERINTENDENT CONDEMN HAVERTHILL RULE

BOSTON, June 11.—The precedent established by the school committee in the city of Haverhill yesterday, when, after a lengthy meeting, it was voted that a woman teacher who married was still eligible to remain on the teaching staff, is not a welcome attitude and would not be received with approval in Boston, according to the views of Michael Corcoran, chairman of the school committee, and Superintendent Franklin P. Dyer.

"I would positively oppose such a measure as this instance in Haverhill," declared Chairman Corcoran, when interviewed on the question last night. "You can also quote me as saying," continued the chairman, "that I do not believe in it for a minute. That is my personal opinion regarding the matter, but as far as such a thing ever occurring here, I would say that it is out of the question."

When asked for a statement regarding the Haverhill case, Superintendent Dyer refused to pronounce judgment on that individual case. He said: "From my years of experience I have always found that when a teacher marries, she is ready to resign her position—as a rule she marries for a home, and her home duties do not permit her either the time or inclination for further carrying on the school work."

"I can truthfully say that in the 30 years I have been identified with school work I have never known but one instance when a teacher married and was reluctant about handing in her resignation. That case, though I would not want to state positively, was due to what I would call a convenience marriage. The woman had been on the teaching staff for several years."

JURY COULDN'T AGREE
BOSTON, June 11.—After seven hours of futile deliberation the jury in the suit of Miss Maude Birch, formerly a seamstress in the employ of the family of Prof. Percival Lowell, against the latter's wife, Mrs. Constance S. Lowell, for damages for alleged slander and malicious prosecution, reported a disagreement yesterday before Judge Raymond in the superior court.

BRYAN'S MISSION

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has once again discovered that he has a great mission to perform, and true to his inspiration he has set out to perform it. What matters it that he has embarrassed the government, put grave obstacles in the way of President Wilson, made of American diplomacy a thing to be ridiculed in the government circles of all nations and run counter to the expressed opinion of the American people? The super-sensitive conscience of Bryan has whispered, and it is for him to obey, as Don Quixote obeyed the call of chivalry. Like Don Quixote, too, Mr. Bryan has discovered great wrongs and he is up and away to right them.

It was inevitable that in any crisis demanding close attention to details and familiarity with international affairs, a break should come between President Wilson and his premier. Mr. Bryan is pre-eminently a man of peace, and it is so hard you know to keep at peace permanently if you send diplomatic notes to foreign governments. Far better in the opinion of the former secretary that we put all thoughts of evil out of our hearts, persuade ourselves that every government on earth is ready to throw sugar plums at us, and send messages of love and exalted inspiration to everybody. Of course there is such a thing as international law but it is mostly scraps of paper as some people seem to imagine.

Mr. Bryan is in many ways a most remarkable man and a great force for good, but he should never have been made secretary of state, unless it was meant to show the American people what a mistake he would have been as president. His honesty of motive is above question; his sincerity is undoubted and his ideals glitter like soap bubbles, but his judgment is warped and his sense of proportion has been torpedoed. He suffers too from the exaggerated ego, though he puts his manifold perfections at the service of America and the world.

America has no great fault to find with Mr. Bryan's resignation in its relation to this country, but there is one grave impropriety in it that would have kept a less self-centered man in the cabinet. It will create a very bad impression abroad and give unfriendly governments an opportunity to allege that the American public is not united behind President Wilson. In this light, Bryan's resignation is an act of great indecency and disloyalty, and though he pays homage to his chief, his action proves otherwise, and actions still speak louder than words. The country will follow the immediate career of our great peace prophet with intense curiosity, waiting to see how much of the resignation was prompted by his heart and how much by his head.

Mr. Bryan is about to go into the highways and byways of the nation in the cause of peace. He does not wish this nation to go to war. Who wishes this nation to go to war? What is Bryan going to fight? He has admitted that President Wilson seeks the same ends, and if it comes to a choice between the two men, the American people will stand with the great leader who has steered the ship of state so wisely through dangerous seas and earned for himself the confidence of his own country and the admiration of the world. Mr. Bryan on the contrary has attracted considerable attention, but most complimentary notices of him of late have been prefaced by an apology. He means well but—Only goes to prove that good men are not necessarily great and that something is needed in the game of practical diplomacy besides a benign expression, a good voice, peerless vocabulary and supernatural confidence in the motives of all foreign powers.

How will Bryan's resignation and his announcement of his peace mission affect the German answer to the American note? How would Von Jagow's resignation affect us, under similar circumstances? Suppose that before the last German reply was sent us, Von Jagow had gone to the kaiser, refused to sign the note and announced his intention of preaching a different policy. Would it not make the German note look a little sick? If the American note does not look sick to the German government, it is not Bryan's fault. True, it is, however, that Bryan, in this, speaks for a section of the American public of which the greater part is Bryan himself. Yet his arguments will probably be seized by Germany and hurled back at President Wilson in reply to the note just sent. That is how Mr. Bryan will assist in opposing President Wilson in standing for the rights and interests of this nation. If Mr. Bryan could not conscientiously support President Wilson in his attitude, he was justified in resigning, but he is not justified in going out on the public platform to assail the president's stand and stir up factional strife that will embarrass the administration and give comfort to the enemies of our country.

THAT NEW BRIDGE

In planning for the new bridge at Pawtucketville, the municipal council seems to have gone very loosely about the work to say the least. Without adequately informing the public as to the details of the plan, or providing for any competition, the city authorities have arranged for its construction on very uncertain grounds and without safeguarding the public interest in an adequate manner. In a minor proposition, this mode of procedure might be overlooked, but in an undertaking that will surely involve the spending of $80,000 and that may possibly involve the spending of considerably more, the public would like to see business done differently.

If the occasion was so pressing that we were compelled to erect the bridge without delay, one might understand the haste of the municipal council, but the building of bridges, the supplying of steel and the making of cement are not confined to one firm, and there should have been a fair and open opportunity for all bridge builders who cared to bid to submit their plans before anything definite was done. But Mayor Murphy said he would have no contract work and the council assented. Furthermore, the municipal council did not act with a proper sense of responsibility to the public in agreeing as to cost before the specifications were drawn up. It would be better that we had definite plans before we talked price; all private concerns readily understand the danger of deciding on a certain sum for improvements and making plans to suit.

So far as the actual cost is concerned, the bridge may possibly be erected within the $80,000 if Engineer Denman and Commissioner Morse agree on the labor question. The out of town engineer had some very positive views as to contract labor, etc. at the start, but he has moderated them considerably in the face of local opposition. Possibly if the specifications were rigid on the question of cost, his views would be more rigid. City jobs have a way of running away. They are appropriations, even when the specifications or contracts are more specific and satisfactory than in this case. The municipal council has taken a playgrounds in all sections. With a little co-operation between the park department and private owners, temporary ball grounds might be opened during the summer months without much cost to the department in many lots and stretches, of undeveloped property. We cannot go too far in promoting organized and supervised play, for nothing conduces more to crime than the promiscuous mixing of youngsters without safeguard or protection against the influence of toughs and undesirables.

The young women who have volunteered their services as supervisors over the summer playgrounds deserve the thanks of the city, and it is to be hoped that their unselfish service will bring to them some of the pleasure it will give to others.

LYMAN ABBOTT'S VIEWS

Dr. Lyman Abbott of the Outlook is well known as a pacifist, or what Mr. Taft calls a pacifist, but there is something more inspiring in his ideals of peace than in those of more advertised peace propagandists. He does not believe in peace at any price, as he explained at a recent dinner of the Army and Navy league. The following excerpt from his address will appeal to all good Americans whether they be inclined to follow the banner of Gardner or that of Bryan:

I am sorry to say that recent events have shown myself and a great many others that the era of the appeal to reason is a great deal farther off than we thought. The first fundamental of government is protection of persons and property. If it does not protect it has no right to be called a government. I respect the men of the peace societies but I do not respect their opinion. They are not preaching peace but anarchy. If there is no navy to protect neutrality on the high seas then every ship must go armed, and that would mean international piracy. I am not for war, but we do want to be prepared to meet war if it comes to us. One thing is certain, this nation must have an army and navy adequate to fulfill its duty to itself and the world.

It is inevitable that in consideration of such a momentous question as war, there should be widely conflicting opinions, and it is plain that earnest men hold widely diverging views, but the extreme peace theory is as silly as the extreme preparedness theory. This nation does not desire war with any power on earth, but if the theories of some of our workers for peace had obtained in the days of Washington, there would be no United States.

ROAD TO BILLERICA

The improvement of the Boston road from the Lowell-Chelmsford line to Billerica will be an improvement indeed, and one that will give a more favorable impression of Lowell to anybody approaching the city from that direction. This road has been one of the poor entrances to Lowell so persistently condemned by press and public for the past few years, and the improvement of it in the near future will be in keeping with other commendable improvements. The bettering of this link between Lowell and Boston, the improvement of Rogers street and the construction of a new road along the river to join the new state road at Indian Orchard would give Lowell up-to-date entrances and exits and would remove a blemish that has been all too apparent for many years.

PROPOSED PARK

The proposition for a new park in Pawtucketville, favored by the board of trade, is an excellent one, and the only possible exception will be on the ground of cost. Lowell has neglected its river banks too long, and therefore its greatest park opportunities have been discarded, but even at this late date it is gratifying to find that we are recognizing the beauty and potential utility of our river banks. If the land in Pawtucketville is not developed for park purposes, it will be only a short time before it is cut up for building purposes, and another fine stretch of river bank will have gone the way of all the rest. By all means let us have a new park to set off the new bridge, offer a pleasing prospect in the approach to Pawtucketville and be a boon to the children of that congested district.

WORKED ALL RIGHT

A minister in a neighboring town a few Sundays ago surprised his audience by reading the following announcement: "The regular session of the Donkey club will be held as usual at the close of the service. Members will line up just outside of the church door, make remarks and stare at the ladies as they pass, as is their custom. Any member known to escort a lady to church and sit with her like a gentleman will be expelled from membership."

EARTH'S AWAKENING

I love to watch the earth arise, to rub her dull and drowsy eyes, to yawn and stretch and with a bound land firmly on the velvet ground. I love to see the bright array of colors for a bit of a day, to make the world a fairy den for nature and the haunts of men. I love to feel the wondrous breeze, caressing softly through the trees and sunny warmth of earth and sky to winter calls a last goodbye. I love the singing birds and river, but best of all I love the giver, for He has made the whole world sing that we might have a joyous spring.—Juanita H. Ford in The Bolder Monthly.

PAY AS YOU GO

It seems hard to live within a limited income, yet people do it. They exist on the bare necessities. They realize that poverty is a cheerless companion. Yet they live within their income. The monthly bills are paid. They look the world in the face, fearlessly. The temptation to spend is great. They can spend because credit is always easily obtained even by the most unworthy. But credit is, in the long run, a nemesis of worry, the destroyer of peace and happiness. Debt is a tyrant, relentless and obdurate. Pay as you go and you will be happy.

It may seem impossible. Try it.

A seeker after information about the mysterious assault upon one Billy Patterson came to the front with a letter of inquiry in a New York paper asking particulars about the alleged occurrence of many years ago, the circumstances of which have never been satisfactorily explained. The battery legend of Billy Patterson has existed for several generations during which no one has come forward to give an explanation of its mysterious origin, much less to answer the inquiry, "Who struck Billy Patterson?"

The anxious inquirer signs himself James Gay Fox, Washington, D. C., and we repeat his questions relative to the bit of "American mythology" about which he seems so perturbed. In the hope that his queries may fall under the eye of some one who may be able to give him the information which he seeks. Here is his letter:

"I can't find any one to tell me what is the meaning and importance of the question: 'Who struck Billy Patterson?' I am told it is a joke, but where in thunder is the joke? I asked ten men and they laughed; but they couldn't tell me. Is Billy Patterson a myth? I've looked in all the encyclopedias in the Congressional library and can't find any mention of a Billy Patterson who was famous for being struck. So if he is not a myth, kindly tell me: 'Who was Billy Patterson?' 'When did Billy Patterson live?' 'Where did Billy Patterson live and move and have his being?' 'Was Billy Patterson when he was struck?' 'Why does anybody care whether somebody struck Billy Patterson?' 'What made the blow that struck Billy Patterson famous?' 'What was Billy Patterson struck for anyway? Did he deserve what he got and did he get what he deserved?' 'Did the blow kill Billy Patterson?' And if it didn't, why in botheration doesn't he come forward and tell us anxious world, once for all, who struck Billy Patterson?"

"I want to know."
"AMOS, MY HIPPOPOTAMUS!"
I bought me a hippopotamus! From a bankrupt animal show. I christened the pachyderm Amos. For he looked like a muss, don't you know. And now he has rendered me famous. For they shout wherever I go: 'He's the master of Amos!' The famous! 'Hippopotamus!'"

Don't you know?
I went to a millionaire's party. But feeling at home I said to him: 'But they didn't welcome me hearty. And remarks were passed unkind. Then a supercilious snarly sneer: 'Sit your brother's behind. I turns an 'twas Amos, my hippopotamus! Seekin' myself to find. O, Amos, my hippopotamus. You've made me famous, 'tis true! Yet, Amos, they blame us, and try to defame us. Because that we're chumps, they do. But Amos, Amos, my hippopotamus. They never can shame us—their lies won't lame us. Nor would you maintain us, for whatever they may be. They can't break our friendship true. 'Never mind the right pronunciation—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE ZEPPELINS

The Zeppelins have proved to be of slight utility in war. Their known achievements are in the bombing of cities, killing a few score women and children and non-combatant men and destroying some property, have brought no military advance but much of moral loss. And the thrilling story of the destruction, near Ghent, of a giant airship by a monoplane pursuing it over Belgium from the raid on the east coast of England, shows how easily a prey such a monster gas-bag structure may be by an aeroplane operated by a daring aviator.—Worcester Post.

CONSTANTINOPLE

With Constantinople in the hands of the allies, a decisive barrier will be erected to Germany's aspirations in the southeast. There is no question of her desire to expand eventually through Austria and Turkey to Asia Minor and so on to the Persian gulf. But with Russia entrenched on the Bosphorus, a neutral state established at the strait, she can no longer hope for the fulfillment of her dream. In scarcely another year could her imperial ambitions be more impressively checked than by taking the Turkish capital out of weak hands and placing it in strong ones. The Kaiser must see with bitterness the gradual creeping of the allies towards the famous capital on which he has so long had his eye.—Providence Journal.

TOWN GOVERNMENT

While it is undoubtedly true that no better form of democracy exists than that of town government as it was known in the days of the colonies, it is equally true that some other form becomes necessary when the voters of a town outnumber the people that can be assembled in the town hall.—Lynn Item.

COUNT BERNSTORFF

These burdens are heavier and more trying for Count Bernstorff than they would be for a man of coarser fibre. Count Bernstorff is a man of culture, of social attainments, inherently and by training a gentleman. It is fitting, therefore, that the people of America should think and speak of him with kindly feeling and with sympathetic appreciation of the burdens he is carrying.—Providence Tribune.

POINT OF VIEW

Dr. Kuno Meyer roundly scores Harvard for allowing its students to impugn German principles, and a professor in the University of Rochester declares himself unable to teach German because its present principles are not according to the ideals of Goethe and Schiller. It all seems to depend on the point of view.—Brockton Times.

MAJ. A. B. PUTNAM DEAD

MALDEN'S FIRST APPOINTEE TO WEST POINT SUCCEEDS SUDDENLY

MALDEN, June 11.—Word was received here yesterday of the sudden death in Little Rock, Ark., of Major Alfred Burpee Putnam, Malden's first appointee to West Point. Maj. Putnam died Tuesday. He was 35 years old. He was a native of Malden, a son of the late Henry L. Putnam, sealer of weights and measures. He attended Malden High and was graduated from the military academy in 1895. Major Putnam had served in the Philippines, San Francisco, Puget Sound and in the south. In Little Rock he had charge of engineering projects. He is survived by a wife, who was Miss Myrtle Harris of this city; a son, two brothers, Frederic L. Putnam and Otis C. Putnam of Melrose, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Bellow of Texas and Miss Florence Putnam of this city. The body will be brought here next Sunday.

BRYAN TO ADDRESS ELKS

WILL APPEAR IN LYNN MONDAY AND GIVE FIRST PUBLIC TALK SINCE RESIGNATION
WASHINGTON, June 11.—Announcement was made yesterday that William J. Bryan had accepted an invitation to be the guest of Lynn lodge of Elks at the flag day celebration to be held in Lynn June 14 under the auspices of that organization.

Ex-senator Bryan will make his first public address since parting with President Wilson at Lynn, where he will be the principal speaker at a celebration. The president declined an invitation some time ago and Sen. Daniels of the navy, who had agreed to visit Lynn, cancelled his acceptance last week.

Before retiring as secretary of state Mr. Bryan had tentatively promised Congressman Phelan to make an address in Lynn and in response to a telegraphic inquiry as to his intention of keeping the tentative engagement Mr. Bryan replied yesterday afternoon that he would visit Lynn.

Senator Lodge, it is understood here, is to make a patriotic address and the bringing together upon the same platform of two such prominent persons in national affairs promises to make the flag day celebration in Lynn conspicuous throughout the country.

A QUARTER CENTURY AGO

Appropos of the proposition of the municipal council to seize the property of the Day Nursery, the O'Leary Home, the Knights of Columbus and other buildings in Kirk and Anne streets, it appears that quarter of a century ago the city council attempted to seize St. Anne's Orphanage in Anne street, also for the purposes of a high school, and they stuck to it despite the protests of the parishioners until public opinion called a halt.

The high school was erected in Kirk and Anne streets but the Orphanage still stands on its original foundation.

At the first meeting in June, 25 years ago of the board of aldermen, the following resolution went through both branches of the city council: "Resolved, That the lot of land situated on the easterly side of Anne street and the westerly side of Kirk street commonly known as the Orphanage lot, and designated as a suitable place for the erection of a building for a high school, and necessary for the enlargement of the present lot adjoining. The committee on education is hereby authorized and directed to proceed with and to arrange for all preliminaries required to properly bring about the matter of taking and laying out said land for school purposes as above set forth."

At the same meeting the following protest from St. Anne's church was tabled without comment:

Lowell, June 10, 1890.

"To His Honor, the Mayor, the Board of Aldermen and the Common Council of the City of Lowell.

"Gentlemen: At a meeting of the rector, warden and vestry of St. Anne's church held in this city, the following paper was read and adopted as the sense of the meeting and it was voted that a copy be sent to the city council, it having been intimated to the rector, warden and vestry of St. Anne's church, a legal corporation under the laws of the commonwealth that a proposition is likely to be made to your honorable body to take for high school purposes the land held in trust for the Theodore Edison orphanage, immediately in the rear of St. Anne's church, they beg leave to set forth, first, that the official communication has been made to them with reference to said property and they have therefore had no opportunity to enter any official objection to its being diverted from its present use.

"2nd. That the work of the orphanage cannot be so effectively or so economically carried on if the institution should be removed from its present location contiguous to the church.

"3rd. That to remove the orphanage from its present location would entail upon it pecuniary loss in the way of legacies and bequests now contingent upon its remaining where it is.

"4th. That the design of the founder of the orphanage, the late Rev. Theodore Edison, D. D., was that it should remain in the place that it now occupies and has occupied for the last 15 years, to this end he purchased said property.

"5th. That land can be obtained, if necessary, for school purposes, upon the other side of the high school building, the procuring of which will not entail so many disastrous consequences.

"6th. That the rector, warden and vestry of St. Anne's church strongly desire to retain possession of this land where the orphanage can be best guided and managed for the accomplishment of the great work to which it is pledged.

"For this and other good and sufficient reasons your honorable body are most respectfully petitioned not to disturb the orphanage in its present location.

"E. M. Burke, Clerk."

The committee on education is hereby authorized and directed to proceed with and to arrange for all preliminaries required to properly bring about the matter of taking and laying out said land for school purposes as above set forth."

LEGAL NOTICES

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS. Middlesex ss. Probate Court. To the next of kin and all others interested in the estate of George F. Gilson, late of Dunstable, in said County, deceased.

Whereas Andrew J. Gilson, the administrator of the estate of said deceased, has presented to said Court for allowance the first account of his administration on said estate, and application has been made for a distribution of the balance in his hands among the next of kin of said deceased.

You are hereby cited to appear at a Probate Court, to be held at Cambridge, in said County of Middlesex, on the twenty-seventh day of May, A. D. 1915, at nine o'clock in the forenoon, to show cause, if any you have, why said account should not be allowed and distribution made according to said application.

And the petitioner is ordered to serve this citation by publishing the same once in each week for three successive weeks in The Lowell Sun, a newspaper published in Lowell, the last publication to be one day, at least, before said Court, and by delivering a copy of this citation to each of the persons interested in the estate seven days at least before said Court.

Witness, Charles J. McIntire, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this third day of June, in the year one thousand nine hundred and fifteen.

DEFENDS HIS RESIGNATION

Bryan Appeals Against Wilson—Addresses "American People" in Support of His Policy

WASHINGTON, June 11.—William Jennings Bryan, in an appeal addressed "To the American People," last night asks them to hear him before they pass sentence upon his laying down the portfolio of secretary of state in the midst of international stress.

Confident that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, Mr. Bryan frankly says that good intentions are not enough, and that if the public verdict is against him, he asks no mercy, asserting that men in public life must be "willing to bear any degree of punishment from ostracism to execution."

Interpreting the American note to Germany on submarine warfare, which he refused to sign, as conforming to the "old system" of diplomatic standards, precedents for which "are written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history," and characterizing himself as a champion of the new system—persuasion instead of force—and as "an humble follower of the Prince of Peace," the former secretary of state pleads for the United States to lead the world out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares.

Bryan's Statement
The text of Mr. Bryan's statement follows:

"To the American People:
You now have before you the text of the note of Germany—the note which I would have been my official duty to sign had I remained secretary of state. I ask you to sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than to share the responsibility for it."

"I am sure you will credit me with honorable motives, but this is not enough. Good intentions count not alone for a mistake and under such circumstances 'if your verdict is against me, I ask no mercy; I desire none if I have acted unwisely.'"

"A man in public life must not accord to his conscience, but how? He must be prepared to accept without complaint any condemnation which his own errors may bring upon him; he must be willing to bear any deserved punishment, from ostracism to execution. But hear me before you pass sentence."

Both Want Peace
"The president and I agree in purpose; we desire a peaceful solution of the dispute which has arisen between the United States and Germany. We not only desire it, but with equal fervor we pray for it; but we differ irreconcilably as to the means of securing it."

"If it were merely a personal difference it would be a matter of little moment, for all the presumptions that go with power and authority. He is your president—I am a private citizen without office or title—but one of the one hundred million of inhabitants."

But the real issue is not between persons; it is between systems, and I rely for indication wholly upon the strength of the position taken."

"Among the influences which governments employ in dealing with each other there are two which are pre-eminent and antagonistic—force and persuasion. Force speaks with firmness and acts through the ultimatum; persuasion employs argument, courts investigation and depends upon negotiation."

"Force represents the old system—the system that must pass away; the persuasion represents the new system—the system that has been growing—all too slowly, it is true, but growing for 1500 years. In the old system war is the chief cornerstone—war which at its best is little better than war at its worst; the new system contemplates an universal brotherhood established through the utilitarian power of example."

"If I correctly interpret the note to Germany, it conforms to the standards of the old system rather than to the rules of the new, and I cheerfully admit that it is abundantly supported by precedents—precedents written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history."

Results of Old System
"Austria furnishes the most recent precedent; it was Austria's firmness that dictated the ultimatum against Serbia, which set the world at war. Every ruler now participating in this unparalleled conflict has proclaimed his desire for peace and denied responsibility for the war, and it is only charitable that we should credit all of them with good faith. They desired peace, but they sought it according to the rules of the old system. They believed that firmness would

TEXT OF AMERICAN REJOINDER TO GERMANY

THE SECRETARY OF STATE AD INTERIM TO THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR AT BERLIN.
Department of State, Washington, June 9, 1915.
AMERICAN AMBASSADOR, BERLIN:

"You are instructed to deliver textually the following note to the Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"In compliance with Your Excellency's request I did not fail to transmit to my government immediately upon their receipt of your note of May 23 in reply to my note of May 15, and your supplementary note of June 1, setting forth the conclusions so far as reached by the Imperial German government concerning the attacks on the American steamers Cushing and Gulfight. I am now instructed by my government to communicate the following reply:

"The government of the United States notes with gratification the full recognition by the Imperial German government, in discussing the cases of the Cushing and the Gulfight, of the principles of the freedom of all parts of the open sea to neutral ships and the frank willingness of the Imperial German government to acknowledge and meet its liability under the fact of attack upon neutral ships 'which have not been guilty of any hostile act,' by German aircraft or vessels of war is satisfactorily established; and the government of the United States will in due course lay before the Imperial German government, as it requests, full information concerning the attack on the steamer Cushing."

SURPRISED AT FALABA CONTENTION

"With regard to the sinking of the steamer Falaba, by which an American citizen lost his life, the government of the United States is surprised to find the Imperial German government contending that an effort on the part of a merchantman to escape capture and secure assistance alters the obligation of the officer seeking the capture in respect of the safety of the lives of those on board the merchantman, although the vessel has ceased her attempt to escape when torpedoed."

"These are not new circumstances. They have been in the minds of statesmen and of international jurists throughout the development of naval warfare and the government of the United States does not understand that they have ever been held to alter the principles of humanity upon which it has insisted."

"Nothing but actual and forcible resistance or continued effort to escape by flight when ordered to stop for the purpose of visit on the part of the merchantman has ever been held to forfeit the lives of her passengers or crew."

"The government of the United States, however, does not understand that the Imperial German government is seeking in this case to relieve itself of liability, but only intends to set forth the circumstances which led the commander of the submarine to allow himself to be hurried into the course which he took."

DECLARES LUSITANIA NOT ARMED

"Your Excellency's note, in discussing the loss of American lives resulting from the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, adverts at some length to certain information which the Imperial German government has received with regard to the character and outfit of that vessel, and Your Excellency expresses the fear that this information may not have been brought to the attention of the United States."

"It is stated that the Lusitania undoubtedly was supplied with machine guns, supplied with trained gunners and special ammunition, transporting troops from Canada, carrying a cargo not permitted under the laws of the United States to a vessel also carrying passengers, and serving, in virtual effect, as an auxiliary to the naval forces of Great Britain."

"Fortunately, these are matters concerning which the government of the United States is in a position to give the Imperial German government official information. Of the facts alleged in Your Excellency's note, if true, the government of the United States would have been bound to take official cognizance in performing its recognized duty as a neutral power, and in enforcing its national laws."

"It was its duty to see to it that the Lusitania was not armed for offensive action; that she was not serving as a transport, that she did not carry a cargo prohibited by the statutes of the United States, and that, if in fact she was a naval vessel of Great Britain, she should not receive clearance as a merchantman, and if performed that duty and enforced its statutes with scrupulous vigilance through its regularly constituted officials."

LUSITANIA CLAIMS 'IRRELEVANT'

"It is able, therefore, to assure the Imperial German government that it has been misinformed. If the Imperial German government should deem itself to be in possession of convincing evidence that the officials of the government of the United States did not perform these duties with thoroughness, the government of the United States sincerely hopes that it will submit that evidence for the consideration."

"Whatever may be the contentions of the Imperial German government regarding the carriage of contraband of war on board the Lusitania or regarding the explosion of that material by the torpedo, it need only be said that in the view of this government these contentions are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel."

"But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which throw into the background

any special circumstances of detail that may be thought to affect the cases—principles which lift it, as the Imperial German government will no doubt be quick to recognize and acknowledge, out of the class of ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion or of international controversy."

"Whatever be the other facts regarding the Lusitania, the principal fact is that a great steamer, primarily and chiefly a conveyance for passengers and carrying more than a thousand souls who had no part or lot in the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much as a challenge or a warning, and that men, women and children were sent to their death in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare."

GERMANY'S GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

"The fact that more than 100 American citizens were among those who perished made it the duty of the government of the United States to speak of these things, and once more with solemn emphasis to call the attention of the Imperial German government to the grave responsibility which the government of the United States conceives that it has incurred in this tragic occurrence, and the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests."

"The government of the United States is contending for something much greater than mere rights of property or privileges of commerce. It is contending for nothing less high and sacred than the rights of humanity, which every government honors itself in respecting and which no government is justified in resigning on behalf of those under its care and authority. Only her actual resistance to capture, or refusal to stop when ordered to do so for the purpose of visit, could have afforded the commander of the submarine any justification for so much as putting the lives of those on board the ship in jeopardy."

"This principle the government of the United States understands the explicit instructions issued on August 3, 1914, by the Imperial German admiralty to its commanders at sea to have recognized and embodied, as do the naval codes of all other nations, and upon it every traveler and seaman had a right to depend."

"It is upon this principle of humanity, as well as upon the law founded upon this principle, that the United States must stand."

WILLING TO BE INTERMEDIARY

"The government of the United States is happy to observe that Your Excellency is in close sympathy with the intimation that the Imperial German government is willing, now as before, to accept the good offices of the United States in an attempt to come to an understanding with the government of Great Britain by which the character and conditions of war upon the sea may be changed."

"The government of the United States would consider it a privilege thus to serve its friends and the world. It stands ready at any time to convey to either government any intimation or suggestion the other may be willing to have it convey and cordially invites the Imperial German government to make use of its services in this way at its convenience. The whole world is concerned in anything that may bring about even a partial accommodation of interests or in any way mitigate the terrors of the present distressing conflict."

"In the meantime, whatever arrangements may be made between the parties to the war, and whatever may be the opinion of the Imperial German government have been the provocation of their circumstances for the past acts of its commanders at sea, the government of the United States confidently looks to see the justice and humanity of the government of Germany vindicated in all cases where Americans have been wronged or their rights as neutrals invaded."

CANNOT ADMIT WAR ZONE CLAIM

"The government of the United States therefore very earnestly and very solemnly renews the representations of its note transmitted to the Imperial German government on the 15th of May, and relies in these representations upon the principles of humanity, the universally recognized understandings of international law and the ancient friendship of the German nation."

"The government of the United States cannot admit that the proclamation of a war zone from which neutral ships have been warned to keep away may be made to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights either of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality. It does not understand the Imperial German government to question those rights."

"It understands it, also, to accept as established beyond question the principle that the lives of non-combatants cannot lawfully or rightfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unresisting merchantman and to recognize the obligation to take sufficient precaution to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag."

"The government of the United States deems it reasonable to expect that the Imperial German government will adopt the measures necessary to put these principles into practice in respect of the safeguarding of American lives and American ships and asks for assurances that this will be done."

"ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State ad Interim."

SECY DANIELS PLEASED

He Approves Decision of Court to Stop Sale of Bliss-Leavitt Torpedoes to Foreign Powers

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Secretary Daniels today expressed himself as highly gratified over the decision of the federal district court for the eastern district of New York in the injunction suit brought by the navy department against the E. W. Bliss Co. whereby that company was restrained from selling the so-called Bliss-Leavitt torpedo to foreign powers and from disclosing the secrets of manufacture to any individual, corporation or government.

The opinion of the court, Secretary Daniels declared, approves a policy which he had urged upon congress for a government torpedo manufacture. In response to his recommendation, he said, congress had made an appropriation to increase the government torpedo plant at Newport. "Work on the plant is being pushed forward," the secretary added, "and toward the latter part of the year the enlarged factory will be in operation."

AMERICAN BOYS ENLIST

RETURNED HOSTLER TELLS OF SYSTEM BY WHICH ARMY SERVICE IS MADE ATTRACTIVE

BOSTON, June 11.—Boston is the only Atlantic port where men ship as hostlers on horse-carrying steamers without pay, according to a statement of one of the returning horse tenders yesterday.

Elsewhere along the coast, he declared, the steamship companies pay wages of from $10 to $20, this being true of Jersey City, Portland, Halifax, and Montreal, and he expressed himself as being curious to know who reaps the profit.

This man, who went to England and returned as one of the foremen of a horse crew, said that the shortage of ocean crews is due not so much to military or naval enlistments as to the high wages offered seamen now in England. In the coastwise trade the shortage is such that men can almost set their own price, and according to this man, $20 is paid stokers for a trip across the channel.

He substantiated many of the charges made by some of the American boys who have returned from England and who declare they were offered bonuses to enlist in the British service.

Soon after his ship docked, he said, a corporal of the Remount Service—the army hostlers—came aboard looking for recruits. "None enlisted at that time, and later a sergeant of a Territorial infantry regiment appealed for recruits, offering 20 shillings per week."

($7.50) a week, with lodgings free and all found.

In London there is more recruiting, and men who join the Army Motor service as chauffeurs on motor trucks are paid $11.70 a week and found. Several Americans have secured jobs in the Woolwich arsenal at a weekly wage of $22.50, minus 12 cents for insurance.

It is the hope of many of the steamship companies, according to the former man to secure cheap men this summer who will make the trip for the fun of it.

Two Fairs at Half Fare; Railroad Rates Cut in Two

The railroads have greatly reduced their fares and made it possible for you to see both the San Francisco and San Diego Expositions on one ticket. By way of the Burlington Route (C. B. & Q. R.) the cost of a railroad ticket to California and back will be only about one-half the usual price, and you can take in the incomparable Colorado scenery, including the Royal Gorge, see Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Salt Lake City on the way, stopping off at any point desired.

Returning, you may enjoy a sea trip up the coast to Portland, see Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, and either Glacier National Park or Yellowstone Park—the wonders of the world—like this very often. You should see the best scenery en route and not spend any more than is necessary to do it. Tell me when you plan to go, how long you can stay, and let me make up an itinerary to fit your particular needs. Let me explain how and why the Burlington Route is the best. I'll be glad to do it. Write, telephone or call.

GREAT VICTORY FOR THE RUSSIANS IN GALICIA

STAHL MAY BE INDICTED ON PERJURY CHARGE

He Made Affidavit That Lusitania Was Armed — Federal Grand Jury Starts Investigation

NEW YORK, June 11.—The federal grand jury, now in session here, it was stated today, will make a thorough investigation to determine whether there was a conspiracy to defraud the United States by persons who obtained the affidavits, submitted to the state department in which it was asserted that the steamship Lusitania carried four guns when she left here on her last trip on April 29. The inquiry may last for several weeks. Roger B. Wood, the assistant United States district attorney who is directing the inquiry, said that the grand jury would follow the evidence as far as it might lead.

The arrest yesterday of Gustave Stahl, a German resident, who made one of the affidavits given to the German embassy for submission to the state department, is regarded by the federal prosecutors as only an incident of what is likely to be a far reaching investigation. Stahl, who is charged with

Petrograd Announces the Capture of 6500—Italians Defeat Austrians at Gorizia With 10,000 Loss—British Warship Sunk—Italians Capture Austrian Town—Terrific Fighting on Gallipoli Peninsula—British, Russian and Neutral Ships Sunk by Germans

Following their success in the Baltic regions, the Russians now claim an important victory in Galicia. The Austro-German forces which are attempting to advance on Lemberg from the south are said by the Russian war office to have been defeated in a fierce battle along the Dniester near Zbarawa, east of Strzy. Many prisoners and guns were captured by Russian forces.

An unofficial despatch from Geneva states that the Teutonic forces were driven back at two points on the Dniester.

Italian Victory
The first large battle of the Italian campaign is now under way, having been brought on by an attempt of the Italians to force the Isonzo river, which enters the Gulf of Trieste from the north. Despatches from Cologne and Geneva mention heavy fighting, particularly near Gorizia, on the east side of the river, 25 miles northwest of Trieste. The Cologne report states that the Italians were repulsed at this point, as well as near Gradisca and Montebelluna. Capture of Montebelluna by the Italians was announced officially from Rome yesterday. According to the Geneva advices, the battle has not been decided. Austrian losses in the Gorizia fight are placed at 5000 to 10,000 and accordingly a distinct Italian victory is believed to have been secured.

More Ships Sunk
The British fishing smacks in the North sea were attacked and sunk by Zeppelins. Submarines sank the British steamer Strathmore of 2500 tons and a Russian bark. No loss of life was reported in any case.

American Note Delivered
The American note to Germany was presented by Ambassador Gerard this afternoon to the German foreign office.

British Cruiser Sunk
Official announcement was made at Vienna of the sinking in the Adriatic by an Austrian submarine of a British cruiser. The warship is described as of the type of the Liverpool, a light cruiser.

Italians Advance
The Italian invasion of Austria over the eastern frontier has made further headway and according to a report from Innsbruck, Austria, the Italians have captured the town of Plochen, near the border. A despatch from Udine, Italy, says the Italian forces are advancing through Predil pass, about six miles on the Austrian side of the line.

On Gallipoli Peninsula
Heavy fighting on Gallipoli peninsula has followed the British and French movement undertaken a week ago. It was announced officially in Paris today that additional territory had been won by the French. A message from Constantinople states that the French and British lost 2500 men killed on the night of June 5-6, and that their losses all last week were enormous.

No significant changes are recorded in today's official reports of the fighting in France or on the Russian front.

Dania of 1689 tons and the bark Thomasina have been sunk by German submarines. There was no loss of life.

RUSSIAN BARK TORPEDOED AND SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINE

LONDON, June 11, 12.53 p. m.—The Russian bark Thomasina has been torpedoed and sunk by a German submarine off the southwest coast of Ireland. The members of the crew of the sailing ship have reached Queenstown.

BRITISH CRUISER SUNK BY AUSTRO-HUNGARIAN SUBMARINE

BERLIN, June 11, 12.53 p. m.—An official statement issued at Vienna under date of June 10 announces that the Austro-Hungarian submarine No. 4, commanded by Lieut. Singler, torpedoed and sank a small British cruiser of the Liverpool type on June 9 at a point 30 miles west of St. Jean Medua, on the Albanian coast. The British cruiser was being protected by six torpedo boat destroyers.

INNSBRUCK, June 11, by courier to the Swiss frontier and Geneva, 10.45 a. m., and Paris, 2.55 p. m.—Announcement has been made here by the Austrians that one of their submarines yesterday sank a British cruiser of the Liverpool type at a point 30 miles off St. Jean Medua in the Adriatic.

The Liverpool is a light cruiser. Five vessels of this type were built for the British navy in 1909. The other boats are the Bristol, Gloucester, Newcastle and Glasgow. The last named cruiser yesterday sank the German cruiser Dresden off Juan Fernandez island in the Pacific last March.

The boats of the Liverpool type are 130 feet long, 47 feet beam, 15.2 feet deep and displace 4520 tons. They are built to travel at a speed of 25 knots and carry a crew of 375 officers and men. These vessels are armed with two 6-inch guns, ten 4-inch guns and two 15-inch torpedo tubes.

St. Jean Medua is a strait on the Albanian coast between Durazzo and Dulcigno.

REPORT FRENCH-BRITISH LOSSES ENORMOUS ON GALLI POLI PENINSULA

BERLIN, June 11, 3.30 p. m.—A despatch received here today by wireless telegraphy from Constantinople reports that the fighting at Ahi Burnu on the Gallipoli peninsula during the night of June 5-6, cost the French and British forces more than 2000 men killed. The losses of the Franco-British expedition all last week, the message adds, were enormous.

SERBIAN TROOPS OCCUPY ALBANIAN TOWN OF EL-BASSAN

LONDON, June 11, 3.35 p. m.—Serbian troops are reported to have occupied the Albanian town of Elbasan, 64 miles southeast of Scutari, and are said to be marching in the direction of the Adriatic coast.

This information was contained in a private message received at Berlin today from Athens and telegraphed to London by the correspondent at Copenhagen of the Exchange Telegraph

ITALIAN TROOPS ADVANCING—MANY WOUNDED SOLDIERS ARRIVING AT UDINE

UDINE, Italy, June 11, via Geneva and Paris, 3.10 p. m.—Italian forces today are advancing through Predil pass on the junction of the Laibach railway at Tarvis, which lies about six miles on the Austrian side of the Italian border.

Trains of Italian wounded soldiers are arriving at Udine.

ITALIANS CAPTURE PLOCHEN IN AUSTRIA, CLOSE TO THE FRONTIER

INNSBRUCK, June 11 (by courier to the Swiss frontier and Geneva, 10.45 a. m., and Paris, 2.55 p. m.)—Italian forces have captured Plochen, in Austria, close to the frontier. The possession of this location is important, as it endangers Austrian communications.

Plochen is 15 miles south of the main highway between Laibach and Innsbruck.

Proceedings Suspended Abruptly When Counsel Refused to Go on

BOSTON, June 11.—Proceedings in behalf of Werner Horn, indicted in the federal court for alleged violation of the laws regulating the interstate transportation of explosives, in connection with his attempt to destroy the international bridge at Vaneboro, Me., were suspended abruptly today. Jos. F. O'Connell, of Horn's counsel, took offense at an interruption by Federal Judge Morton and refused to proceed. The attorney was arguing in support of his claim that Horn's offense was an act of war and therefore outside the jurisdiction of the court. The court gave counsel a week in which to file briefs.

EMERY COGNAC DEAD

PROMINENT MERRIMACK STREET BUSINESS MAN PASSED AWAY THIS MORNING

Emery Cognac, one of the best known business men of this city, died this morning at his home, 739 Moody street, aged 45 years, 3 months and 11 days, after an illness of but a couple of weeks.

Deceased was born at Lacolle, Que., and came to this city while a boy. He received his education in this city and later entered the employ of the Lawrence Mfg. Co., where he worked for a number of years.

Some ten years ago he entered the employ of Joseph Marin as a furniture clerk and a few years ago he purchased the business which was located in Merrimack street opposite Race street. A couple of weeks ago Mr. Cognac was taken ill with an abscess on one of his lungs, but at that time it was believed he would pull through. A couple of days ago, however, his condition became alarming and at four o'clock this morning he passed away.

Deceased was prominent in fraternal and social circles. He was a past president of the C. M. A. C. and was a member of the following other organizations: I. Union Samuel de Champlain, F. E. A., Carillon council, 11, St. J. Rte. d'Amérique, Lafayette club, Citizens-Americans club, and the Pawtucketville Social club. He is survived by a wife, two sons, Wilfrid and Raymond; a daughter, Lillian; two brothers, Arthur and Isidore; five sisters, Mrs. Henri Achin, Sr., Mrs. Delphine Plante, Mrs. Joseph Rondeau, Mrs. Louis Gendreau of Lacolle, Que., and Mrs. Valentine Richard of Stettinville, Que.

Farmers' ball, Billerica, tonight.

C. M. A. C. NOTES

Following an annual custom, the members of the C. M. A. C. will receive communion in a body at the 7.30 o'clock mass at St. Joseph's church next Sunday. The members are requested to gather at the rooms of the association in Pawtucket street at 6.30 o'clock to form in line in order to march to the church.

The mass will be celebrated by the chaplain of the association, Rev. Joseph Beland, O. M. I., who will also deliver the sermon. At the close of the service the men will march back to the hall, where breakfast will be served. An entertainment program will be given and remarks will be made by the officers and guests. The affair is in the hands of a large committee. In the afternoon a church service will be held.

BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Body of Unknown Man Taken From Merrimack River Just Beyond the Country Club

Medrie Goudy and John Tully, engineers on the state highway in Tyngsboro, discovered the body of an unknown man in the Merrimack river yesterday afternoon. The body was found near Gillis' brook, a little way beyond the Country club. It was stranded against a fallen tree and the two men took it to the shore on the boulevard side. Later the body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers Young & Blake, Associate Medical Examiner T. B. Smith viewed the body and said it had been in the water for several days. It was stated that a man living up the river had been missing for some days, but Dr. Smith could not learn the name of the missing man. The body was so badly decomposed that recognition of the features would be impossible. Dr. Smith thought the man was about 40 years of age, about five feet, nine inches in height, and weighed 175 pounds. He wore a blue suit, blue outing shirt, white cotton underwear and black stockings. He did not wear hat nor shoes. In his pockets were found a comb, white handkerchief and two celluloid buttons. On one of the buttons was the picture of a girl and on the other a simple phrase.

DIVORCE COURT DECREES

Several decrees nisi were granted in uncontested divorce cases which were filed before Justice Hamilton at the jury waived session of the superior court this morning.

This court has been sitting for the past two weeks and decrees were granted at an average of about 25 a day. The first Lowell consisted of 10 cases, but this was soon exhausted and now the out of town list, which is very large, is being disposed of. It is not believed the contested list will be reached this term.

Court Adjourns
At the opening of this afternoon's session of the jury waived session of the superior court, Justice Hamilton adjourned court to East Cambridge, where the remaining list of divorce cases will be heard.

STAHL ARRESTED

Charged With Perjury in
Story of Lusitania
Guns

NEW YORK, June 11.—A federal grand jury investigation to determine whether there was a conspiracy "to defraud" the United States in connection with the affidavits submitted by the German embassy to the state department to prove that there were guns aboard the steamship Lusitania, was begun here yesterday by the federal grand jury.

It is specifically directed against Paul Koenig, also known as Stemler, who according to the federal authorities is head of a secret service department maintained by the Hamburg-American Steamship Line.

The first result of the investigation was the arrest yesterday for perjury of Gustave Stahl, a German reservist, who made one of the affidavits submitted by the embassy, and who is alleged to be closely associated with Koenig. The warrant on which he was arrested alleges that he committed perjury in an investigation by the jury against "Paul Koenig, alias Stemler, and others," under that section of the penal code covering conspiracy to defraud the United States.

He was taken into custody immediately upon the conclusion of his testimony and sent to the Tombs for lack of the $10,000 bail demanded by the government.

Stahl, in his affidavit, which was made before a city notary public, swore that he visited the Lusitania on April 20, the day before she sailed, and saw four guns on her deck concealed by leather covers. The repetition of this story when he was called as a witness in the investigation of Koenig's activities was the basis of the perjury charge.

In addition to the statement by Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port, and by officials of the Cunard line that the Lusitania was unarmed, the government authorities said last night that they had evidence by which they would prove that Stahl was not on board the Lusitania, either on April 20 or on any other day before the departure of the Lusitania on her fatal trip. This has been gathered by agents of the department of justice, who, since his disappearance a week ago, have been investigating his activities.

Stahl was located Wednesday in Albany, and immediately brought here. While not under arrest, he was kept under close surveillance by the federal agents and submitted to a searching examination. Certain information which Stahl furnished, together with other evidence collected in the case, is understood to have led to the empanelling of the special grand jury which met yesterday.

It was intimated, however, that when called upon before the jury to repeat this information, Stahl was not so communicative. He was told that when brought back here, he was permitted to consult counsel and was in consultation with Edward Sandford, who acted as attorney for the Hamburg-American line in the government's case against it, charging violation of the neutrality laws. When arraigned before United States Commissioner Houghton after his arrest, he asked that Mr. Sandford be communicated with.

"Mr. Stemler (Koenig) got him for me," he told the commissioner in German. Questioned about the case last night, Mr. Sandford said he was acting for Koenig in the case and would get Stahl another lawyer. Koenig had nothing to conceal in the matter, he declared, and had already given full information to the government authorities. His client, he said, had provided the affidavit from Stahl in good faith.

SAYS ALLIES FACE CRISIS

SIR WILLIAM R. NICOLL CALLS ON
BRITAIN TO STAND BEHIND THE
MINISTER OF MUNITIONS

LONDON, June 11.—"Where Germany once had a marked superiority in men, she now has a superiority in ammunition, an advantage she will press to its fullest. The only way for the allies to avert disaster is to equip themselves, and to do this they must stand behind David Lloyd George as minister of munitions as one man. Moreover, if he is not given a free hand he may resign."

Sir William Robertson Nicoll thus sums up the situation as he sees it, in the current issue of the British Weekly, one of the best known journals in England. Sir William is the editor of the publication and, in addition, he is a close friend of the head of the newly created ministry of munitions. He writes:

"We say with certainty that the next three months of the war will be extremely critical ones for the allies. The superior strength of Germany in

NERVOUS CHILDREN

From early spring until July is the time that St. Vitus' dance usually develops and nervous children should be carefully watched during that time for symptoms of the disease. Irritability is one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome, cannot be amused and does not sleep well. The jerky movements and weakness characteristic of the disease come a little later. The patient becomes pale, languid, has little appetite and is usually constipated. Such a child should not be allowed to study but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. If unusual symptoms develop or if the nervousness continues to the point of hysteria, a physician should be called. In most cases the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is sufficient. Without treatment, St. Vitus' dance may become chronic.

Parents of nervous children should write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy of the free booklet, "Nervous Disorders, A Method of Home Treatment" and a diet book called "What to Eat and How to Eat." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with directions for use.

munitions of war has given her a second great opportunity, of which she will take full advantage.

"The reverse of the Russian's seemingly to set 1,000,000 of the very best German troops free to act on the offensive in the west. This is the cardinal fact. No moral barrier will prevent the most cruel and reckless employment of every weapon.

"The Germans put much faith in gas and they will apply it on a great scale. They are almost certain to attempt an invasion."

The writer admits that the German plans may miscarry, "as they have miscarried before, and especially so if the Danubian should be forced." He also calls attention to the force of Italy's blows which Germany must reckon with.

But the ultimate issue, he goes on, is whether Great Britain can within the limited period supply herself and her allies with ammunition.

"It will be hard to live through a campaign which means the forced undertaking of foreign service. It must not be pressed just now. It does not need to be pressed."

WHAT THE FRENCH MAID SAID

DRESSING A LIBRARY TABLE

"Father thinks we should have a covering for the library table," presently complained Marjorie to Marie. "but I think the table is so beautiful and has such good lines it is a shame to hide it. What do you think?"
"I think I must agree with you in reference to the table," answered Marie. "if it has good lines and a fine polish I would leave it as nearly bare as possible."
"A handsome mat might protect the place where your reading lamp stands. This mat could be of embroidered cash or silk better, a handsome piece of Chinese or Japanese embroidery in rich colors."
The leather spreads are used on such tables, but to my mind they are much more suitable for mission tables and for use in dens or strictly masculine rooms.
"The only difficulty in leaving your table uncovered is the greater danger of its being marred when in use, and, personally, I dislike to have in a living room any article of furniture too good to be used for the purpose for which it was designed."
"Comfort and utility should be the first considerations in selecting living room furniture. In some rooms and on some tables the ecrú linen runners are very effective, but I do not think I should care for one on your mahogany table of the Queen Anne period.

"The Oriental embroideries or some dainty lace or embroidered mats would be better, preferably the former, since the table is a library table and designed to hold books, a reading lamp, etc."
"If it were a parlor table designed to hold a handsome vase or a de luxe edition of some famous book for pickup purposes, the small dollies would be more suitable. Tables must be treated, you know, according to their use and style."

"You have helped me greatly," gratefully responded Marjorie. "I think I can now convince father that he is wrong."

KILLED BY HORSE

John Robeson Kicked
Tyngsboro

John Robeson, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Robeson of Tyngsboro, was almost instantly killed late yesterday afternoon when he was kicked on the head by a horse while adjusting a trace. Besides his parents the victim leaves a brother George, and a sister, Clara.

The young man was playing on land belonging to Adolph Eckstrom, a neighbor, when a trace attached to one of the horses became twisted. Robeson stepped to adjust it and the horse suddenly kicked, striking him on the head. Mr. Eckstrom saw the man fall and rushed to the spot where he found him unconscious. Help was summoned but the victim died a few minutes afterward.

Associate Medical Examiner T. B.

Smith viewed the body and pronounced death due to a compound fracture of the skull.

REPORT IS WITHHELD

TAUNTON CASE INVOLVING DEATH
OF INSANE PATIENT INVESTI-
GATED

TAUNTON, June 11.—A committee of the trustees of the Taunton insane asylum has reported on the death of William C. Coffin, a patient from Quincy, at a meeting of the trustees. Coffin died on April 21 of multiple injuries inflicted while at the hospital, according to the findings of Judge Frederick E. Austin, who presided at the inquest. It was voted to submit the action of the trustees to the state board of insanity, at a conference to be held next week, when the report will probably be made public.

THE RINGLING CIRCUS

GREAT AGGREGATION CERTAINLY
GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Well, the big show, in the words of Billy Banty "has come and went," and the attendance at Ringling Brothers' circus, it is stated on all sides, discounted all former circus attendances in this city. It was almost a case of "standing room at a premium," and little wonder that the circus people were happy. As to the merits of the show it may justly lay claim to the title, the greatest show on earth. For the first time in the circus history in Lowell women were requested to remove their hats. The stentorian voiced announcer asked the women folks present to doff their hats. Most of the dear things removed the scenery, but some of them made militant faces and allowed their hats to remain. The fact that the great canvas was not big enough to hold the attendance speaks well for the prosperity of Lowell.

The small boy said the circus was a "dandy." There were thrills, but none of the type popular a few years ago, when the performers risked their lives to make the cold shivers run up and down the back of the audience for a few brief moments. The Ringlings have decided that the public wishes to be entertained, not horrified. Clowns? Yes, a plenty and funny, with new conceits. A good imitation of Charlie Chaplin was among the number, not to mention many other acts on fads and fashions of the day. There was a miniature replica of the Kaiser of Germany. The clowns appeared at opportune moments and furnished much fun in a program that was not allowed to drag.

The show opened with what the program described as Ringling Bros' stupendous new spectacle feature, "Solomon and the Queen of Sheba." Hundreds of costumed and richly equipped people had a part in the production, which was presented on a stage at one side of the tent. It was really a magnificent production. Solomon's decision to divide a baby equally between two women claiming to be its mother, was well portrayed.

program. The elephants opened the show and made a great hit with young and old. They did some clever things, including "telephoning" to their friends.

To follow all that happened in the three rings and on the two stages would require several pairs of eyes, for after the first great spectacle, the show was continuous in all parts of the tent.

Daring riders, both male and female, showed some new tricks of the sawdust ring, while acrobats on the flying trapeze, on rings, balancing on poles and tight and slack wires kept the interest at fever heat. Among the many performers of excellence the work of a young and petite woman, Mlle. Lelzel, stood out. Mlle. Lelzel who was called "a dainty, daring queen of the air," performed some astonishing feats.

Men and women gasped when Josephine's long and thin troupe showed what could be accomplished with tricks of self-defense, as practiced by the people of Iceland since the 11th century.

At one time three of the rings were swept by the wings of "human butterflies" in other words young women who did aerial stunts while suspended by their teeth.

An exhibition of statuesque posing by horses, men, women and dogs, all in white, brought forth much applause.

LOWELL MEN PRESENT
ROYAL ARCANUM DELEGATES RE-PORT TO GRAND COUNCIL IN BOSTON

BOSTON, June 11.—The executive committee of the grand council of the Royal Arcanum met last night at Hotel Bellevue to hear the reports of the delegates to the supreme council meeting, which was held last month at Fortress Monroe, Old Point Comfort. The supreme representatives present were A. G. Walsh of Lowell, John J. Hogan of Lowell, Ernest L. Hobson of Palmer, Edward J. Barnes of Allston and C. Edgar Searing of Stockbridge. Judge David E. Dillon of Palmer, grand regent for Massachusetts, presided at the business meeting. John Haskell Butler, past supreme regent and present examiner of claims, was a speaker at the meeting. All the members pledged their support to Judge Dillon.

SPLIT IN PEACE SOCIETY

MASSACHUSETTS ORGANIZATION
PROPOSED BY REV. C. F. DOLE

BOSTON, June 11.—The Massachusetts Peace society split apart at its annual meeting yesterday over peace resolutions proposed by the Rev. Chas. F. Dole of Jamaica Plain, after a vigorous verbal battle, at the end of which the resolutions were defeated.

On the ground that this is no time to complicate the international affairs of the country by crying for peace, a majority of the members present, following the lead of the Hon. Samuel J. Elder, the Hon. Joseph Walker and Alonzo Rothschild, refused to support the resolutions, which declared in part that it is better for the United States to have a delayed justice through the willing consent of those who have hurt us than to seek to compel justice by bloodshed.

HOW SHE ENDED
SKIN TORTURE

Oct. 28, 1914.—"I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. They itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I would not go amongst people. I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned."—(Signed) Mrs. C. C. TO HAVE PRETTY HAIR

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would give a plant to make it grow healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, stimulate the hair roots and bring out the new hairs. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it's because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and all dandruff disappears.

An inexpensive tonic, called Parisian Sage, which you can get from any drug counter, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff and makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the hair of dust and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily have beautiful hair; and pretty hair will surely increase charm and beauty.

UNSIGHTLY BLACKHEADS

Blackheads are so unsightly we wonder how people tolerate them, as many do. To treat blackheads, cleanse the face and throat with a good cleansing cream, then steam the face for ten minutes, wipe moisture off and press out the blackheads with a little metal blackhead extractor which can be purchased at any drug store.

If there are any pimples, massage the face with a good cream for ten or fifteen minutes each day. Wipe the cream off, dampen a portion of a soft towel with toilet water and mop the face all over very gently, then a little fine face powder may be used. If the treatment is taken at night, do not use either the toilet water or the face powder.

Once or twice a week is as often as the face should be treated. The cleansing cream should be used every night. This rule holds good for every face as it is so much better for the skin than soap and water. All pimples that form a yellow head should be opened very carefully with a sterilized needle and the contents pressed out very gently with a blackhead instrument, never with the finger nails. When there are no pimples, the massage cream should be used for the massage. Remember that getting rid of blackheads prevents pimples as well.

LOWELL SPRINGFIELD

FLED FROM RAIDER EITEL

Lieut. Brauer and Men of Crew
Have Left Country

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Lieut. Brauer and "certain men of the crew" of the German commerce raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who left the ship before she was formally interned, and have not returned at the Norfolk navy yard are believed to have left the country. Customs Collector Hamilton at Norfolk made this report today to the treasury department.

Special agents of the department of justice now are conducting an investigation at the instance of the state department in which Collector Hamilton's report was referred. It appears that Brauer and the men were not on parole because the ship had not been interned, but Collector Hamilton understood he had the word of Capt. Thierichens that none of his officers or men would leave the vicinity of Newport News while the status of the cruiser was in suspense.

"It has come to my attention," Collector Hamilton reported today, "that one Lieutenant Brauer who was either the first officer or the executive officer of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich when she arrived at Newport News, Va., March 10, 1915, has left the ship and is not now aboard. There is also reason to believe that Lieut. Brauer may have left the United States and that certain other members of the crew of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who were aboard the ship when she arrived March 10, are not now aboard, and may have possibly left the United States with Lieut. Brauer."

"The commander of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich admits that Lieut. Brauer is not now aboard, nor at the present time of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich's crew. He states that Lieut. Brauer left the Prinz Eitel soon after her arrival at Newport News, as did also any members of the crew who may not now be aboard and asserts that since the internment of the Prinz Eitel and the giving of his written parole no officer nor men have been severed from the ship."

"The commander's assertion that Lieut. Brauer and any others who may not now be of the crew of the Prinz

Eitel were absent, led to the publishing of the report. Captain Thierichens is aboard the Prinz Eitel. Third Surgeon Nolte is said to be away from the ship and an investigation is being made.

IDENTIFY BODY

That of C. F. Fowles,
Not A. Vanderbilt as Was First Reported

QUEENSTOWN, June 11, via London, 2:35 p. m.—Officials of the Cunard steamship line today announced that the body of the Lusitania victim which was recovered yesterday and at first was supposed to be that of A. G. Vanderbilt, proved to be that of Charles F. Fowles of New York city, who was a first cabin passenger on the Cunard liner.

CUT HER THROAT

Mother Alleged to Have First Given Four Children Poison

WAKEFIELD, June 11.—Despondent over the recent death of a child, Mrs. Harry Ennis, wife of a carpet maker, is alleged to have given her four remaining children poison today and then to have cut her throat with a razor. The efforts of several doctors probably saved the lives of the children, but the mother's condition was considered hopeless.

YALE CREWS PRACTICE

GALES FERRY, Conn., June 11.—Yale's second and freshman crews were sent over a half mile under the watch today. The second varsity, rowing a 30-stroke, covered the distance upstream in 2:25. The freshmen, who rowed their test on the upper part of the river, made the distance in 2:52. The water was rough and the work had to be done under shelter of the west bank of the river. Even then all of the shells splashed water. The varsity eight was sent out for a paddle.

EXPECTS PROMPT REPLY

Pres. Wilson Thinks Answer From Germany Will Come in Two Weeks—Cabinet Meeting

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The cabinet met today with Acting Secretary Lansing sitting in place of former Secretary Bryan. While the situation with Germany was discussed, it was agreed nothing more can be done in the German situation pending a reply to the latest American note, delivered today by Ambassador Gerard to the Berlin foreign office.

While the president expects a prompt answer it is realized that it may be two weeks in coming. In the meantime Germany will be informed of the facts gathered by the American government in connection with the dropping of bombs and an aeroplane on the American liner Cushing.

The meeting today was held in President Wilson's private study in the White House proper. Officials refused to make any comment, formal or informal, on Mr. Bryan's statement of last night and his announced intention of issuing orders. It was declared, however, that the president will make no replies. There were outward indications, however, that administration officials generally are not pleased. The cabinet discussed the Mexican situation.

THE ANNAPOLIS SCANDAL

Midshipman Price Testifies Before Court of Inquiry on Circulation of "Dope"

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 11.—Midshipman George O. Price, a member of the new first class at the naval academy today told the court of inquiry which is investigating irregularities in examinations that he knew of but one man out of the first and second classes who did not have advance information concerning the last annual examination in the department of modern languages. This was in the form of copies of sentences and meters that had been emphasized in class.

He had no knowledge that any of the so-called "dope" that was being generally circulated had been copied from questions in an official examination paper. The combined membership of the first and second classes, Price said, was about 325.

Price was always the custom to get a little "dope" just before an examination, Price said. Some of this was in the nature of suggestions given out in class room by instructors to study certain things that were important. Not all instructors gave out such suggestions, he said in reply to another question, and a midshipman in a section where such suggestions were not given was at a disadvantage as compared with one in a section pursuing the same course of study who received suggestions.

Many women who a short time ago must have open necks in order to breathe and be at all comfortable, are rushing to purchase the neck ruffles of one sort or another with which to complete their spring costumes, for at every turn, these things are exploited and purchasers are trying to get the best effects. What are known as neck ruffles come in various colors in tulle, very fluffy and full as suggested by their name and they are worn up close around the neck and finished with ribbon loops and ends. Box-plaited ruffles of black and of colored tulle are much worn also and very pretty ones are finished with bunches of bright colored flowers, arranged just a little to the left of the front. The high, upstanding ruffles serve as frames for the face and are apt to be becoming. Black is being generally worn with all colors, but there are ruffles to be found to match any special costume and in many instances, they are to be preferred. Some are of course of exaggerated length, giving something of a Pierrette impression, but wise women always choose such accessories with reference to their own needs and while some may look well in the very wide ruffles that completely conceal the throat and the ears, those of moderate width are apt to be more generally becoming.

LATEST FADS

Some of the Fashion
Innovations of the Present Season

Gloves always make such an important item of any costume that the subject never fails of interest. Just now we are met with a rather interesting condition for while fancy shoes are constantly growing in number, the smartest gloves are exceedingly quiet in tone and are of fine suede, mocha in color and stitched with black and with black edging on the wrists and smoked pearl clasps and they are the newest and smartest things for travel and the like. Pongee color and sand color, also with black stitching and black finish are the newest things for occasions of greater dress, but still the suede is preferred to the glass kid. Pongee color is found to harmonize with almost every color and is fast taking precedence of white, although the latter is correct; sand takes an intermediate place because, by virtue of being so neutral in tone, it can be worn with almost any costume. Extreme novelties however exist almost as a matter of course and one of the fancies for occasional wear are changing colored kid with stitching and buttons of slings blue and while one could hardly think of such gloves as suitable for many occasions, they do make a good effect now and then and are to be considered inasmuch as they are shown by important dealers.

Fancy handkerchiefs are unquestionably a fad of the season and it would sometimes seem as though a tendency toward using the quiet tones for the costume itself, had the effect of bringing into prominence really bright colored accessories of such sort. Glove handkerchiefs of the new sort are made of chiffon and of crepe de chine, sometimes all in a bright color, sometimes in white with colored borders and there are some distinctly novel ones shown in crepe de chine and in striped linen, but perhaps among all the showing, there is nothing more unusual than the colored linen with the tiny black edge and with a black initial enclosed in an outlined frame. White handkerchiefs with quaint little animals in one corner of each, are shown, too, but they would seem a little too bizarre for general usage. The colored linen with the black edge and the black initial, is really effective when judiciously used. Chiffon and crepe de chine having been discovered to be perfectly washable, make really more practical handkerchiefs than at first thought appears and they are essentially dainty in weight and in texture.

Fancy shoes and unusual shoes have been so much exploited that already they almost grow wearisome, but very new ones for summer wear are higher than pumps and lower than Oxfords and show patent leather straps with white kid above and they are very dainty worn with white silk hose and in combination with a white gown. The black patent leather is the part of the shoe that comes in contact with the street and with most probable soil, while the white against the white gown is exceedingly good in effect. New slippers for the bride's costume, that are always of interest at this season, are of white satin with very tiny rows of tulle and with tiny little bunches of orange blossoms taking the place of the buckles worn upon other occasions.

It is a little curious to note how

FOR FLAG DAY PARADE

BIG TURNOUT EXPECTED UPON THE SOUTH COMMON—A. D. MITCHELL CHIEF MARSHAL

Arrangements for the flag day parade and exercises on the South common, Sunday, will be completed at a meeting of the committee in charge to be held this evening at city hall. Several patriotic and fraternal organizations have voted to participate in the parade and the committee wishes to invite all local organizations, as well as individuals, to meet at city hall at 2 o'clock and form in line. It is hoped that a large number of Lowell societies, patriotic or not, will accept the invitation and join the ranks Sunday afternoon. A small American flag will be given to each person who enters the parade. Alex. D. Mitchell, commander of the Spanish War Veterans, is chief marshal of the parade and Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Veterans, Companies C. G. and K. of the O. M. U. cadets and all ladies' auxiliaries will march.

A telephone alarm at 2:24 o'clock this afternoon called the members of Hose 11 to the Greenwood estate in South Weymouth street where a fire was on fire. The blaze was extinguished by the use of chemicals. No damage.

HARVARD CREWS OUT

RED TOP, Conn., June 11.—Get-together row, short, brisk, spring, were given each of the Harvard boats today, this being the only work of the forenoon. The wind was light but the water was rough than yesterday. No changes were made in any of the crews. The health of the men remains good.

M. C. O. F. CONVENTION

TWO LOWELL MEN AMONG THE OFFICERS WHICH WERE CHOSEN AT FALL RIVER

Joseph N. Gregoire, chief ranger of Court St. Antoine, C. O. F. of this city will represent the Lowell members of the Catholic Order of Foresters at the international convention of the order, which will be held in Providence, R. I. next August. He was chosen a delegate at the state court convention held in Fall River this week. Another Lowell man, Paul T. Charbonneau, past chief ranger of Court St. Paul, was also honored at the state convention, being chosen a trustee of the state court.

The Lowell delegates who attended the convention were J. N. Gregoire and Dr. Adelard Payette of Court St. Antoine, the latter being vice chief ranger of the state court; Paul T. Charbonneau and Raoul H. Monier, both past chief rangers of Court St. Paul.

The election of officers for the state court at this week's convention resulted as follows:

Chief ranger: N. V. Marcotte, Cambridge; vice chief ranger, J. A. Dauphinais, New Bedford; secretary, Simon Viger, Lawrence; treasurer, J. B. N. Soulières, Worcester; trustees, Eugene Lapalme, Fall River; Camille Champagne, Haverhill; John J. Murphy, Boston; W. C. Lamoureux, Southbridge and Paul T. Charbonneau, Lowell.

Delegates chosen to the Providence convention are: J. N. Gregoire, Lowell; Oscar Paquette, Fall River; E. P. Talbot, Fall River; A. Robitaille, Yarmouth; G. Parent, Lawrence; E. Chabot, Haverhill and P. Allard, Southbridge.

The international convention was scheduled to be held in Ontario, Canada, but on account of a large number of delegates being of German descent, it was deemed advisable in this time of war to hold the convention in the states and accordingly Providence, R. I. was chosen as the convention city. This will be the second time Lowell delegates attend the international convention, for four years ago Dr. Adelard Payette attended the convention held in Cleveland, O.

HAVERHILL HEARING HALTED

Civil Service Commissioners to Decide Whether Miss Marshall Is Legally an Office Holder

HAVERHILL, June 11.—The hearing on charges of inefficiency against Miss Alice C. Marshall, superintendent of the tuberculosis hospital, was adjourned by the municipal council yesterday until this afternoon to allow the civil service commissioners to report on her legal standing as an officeholder.

Miss Marshall was appointed provisional superintendent at a salary of $750 a year at a time when there was no "eligible list." Since then her salary has been increased without the approval of the civil service commissioners, so that she is said to be not legally an officeholder, her former place having been vacated when she accepted more salary. The finding of the commissioners will affect the superintendent's right of appeal to the district court from the municipal council's decision in her case.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R. F. D. 1, Box 22, Shamrock, Missouri.

RICKARD SHOE COMPANY DECIDES TO GIVE UP ITS LYNN FACTORY—HAS EMPLOYED 350 HANDS

LYNN, June 11.—After much deliberation, the Rickard Shoe company, which for four years has operated one of the most successful factories in Lynn, decided yesterday to remove to Haverhill. The firm has employed 350 hands.

Edward M. Rickard, the president, refused tonight to discuss the reasons for the decision to leave here. He came here as superintendent of the Watson Shoe company and eight years after the firm of Rickard & Gregory was formed. Four years later Mr. Rickard retired and organized a company bearing his name.

TO BUILD TRAILER LOOPS

Boston Elevated Road Petitions Public Service Commission—Spot Pond Station to Be Moved

BOSTON, June 11.—Because the Metropolitan water and sewerage commission feared that Spot pond might be polluted by crowds at the Middlesex Fells station of the Boston Elevated and Bay State Street railways, the two companies and the commission have agreed upon a new site for the station, about 1000 feet nearer Stoneham. The new station will also mark the fare limit on the Elevated.

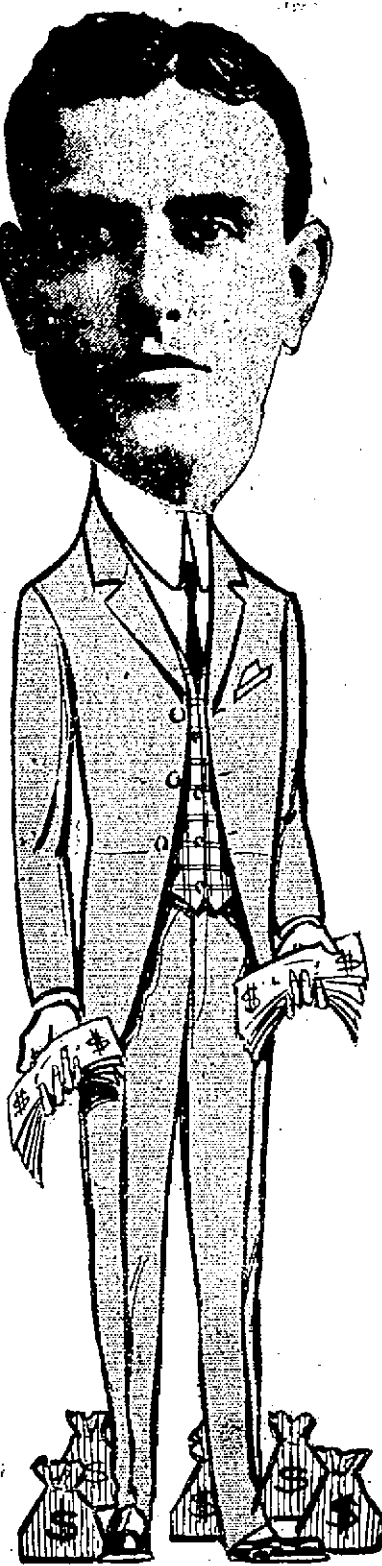

The Elevated road has prepared plans and sent a petition to the public service commission to build loops in Broadway, Somerville, for the operation of trailer cars on the Highland Avenue Viaduct line, at the southern carhouse at Arlington Heights, at Harvard Square and in Beacon street at the reservoir.

The space between the tracks on Dorchester Avenue, from Summer street to Andrew square will be widened and a new curve will be built from Summer street into Chauncy street.

SPOT CASH BOUGHT

60 Full Pieces of Blue Serge

NEVER in the history of my Lowell store have I shown you a stock of woollens so exclusively high grade. I don't hesitate to make the broad statement that not another concern in New England is showing a line of serges that begins to approach my stock during this

JUNE BLUE SERGE SALE

When I make that assertion I have in mind, of course, alone the high priced houses, because I don't for an instant associate my qualities, even in comparison only, with the grade of goods that usually find their way into the construction of medium priced clothing.

Men who have never traded with me or who have never taken the trouble to investigate my claims or examine my stock may falter before they believe that I could have goods worthy of such sweeping praise. But I am conscious of what I say herein, and stand ready to prove it to the most usual observations of any man who has been accustomed to wearing $25.00 to $35.00 suitings.

Believe me when I tell you nice goods are scarce today—and they promise even scarcer in the cloth marts of the country. There is a problem in front of the clothing and tailoring trade. The great American people demand nice stuff. The market is empty and where some of them are going to get the goods of required quality is hard to see. I can sell my stock wholesale to the biggest houses in the land at a big advance in ten minutes.

Instead, I am giving them to the people who stuck by me through my six years in Lowell. Buy them, gentlemen, on my recommendation. You can't go wrong. I have them in light and heavy weights. I am giving you a lot more than I would be able to do under conditions today, but not a bit more than you are entitled to.

INDUSTRIAL AND STORE NEWS

The majority of the store clerks observed their second Thursday afternoon off by attending the circus.

The Millmen's union is scheduled to meet tonight in Carpenters' hall, Runnels building.

"Billy" Heelon, the popular Belvidere tennorial artist, has become a hard working member of the Woodbine club.

A dividend of 5 per cent was payable at the office of the treasurer of the Ap-

leton mills in Boston last Monday.

Arthur Flanders of the Lamson Store Service Co. will try out his new motorcycle in the Oakland on Sunday.

Business at the Saco-Lowell shops is on the increase and several of the employees are employed six full days a week.

Nearly all the shoe concerns of the city are running to capacity, while business in the other industries is also good.

The majority of the mill employees were given a brief respite yesterday during the parade hour and they enjoyed the long and gorgeous pageant.

Circus night affected the labor men, and but few meetings were held, the majority of members being in attendance at the big show.

Walter Lyons, the well known manager of the South End ball team, has accepted a position at the Saco-Lowell shops. He was formerly employed at the Hamilton Manufacturing Co.

Seventy-five national and international organizations have been formed during the past 19 years out of local unions directly chartered by the American Federation of Labor.

Unionists in Toronto, Canada, are insisting on the appointment of a "fair wage" officer who will enforce the payment of prevailing rates on city work.

Great indignation has been aroused in London by the knowledge that about 2000 Germans and Austrians are still being employed in certain London hotels.

Rosyth Gibb & Sons, contractors for Rosyth dockyard, Scotland will give women whose husbands have been called to war house rent free in the village during their absence and also a certain amount of coal each month.

Walter McEvoy of the Bon Marche Co. says there will be something doing every minute at the camp on Sunday.

Walter is chairman of the committee in charge of the outing to be conducted by the members of the Upper Five.

The past year 225 charters have been issued by the American Federation of Labor. Of this number two were granted Internationals, one state branch, 129 trade unions, 50 federal unions and 44 central bodies.

James Hixon, formerly employed at the U. S. Bunting Co., and now attending the local high school, is "Jimmy" Hixon, a catcher, but he has been placed in the outfield because of his great hitting abilities.

Clyde E. Hockmeyer, a graduate of the Lowell Textile school, is now actively connected with the Waterhead mill which his father, Otto Hockmeyer, is the head. He is also treasurer of the new concern that has started operations at the plant.

It is said that Traffic Officer "Billy" Grady holds court with the pigeons at his stand at the corner of Market and Central streets every day. The officer, it is reported, carries a pocketful of corn to work every morning and never misses a day in feeding the birds, which have also acquired the habit of coming around on an appointed hour.

So far as the several large dyestuffs manufacturers and merchandizing houses are concerned, we believe there is mighty little graft being done, but it is the dyestuffs people themselves who have put an end to it. Small dyestuffs chemical concerns, however, are not so clean. There are soap manufacturers who will not pay a cent of tribute. Those concerns are well known by name. We imagine, to every textile manufacturer. There are other concerns who will pay 7 1/2 cents for the same palm oil soap at least a cent a pound too much. Where does the excess price go? There is only one answer.

We heard of an engineer who turned around a dirt road and a $10 bill on the coal pile just after an oil salesman left. It is a dirty business all through. The meanest end of it is for its effect on the salesman. Where graft makes the sale, selling ability counts for nothing. Industry is not rewarded. Salary is not dependent upon personal effort.

It may be that the textile alliance won't be able to uncover, prove and stop the graft that does go on in the purchase of supplies by textile mills, but it can be stopped. The way to stop it is for the mill agent, or superintendent, to do the buying. A little worsted mill up in New Hampshire made a change in the soap used for scouring wool. The lucky salesman in this instance put in his soap at 5 1/2 cents. He was not asked for any graft, and thought he had one good customer. He sold ten barrels of soap, a few weeks later another ten barrels, the third ten barrels a little later, and very recently a fourth ten barrels. The other day the soap salesman called at the mill, and was told that his soap was no good—that it had spoiled about 1,000 pounds of wool in the scouring. The salesman said that if his soap spoiled the mill's wool, the soap company would pay for the wool, but he must get out into the mill to see the material first was spoiled in soap. The salesman explained that at 5 1/2 cents there wasn't any chance to pay graft. He did, however, give the boss scouter a $10 bill. Then the salesman went home and threw up his job.

We know of a very large worsted mill that pays 8 cents for palm oil soap. We are certain that the mill could get the same soap for 6 1/2 cents, and still give the soap maker a margin for graft. We know of a small carded woolen mill which pays 7 1/2 cents for the same palm oil soap at least a cent a pound too much. Where does the excess price go? There is only one answer.

MEXICAN HATRED

It is Shown Against
California

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, San Diego, Cal., June 11.—Feeling against Americans is being exhibited at the Mexican west coast ports of Manzanillo and Mazatlan, held by Carranza forces, according to radiograms received by Admiral Howard today. No overt acts of any kind have been reported, however.

Villa forces remaining in the southern district of lower California are said to be expressing willingness to leave for Guaymas, Sonora, without further fighting.

A MARRIAGE ANNULLED

MAN MARRIED HIS MOTHER'S HALF-SISTER EIGHTEEN YEARS
AGO

NORTH ATTLEBORO, June 11.—The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Hunt, which took place 18 years ago, was annulled yesterday by Judge Duhaime in the superior court at New Bedford, on the ground of blood relationship.

Mr. Hunt is a son of Mrs. Hunt's half sister. The couple lived together 13 years knowing of the relationship, but did not know that the marriage was illegal. The relationship was not brought out at the time the marriage intentions were filed.

Three children have been born to the couple. A few months ago divorce proceedings were started, and when the papers were drawn up the relationship of the couple was noted.

THE WHITNEY WILL CASE

PARTIAL VERDICT UPHOLDS WILL
ATOR OF SOUND MIND

BOSTON, June 11.—The jury in the Whitney will case, after having been out 23 hours, rendered a partial verdict yesterday morning, sustaining the will on two issues, holding that it was legally executed and that the testator was of sound mind, but the jury could not agree on the question of whether undue influence was exerted by Mrs. Amy H. Barker on testator, Theodore D. Whitney. The judge discharged the jury.

Ex-Congressman Joseph F. O'Connell, counsel for Mrs. Whitney, widow of testator, declared his intention to have the case tried again, if possible as early as next fall. George L. Mayberry, counsel for the will, would make no comment on the outcome.

NEW ENGLAND SICK GET BACK HEALTH

Wonderful Effect of Remedy

Many New England stomach sufferers and, in fact, people all over the United States, have found remarkable results from the use of May's Wonderful Remedy.

Hundreds in this state alone have taken this remedy and tell today of the benefits they received. Its effects come quickly—the first dose convinces; no long treatment. Here is what two who have taken it say:

MRS. S. E. JOHNSON, 61 Whitmore street, Hartford, Conn., wrote: "My pains left me the next day after taking the treatment. It is simply wonderful how it relieved me."

MRS. CLARE SHAW, 493 Dexter street, Providence, R. I., wrote: "I received your treatment and it saved my life. I am better now than I have been for twenty years."

May's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

PAPER OFFICE WRECKED

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE AT BETTE BUT NOBODY WAS IN-JURED

BUTTE, Mont., June 11.—The plant of the Butte Socialist, a weekly newspaper, was wrecked by an explosion, presumably of dynamite, early today. The interior of the building was wrecked and the front was hurled into the street. A gallery at the rear was blown loose and fell on machinery below. The police believe the explosion took place in the rear of the structure.

The upper story of the building, occupied by a rooming house, was not badly damaged. So far as is known, no one was hurt. An investigation is in progress.

NO MENTION OF AMERICAN NOTE
BERLIN, June 11, via London, 4.45 a. m.—None of the morning newspapers refers in any way to the American note or the fact that it has been received and there is no comment on the general situation.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Another ten-episode feature may be recorded to the credit of the management of the B. F. Keith theatre, with the presentation of the Metro five-part picture called "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," in which Edmund Breese, the eminent American actor, is cast in the leading part. Yesterday this wonderful picture was given twice, and on each occasion the audience followed breathlessly the development of the story. Breese in his character study of the man whose wife was stolen from him, and who for 12 years faced the world with a strange tearing at his heart, will contribute a punch which is seldom duplicated even on the legitimate stage. How he found the man who wrecked his home in the Maltese saloon, found him with his wife, and how the two turned on each other and "shot up" the place, furnishes a climax that is tremendous. The natural scenery brought forward in this picture is of the highest possible class.

—PRESCOTT STREET—

It should be remembered that all of the scenes were taken in Alaska and that the rugged scenery of this bitterly cold country is pictured in many of the scenes. In addition to this there is a Chaplin picture, with several comedians of note. On Monday, and continuing the first three days of the week, Ethel Barrymore in "The Nightingale" will be shown.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

pany and is shown in 5 acts. In this celebrated play which glorified the hearts of so many when presented on the stage with Eleanor Robson, and the screen version of which will cheer up many thousands more, Mary Pickford portrays the weird and wonderful character of Glad, the beautiful and ragged girl of the London slums whose undying optimism and heroic courage even deadly peril is unable to quench. The delicacy and simple force of Miss Pickford's portrayal makes an impression of this content this evening. This will give the public one final chance of witnessing what proved the biggest, funniest, laugh-a-second comedy feature of the kind ever shown in the city. The idea of putting up prizes for the best amateur imitation of the world famous Charlie originated with the Academy management and was carried out with great success. So tonight the Amateur Charlies will once more perform for prizes of $25. In addition to their imitation, each contestant will be required to give a little original act which will make the event doubly interesting. This contest is, of course, an added feature and the regular picture program will also be shown.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC
Because of the many people who were unable to see the Amateur Charlie Charlies perform at the Academy of Music last week, the management has decided to hold a repetition of this contest this evening. This will give the public one final chance of witnessing what proved the biggest, funniest, laugh-a-second comedy feature of the kind ever shown in the city. The idea of putting up prizes for the best amateur imitation of the world famous Charlie originated with the Academy management and was carried out with great success. So tonight the Amateur Charlies will once more perform for prizes of $25. In addition to their imitation, each contestant will be required to give a little original act which will make the event doubly interesting. This contest is, of course, an added feature and the regular picture program will also be shown.

JEWEL THEATRE
Ever heard of Alexander the Great? The most remarkable valiant act of the season. Well! Lowell will have a chance to see this wonderful chimpanzee in pictures. A comedy called "Should We Eat Pig?" introduces this marvelous animal to the public. He will be shown in connection with other great attractions, among them a Chaplin comedy. Charles is some boy, and every one that things he can act plays the fool in the streets, trying to imitate him. The real goods, however, are found only in his inapproachable comedies, which are shown nearly on every change of the level program. The fourth episode of "The Diamond from the Sky" featuring Lotte Pickford and Irving Cummings will be shown. Murdock McGuire in "The Wild Doctor," Charles Ogle in "Memory Train," "The Jungle Queen" with Marie Walcamp and many other new pictures will complete a delightful end-of-the-week program at the alluring little house round the corner. So to the Jewel and see a real movie show for a change. Admission is always the same—5 and 10 cents.

OPENED NEW QUARTERS

A pretty gathering of friends took place at the new quarters of the Young Men's Hebrew association, 231 Central street, last evening, the occasion being the formal opening of the new rooms and the inspection of the same by the many friends of the organization. The special guests of the evening were the members of the Young Women's Hebrew association, an auxiliary body.

A varied entertainment program was carried out in Post 185, G. A. R. hall with Neyman's orchestra in attendance. Among those who participated in the entertainment were the following:

Percy Lightman, Miss Sarah Paterson, and Master William L. Abrams, Leopold Albertson, John Dalton, Samuel Koppelman and others. The principal speaker of the evening was Bennett Silverblatt, who outlined the high aims of the organization and congratulated the members upon the success already attained.

Refreshments were served by a committee of young women of the Y. W. H. A., comprising Misses Frances Goldman, Elsie Horink, Fanny Silverblatt, Ida Lashowitch and Beatrice Brams.

The reception committee included Mrs. Sarah Klein, Mrs. S. Porter and Mrs. A. S. Goldman, of the Y. W. H. A. The committee in charge of the general arrangements were: Julius Neyman, chairman; Leopold Albertson and Max Goldman.

Sale Before Stocktaking Commences Today

Every garment in our establishment must go regardless of cost. It is easier for us to count money than to take count of our stock, therefore we have decided to hold a special sale right now, in the heart of the season, the time when you need your summer garments.

Every garment in our establishment is fresh and new, up-to-date in style, and superior in quality. We have not got to praise our merchandise. It is well known to the public, not only in Lowell and vicinity, but all over New England. Our make has been established for the past twenty years, and is not only known to private trade, but to retailers all over New England as well, that the Boston Ladies' Outfitters have always planned to manufacture the best that money could produce. When you buy from us you buy direct from the manufacturer.

This before stock taking sale will surely break the records of all sales ever heard or seen for legitimate, honest made garments. We want to call your attention to the fact that our sale is not a hurrah sale, it is not a fake sale, and it is not a lot of rubbish picked up, neither is it seconds or damaged merchandise or misfits, nor soiled merchandise, nor sweepings of shops. We are putting before you honest merchandise manufactured in our own factory, the Boston Ladies' Outfitters, a concern with a reputation. We are not gypsy travelers who travel from town to town misrepresenting themselves before the public with a lot of rubbish or rags. Keep your eyes open when you see such fake advertisements and paper talk. Do not be humbugged by them, and do not give them an opportunity to think they can fool the public. We are sure of the fact that the public of Lowell and vicinity are too wise for that class of fakers.

Our before stock taking sale began this morning. Come yourself and bring your neighbors. There are hundreds of styles and bargains awaiting you. You do not have to buy, but come and see what we have to offer you at this monster stock taking sale. We are sure that you can buy two honest garments of good quality for the price that you will pay for one elsewhere.

Look everywhere. See what you can get. Keep your eyes open. Use your own judgment. Pay no attention to fake advertisements. Visit our store—The Boston Ladies' Outfitters, 94 Merrimack street, and that will convince you.

MINERS' TROUBLE

National Guard on Patrol at Johnson City to Prevent Clash

JOHNSON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Three companies of the Illinois national guard were patrolling the streets today as a precaution against further disturbance between American and foreign miners, growing out of the teaching of Joseph Strando, one of the foreigners.

Strando with three others was accused of shooting to death W. E. Chapman, a wealthy resident of this place, and wounding his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Schull, wife of the manager of a local mine.

Several members of the mob which yesterday hanged Strando carried arms today in expectation of attack from the foreign quarter.

DUFFY'S BODY FOUND
WILSONVILLE, Conn., June 11.—The body of Hugh Duffy who has been missing since last Wednesday night was found last night in a small pool one-quarter of a mile from the home of James Welch, with whom he lived.

Since the disappearance the woods and fields for miles about the house have been searched. The pond in which he was found had been dynamited in attempts to locate him.

A reward of $100 had been offered for the finding of the body. Suffering from rheumatism Mr. Duffy is thought to have become temporarily demented and to have wandered into the pond.

MR. BRYAN AGAIN

HE ISSUES ANOTHER NOTE, THIS TIME TO GERMAN AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the issuance today of another statement—an appeal to "German-Americans," William Jennings Bryan was expected to rest his case. This is his third since his resignation. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the statement in advance.

In his second statement, addressed to the American people and which was coincidentally issued with the publication of the American rejoinder to the German government's reply to the note following the sinking of the Lusitania, Mr. Bryan asked the public to "sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than share responsibility for it."

He contends that the American note conforms to the standards of the old system of force, while he is an advocate of the new system of persuasion and "as an humble follower of the Prince of Peace," pleads that the United States lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Mr. Bryan expresses confidence that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, but says good intentions are not enough. He adds that if the public verdict is against him he asks no mercy, declaring that public men must be "willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution."

A MURDER CONFESSION
BOSTON, June 11.—Joseph, alias Delevan Rogers, one of the two implicated in the murder of Samuel Cohen, the South End junkman, at 116 Springfield street, on May 29, arrived at police headquarters yesterday from Jersey City in custody of Sergeant William Livingston and Inspector Thomas Towle.

Rogers, who had already made a confession in Jersey City to the Boston officers, confirmed it when he made a lengthy statement to Captain Anisley Armstrong.

Rogers plainly showed the ordeal he has been through, and he told the officers that he realized his position, but denied that he fired the shot that killed Cohen after he and his accomplice now at large had robbed him of $50.

GARMENT WORKERS CASE
TWO JAIL SENTENCES IMPOSED AND ABOUT FIFTY DEFENDANTS FINED

BOSTON, June 11.—Judge Irwin of the superior criminal court yesterday disposed of 62 strike cases, the aftermath of the recent strike of the garment workers. Pleas of nolo were accepted in some cases and pleas of guilty to various offenses in others, and the remaining defendants were discharged. Although the judges in the lower courts had imposed many prison sentences in disposing of the cases, only two imprisonments, of one month each, were given by Judge Irwin.

Giuseppe Festa, one of the strikers, charged with disorderly conduct, and Raffaele Losco, charged with assaulting a garment worker, were the two sentenced to prison. Max Yaffy was at first sentenced for the same term, but when Judge Irwin learned he had just purchased a business of his own, and was a wife and two children, one of them in the hospital, he placed the case on file.

Fines of $50 each were imposed on Meyer Segal and David Stefano, who were charged with striking the proprietor of a shop and James Silverman, fined $50 and Vincenzo Savignano $25 for assault. Max Cohen was fined $20 and Max Lipren $15, also for assault. Lipren paid his fine but the others were committed to jail in default of the money.

SACRED HEART FEAST

OBSERVED BY CHILDREN OF ST. MICHAEL'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL THIS MORNING

The feast of the Sacred Heart was observed in an impressive manner by the children of St. Michael's parochial school this morning, who attended mass at 9 o'clock, which was sung by Rev. Fr. Mullen in the absence of the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw. A feature of the service was the consecration of the children to the Sacred Heart, each child receiving a Sacred Heart badge which was blessed during the mass, the children reciting in unison the act of consecration. Fr. Mullen preached on the apostleship of prayer and love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The music incidental to the service was inspiring, being given by the entire school, a chorus of over 500 juvenile voices and the hymns sung were "Hymn to the Sacred Heart," "O Salutaris," "Tantum Ergo" and "Holy God We Praise Thy Name." There were many adults at the mass.

KING OF GREECE

His Condition Shows Little if Any Improvement

LONDON, June 11, 8.35 a. m.—The bulletin issued at Athens last evening regarding the condition of King Constantine, says a Reuter despatch, was as follows:

"The king's temperature is 98.8; his pulse 102 and his respiration 17. There is an abundant flow of matter, which is not of good quality. The inflammation in the kidneys continues with a slight increase of albumen."

VICTIM OF YESTERDAY'S ACCI-DENT PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

The many friends of Walter J. Conroy and especially the members of the Street Car Men's union, will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred last evening at St. John's hospital, where he had been removed in the morning following a car accident which took place in Bridge street shortly after nine o'clock.

As was stated in yesterday's issues of The Sun, Mr. Conroy was changing the signs of his car which was going to Dracut Centre, when he was struck and thrown to the ground by an inbound car, receiving a fracture of the skull. After an examination at the hospital all hope for his recovery was given up and despite the best of medical attendance the young man passed away shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Deceased was 34 years of age and is survived by his wife, two children, Edward W. and Francis A., his mother, Mrs. Anna Conroy; three brothers,
James, Frank and William, and two sisters, Mrs. William Smith and Miss Anna C. Conroy. He was a member of local 250, Street Railway Men's union.
For a number of years Mr. Conroy was conductor on the Nashua line, where he made a host of friends through polite manners and genial disposition.
Deceased was always very courteous with the passengers and all who knew him had a good word for him. His demise will be keenly felt by his many acquaintances and particularly by his superior officers, who were well aware of his efficiency as a railroad man.

TAKING THE DARDANELLES

CAPTAIN VON MUECKE SAYS IT IS IMPOSSIBLE—SAYS WATER SUP-PLY CAN BE CUT OFF

VIENNA, via wireless to London,
June 11, 8.45 a. m.—An interview with Captain von Muecke, formerly of the German cruiser Emden, in which he says the forcing of the Dardanelles and the taking of Constantinople are impossible, is published by the newspapers here. He declares submarines are likely to cut off the water supply of allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula which would compel them to surrender as they would be unable to return to their transports.

Captain von Muecke says the guns of the British warships have been damaged by hard usage and superdreadnought Queen Elizabeth soon will be compelled to withdraw on this account. He asserts that the Turks have plenty of ammunition and are magnificent fighters. They lost heavily at first under the fire of guns from the fleet but now have dug themselves in and are using the best means possible to destroy allied landing parties.

Captain von Muecke apparently has arrived at Vienna on his way to Berlin after having piloted the landing party which was under his command when the Emden was sunk, from Cocos island to safety at Damascus, whence it was not difficult for them to reach Constantinople.

LEWISTON, Me., June 11.—Thomas
McNamara was beaten into insensibility by three men near his home, two miles out of this city, last night and robbed of between $500 and $700. Mr.
McNamara was unable to give any clue to his assailants, one of whom wore a mask. The assault and robbery took place on an unfrequented road and the police believe the men escaped in an automobile.

LOST NURSE FOUND

FRAMINGHAM, June 11.—Following a search of the past few days which involved the police departments of five cities and towns, Miss Helen Carter, 28, a nurse, who disappeared from Framingham, was located Wednesday at the home of a brother in Revere.
Miss Carter, it is understood, was suffering from a mental strain.

Going Out of the Furniture Business

The above statement is not merely a catch phrase to create some extra business, but a fact. For the past several years we specialized in handling stove repair parts, carrying same in stock, for all kinds of stoves and ranges. This branch of our business has grown to such an extent that we must give it more space, and in order to accomplish this we have decided to give up everything in the furniture line and in the future confine our stock to Stoves, Floor Coverings and Bedding only and an increased stock of stove repairs.

YES WE ARE SELLING OUT

Entire stock of Refrigerators, Go-Carts, Baby Carriages, Buffets, Dining Tables, Dressers, Art Squares, Linoleums, Oil Cloths and Bedding reduced to prices never heard of before. Act quickly. Our stock is not large and will not last long. This is a chance of a lifetime for you to get some real bargains.

REMEMBER, we are not going out of business and we are not going to move from our present location. Our future business will be confined specially to stove repair parts for all kinds of stoves and ranges and an increased stock of stoves, iron and brass beds and floor coverings of all kinds. Nothing in furniture. We are going to change our name, too. It will be Quinn Stove Repair & Supply Co.

ANOTHER VICTORY OVER LEWISTON

Lowell Earned Verdict
in Hard Fought 3-1
GameInside Baseball Enabled
Home Team to Win
Contest

Lowell triumphed over Lewiston yesterday for the second time in as many days, defeating the Maine club by giving a fast, heady exhibition of the national pastime to a 3-1 finish.

Opposed to the local batters was a person named Whitaker and this same person can pitch, by the way. Lohman was on duty for Lowell and his heaving was also good although classy fielding behind him helped him on several occasions. Whitaker twirled gilt edge ball.

Two of Lowell's runs came across as the result of squeeze plays and the other tally was scored when the Lewiston pitcher cut loose a wild heave with Barrows on third. The game in detail:

First Inning
Lohman took Maloney's grounder and umpire McGauley called the runner out. The play was close. Becker hit a grounder toward third and local catcher threw the ball went beyond McGauley's reach to the bleachers and Becker went to second. He was caught off second, taking a big lead. The Lewiston speedster did not appreciate the ump's ruling and kicked on the decision but to no avail. Denoville fled to Barrows in right center. No runs, one hit, one error.

Swayne's grounder was taken by Prysock while coming in hard. It was a slow bouncer and the Lewiston shortstop played it the only way to get the speedy Swayne. Whitaker hopped into the air and took Dee's grounder although the ball threatened to fly over his head into safe territory. Barrows bit swept the ball over Becker's head for a long triple to center. It was a great clutch and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Bowcock at the bat, Whitaker was wild and his fourth ball one to Benzie proved to be a wide one which Holmes could not handle and Barrows crossed the plate before the catcher could regain the sphere. Bowcock went out trying to steal second and the first inning was over with Lowell one run in the good. One run, one hit, no errors.

Second Inning
Denoville struck out going after Lohman's curve on his last strike. Fahey trotted into the diamond near the box where he caught McCarthy's high fly. Fahey then made a great stop of Phillips' hard smash over his head, but found it impossible to get the runner at first. Ritter tried to drive over his head into safe territory, but this time the ball was low enough for Fahey to hold onto. Both of these last two plays were beauties. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Stimpson's grounder over second and threw to Denoville at second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was retired by the same method as Stimpson. McGuinn struck out, the first sacker notwithstanding at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning
Prysock drove out a double to left. Stimpson tried to smother the ball but it bounded over his shoulders. Prysock took a long lead off second and snappy work by Ahearn doubled him between second and third. Ahearn ran into the diamond before pegging and the Lewiston shortstop hopped it for third but found Fahey waiting at the hot corner with the ball. Whitaker died on a grounder to Bowcock. Maloney paid no attention to his pitcher's fate but he also smashed one and Benzie and the result was just the same as in the previous instance. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ritter stopped Fahey's hard grounder and his throw to first reached the bag ahead of Howard. Lohman got one on the end of his pole and the ball rolled between Becker and Maloney for three bases. On the signal for a squeeze play, Swayne hit to the box and Lohman crossed the plate although Swayne was out at first. The Lowell team is beginning to look like an "honest to goodness" ball club. Dee's hard grounder bounced off Whitaker's glove but McCarthy got hold of it and threw it first for McCarthy's extinction. One run, one hit, no errors.

Fourth Inning
Becker's short fly to left was pathed in by Stimpson though it looked as if the ball would drop in safe territory. Bowcock was the main squeeze in the next two Lewiston deaths. Holmes poked a grounder to our new second baseman and Benzie's throw got him easily at the first depot. Denoville then sent an easy liner at him and the Barrows crowd went to bat. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Whittaker smacked Barrows with his curve. The ball smote him in the back and seemed to hurt some for he haunter along the base line with a pained expression about his face. Barrows took second on a passed ball. He came close to being thrown out. He started late and then ran over the bag, but McCarthy dropped the ball. It was all right. Barrows went to third on Bowcock's sacrifice and the official scorer got ready to chalk up another Lowell victory when Barrows scored on Stimpson's bunt in front of the plate. Each of Lowell's runs was made via the squeeze route. Ahearn's drive to first pulled down by Phillips and the inning was over. One run, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning
McCarthy's bat crashed through the atmosphere thrice. McGuinn took care of Phillips' line drive without moving from his tracks. Ritter lifted a fly that was foul by a few feet in short left. Dee shouted for the ball and Stimpson allowed him to make the catch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

MANAGER "CUKE" BARROWS

er but managed to field it in time to Whitaker who covered the sack for a put-out, or at least the umpire called it that. McGauley did not look any better today on his decisions than yesterday. Fahey's fly in right center went into Phillips' hands. Lohman was easily thrown out by Whitaker on his weak grounder to the box. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sixth Inning
Lohman speared Prysock's grounder and threw him out at first. The visiting pitcher was a weak proposition at the bat, his three swings in this inning being useless. Fahey made a nice stop of Maloney's hard grounder along the third base line, but could not recover it in time to get the batter. If the blow had gotten by Fahey, Maloney would surely have gone to second. Becker drove a long triple to right center which easily scored Maloney. Becker overran the bag and Ahearn pointed out to McGauley that a coacher in the third base coaching box had touched Becker. McGauley called him out and a bowl of indignation arose from the Lewiston bench as the players surrounded the umpire. After a lot of talking the game was resumed under protest of the Lewiston team, their claim being that the runner touched the coach instead of the reverse. One run, two hits, no errors.

Swayne singled to right but Dee, following him, hit into a double play when he groundered to Whitaker. The latter threw to second forcing out Swayne, and Dee was shut out at first. Prysock scooped up Barrows' creeper and his throw to Denoville sent the Lowell players back to their fielding positions. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.

Seventh Inning
Dee pulled down Holmes' short drive toward left and Fahey tucked away Denoville's infield fly. McCarthy dumped a Texas leaguer into short center and then stole second. Ahearn's throw being slow, Phillips was allowed to pass to first when the umpire called four bad ones. Ritter then struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The Lewiston players made several satirical remarks about Ahearn. They claimed that he was influencing the umpire's decisions. "Ah, get a job as an umpire, one of them yelled," while Ahearn asked McCarthy if he carried Ahearn with him to call balls and strikes. Some of the remarks were very funny. Bowcock died on a grounder to McCarthy. Stimpson's long smash was tucked away by Becker. Ahearn struck the seventh round with a strike-out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.

Eighth Inning
Fahey yanked down Prysock's grounder and pegged to McGuinn for the runner's retirement. Bowcock threw out Whitaker on his slow roller. Maloney slashed a single between Fahey and Dee in the left but went out a moment later when he tried to steal second. Ahearn's peg being O. K. runs, one hit, no errors.

McGuinn hit to Prysock. Prysock picked up the ball a few inches from the ground and threw to first. The ball was low and went to the first base bleachers. McGuinn taking second. The umpire called him out, however, ruling that Prysock made a clean catch of the drive. Fahey crossed up the Lewiston defense when he bunted safely and then stole second. Lohman lifted to Maloney at short left Swayne was thrown out at first by Ritter. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.

Ninth Inning
Becker went on a close decision on a grounder to Dee. Dee also threw out Holmes. No runs, no hits, no errors.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The West Ends of the Area defeated the North Chelmsford White Sox on Saturday by the score of 17 to 2.

The Junior A. C. made it five straight Saturday by defeating Beards' team in the morning by the score of 21-14 and the Methuen A. C. in the afternoon by the score of 14-2. We will play Beards' team Saturday morning at 9 o'clock for a quarter ball.

The Pleasant Street Stars would like a challenge from any 9 or 10 year old team in the city. Our lineup is as follows: J. Macafee, c, H. Reno, p, F. Flannery, 1b, J. Burns, 2b, C. Hancock, 3b, E. Carger, ss, J. Hainsworth, cf, J. Garvey, rf and H. Monahan, lf. Send all challenges to Manager Austin Brennan, 155 Pleasant street.

The South End Juniors would like to challenge any 12 or 13 year old team in the city for one quarter ball. See manager at 37 Summer street. The lineup is as follows: Walter, Doughty, c, John, Lowe, p, Edward, Witherby, 1b, John, Patten, 2b, William, Ryan, ss, Michael Flood, 3b, Michael Zawn, rf, Arnold Evans, lf, Manuel Pardee, cf.

ATHLETE ACTORS

Princeton Stadium the Scene of Greek Plays
Today and Tomorrow

PRINCETON, N. J., June 11.—Princeton's athletes will perform in the stadium this afternoon, but in the role of actors and not as athletes. A number of the prominent football and crew men have responded to Granville Barker's call for students to supe in his Greek plays, which are to be given in the Palmer stadium.

The list includes I. Swart and W. Swart, R. Nourse, track and football man; Hieyinger and Longstreth, substitute guards; Kaufman and Halsey, two freshmen eleven men, and McKibben, Helton and Winant of the crew. Present indications point to a crowd of about 10,000 at the performances this afternoon and Saturday morning.

DIAMOND DAZZLES

Lowell looks like a different aggregation nowadays than the club which well nigh disgusted us all with its ragged fielding and poor judgment. One couldn't ask for better baseball than the locals have furnished during the past two days at Spalding park.

It looks as though Pres. Hoach was a fixer. There hasn't been a sign of ivory displayed since he found himself a seat on the home bench. Perhaps the thoughts of lost meat tickets has cleared up what home there was among the local players.

Walter Ahearn must be given the largest share of credit for the present plunger among our ranks. The big catcher has instilled more life in the team than it seemed possible.

The Lewiston players surely took a dislike to Ahearn yesterday. The Lowell catcher talked to Emile McGauley quite frequently and the visitors accused him of giving decisions. McGauley has done all that. Anyhow the umpire did not do it.

Out of the cellar at last and now let's see that we stay out and climb up into faster company. The kind of baseball we have seen the past couple of days is too speedy for any place other than the top positions.

Matty Zleser of the Lowell team is on a fair way to hang up a record for hitting players. If he continues as he has played the present season up to Wednesday he hit 14 players, which is an unusually large number. On May 1, he hit Gardella of Worcester; May 6, Sullivan and Gannon of Fitchburg; May 8, Kishuloff of Manchester; May 11, Lynch of Lynn; May 18, Ritter, Duggan and Smith of Fitchburg; May 27, Collins twice; June 1, McGauley and Kane of Manchester; June 4, Flaherty of Lawrence; June 7, Keegan of Worcester.—Lawrence Tribune.

If any one wants a jinx for a pet or companion he may obtain a well-trained one from Raymond Keating of Bridgeport, Conn., and the Polo Grounds. Ray is of the opinion that Leon Ames, old Polo Grounds jinx, wishes to be adopted by the Keating family, and Brother Jinx hangs around despite "Keats" warm objection. History is repeating itself for Ray. Last season the big ball artist took a game early in April, which was his lone triumph until late July. He was in a jinx with one win and ten defeats, despite the fact that he pitched some pretty fair ball. After that luck broke a little better and Ray closed the season with seven victories against eleven defeats.

This season Keating is moving along in his 1914 manner. He won his first game from the Red Sox 2 to 0. Since then he always has pitched good ball but is generally on the short end of one run. The Athletics beat him, 2 to 1; the Indians, 3 to 1; the White Sox, 7 to 6; the Red Sox, 4 to 3 (thirteen innings), and the Tigers, 3 to 2. Is it any wonder that "Keats" feels certain that he and the fates are on bad terms?

The oldest baseball in existence is owned by the president of the East and church baseball league in Pittsburgh. The ball is nearly 33 years old. It was used in a championship game between the Eclipse team of Kingstown, N. Y., and the Hudson team of Newburgh, N. Y. The game was played June 20, 1882, and ended 19 to 15 in favor of the Kingston team. The ball is made of one piece horsehide, sewed in the center. The ball carries $500 buy-back insurance and $500 fire insurance. It was given to its present owner by John Miller, who is 100 years old and who played first base on the Eclipse team.

Jesse C. Burkett of the Worcester team lost catcher Walter Ahearn because Worcester was on the road last week. Ahearn wrote to Burkett, but Burkett did not get the letter until he got back to Worcester. In the meantime Walter signed with Lowell.—Exchange.

Our old friend Rube DeGroot has been heard from and the old boy is just sticking in old time form for the Wilkesbarre team of the New York State league. When Manager Pete Noonan signed up the former Lowell outfielder, the fans of Wilkesbarre yelled murder at Noonan at getting a player, who was supposed to be "all in" from being "all in" and he is hitting the ball very hard, while his fielding has been excellent.

Billy Peters of the Lawrence Tribune says: There has been a load on my shoulders for some time and I know of no better case to shake it off. When Dan Noonan announced last winter that he had traded Larry Mahoney to New London for Jake Warner we yelled blue murder, failing for the bunk that Warner was an "all in" case. It so happened the Eastern association did not start and Mahoney was saved to the champs, for which turn of affairs the fans were most thankful. As for Warner, he may be an "awkwardly" slow fielder, but he is a "ground" ball, but if this characterization is so Jake has not shown it in the games he played for Lawrence to date. Warner is the premier second sacker of the New England league and performing to the satisfaction of the club and the fans.

The game played between Worcester and Lowell May 1 was really the shortest game played in the New England league this season. The full nine innings took up one hour and 23 minutes. Manchester and Worcester played a full game in one hour and 20 minutes May 11, but it was only eight and one-half innings.

The veteran Denny Bowcock is back in the New England league, playing with Lowell. Bowcock went west last fall and this spring joined the Seattle club of the Northwestern league along with Louie Courtney. Courtney was released by Lynn, while Bowcock gave Bowcock that liberty. Courtney returned east some time ago.

If the Fitchburg reports are correct—that Mike Lynch threw the third sack into left field he should be forcibly reminded that he is but a small part of the national game. He did a "fresh" thing here last Saturday when just because Lynch lost he threw the ball last into play into right field.—Lawrence Tribune.

Harry H. Aubrey has yet to umpire a game in Lowell. The season is six weeks old, yet Harry has not worked in the Spindle city.

INJURIES TO ATHLETES
MALDEN, June 11.—After a controversy the athletic board of Malden high school has agreed to pay Capt. Arthur C. Doyle of the baseball team $35 for medical treatment following an injury sustained by him during the football season last fall. Doyle was hurt during a contest, but the athletic board refused to pay the bill when it was first tendered.

Walter Rowe of this season's baseball team will receive $150 to have his teeth made on two teeth which were damaged when he was struck in the mouth with a bat.

TO GET RID OF UNSIGHTLY HAIRS

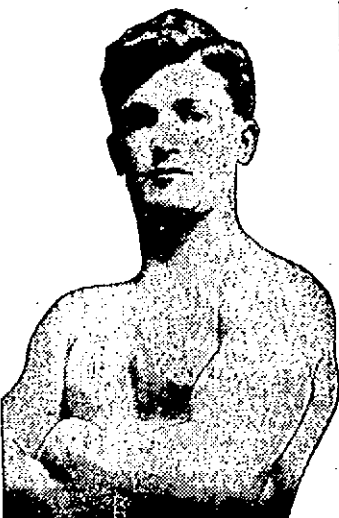

There is only one safe and sure way to get rid of hairs—and that is to dissolve them—then you kill the hair roots entirely. To do this, get one ounce of simple sulfo solution from your druggist—apply with the finger tips—keep the hairs moist for a week or two. You will see them gradually shrivel up and dissolve—wash the parts with warm water—and you will find that the hairs have disappeared entirely—leaving the skin soft and smooth as velvet, without a mark or scar of any kind.

People Used to Call Me "Skinny"

Look Like a New Man

A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. Have gained 15 pounds and am gaining yet. I look like a new man," declared a man who had just finished the Sargol treatment.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work. I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put 10 pounds on me in 14 days," writes W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

Would you, too, like to quickly put from 10 to 30 pounds of good, solid "stay-there" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bone?

Don't say it can't be done. Try it. More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the test, and that Sargol does succeed, does make thin folks fat, even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic diet, flesh creams, massage, oils or emulsions, but a simple, harmless home treatment. Louis K. Liggett Co., Carter & Sherrill, C. F. George & Co., F. H. Butler & Co., Fred Howard, Lowell Pharmacy, "Phelan's" Pharmacy, Thos. C. Walker, Roy F. Webster, A. L. Fields and other leading druggists in Lowell and vicinity sell SARGOL in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—on a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

HIS NOSE BROKEN

Bobby Shang Got an Awful Bang in the Face

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—Bobby Shang, the Pirate catcher, is in a hospital today suffering from injuries received during batting practice yesterday, when a bat slipped from the hands of Bill Hinchman and struck him in the face. Shang's nose was broken in two places, three teeth were knocked out and he was badly bruised. Although his injuries are painful, physicians do not believe he will be kept out of the game long.

CHARLEY WHITE
Charley White, the Chicago lightweight, now has a record of winning seven of his last eight bouts with knockouts. He naturally feels that such performance entitles him to a match with Lightweight Champion Welsh, but he isn't passing any of the tough nuts up on his way to the championship fight. He shows this by taking on Young Brown, the rugged New Yorker, at the American Sporting Club next Wednesday night. Brown won his last bout with a knockout, too, and enjoyed the distinction of having put Mat Wells flat on his back when the latter was England's champion lightweight.

THE MARRIED TEACHER

BOSTON CHAIRMAN OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND SUPERINTENDENT CONDEMN HAVERRHILL RULE

BOSTON, June 11.—The precedent established by the school committee in the city of Haverhill yesterday, when, after a lengthy meeting, it was voted that a woman teacher who married was still eligible to remain on the teaching staff and not at once be removed and would not be received with approval in Boston, according to the views of Michael Corcoran, chairman of the school committee, and Superintendent Franklin P. Dyer.

"I would positively oppose such a measure as this instance in Haverhill," declared Chairman Corcoran, when interviewed on the question last night. "You can also quote me as saying," continued the chairman, "that I do not believe in it for a minute. That is my personal opinion regarding the matter, but as far as such a thing over occurring here, I would say that it is out of the question."

When asked for a statement regarding the Haverhill case, Superintendent Dyer refused to pronounce judgment on that individual case. He said:

"From my years of experience, I have always found that when a teacher or married she is ready to resign her position—as a rule she marries for a home, and her home duties do not permit her either the time or inclination for further carrying on the school work."

"I can truthfully say that in the 20 years I have been identified with school work I have never known but one instance when a teacher married and was reluctant about handing in her resignation. That case, though I would not want to state positively, was due to what I would call a convenience marriage. The woman had been on the teaching staff for several years."

JURY COULDN'T AGREE

BOSTON, June 11.—After seven hours of futile deliberation, the jury in the suit of Miss Maude Birch, formerly a seamstress in the employ of the family of Prof. F. C. Lowell, against the latter's wife, Mrs. Constance S. Lowell, for damages for alleged slander and malicious prosecution, reported a disagreement yesterday before Judge Raymond in the superior court.

BRYAN'S MISSION

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has once again discovered that he has a great mission to perform, and true to his inspiration he has set out to perform it. What matters it that he has embarrassed the government, put grave obstacles in the way of President Wilson, made of American diplomacy a thing to be ridiculed in the government circles of all nations and run counter to the expressed opinion of the American people? The super-sensitive conscience of Bryan has whispered, and it is for him to obey, as Don Quixote obeyed the call of chivalry. Like Don Quixote, too, Mr. Bryan has discovered great wrongs and he is up and away to right them.

It was inevitable that in any crisis demanding close attention to details and familiarity with international affairs, a break should come between President Wilson and his premier. Mr. Bryan is pre-eminently a man of peace, and it is so hard you know to keep at peace permanently if you send diplomatic notes to foreign governments. Far better in the opinion of the former secretary that we put all thoughts of evil out of our hearts, persuade ourselves that every government on earth is ready to throw sugar plums at us, and send messages of love and exalted inspiration to everybody. Of course there is such a thing as international law but it is mostly scraps of paper as some people seem to imagine.

Mr. Bryan is in many ways a most remarkable man and a great force for good, but he should never have been made secretary of state, unless it was meant to show the American people what a mistake he would have been as president. His honesty of motive is above question; his sincerity is undoubted and his ideals glitter like soap bubbles, but his judgment is warped and his sense of proportion has been torpedoed. He suffers too from the exaggerated ego, though he puts his manifold perfections at the service of America and the world.

America has no great fault to find with Mr. Bryan's resignation in its relation to this country, but there is one grave impropriety in it that would have kept a less self-centered man in the cabinet. It will create a very bad impression abroad and give unfriendly governments an opportunity to allege that the American public is not united behind President Wilson. In this light, Bryan's resignation is an act of great indecency and disloyalty, and though he pays homage to his chief, his action proves otherwise, and actions still speak louder than words. The country will follow the immediate career of our great peace prophet with intense curiosity, waiting to see how much of the resignation was prompted by his heart and how much by his head.

Mr. Bryan is about to go into the highways and byways of the nation in the cause of peace. He does not wish this nation to go to war. Who wishes this nation to go to war? What is Bryan going to fight? He has admitted that President Wilson seeks the same ends, and if it comes to a choice between the two men, the American people will stand with the great leader who has steered the ship of state so wisely through dangerous seas and earned for himself the confidence of his own country and the admiration of the world. Mr. Bryan on the contrary has attracted considerable attention, but most complimentary notices of him of late have been prefaced by an apology. He means well but—! Only goes to prove that good men are not necessarily great and that something is needed in the game of practical diplomacy besides a benign expression, a good voice, peerless vocabulary and supernatural confidence in the motives of all foreign powers.

How will Bryan's resignation and his announcement of his peace mission affect the German answer to the American note? How would Von Jagow's resignation affect us, under similar circumstances? Suppose that before the last German reply was sent us, Von Jagow had gone to the kaiser, refused to sign the note and announced his intention of preaching a different policy. Would it not make the German note look a little sick? If the American note does not look sick to the German government, it is not Bryan's fault. True, it is, however, that Bryan, in this, speaks for a section of the American public of which the greater part is Bryan himself. Yet his arguments will probably be seized by Germany and hurled back at President Wilson in reply to the note just sent. That is how Mr. Bryan will assist in opposing President Wilson in standing for the rights and interests of this nation. If Mr. Bryan could not conscientiously support President Wilson in his attitude, he was justified in resigning, but he is not justified in going out on the public platform to assail the president's stand and stir up factional strife that will embarrass the administration and give comfort to the enemies of our country.

THAT NEW BRIDGE

In planning for the new bridge at Pawtucketville, the municipal council seems to have gone very loosely about the work to say the least. Without adequately informing the public as to the details of the plan, or providing for any competition, the city authorities have arranged for its construction on very uncertain grounds and without safeguarding the public interest in an adequate manner. In a minor proposition, this mode of procedure might be overlooked, but in an undertaking that will surely involve the spending of $50,000 and that may possibly involve the spending of considerably more, the public would like to see business done differently.

If the occasion was so pressing that we were compelled to erect the bridge without delay, one might understand the haste of the municipal council, but the building of bridges, the supplying of steel and the making of cement are not confined to one firm, and there should have been a fair and open opportunity for all bridge builders who cared to bid to submit their plans before anything definite was done. But Mayor Murphy said he would have no contract work and the council assented. Furthermore, the municipal council did not act with a proper sense of responsibility to the public in agreeing as to cost before the specifications were drawn up. It would be better that we had definite plans before we talked price; all private concerns readily understand the danger of deciding on a certain sum for improvements and making plans to suit.

So far as the actual cost is concerned, the bridge may possibly be erected within the $50,000 if Engineer Denman and Commissioner Morse agree on the labor question. The out of town engineer had some very positive views as to contract labor, etc., at the start, but he has moderated them considerably in the face of local opposition. Possibly if the specifications were rigid on the question of cost, his views would be more rigid. City jobs have a way of running away ahead of appropriations, even when the specifications or contracts are more specific and satisfactory than in this case.

The municipal council has taken a great deal for granted, and has acted in a slipshod fashion, calculated to endanger the public interest. Consequently, if the bridge is in any way a disappointment, in cost or otherwise, the people of Lowell may be pardoned for asking why fair competition was not provided for, and why the preliminary plans for the bridge were not made more definite, more protective of the city's interests.

SUPERVISED SUMMER PLAY

The last meeting of the park board resulted in action being taken connected with the summer playgrounds that will mean a great deal to the young people of the city and their parents for the next few months. Though practically a new institution in Lowell, the abandonment of the playgrounds would be considered a great hardship, and still it is doubtful if we have yet brought out all their possibilities. In a few years, organized and supervised summer play may be considered as important for the proper development of children as the school attendance in the winter season.

As before, the playgrounds at the North and South commons, Allen street, Textile school, and Paige street will be opened, and additional playgrounds will be opened in the regular school grounds. Mr. Weed made the excellent suggestion that the Franklin school triangle be opened for the exclusive use of the women and small children. This, though new, is not radical, and it is in line with the movement to make the use of schools more common for community purposes. Cheap benches might easily be placed in most of the school playgrounds all over the city and in this way many grateful breathing spots might be opened without additional expense. Parks have been called the lungs of the city, and the opening of little spaces such as the school grounds would afford relief and relaxation to many.

The park board has done well also in opening a temporary recreation field at the Horn land in the Highlands, and in Shedd park, and it would seem that there is an opportunity for such playgrounds in all sections. With a little co-operation between the park department and private owners, temporary ball grounds might be opened during the summer months without much cost to the department in many lots and stretches, of undeveloped property. We cannot go too far in promoting organized and supervised play, for nothing conduces more to crime than the promiscuous mixing of youngsters without safeguard or protection against the influence of toughs and undesirable.

The young women who have volunteered their services as supervisors over the summer playgrounds deserve the thanks of the city, and it is to be hoped that their unselfish service will bring to them some of the pleasure it will give to others.

LYMAN ABBOTT'S VIEWS

Dr. Lyman Abbott of the Outlook is well known as a pacifist, or what Mr. Taft calls a pacifist, but there is something more inspiring in his ideals of peace than in those of more advertised peace propagandists. He does not believe in peace at any price, as he explained at a recent dinner of the Army and Navy league. The following excerpt from his address will appeal to all good Americans whether they be inclined to follow the banner of Gardner or that of Bryan:

I am sorry to say that recent events have shown myself and a great many others that the era of the appeal to reason is a great deal farther off than we thought. The first fundamental of government is protection of persons and property. If it does not protect it has no right to be called a government. I respect the men of the peace societies, but I do not respect their opinion. They are not preaching peace but anarchy. If there is no navy to protect neutrality on the high seas, then every ship must go armed, and that would mean international piracy. I am not for war, but we do want to be prepared to meet what it comes to us. One thing is certain, this nation must have an army and navy adequate to fulfill its duty to itself and the world.

It is inevitable that in consideration of such a momentous question as war, there should be widely conflicting opinions, and it is plain that earnest men hold widely diverging views, but the extreme peace theory is as silly as the extreme preparedness theory. This nation does not desire war with any power on earth, but if the theories of some of our workers for peace had obtained in the days of Washington, there would be no United States.

ROAD TO BILLERICA

The improvement of the Boston road from the Lowell-Chelmsford line to Billerica will be an improvement indeed, and one that will give a more favorable impression of Lowell to anybody approaching the city from that direction. This road has been one of the poor entrances to Lowell so persistently condemned by press and public for the past few years, and the improvement of it in the near future will be in keeping with other commendable improvements. The bettering of this link between Lowell and Boston, the improvement of Rogers street and the construction of a new road along the river to join the new state road at Indian Orchard would give Lowell up-to-date entrances and exits and would remove a blemish that has been all too apparent for many years.

PROPOSED PARK

The proposition for a new park in Pawtucketville, favored by the board of trade, is an excellent one, and the only possible exception will be on the ground of cost. Lowell has neglected its river banks too long, and therefore its greatest park opportunities have been discarded, but even at this late date it is gratifying to find that we are recognizing the beauty and potential utility of our river banks. If the land in Pawtucketville is not developed for park purposes, it will be only a short time before it is cut up for building purposes, and another fine stretch of river bank will have gone the way of all the rest. By all means let us have a new park to set off the new bridge, offer a pleasing prospect in the approach to Pawtucketville and be a boon to the children of that congested district.

SEEN AND HEARD

For those who stand on their dignity there is standing room only.

WORKED ALL RIGHT

A minister in a neighboring town a few Sundays ago surprised his audience by reading the following announcement: "The regular session of the Donkey club will be held as usual at the close of the service. Members will line up just outside of the church door, make remarks and stare at the ladies as they pass, as is their custom. Any member known to escort a lady to church and sit with her like a gentleman will be expelled from membership."

The application was to the point and the effect was marvelous.

EARTH'S AWAKENING

I love to watch the earth arise, to rub her dull and drowsy eyes, to yawn and stretch and with a bound land firmly on the velvet ground. I love to see the bright array of colors for a billionsome day, to make the world a fairy den for nature and the haunts of men. I love to feel the wooing breeze, caressing softly through the trees and sunny warmth of earth and sky to winter calls a last goodbye. I love the singing birds and river, but best of all I love the giver, for he has made the whole world sing that we might have a joyous spring.—Juanita H. Ford in The Roller Monthly.

PAY AS YOU GO

It seems hard to live within a limited income, yet people do it.

They exist on the bare necessities. They realize that poverty is a cheerless companion. Yet they live within their income. The monthly bills are paid. They look the world in the face, fearlessly.

The temptation to spend is great. They can spend because credit is always easily obtained even by the most unworthy. But credit is in the long run, a nemesis of worry, the destroyer of peace and happiness.

Debt is a tyrant, relentless and obdurate.

THE ZEPPELINS

The Zeppelins have proved to be of slight utility in war. Their known achievements thus far in bomb-dropping raids, killing a few score women and children, and non-combatant men and women, have brought no military advance but much of moral loss. And the thrilling story of the destruction, near Ghent, of a giant airship by a monoplane pursuing it over Belgium from the raid on the east coast of England, shows how easy a prey such a monster gas-bag structure may be for an aeroplane operated by a daring aviator.—Worcester Post.

CONSTANTINOPLE

With Constantinople in the hands of the allies a decisive barrier will be erected to Germany's aspirations in the southeast. There is no question of her desire to expand eventually through Austria and Turkey to Asia Minor and on to the Persian gulf. But with Russia entrenched on the Bosphorus, or a neutral state established at the strait, she can no longer hope for the fulfillment of her dream. It is scarcely another way could her imperial ambitions be more impressively checked than by taking the Turkish capital out of weak hands and placing it in strong ones. The Kaiser must see with bitterness the gradual creeping of the allies towards the famous capital on which he has so long had his eye.—Providence Journal.

TOWN GOVERNMENT

While it is undoubtedly true that no better form of democracy exists than that of town government as it was known to the people of the colonies, it is equally true that some other form becomes necessary when the voters of a town outnumber the people that can be assembled in the town hall.—Lynn Item.

COUNT BERNSTORFF

These burdens are heavier and more trying for Count Bernstorff than they would be for a man of coarser fibre. Count Bernstorff is a man of culture, of social attainments, inherently and by training a gentleman. It is fitting, therefore, that the people of America should think and speak of him with kindly feeling and with sympathetic appreciation of the burdens he is carrying.—Providence Tribune.

POINT OF VIEW

Dr. Kuno Meyer roundly scores Harvard for allowing its students to impute German principles, and a professor in the University of Rochester declares himself unable to teach German because its present principles are not according to the ideals of Goethe and Schiller. It all seems to depend on the point of view.—Brockton Times.

MAJ. A. B. PUTNAM DEAD

MALDEN'S FIRST APPOINTEE TO WEST POINT SUCCEEDS SUDDENLY

MALDEN, June 11.—Word was received here yesterday of the sudden death in Little Rock, Ark., of Major Alfred Burpee Putnam, Malden's first appointee to West Point.

Maj. Putnam died Tuesday. He was 35 years old. He was a native of Malden, a son of the late Henry L. Putnam, scaler of weights and measures. He attended Malden High and was graduated from the military academy in 1899.

Major Putnam had served in the Philippines, San Francisco, Puget Sound and in the south. In Little Rock he had charge of engineering projects. He is survived by a wife, who was Miss Myrtle Harris of this city; a son, two brothers, Frederic L. Putnam and Otis C. Putnam of Melrose, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Bedlow of Texas and Miss Florence Putnam of this city. The body will be brought here next Sunday.

BRYAN TO ADDRESS ELKS

WILL APPEAR IN LYNN MONDAY AND GIVE FIRST PUBLIC TALK SINCE RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Announcement was made yesterday that William J. Bryan had accepted an invitation to be the guest of Lynn lodge of Elks at the flag day celebration to be held in Lynn June 14 under the auspices of that organization.

Ex-Secretary Bryan will make his first public address since parting with President Wilson at Lynn, where he will be the principal speaker at a celebration. The president declined an invitation some time ago and Sec. Daniels of the navy, who had agreed to visit Lynn, cancelled his acceptance last week.

Before retiring as secretary of state Mr. Bryan had tentatively promised Congressman Pelham to make an address in Lynn and in response to a telegraphic inquiry as to his intention of keeping the tentative engagement Mr. Bryan replied yesterday afternoon that he would visit Lynn.

Senator Lodge, it is understood here, is to make a patriotic address and the bringing together upon the same platform of two such prominent persons in national affairs promises to make the flag day celebration in Lynn conspicuous throughout the country.

SIX WERE KILLED

Miners Cut Into Drift of Abandoned Mine—Were Buried

JOPLIN, Mo., June 11.—Six men were buried beneath tons of water, earth and rocks in the Longacre-Chapman mine near here late last night, when they cut into a drift of an abandoned mine. A seventh man was rescued after being hurled nearly 700 feet by the force of the cave-in. The six are believed to have been instantly killed.

IN POLICE COURT

George Walsh, who came to this city some months ago and stole 15 Boston & Maine trip tickets, the property of William H. Noonan, the Centralville druggist, walked into the police station last night and gave himself up. He claimed that his conscience has troubled him ever since the theft. He had no visible means of support and when his case came up in police court before Judge Enright this morning he was sentenced to one month in jail.

William Lamselme came into the clutches of the law for failing to provide for his wife and six children. Mrs. Lamselme testified that her husband contributed only $7 towards maintaining their home since the first of May, and that all the money he gets he uses to buy drink.

Judge Enright ordered defendant to pay his wife $5 a week and to keep away from drink. If he fails to abide by the court's decision he will go to jail for four months.

A young man was in court charged with too frequently expressing himself in profane language. After a heart to heart talk with Judge Enright, in which the young man promised to do better his case was placed on file.

There were four drunken offenders released through the efforts of Probation Officer Slattery.

READ RIOT ACT

New Bedford Cops Must Stop Smoking Pipes—Other Rules

NEW BEDFORD, June 11.—New Bedford's force of 125 policemen can hardly take their place in the sun under the new rules that Chief Thomas C. Allen has just announced. The entire city was stripped of police protection for nearly an hour, while the new police head congregated his subordinates in headquarters and read the riot act to them. So hereafter the background will be the place of operations for the New Bedford bluecoats.

In the first place, patrolmen must not be obstructive at fires. Chief Allen heard that some of the men interfered with the work of the fire fighters at some of the big blazes that have happened in New Bedford, and so the new department rule states that the place for patrolmen at fires is in the background.

Patrolmen cannot hereafter travel in pairs while on duty, for the taxpayers might think they were having too good a time. One of the most stunning blows is that which Chief Allen struck at pipe smoking. Hereafter the police must have been allowed to smoke when off duty, even if they were in uniform, but the new regulation forbids the use of pipes when in uniform, although cigars may be smoked. Cigarettes are not mentioned, but the presumption is that they are under the ban.

Still another clause that will affect the patrolmen during the final hours of their shifts is that which forbids all members of the force from leaning up against buildings. The conversational bent of the minions of the law has also been curbed, for the rule has been read which prohibits patrolmen from talking in unnecessary telephonic language with civilians while on duty, and also forbids a patrolman from talking with a traffic officer while on duty.

MURDER CHARGE

Chauffeur Refused to Speak When Asked to Plead to Indictment

CANBRIDGE, June 11.—Charles E. Warren, a chauffeur living in the Allston district of Boston, refused to speak when asked to plead to an indictment charging him with murdering Walter G. Green, a Newton restaurant keeper and shooting Ruby H. Stewart, an employee of the establishment on which he was arraigned in the superior court today. After the clerk had twice called upon Warren to enter a plea and court officers had made an unsuccessful effort to get him to answer Judge Sisk ordered a plea of not guilty entered and held Warren without bail for trial later.

The shooting took place on June 5. Green was killed while trying to protect Miss Stewart from an alleged murderous attack by Warren, who is said to have been jealous of the young woman.

DENMAN DIDN'T SHOW UP

ENGINEER WITH PLANS FOR NEW PAWTUCKET BRIDGE COULDN'T REACH LOWELL.

The special meeting of the municipal council scheduled for 9 o'clock this morning and called for the purpose of taking further action on plans, contract and agreements in connection with the new Pawtucket bridge, did not materialize, the council receiving word from Engineer Denman, that it would be impossible for him to come to Lowell today with the necessary plans and papers. The mayor called to order, however, and the council adjourned without further ado.

There's a bridge at Nashua that was built by Mr. Denman and as the council had more or less spare time on its hands the members decided to go to Nashua and give the bridge the once over. The trip was made in automobiles and it was a nice day for a ride.

AN INTERESTING CITY

VERONA IN ITALY IS LESS THAN 10 MILES DISTANT FROM AUSTRIAN FRONTIER

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—Immediately inside the Italian border below the Austrian city of Trent, lies the wealthy, ancient city of Verona, an important railway center, a treasury of art, a museum of splendid remains from Roman times through all Italian periods, and altogether one of the most beautiful and interesting cities of northern Italy," according to the geographic statement issued by the National Geographic society today, which deals with the most recent of hostile frontiers in Europe. "Verona is a fortress of the first-class," the statement continues, "and one of the foremost military centers toward the Austrian frontier. In peace times, a garrison of more than 6000 men is stationed here, and here are located the administration offices of Italy's third army corps."

Verona is less than 10 miles distant from the Austrian frontier, from that part of the Austrian Tyrol that projects as a deep wedge into the north Italian hill country. It lies 71 miles west of Venice by rail and 93 miles east of Milan, another great northern railway center, on both banks of the rapid Adige river. It is 194 feet above sea level, with the main and older part of the city lying within an abrupt loop made by the river. The population of the city, with its suburbs, is about 80,000. The main railway lines from Modena and Mantua to Trent and Bozen, and from Venice to Milan cross in the city. The Verona, Venice, Portogruaro line parallels the Austrian frontier and has many strategic branches of much the same value to the Italians in their present struggle as the Bren-Trent line is to the Germans in their defense of their eastern frontier.

"Verona must be the immediate objective of any invasion from the Trentino salient. From Verona west, the trunkline railway leads through a rich industrial and farming region to the great northern towns of Milan and Turin. To the east lies Venice, and to the south are a constellation of thriving manufacturing towns. The frontiers before Verona is strongly fortified both on the Italian and Austrian sides. In recent years, a wide-flung circle of forts, far outside of the obsolete city walls, were begun as a new scheme for the city's defense. The building of these redoubts raised Verona to the position of a fortress of first rank."

"The beginnings of the Venetian fortifications that still remain standing today date from 1527, when Verona was surrounded with new walls and bastions by Sanmichele. Following the congress of Vienna, Verona fell to Austria's share, and the Austrians caused the city to be strongly fortified. The Austrians further fortified Peschiera, Mantua, and Legnago, forming the famous 'Quadrilateral,' upon which powerful series of fortresses the Austrian rule in Italy relied for its principal support until 1866. Verona is the key position to northern Italy."

"Both prosperous and progressive, the city has multiplied its industrial endeavor many times during the last score years. Today there are large paper and cotton mills in the city, an immense nail factory, and piano and organ factories. There is, also, a significant manufacture of war munitions centered here, extensive artillery establishments, and important arsenals. Among the other more important manufactures are silks, soap, candles and sugar. Verona had a large and growing agricultural commerce, being one of the first Italian centers to traffic with Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Germany. It exports wheat, fruit, rice and marble, and twice each year it held a noted horse market."

"A city of wonderful art works, of weather-stained, white marble palaces, often richly sculptured and sometimes showing the worn evidences of sumptuous paintings, with impressive, well-preserved ruins from the days of before the Christian era, Verona has somewhat the appearance of a luxurious decay, with which a confident, pushing, success-breathing spirit of the last few years has contrasted sharply. The museums, picture galleries, libraries, and ancient churches of Verona, with rare treasures, Verona was the birthplace of the famous Romans, Catullus, Cornelius Nepos, Pliny the Younger, and Vitruvius."

LATE WAR NEWS

their advance. Russia, they declare, has delivered a return blow and a hard one. The great masses of German and Austrian troops which have forced a passage of the Dniester river near Zorawna have, according to the latest announcement of the Russian war office, been hung back with heavy losses in both men and material.

Thus for the moment Lemberg is thought to be safe for nowhere else along the Galician front have the Teutonic allies been making progress recently with the exception of course of their southern extension into Bukovina.

News was received yesterday that Russian reinforcements were moving south along the Dniester river from Mikolajow to Rohatyn, but it was hard to expect here that they would achieve such quick results. If this victory has been decisive it is the first real check delivered by the Russians since the start of the new Austro-German rush through Galicia. Here it is characterized as giving renewed faith to British and France in the recuperative powers of Russian arms.

Nothing new has been heard in London concerning the fighting in the Baltic provinces.

The Italians are now less than 20 miles from Trieste, the chief port of Austria.

On the western front the methodical French advance would appear for the moment to have ceased but on the other hand the German counter-attacks do not seem to have been successful.

PARIS OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE FIGHTING IN THE DARDANELLES

PARIS, June 11, 2.30 p. m.—An official announcement concerning the Dardanelles, given out in Paris this afternoon reads as follows:

"In the Dardanelles we have consolidated the results obtained by us in the fighting of June 4.

"At the right end of the ravine of Kereve Dere, we were successful with minor engagements, in making some further progress.

"Prisoners who fell into our hands confirmed previous reports, that the losses of the enemy have been considerable."

SWEDISH STEAMER OTAGO, ROUNDED FOR HULL, TORPEDOED AND SUNK

LONDON, June 11, 1.40 p. m.—The Swedish steamer Otago, round for hull, was torpedoed and sunk last night.

The Otago, of 379 tons, net, was 241 feet long and was built in 1882. She was owned in Solvesborg, Sweden.

GLASGOW STEAMER WAS TORPEDOED WITHOUT WARNING BY GERMANY

CARLISLE, via London, June 11, 2.29 p. m.—The Glasgow steamship Strathcarron was torpedoed yesterday without warning by a German submarine while outward bound from Barry. The crew, which put off in boats, was rescued by a steamer and landed here.

The Strathcarron was a vessel of 2507 tons, built in 1912, at Greenock and was owned by the Strathcarron Steamship Co. of Glasgow. She sailed from Barry June 2 and was reported to have entered the government service.

AUSTRIANS LOSE 10,000 IN BATTLE WITH ITALIANS AT GORIZIA

GENEVA, via Paris, June 11, 4.35 a. m.—A Lathach despatch to the Tribune says: "The Italians began their march against Gorizia on the morning of June 9. When the first detachments were near the city Austrian artillery opened fire and heavy masses of infantry which were thrown forward forced the Italians to fall back several times.

"Italian artillery posted east of the city opened great gaps in the Austrian ranks but up to the morning of the ninth neither side had gained a decisive advantage. The Austrians lost from 8000 to 10,000 men. Gorizia is overflowing with wounded who are being cared for at private houses because of a lack of hospital space."

RUSSIANS CAPTURE 6700 OFFICERS AND MEN AND MANY GUNS

PETROGRAD, June 11.—An official announcement from army headquarters given out today recites a Russian success on the river Dniester.

After hard fighting the Russians yesterday took from their antagonists 17 cannon and 48 machine guns, and captured approximately 6700 officers and men.

The text of the communication follows: "By heroic efforts our troops on Thursday repulsed on the right bank of the river Dniester great forces of the enemy who had crossed near Zorawna, east of Stry. On the front from Julakow to Siewki, the enemy sustained great losses. After a hard fight we captured 17 cannon and 48 machine guns and took prisoner 188 officers and 6500 men. Among the prisoners is one entire company of the Prussian fusilier guards."

RUSSIANS HAVE DRIVEN BACK AUSTRIAN FORCES IN A FIERCE BATTLE

GENEVA, via Paris, June 11, 5.20 a. m.—A despatch to the Tribune from Innsbruck in the Austrian Tyrol, purports to give details of Russian successes in the Galician campaign. The despatch says:

"The Russians bombarded the Austrian positions from Stanislaw to Bork, on the left bank of the Dniester. They have driven the Austrians across the river, taking a large number of prisoners. The Austrians also have been obliged to fall back across the Dniester at Bukasowice. The Russians stopped the advance of an Austrian column marching on Kolomea. The action was fierce and the losses were heavy on both sides."

SCHOONER EXPRESS AMONG THE NAMES OF VESSELS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

LONDON, June 11, 4.59 a. m.—The list of ships torpedoed by German submarines which is printed by the morning papers, contains the name of the schooner Express, the crew of which was landed at Liverpool.

STRONG BULGARIAN PROTEST SENT TO TURKEY REGARDING TRAFFIC

LONDON, June 11, 7.12 a. m.—The Bulgarian government, says a Ruchef despatch to the Times has sent a strongly worded protest to Turkey because of the continued indifference of that country regarding traffic on the Dardanelles railway and the detention of passengers and freight.

GERMAN ORDER AGAINST PUBLICATION OF NEWS WITHOUT A PERMIT

BERLIN, via London, June 11, 7.41 a. m.—The military commandant of Berlin has issued a renewal of the order prohibiting the publication or communication of military information without a previously granted order. He says the publication of German losses, although based on official lists, "could lay no claim to correctness and in part give greatly exaggerated figures. Publications of this nature are calculated to evoke groundless uneasiness among the people and also occasion incorrect ideas abroad concerning German losses."

The commandant, therefore, forbids the publication of all such articles.

FRENCH CRUISER STOPPED SPANISH STEAMER AND TOOK OFF DUTCH CITIZENS

CADIZ, June 10, via Paris, June 11, 5.35 a. m.—The French cruiser Du Chayla stopped the Spanish steamer Canalejas from Larache, Morocco, and took into custody two persons who declared themselves Dutch citizens but who were regarded as suspects. The Canalejas then was allowed to proceed.

AUSTRIANS AND ITALIANS IN THEIR FIRST CONSIDERABLE BATTLE OF WAR

COLOGNE, Germany, June 11, via London, 12.30 p. m.—The correspondent of the Cologne Gazette attached to the Austrian army headquarters in the south says in a despatch that the first considerable battle of the war with Italy has been fought in the region of the Isenzo river and that it resulted favorably to the Austrians.

The Italians attacked Gorizia, Gradisca and Montebelluna, supporting their advance with artillery fire from pieces of large and small calibre. The Italian advance, the correspondent says, was checked by the Austrian fire on their flanks.

FRENCH WIN FURTHER SUCCESSES IN THE LABYRINTH, SAYS PARIS

PARIS, June 11, 2.29 p. m.—The French war office issued the following statement this afternoon on the progress of hostilities:

"There is nothing of importance to add to the announcement given out last night, with the exception of further success in the Labyrinth where we have continued to force the enemy back and some progress to the east of the Labyrinth where we occupied several German side trenches not far from the highway from Arras to Lille.

"In the region of Hebuterne we have extended our advance made to the north and to the south of the battle front on June 7. The occupation of several trenches at this point gave us 1600 prisoners and several machine guns."

RUSSIAN STEAMER DANIA, TORPEDOED—MEMBERS OF CREW SAVED

LONDON, June 11, 1.10 p. m.—The Russian steamer Dania has been torpedoed by a German submarine. The members of her crew were saved.

The Russian steamer Dania was of 1650 tons net, 314 feet long and was built at Sunderland in 1905. She was owned by the Northern Steamship Co., Ltd. of Petrograd. Maritime records show that she has been running between Liverpool and Archangel.

TWO BRITISH FISHING SMACKS SUNK BY ZEPPELINS IN THE NORTH SEA

MAASLUKE, Holland, June 10, via London, 7.15 p. m.—The British fishing smacks Welfare and Laurestine were attacked and sunk by Zeppelins in the North Sea. The crews, which took to their boats were picked up by a Dutch smack and brought here.

BERLIN CLAIMS RUSSIAN ATTACKS ON LOWER DUBNYA REPUSED

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 3.20 p. m.—The German army headquarters today gave out the following official statement:

"In the western theatre: An advance made by the enemy northeast of the Lorete hills and repeated attacks against Russian positions north and south of Neuville failed. Fighting at four quarters in the trenches north of Bourie continues.

"Southeast of Hebuterne and at Beaumont attacks of the enemy were repulsed yesterday and during the night. Only in the district of Serre-Marne the French made an inconspicuous advance.

"The French attempted last night to take away from us the trenches which we captured in Champagne on June 9. The French attack with strong forces extended along a large front to the north of Mezier and as far as the north of Beaumont farm. The attack broke down completely with very heavy losses to the French. Repeated attempts to make night attacks were stopped at their very start.

"In the eastern theatre: On the lower Dubnya, northeast of Eirgola, several Russian attacks were repulsed. The enemy lost 200 prisoners.

"In the southeastern theatre: The situation among the German troops fighting in Galicia is unchanged."

MACMILLAN RELIEF SHIP CAPT. PICKLES.

NEW YORK, June 11.—With two years' supplies in her hold—to be used in the event of an early winter up in Baffin bay—the schooner Cluett, owned by the Grenfell mission, shipped out of the harbor, bound for Labrador. Some of the cargo is consigned to the mission, to which the vessel was presented in 1911, after it was built by George B. Cluett of Troy, but the bulk of it will be consumed by members of the Donald B. Macmillan expedition, sent out by the American Museum of Natural History to find Admiral Peary's Land. Captain Pickles, commander of the Cluett, had his vessel all shipshape. Whether he would be able to bring the members of the exploring party out of the north before ice sealed the water he was unable to say. He would do his best. That was his only statement. In the accompanying illustration the ship is shown as she left New York. There also is shown Captain Pickles at the wheel.

FAMINE STRICKEN CITY AMERICANIZATION DAY EXAMPLE OF GOOD WILL

MONTEREY'S BAKERIES REOPENED ON WEDNESDAY—GREAT EVENT FOR STARVING PEOPLE

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Monterey's bakeries reopened Wednesday for the public, a great event in the famine-stricken city. Consul General Hanna has advised the state department. No bread has been on sale during the past several weeks. Corn supplied by the American Red Cross was furnished Wednesday to 10,000 hungry people in Monterey. A third carload of corn despatched by the Red Cross left Laredo, Tex., Wednesday night for Monterey.

SERIOUS DIFFERENCES GALVESTON, Tex., June 11.—Reports of serious differences between General Villa and General Angeles have reached the constitutionalist committee here. The two commanders, it is alleged, accuse each other of cowardice at the battle of Leon. The report says that each general accuses the other of having ordered the retreat and add that the quarrel may lead to open hostility between the two forces.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—"Americanization day—a day for strengthening the American spirit of nationality and uniting all classes, creeds and races into one intelligent democracy"—is being urged by P. P. Claxton, federal commissioner of education on the national and education officials throughout the country for celebration on July 4.

"Americanization day" is a patriotic call to all citizens, American-born and foreign-born alike, adults and children, to rally to American ideals, purposes and common interests of many people united into one nation," says Commissioner Claxton in a letter made public today and sent to mayors of all cities, school superintendents and other educational institution officials. He has appealed to 7000 of these officials and the movement already has begun in 50 cities, where mayors have appointed committees as a part of the national movement to make Independence day, 1915, "Americanization day." New York and St. Louis, through their public schools have planned a special civic lesson on Flag day, June 14.

Where the movement already has begun, mayors' committees are arranging patriotic receptions for new naturalized citizens and a national Americanization day committee is assisting in the plan for celebrating Independence day.

INVESTIGATE U. S. EXPENDITURES CONCORD, N. H., June 11.—The state public service commission announced today that on July 31 it would begin an inquiry into railroad expenditures in this state since 1912, in accordance with a resolution passed by the legislature in the closing hours of the recent session. In case the inquiry discloses illegal expenditures designed to influence legislation, the legislative resolution called for the publication of all the facts.

ORDER RESTORED AMERICANS SAFE

Riots Followed Lynching of Man Who Confessed to Killing

JOHNSTON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Order has been restored here today following the riotous scenes of yesterday afternoon when John Strando was lynched after he had confessed complicity in the murder of W. B. Chapman and the wounding of Mrs. Benjamin Schull, Chapman's daughter, Wednesday night.

Three companies of the Illinois state guard were patrolling the streets today and the band of foreign miners which assembled last night had dispersed.

Message From American Commissioners at Van, Turkish Armenia

BOSTON, June 11.—A cablegram stating that all the Americans at Van, Turkish Armenia, are safe, was received by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions today. The message, which was the first direct communication received by the board from its mission station at Van in many months, was signed by Dr. Clarence D. Ussher, a medical missionary, and reached this city by way of the American embassy at Petrograd and the state department at Washington. The message read:

General assistance urgent. Mohammedans starting. We have about 1000 in American buildings to whom we can give assistance. Americans safe."

Officials of the board said that the routing of the message confirmed the reports of the capture of Van by the Russians and indicated that the threatened massacre of Christians by Kurds and other Turkish tribesmen had been averted.

THE ITALIAN OPERATIONS

PLAN TO COMPEL AUSTRIA AND GERMANY TO KEEP ENGAGED AN ARMY OF 1,000,000

LUGANO, Switzerland, June 11, via Paris, 11.45 a. m.—Information has been received here from Italian sources that Italy has made an agreement with her allies as to the extent of her offensive campaign. According to this information, which, however, lacks official confirmation the Italian government has undertaken to conduct operations of a character which will compel Austria and Germany to bring up and keep engaged an army of 1,000,000 men.

Italian operations have not been carried to the point necessitating the use by the central empires of an army of such size, but it is expected the development of the Italian campaign beginning with the heavy fighting along the Isonzo river, will compel Italy's opponents to reinforce their armies largely.

The immediate Italian objectives are Trent, Trieste and Villach, the provincial capital of Carinthia.

CITY HALL NOTES

Fire Chief Saunders is making ready for July 4 and he calls attention to that section of the law governing the keeping, storage, transportation, manufacture, sale and use of fireworks and firecrackers. The section in question reads as follows:

No person shall store, sell or keep for sale fireworks or firecrackers without a permit in writing from the chief of the district police or some official designated by him, and except in accordance with these regulations. Applications for such a permit shall be made on blanks prepared for that purpose and furnished by the official to whom the application is made. The fee for the permit and paper caps are included in the word fireworks.

Twenty-two applicants for chauffeur's licenses took the examination at city hall this forenoon. This examination is held every Friday by the state highway commission. The examiners today were Messrs. Lathrop and Bliss.

Superintendent of Parks Kernan stated today that on Monday the park department would get busy on the handball courts at Shedd park and would put it in shape for immediate use.

The mayor has been authorized to buy, through the purchasing agent's office, fifteen tons of loose hay for the health department at a price not to exceed $25 a ton.

PRESIDENT'S FIRST VACATION

CHINESE-AMERICAN BANK

BOSTON, June 11.—Participation of Bostonians in a proposed Chinese-American bank was the subject of a conference arranged for today between Cheng-Hsun Chang, president of the honorary commercial commission of China, and several local bankers. The project, which was recently discussed by the commissioners with New York bank heads, is said to be well under way.

The commissioners were escorted to Lawrence today to inspect several textile mills.

JOHNSON, PLAYING OUTFIELD, TO SHOW TEAMMATES HOW GAMES ARE WON

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Walter Johnson, the Washington speed marvel, has lost quite a few games this year chiefly because his team failed to bat behind him, and now after has essayed the role of instreor and in order that he may be in position to give practical lessons in run getting he is playing in the outfield on the days when he is not called upon to pitch. The "big Swede" is a fairly good stickler, and it is because of his ability with the "willow" that Clark Griffith is allowing his star boxman to experiment in the outer garden. Since the experiment was started the ashington squad has picked up somewhat in team batting, and on at least two occasions timely bingles inserted by the big moundman have carried the victory to the Senators. If Johnson should ever lose his speed and cunning he would still be a great ball player, for he has already demonstrated that he can bat and field as well as some outfielders who are rated as stars.

DEFENDS HIS RESIGNATION

Bryan Appeals Against Wilson—Addresses "American People" in Support of His Policy

WASHINGTON, June 11.—William Jennings Bryan, in an appeal addressed "To the American People," last night asks them to hear him before they pass sentence upon his laying down the portfolio of secretary of state in the midst of international stress.

Confident that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, Mr. Bryan frankly says that good intentions are not enough, and that if the public verdict is against him, he asks no mercy, asserting that men in public life must be "willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution."

Interpreting the American note to Germany on submarine warfare, which he refused to sign, as conforming to the "old system" of diplomatic standards, precedents for which "are written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history," and characterizing himself as a champion of the new system—persuasion instead of force—and as "a humble follower of the Prince of Peace," the former secretary of state pleads for the United States to lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Bryan's Statement

The text of Mr. Bryan's statement follows:

"To the American People:

"You now have before you the text of the note of Germany—the note which it would have been my official duty to sign had I remained secretary of state. I ask you to sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than to share the responsibility for it.

"I am sure you will credit me with honorable motives, but this is not enough. Good intentions could not atone for a mistake at such a time, on such a subject and under such circumstances. If your verdict is against me, I ask no mercy; I desire none if I have acted unwisely.

"A man in public life must act according to his conscience, but however conscientiously he acts, he must be prepared to accept without complaint any condemnation which his own errors may bring upon him; he must be willing to bear any deserved punishment, from ostracism to execution. But hear me before you pass sentence.

Both Want Peace

"The president and I agree in purpose; we desire a peaceful solution of the dispute which has arisen between the United States and Germany. We do not only desire it, but with equal fervor we pray for it; but we differ irreconcilably as to the means of securing it.

"If it were merely a personal difference it would be a matter of little moment, for all the presumptions that go with power and authority. He is your president—I am a private citizen without office or title—but one of the one hundred million of inhabitants.

"But the real issue is not between persons; it is between systems, and I rely for vindication wholly upon the strength of the position taken.

"Among the influences which governments employ in dealing with each other there are two which are pre-eminent and antagonistic—force and persuasion. Force speaks with firmness and acts through the ultimatum; persuasion employs argument, courts investigation and depends upon negotiation.

"Force represents the old system—the system that must pass away; the persuasion represents the new system—the system that has been growing—all too slowly, it is true, but growing for 1900 years. In the old system war is the chief consequence of war which at its best is little better than war at its worst; the new system contemplates an universal brotherhood established through the uplifting power of example.

"If I correctly interpret the note to Germany, it conforms to the standards of the old system rather than to the rules of the new, and I cheerfully admit that it is abundantly supported by precedents—precedents written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history.

Results of Old System

"Austria furnishes the most recent precedent; it was Austria's firmness that dictated the ultimatum against Serbia, which set the world at war. Every ruler now participating in this unparalleled conflict has proclaimed his desire for peace and denied responsibility for the war, and it is only charitable that we should credit all of them with good faith. They desired peace, but they sought it according to the rules of the old system. They believed that firmness would

TEXT OF AMERICAN REJOINDER TO GERMANY

"THE SECRETARY OF STATE AD INTERIM TO THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR AT BERLIN.
"Department of State, Washington, June 9, 1915.
"AMERICAN AMBASSADOR, BERLIN:

"You are instructed to deliver textually the following note to the Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"In compliance with Your Excellency's request I did not fail to transmit to my government immediately upon receipt of your note of May 28 in reply to my note of May 15, and your supplementary note of June 1, setting forth the conclusions so far as reached by the Imperial German government concerning the attacks on the American steamers Cushing and Gullflight, of the principles of the freedom of all parts of the open sea to neutral ships and the frank willingness of the Imperial German government to acknowledge and meet its liability where the fact of attack upon neutral ships 'which have not been guilty of any hostile act' by German aircraft or vessels of war is satisfactorily established; and the government of the United States will in due course lay before the Imperial German government, as it requests, full information concerning the attack on the steamer Cushing.

"The government of the United States notes with gratification the full recognition by the Imperial German government, in discussing the cases of the Cushing and the Gullflight, of the principles of the freedom of all parts of the open sea to neutral ships and the frank willingness of the Imperial German government to acknowledge and meet its liability where the fact of attack upon neutral ships 'which have not been guilty of any hostile act' by German aircraft or vessels of war is satisfactorily established; and the government of the United States will in due course lay before the Imperial German government, as it requests, full information concerning the attack on the steamer Cushing.

SURPRISED AT PALABA CONTENTION

"With regard to the sinking of the steamer Palaba, by which an American citizen lost his life, the government of the United States is surprised to find the Imperial German government contending that an effort on the part of a merchantman to escape capture and secure assistance alters the obligation of the officer seeking the capture in respect of the safety of the lives of those on board the merchantman, although the vessel has ceased her attempt to escape when torpedoed.

"These are not new circumstances. They have been in the minds of statesmen and of international jurists throughout the development of naval warfare and the government of the United States does not understand that they have ever been held to alter the principles of humanity upon which it has insisted.

"Nothing but actual and forcible resistance or continued effort to escape by flight when ordered to stop for the purpose of visit on the part of the merchantman has ever been held to forfeit the lives of her passengers or crew.

"The government of the United States, however, does not understand that the Imperial German government is seeking in this case to relieve itself of liability, but only intends to set forth the circumstances which led the commander of the submarine to allow himself to be hurried into the course which he took.

DECLARES LUSITANIA NOT ARMED

"Your Excellency's note, in discussing the loss of American lives resulting from the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, adverts at some length to certain information which the Imperial German government has received with regard to the character and outfit of that vessel, and Your Excellency expresses the fear that this information may not have been brought to the attention of the United States.

"It is stated that the Lusitania undoubtedly was supplied with masked guns, supplied with trained gunners and special ammunition, transporting troops from Canada, carrying a cargo not permitted under the laws of the United States to a vessel also carrying passengers, and serving, in virtual effect, as an auxiliary to the naval forces of Great Britain.

"Fortunately, these are matters concerning which the government of the United States is in a position to give the Imperial German government official information. Of the facts alleged in Your Excellency's note, if true, the government of the United States would have been bound to take official cognizance in performing its recognized duty as a neutral power, and in enforcing its national laws.

"It was its duty to see to it that the Lusitania was not armed for offensive action; that she was not serving as a transport, that she did not carry a cargo prohibited by the statutes of the United States, and that, if in fact she was a naval vessel of Great Britain, she should not be used as a merchant ship.

"It is performed that duty and enforced its statutes with scrupulous vigilance through its regularly constituted officials.

LUSITANIA CLAIMS 'IRRELEVANT'

"It is able, therefore, to assure the Imperial German government that it has been misinformed. If the Imperial German government should deem itself to be in possession of convincing evidence that the officials of the government of the United States did not perform these duties with thoroughness, the government of the United States sincerely hopes that it will submit that evidence for consideration.

"Whatever may be the contentions of the Imperial German government regarding the carriage of contraband of war on board the Lusitania or regarding the explosion of that material by the torpedo, it need only be said that in the view of this government these contentions are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel.

"But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which throw into the background

any special circumstances of detail that may be thought to affect the cases—principles which lift it, as the Imperial German government will no doubt be quick to recognize and acknowledge, out of the class of ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion or of international controversy.

"Whatever be the other facts regarding the Lusitania, the principal fact is that a great steamer, primarily and chiefly a conveyance for passengers and carrying more than a thousand souls who had no part or lot in the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much as a challenge or a warning, and that men, women and children were sent to their death in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare.

GERMANY'S GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

"The fact that more than 100 American citizens were among those who perished made it the duty of the government of the United States to speak of these things, and once more with solemn emphasis to call the attention of the Imperial German government to the grave responsibility which the government of the United States conceives that it has incurred in this tragic occurrence, and to the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests.

"The government of the United States is contending for something much greater than mere rights of property or privileges of commerce. It is contending for nothing less high and sacred than the rights of humanity, which every government honors itself in respecting and which no government is justified in resisting on behalf of those under its sway and authority. Only her actual resistance to capture, or refusal to stop when ordered to do so for the purpose of visit, could have afforded the commander of the submarine any justification for so much as putting the lives of those on board the ship in jeopardy.

"This principle the government of the United States understands the explicit instructions issued on August 3, 1914, by the Imperial German admiralty to its commanders at sea to have recognized and embodied, as do the naval codes of all other nations, and upon it every traveler and seaman had a right to depend.

"It is upon this principle of humanity, as well as upon the law founded upon this principle, that the United States must stand.

WILLING TO BE INTERMEDIARY

"The government of the United States is happy to observe that Your Excellency, in discussing the sinking of the Lusitania, has expressed the opinion that the Imperial German government is willing, now as before, to accept the good offices of the United States in an attempt to come to an understanding with the government of Great Britain by which the character and conditions of war upon the sea may be changed.

"The government of the United States would consider it a privilege thus to serve its friends and the world. It stands ready at any time to convey to either government any intimation or suggestion the other may be willing to have it convey and cordially invites the Imperial German government to make use of its services in this way at its convenience. The whole world is concerned in anything that may bring about even a partial accommodation of interests or in any way mitigate the terrors of the present distressing conflict.

"In the meantime, whatever arrangements may happily be made between the parties to the war, and whatever may be the opinion of the Imperial German government as to the propriety of the Imperial German government having been the provocation of their circumstantial justification for the past acts of its commanders at sea, the government of the United States confidently looks to see the justice and humanity of the government of Germany vindicated in all cases where Americans have been wronged or their rights as neutrals invaded.

CANNOT ADMIT WAR ZONE CLAIM

"The government of the United States therefore very earnestly and very solemnly renews the representations of its note transmitted to the Imperial German government on the 15th of May, and relies in these representations upon the principles of humanity, the universally recognized understandings of international law and the ancient friendship of the German nation.

"The government of the United States cannot admit that the proclamation of a war zone from which neutral ships have been warned to keep away may be made to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights either of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality. It does not understand the Imperial German government to question those rights.

"It understands it, also, to accept as established beyond question the principle that the lives of non-combatants cannot lawfully or rightfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unresisting merchantman and to recognize the obligation to take sufficient precaution to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belligerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag.

"The government of the United States deems it reasonable to expect that the Imperial German government will adopt the measures necessary to put these principles into practice in respect of the safeguarding of American lives and American ships and asks for assurances that this will be done.

SEC'Y DANIELS PLEASED

He Approves Decision of Court to Stop Sale of Bliss-Leavitt Torpedoes to Foreign Powers

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Secretary Daniels today expressed himself as highly gratified over the decision of the federal district court for the eastern district of New York in the injunction suit brought by the navy department against the E. W. Bliss Co., whereby that company was restrained from selling the so-called Bliss-Leavitt torpedo to foreign powers and from disclosing the secrets of manufacture to any individual, corporation or government.

The opinion of the court, Secretary Daniels declared, approves a policy which he had urged upon congress for a government torpedo manufacture, in response to his recommendation, he said, congress had made an appropriation to increase the government torpedo plant at Newport. "Work on the plant is being pushed forward," the secretary added, "and toward the latter part of the year the enlarged factory will be in operation."

AMERICAN BOYS ENLIST

RETURNED HOSTLER TELLS OF SYSTEM BY WHICH ARMY SERVICE IS MADE ATTRACTIVE

BOSTON, June 11.—Boston is the only Atlantic port where men ship as hostlers on horse-carrying steamers without pay, according to a statement of one of the returning horse tenders yesterday.

Elsewhere along the coast, he declared, the steamship companies pay wages of from $10 to $20, this being true of Jersey City, Portland, Halifax, and Montreal, and he expressed himself as being curious to know who reaps the profit.

This man, who went to England and returned as one of the foremen of a horse crew, said that the shortage of ocean crews is due not so much to military or naval enlistments as to the high wages offered seamen now in England. In the coastwise trade the shortage is such that men can almost set their own price, and, according to this man, $20 is paid stokers for a trip across the channel.

He substantiated, many of the charges made by some of the American boys who have returned from England and who declare they were offered bonuses to enlist in the British service.

Soon after his ship docked, he said, a corporal of the Remount Service—the army hostlers—came aboard looking for recruits. None enlisted at that time, as later a sergeant of a "territorial" infantry regiment appealed for recruits, offering 30 shillings tennence

($7.50) a week, with lodgings free and all found.

In London there is more recruiting, and men who join the Army Motor service as chauffeurs on motor trucks are paid $11.70 a week and found. Several Americans have secured jobs in the Woolwich arsenal at a weekly wage of $22.50, minus 12 cents for insurance.

It is the hope of many of the steamship companies, according to the foreman, to secure color men this summer who will make the trip for the fun of it.

Two Fairs at Half Fare; Railroad Rates Cut In Two

The railroads have greatly reduced their fares and made it possible for you to see both the San Francisco and San Diego Expositions on one ticket. By way of the Burlington Route (C. B. & Q. R. R.) the cost of a railroad ticket to California and back will be only about one-half the usual price, and you can take in the incomparable Colorado scenery, including the Royal Gorge, see Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Salt Lake City on the way, stopping off at any point desired.

Returning, you may enjoy a sea trip up to secure color men this summer who will make the trip for the fun of it. You don't take a trip like this very often. You should see the best scenery on route and not spend any more than is necessary to do it. Tell me when you plan to go, how long you can stay, and let me make up an itinerary to fit your particular needs. Let me explain how and why the Burlington can serve you best. I'll be glad to do it. Write, telephone or call.

URGED TO "SPEED UP" OUTPUT OF MUNITIONS

Lloyd George Tells of Dire Need of Ammunition — Compulsory Powers May be Employed

LONDON, June 11, 5:32 p. m.—Addressing representatives of engineering firms at Cardiff, Wales, David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, said that it was his purpose to organize South Wales to "speed up" the output of munitions, just as Lancashire had been organized and to establish two or three war factories. Referring to the dire need of ammunition, Mr. Lloyd George said:

BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Body of Unknown Man Taken From Merrimack River Just Beyond the Country Club

Medric Goudy and John Tully, engineers on the state highway in Tyngsboro, discovered the body of an unknown man in the Merrimack river yesterday afternoon. The body was found near Gillis' brook, a little way beyond the Country Club. It was a man, a fallen tree and the two men took it to the shore on the boulevard side. Later the body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers Young & Blake. Associate Medical Examiner T. B. Smith viewed the body and said it had been in the water for several days. It was stated that a man

NEW NOTE TO ENGLAND SEIZED BY ITALIANS

OFFICIALS AT WASHINGTON ASSEMBLING DATA FOR ANOTHER PROTEST

WASHINGTON, June 11.—It was stated today officially at the state department that while officials had been for more than two months assembling data on which to base a new note to Great Britain on interruptions to American commerce by British naval operations, there was as yet no indication of when the new communication would be ready for transmission to London.

There are many cases of ships and cargoes delayed to be studied. The task of reducing them to a comprehensive note of not too great length is one that requires time. It is intended that the new representations shall be so complete in details as to preclude protracted discussion.

As yet Great Britain has made no reply to the last American note on the orders in council.

FIELD GUNS, MACHINE GUNS AND AEROPLANES FOUND ON INTERFERED GERMAN STEAMER

NAPLES, June 11, 1:05 p. m., via Paris, 1:55 p. m.—The German steamer Bayern, which has been interned in this port since last August, was today unloaded by the Italian authorities.

A thorough search of her cargo was made. Hidden under goods of no particular importance were field guns, machine guns and several aeroplanes. As none of this war material was mentioned in the ship's papers, the customs authorities seized it all.

The Bayern sailed from Hamburg several days before the opening of hostilities between Austria and Serbia. She put into Naples and remained here for safety.

The German government tried repeatedly to obtain possession of her cargo but permission to remove the same was refused by the Italian authorities.

FIERCE BATTLE FOUGHT ON BANKS OF DNIESTER

Petrograd Announces the Capture of 6500—Italians Defeat Austrians at Gorizia With 10,000 Loss—British Warship Sunk—Italians Capture Austrian Town—Terrific Fighting on Gallipoli Peninsula—British, Russian and Neutral Ships Sunk by Germans

Following their success in the Baltic regions, the Russians now claim an important victory in Galicia. The Austro-German forces which are attempting to advance on Lemberg from the south are said by the Russian war office to have been defeated in a fierce battle along the Dniester near Zarnawa, east of Stry. Many prisoners and guns were captured by Russian forces. An unofficial despatch from Geneva states that the Teutonic forces were driven back at two points on the Dniester.

Italian Victory
The first large battle of the Italian campaign is now under way, having been brought on by an attempt of the Italians to force the Isonzo river, which enters the Gulf of Trieste from the north. Despatches from Cologne and Geneva mention heavy fighting, particularly near Gorizia, on the east side of the river, 22 miles northwest of Trieste. The Cologne report states that the Italians were repulsed at this

GOOD CROWD AT TODAY'S LOWELL-LYNN BALL GAME

The huge truck, used by the Lynn baseball club for transporting its representatives to the nearest cities in the league, trundled into town this noon loaded to the gunwales, so to speak, with Long Louis Pieper and his gang of hired pipers. Manager Pieper was the saddest piper of the lot for, you know, Louis is suffering from an indefinite suspension. Just because Louis' knuckles are reported to have massaged Empire McGauley's nasal organ the lengthy personage was forced to sit up and take his medicine by Uncle Tim Murnane, our worthy president.

Porter Louis expected relief before this and because he hasn't received it was naturally downhearted. This state of affairs in Lynn's managerial department boosted our old friend, Mike Lynch, right into the line of light. For Mike is Louis' right hand man and, of course, has been handling the team during his manager's enforced vacation.

The victories of the past two days over Lewiston brought out a larger crowd to this afternoon's contest than attended either of the Irwin exhibitions. Two good games in a row has evidently aroused renewed interest in the local club and well it might for the boys are going along in fine style. Two better games than the brace of Lewiston contests are rarities on any ball field.

The Lynn manager climbed into the grandstand when play was called. It seemed rather strange to see Louis in civilian's clothes.

Tommy White umpired his first game today. He received a telegram today asking him to report to Lowell as McGauley had been suspended. Just why McGauley was suspended is not known but it is probably due to the large number of protests sent in by the various managers. Arthur Irwin's protest of yesterday's game probably proved to be the last straw.

The lineup was as follows:
LOWELL
Sweeney 1b.....3b. LYNN
Dee ss.....ss. Lynch
Barrows cf.....cf. Porter
Rowcock 2b.....2b. If Hoy
Stimpson 1b.....1b. If Hoy
McGuinn 1b.....1b. Halstein
McGuinn 1b.....1b. Moulton
Faherty 3b.....3b. Faherty
Green p.....p. Williams

First Inning
Gleason, Lynn's lead-off stickler, was subdued by Green's splitter. Under White allowed Lynch his base when Ahearn interfered. The Lowell catcher walked up to the umpire in the box but the decision went just the other way. Hoy caught off first by Green's throw to McGuinn but "Shorty" Dee, after doubling him up spoiled the put-out when he hit Lynch in the back with the ball as Mike was scrambling to reach first. The ball rolled to the bleachers and Lynch went to second. Green then struck out Porter. The Lowell twirler then forced Hoy to lift a fly to Barrows in deep center. No runs, no hits, one error.

Sweeney opened the first inning for Lowell by dumping a Texas leaguer to right. Dee finally, after fouling, laid down a sacrifice which placed Sweeney on second. Hoy had no difficulty in getting under Barrows' high fly in short left. Rowcock took a swing at Williams' curve and the result was a strike out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 0, Lynn 0.
Second Inning
Orcutt's bat lifted a foul fly which Ahearn readily gathered in. Halstein came through with a single to left just out of Faherty's reach. Halstein scooted to second and it looked as though Dee had the ball on him, but the umpire called him safe. There was some loud talking by the Lowell players over the decision. Moulton struck out, the bat slipping from his hand on the third swing and going nearly to the pitcher's box while the crowd laughed. Halstein stood up and stole third as Green threw his fourth ball one with the result of a pass to Faherty. Faherty stole second without delay. Green then tightened and struck out Williams with his splitter and hook. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Stimpson went out at first when he trapped a grounder to Moulton. Ahearn followed with a long fly to Hoy in left. Hoy then made a fine catch of McGuinn's short fly in his territory. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 0, Lynn 0.
Fourth Inning
Green was unsteady in the fourth and passed Orcutt. Halstein lifted a fly to left and Stimpson was chalked up with a put-out. Orcutt tried to swipe the second sack and Ahearn's short throw to Dee nailed him by a scant margin. Moulton's grounder hopped over Dee's head for a single, the ball rolling into center. Faherty was called out on strikes, the visiting catcher not hitting the bat from his shoulder. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 0, Lynn 0.
Fifth Inning
Williams lifted a high fly to McGuinn and then Green passed out the second time. The Lynn third baseman furnished a classy bit of base running when Lynch singled to right. Gleason scampered around the paths and completed the circuit with the first run of the game. Lynch stole second a few minutes later. Porter could not solve Green's salivary sphere and his best was three false swings. Hoy singled to center and Lynch came through with another run. Hoy was easily thrown out when he tried to steal second. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

NOTE PRESENTED TO GERMAN GOVERNMENT

Comment Says it is Pacific—Little Support for Bryan's Attitude That it is Warlike

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 4 p. m.—Ambassador Gerard presented the American note at the German foreign office at 1:10 p. m. today.

The force of the American embassy worked, until 3 o'clock this morning, decoding the note as fast as it was received from Washington.

Regarded as Conciliatory
The note handed by Ambassador Gerard to the German foreign office today is regarded in diplomatic circles here as decidedly conciliatory in tone, far more so than the first stories reaching here by cablegram had led the foreign diplomats to expect.

COMMENT ON NOTE
WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the publication today of the latest American note to Germany concerning the sinking of the Lusitania, officials of the United States government and diplomats generally discussed among themselves the probable character of the German government's answer. The feeling in German quarters was that a favorable response was likely, as the

LANCASHIRE COTTON MILL EMPLOYEES WANT MORE PAY—MAY TIE UP 40,000,000 SPINDLES

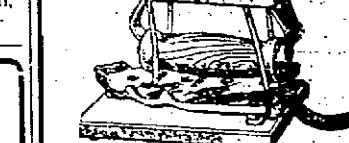

MANCHESTER, Eng., June 11, 5:40 p. m.—A group of trade union officials returned here today from London where they were in conference with the government authorities. They made the statement that the government had explained to them plainly that there must be no stoppage in the Lancashire cotton industry.

The Lancashire operatives are today demanding a 10 per cent increase in wages, and the spinners are prepared to issue lock-out notices the end of this week which would tie up no less than forty million spindles.

CHALIFOUX'S

STAHL ARRESTED

Charged With Perjury in
Story of Lusitania
Guns

NEW YORK, June 11.—A federal grand jury investigation to determine whether there was a conspiracy "to defraud" the United States in connection with the affidavits submitted by the German embassy to the state department to prove that there were guns aboard the steamship Lusitania, was begun here yesterday by the federal grand jury.

It is specifically directed against Paul Koenig, also known as Stenler, who according to the federal authorities is head of a secret service department maintained by the Hamburg-American Steamship Line.

The first result of the investigation was the arrest yesterday for perjury of Gustave Stahl, a German reservist, who made one of the affidavits submitted by the embassy, and who is alleged to be closely associated with Koenig.

The warrant on which he was arrested alleges that he committed perjury in an investigation by the jury against "Paul Koenig, alias Stenler, and others," under that section of the penal code covering conspiracy to defraud the United States.

He was taken into custody immediately upon the conclusion of his testimony and sent to the Tombs for lack of the $10,000 bail demanded by the government.

Stahl, in his affidavit, which was made before a city notary public, swore that he visited the Lusitania on April 20, the day before she sailed, and saw four guns on her deck concealed by leather covers. The repetition of this story when he was called as a witness in the investigation of Koenig's activities was the basis of the perjury charge.

In addition to the statement by Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port, and by officials of the Cunard line that the Lusitania was unarmed, the government authorities said last night that they had evidence by which they would prove that Stahl was not on board the Lusitania, either on April 20 or on any other day before the departure of the Lusitania on her fatal trip. This has been gathered by agents of the department of justice, who, since his disappearance a week ago, have been investigating his activities.

Stahl was located Wednesday in Albany, and immediately brought here. While not under arrest, he was kept under close surveillance by the federal agents and submitted to a searching examination. Certain information which Stahl furnished, together with other evidence collected in the case, is understood to have led to the empanelling of the special grand jury which met yesterday.

It was intimated, however, that when called upon before the jury to repeat this information, Stahl was not so communicative. During the days since he was brought back here, he was permitted to consult counsel and was in consultation with Edward Sandford, who acted as attorney for the Hamburg-American line in the government's case against it, charging violation of the neutrality laws. When arraigned before United States Commissioner Houghton after his arrest, he asked that Mr. Sandford be communicated with.

"Mr. Stenler (Koenig) got him for me," he told the commissioner in German. Questioned about the case last night, Mr. Sandford said he was acting for Koenig in the case and would get Stahl another lawyer. Koenig had nothing to conceal in the matter, he declared, and had already given full information to the government authorities. His client, he said, had perjured the affidavit from Stahl in good faith.

SAYS ALLIES FACE CRISIS
SIR WILLIAM R. NICOLL CALLS ON BRITAIN TO STAND BEHIND THE MINISTER OF MUNITIONS

LONDON, June 11.—"Where Germany once had a marked superiority in munition, an advantage she will press to its fullest. The only way for the allies to avert disaster is to equip themselves and to do this Great Britain must stand behind David Lloyd George as minister of munitions as one man. Moreover, if he is not given a free hand he may resign."

Sir William Robertson Nicoll thus sums up the situation as he sees it, in the current issue of the British Weekly, one of the best known journals in England. Sir William is the editor of the publication and, in addition, he is a close friend of the head of the newly created ministry of munitions. He writes:

"We say with certainty that the next three months of the war will be extremely critical ones for the allies. The superior strength of Germany in

NERVOUS CHILDREN
From early spring until July is the time that St. Vitus' dance usually develops and in children should be carefully watched during that time for symptoms of the disease.

Irritability is one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome, cannot be amused and does not sleep well. The jerky movements and weakness characteristic of the disease come a little later. The patient becomes pale, listless, has little appetite and is usually constipated. Such a child should not be allowed to study but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. If unusual symptoms develop or if the nervousness continues to the point of hysteria, a physician should be called in most cases the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is sufficient. Without treatment, St. Vitus' dance may become chronic.

Parents of nervous children should write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy of the free booklet, "Nervous Disorders, A Method of Home Treatment and a Diet Book called 'What to Eat and How to Eat.' Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with directions for use.

TRIPLETS IN CHICOPEE

MR. AND MRS. BELMORE, PARENTS OF FOUR, HAVE THREE NEW BOYS IN FAMILY
CHICOPEE, June 11.—Triplets were born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Belmore of 32 Western street, this city. The newcomers are boys and the first in the family of triplets, according to City Clerk J. C. Buckley. One will be named Napoleon, another Frederick, for Rev. Frederick Bonaparte, but the third has not yet been named. The mother and children are doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Belmore have four other children.

SIX UNDER CHARGES

Two More Arrests Made in Worcester for Alleged Connection With Baseball Pools
WORCESTER, June 11.—Edward McGrath, aged 31, of Spencer, and Frank F. Narkus, aged 23, of Worcester, were arrested yesterday on charges of promoting a lottery by selling tickets in baseball pools. A search of Narkus' room at 54 Water street resulted in the discovery of tickets which will be introduced as evidence. Six arrests have now been made in the case.

WHAT THE FRENCH MAID SAID

DRESSING A LIBRARY TABLE
"Father thinks we should have a covering for the library table," pettily complained Margorie to Marie, "but I think the table is so beautiful and has such good lines it is a shame to hide it. What do you think?" "I think I must agree with you in reference to the table," answered Marie, "if it has good lines and a fine polish I would leave it as nearly bare as possible."

Freckle-Face

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily
Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does, give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.
Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.
Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of freckle-back if it fails to remove freckles.

KILLED BY HORSE

John Robeson Kicked by Farm Horse at Tyngsboro

John Robeson, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Robeson of Tyngsboro, was almost instantly killed late yesterday afternoon when he was kicked on the head by a horse while adjusting a trace. Besides his parents the victim leaves a brother George, and a sister, Clara.

The young man was plowing on land belonging to Adolph Eckstrom, a neighbor, when a trace attached to one of the horses became twisted. Robeson stopped to adjust it and the horse suddenly kicked, striking him on the head. Mr. Eckstrom saw the man fall and rushed to the spot where he found him unconscious. Help was summoned but the victim died a few minutes afterward.

Associate Medical Examiner T. B.

Smith viewed the body and pronounced death due to a compound fracture of the skull.

REPORT IS WITHHELD

TAUNTON CASE INVOLVING DEATH OF INSANE PATIENT INVESTIGATED

TAUNTON, June 11.—A committee of the trustees of the Taunton Insane asylum has reported on the death of William C. Coffin, a patient from Quinby, at a meeting of the trustees. Coffin died on April 21 of multiple injuries inflicted while at the hospital, according to the findings of Judge Frederick E. Austin, who presided at the inquest. It was voted to submit the action of the trustees to the state board of insanity, at a conference to be held next week, when the report will probably be made public.

THE RINGLING CIRCUS

GREAT AGGREGATION CERTAINLY PROVED WORTHY OF ITS TITLE—GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Well, the big show, in the words of Billy Bantaty "has come and went," and the attendance at Ringling Brothers' circus, it is stated on all sides, discounted all former circus attendances in this city. It was almost a case of "standing room at a premium," and little wonder that the circus people were happy. As to the merits of the show it may justly lay claim to the title, the greatest show on earth.

For the first time in the circus history in Lowell women were requested to remove their hats. The stenographer announced asked the women folks present to doff their hats. Most of the dear things removed the scenery, but some of them made militant faces and allowed their hats to remain. The fact that the great circus was not big enough to hold the attendance speaks well for the prosperity of Lowell.

The small boy said the circus was a "dandy." There were thrills, but none of the type popular a few years ago, when the performers risked their lives to make the cold shivers run up and down the back of the audience for a few brief moments. The Ringlings have decided that the public wishes to be entertained, not horrified.

Crowns? Yes, a plenty and funny, with new concepts. A good imitation of Charlie Chaplin was among the number, not to mention many take-offs on fads and fashions of the day. There was a miniature replica of the Kaiser of Germany. The clowns appeared at opportune moments and furnished much fun in a program that was not allowed to drag.

The show opened with what the program described as Ringling Bros.' stupendous new spectacle feature, "Solomon and the Queen of Sheba." Hundreds of bespangled and richly costumed people had a part in the production, which was presented on a stage at one side of the tent. It was really a magnificent production. Solomon's decision to divide a baby equally between two women claiming to be his mother, was well portrayed.

program. The elephants opened the show and made a great hit with young and old. They did some clever things, including "telephoning to their friends."

To follow all that happened in the three rings and on the two stages would require several pairs of eyes, for after the first great spectacle the show was continuous in all parts of the tent.

Daring riders, both male and female, showed some new tricks of the sawdust ring, while acrobats on the flying trapeze, on rings, balancing on poles and tight and slack wires kept the interest at fever heat. Among the many performers of excellent the work of a young and petite woman, Mlle. Lelzel, stood out. Mlle. Lelzel, who was called "a dainty, daring queen of the air," performed some astonishing feats.

Men and women gasped when Josefsson's Iceland Glimma troupe showed what could be accomplished with tricks of self-defence, as practiced by the people of Iceland since the 11th century.

At one time three of the rings were swept by the wings of "human butterflies" in other words young women who did aerial stunts while suspended by their teeth.

An exhibition of statuesque posing by horses, men, women and dogs, all in white, brought forth much applause.

LOWELL MEN PRESENT

ROYAL ARCANUM DELEGATES REPORT TO GRAND COUNCIL IN BOSTON

BOSTON, June 11.—The executive committee of the grand council of the Royal Arcanum met last night at Hotel Bellevue to hear the reports of the delegates to the supreme council meeting, which was held last month at Fortress Monroe, Old Point Comfort.

The supreme representatives present were A. G. Walsh of Lowell, John J. Hogan of Lowell, Ernest L. Hobson of Palmer, Edward J. Barnes of Allston and C. Edgar Searing of Stockbridge.

Judge David F. Dillon of Palmer, grand regent for Massachusetts, presided at the business meeting. John Haskell Butler, was supreme regent and present examiner of claims, was a speaker at the meeting. All the members pledged their support to Judge Dillon.

COLORED MEN FINED

PROSECUTED FOR ALLEGED INTERFERENCE WITH SHOW AT TREMONT THEATRE

BOSTON, June 11.—The nine colored men and women arrested for violations of the city ordinance during the "silent" protest against the production of the "Birth of a Nation," at the Tremont theatre, were all found guilty by Judge Parmenter in the police court yesterday and were fined $5 each. All appeared, but Allan W. Wainey of 50 Windsor street, who describes himself as a lecturer and teacher. He paid the fine.

SPLIT IN PEACE SOCIETY

MASSACHUSETTS ORGANIZATION REJECTS PEACE RESOLUTIONS PROPOSED BY REV. O. F. DOLE

BOSTON, June 11.—The Massachusetts Peace society split apart at its annual meeting yesterday over peace resolutions proposed by the Rev. Chas. F. Dole of Jamaica Plain, after a vigorous verbal battle, at the end of which the resolutions were defeated.

On the ground that this is no time to complicate the international affairs of the country by crying for peace, a majority of the members present, following the lead of the Hon. Samuel J. Elder, the Hon. Joseph Walker and Alonzo Rothschild, refused to support the resolutions, which declared in part that it is better for the United States to have a delayed justice through the willing consent of those who have hurt us than to seek to compel justice by bloodshed.

HOW SHE ENDED TEN YEARS OF SKIN TORTURE

Oct. 25, 1914. "I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. It itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned."—(Signed) Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Weatherford, Okla. Every drug and soap and doctors have prescribed the Resinol treatment for twenty years.

TO HAVE PRETTY HAIR

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would give a plant to make it grow healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, stimulate the hair roots and bring out the new hairs. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it's because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and all dandruff disappears.

An inexpensive tonic, called Parisian Sage, which you can get from any drug counter, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff and makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head and cleanse the hair of dust and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily have beautiful hair; and pretty hair will surely increase charm and beauty.

FLED FROM RAIDER EITEL

Have Left Country

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Lieut. Brauer and "certain men of the crew" of the German commerce raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who left the ship before she was formally interned, and have not returned at the Norfolk navy yard are believed to have left the country. Customs Collector Hamilton at Norfolk made this report today to the treasury department.

Special agents of the department of justice now are conducting an investigation at the instance of the state department to which Collector Hamilton's report was referred. It appears that Brauer and the men were not on parole because the ship had not been interned, but Collector Hamilton understood he had the word of Capt. Thierichens that none of his officers or men would leave the vicinity of Newport News while the status of the cruiser was in suspense.

"It has come to my attention," Collector Hamilton reported today, "that one Lieutenant Brauer who was either the first officer or the executive officer of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich when she arrived at Newport News, Va., March 10, 1915, has left the ship and is not now aboard. There is also reason to believe that Lieut. Brauer may have left the United States and that certain other members of the crew of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who were aboard the ship when she arrived March 10, are not now aboard, and may have possibly left the United States with Lieut. Brauer."

"The commander of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich admits that Lieut. Brauer is not now aboard, nor at the present time of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich's crew. He states that Lieut. Brauer left the Prinz Eitel soon after her arrival at Newport News, as did also any members of the crew who may not now be aboard and asserts that since the internment of the Prinz Eitel and the giving of his written parole no officer nor men have been severed from the ship."

"The commander's assertion that Lieut. Brauer and any others who may not now be of the crew of the Prinz

Eitel were absent, led to the publishing of the report. Captain Thierichens is aboard the Prinz Eitel. Third Surgeon Nolte is said to be away from the ship and an investigation is being made.

First Given Four Children
Poison

WAKEFIELD, June 11.—Despondent over the recent death of a child, Mrs. Harry Ennis, wife of a carpet maker, is alleged to have given her four remaining children poison today and then to have cut her throat with a razor. The efforts of several doctors probably saved the lives of the children, but the mother's condition was considered hopeless.

YALE GRAD'S PRACTICE
GALES FERRY, Conn., June 11.—Yale's second and freshman classes were sent over a half mile under the water today. The second variety rowing a 20-stroke, covered the distance upstream in 2:29. The freshmen, who rowed their test on the upper part of the river, made the distance in 2:52. The water was rough and the work had to be done under shelter of the west bank of the river. Even then all of the shells shipped water. The variety eight was sent out for a paddle.

EXPECTS PROMPT REPLY

Pres. Wilson Thinks Answer From Germany Will Come in Two Weeks—Cabinet Meeting

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The cabinet met today with Acting Secretary Lansing sitting in place of former Secretary Bryan. While the situation with Germany was discussed, it was agreed nothing more can be done in the German situation pending a reply to the latest American note, delivered today by Ambassador Gerard to the German foreign office.

While the president expects a prompt answer it is realized that it may be two weeks in coming. In the meantime Germany will be informed of the facts gathered by the American government in connection with the dropping of bombs from an aeroplane on the American steamer Cushing.

The meeting today was held in President Wilson's private study in the White House proper.

Officials refused to make any comment, formal or informal, on Mr. Bryan's statement of last night and his announced intention of issuing others. It was declared, however, that there were outward indications, however, that administration officials generally are not pleased. The cabinet discussed the Mexican situation.

THE ANNAPOLIS SCANDAL

Midshipman Price Testifies Before Court of Inquiry on Circulation of "Dope"

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 11.—Midshipman George D. Price, a member of the new first class at the naval academy today told the court of inquiry which is investigating irregularities in examinations that he knew of, but did not have advance information concerning the last annual examination in the department of modern languages. This was in the form of copies of sentences and matters that had been emphasized in class.

He had no knowledge that any of the so-called "dope" that was being generally circulated had been copied from questions in an official examination paper.

The combined membership of the first and second classes, Price said, was about 325.

It was always the custom to get a little "dope" just before an examination, Price said. Some of this was in the nature of suggestions given out in class room by instructors to study certain things that were important. Not all instructors gave out such suggestions, he said in reply to another question, and a midshipman in a section where such suggestions were not given was at a disadvantage as compared with one in a section pursuing the same course of study who received suggestions.

LATEST FADS

Some of the Fashion
Innovations of the Present Season

Gloves always make such an important item of any costume that the subject never fails of interest. Just now we are met with a rather interesting condition for while fancy shoes are constantly growing in numbers, the smartest gloves are exceedingly quiet in tone and are of fine suede, mocha in color and stitched with black and with black edging on the wrists and smoked pearl clasps and they are the newest and smartest things for travel and the like. Pongee color and sand color, also with black stitching and black finish are the newest things for occasions of greater dress, but still the suede is preferred to the black kid. Pongee color is found to harmonize with almost every color and is fast taking precedence of white, although the latter is correct; sand takes an intermediate place because, by virtue of being so neutral in tone, it can be worn with almost any costume. Extreme novelties however exist almost as a matter of course and one of the fancies for occasional wear is champagne colored kid with stitching and buttons of king's blue and white one could hardly think of such gloves as suitable for many occasions, they do make a good effect now and then and are to be considered inasmuch as they are shown by important dealers.

Fancy handkerchiefs are unquestionably a part of the season and it would sometimes seem as though a tendency toward using the quiet tones for the costume itself, had the effect of bringing into prominence really bright colored accessories of such sort. Glove handkerchiefs of the new sort are made of chiffon and of crepe de chine, sometimes all in bright color, sometimes in white with colored borders and there are some distinctly novel ones shown in striped silk and in striped linen, but perhaps among all the showing there is nothing more unusual than the colored linen with the tiny black edge and with a black initial enclosed in an outlined frame. White handkerchiefs with quaint little animals or other such, are shown too, but they would seem a little too bizarre for general use. The colored linen with the black edge and the black initial, is really effective when judiciously used. Chiffon and crepe de chine having been discovered to be perfectly washable, make really more practical handkerchiefs than at first thought appears and they are especially dainty in weight and in texture.

Fancy shoes and unusual shoes have been so much exploited that already they almost grow wearisome, but very new ones for summer wear are higher than pumps and lower than Oxfords and show patent leather straps with white kid above and they are very dainty worn with white silk hose and in combination with a white gown. The black patent leather is the part of the shoe that comes in contact with the street and with most probable soil, while the white against the white gown is exceedingly good in effect. New slipers for the brides' costumes that are always of interest at this season are of white satin with very fluffy rows of tulle and with tiny little bunches of orange blossoms taking the place of the buckles worn upon other occasions.

It is a little curious to note how many women who a short time ago must have open necks in order to breathe and be at all comfortable, are rushing to purchase the neck ruffles of one sort or another with which to complete their spring costumes, for at every turn, these things are exploited and purchasers are trying to get the best effects. What are known as neck ruffles come in various colors in tulle, very fluffy and full as suggested by their name and they are worn up close around the neck and finished with ribbon loops and ends. Box-plaited ruffles of black and of colored tulle are much worn also and very pretty ones are finished with bunches of bright colored flowers, arranged just a little to the left of the front. The high, upstanding ruffles serve as frames for the face and are apt to be becoming. Black is being generally worn with all colors, but there are ruffles to be found to match any special costume and in many instances, they are to be preferred. Some are of course of exaggerated depth, giving a ribbing of a florid impression, but wise women always choose such accessories with reference to their own needs and while some may look well in the very wide ruffles that completely conceal the throat and the ears, those of moderate width are apt to be more generally becoming.

FOR FLAG DAY PARADE

BIG TURNOUT EXPECTED UPON THE SOUTH COMMON—A. D.

MITCHELL, CHIEF MARSHAL

Arrangements for the flag day parade and exercises on the South common, Sunday, will be completed at an early date. The committee in charge to be held this evening at city hall. Several patriotic and fraternal organizations have voted to participate in the parade and the committee wishes to invite all local organizations, as well as individuals, to meet at city hall at 8 o'clock and form in line. It is hoped that a large number of Lowell societies, patriotic or not, will accept the invitation and join the ranks Sunday afternoon. A small American flag will be given to each person who enters the parade. Alex. D. Mitchell, commander of the South Common Veterans, is chief marshal of the parade and Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Veterans, Companies C, G and K, the O. M. I. cadets and all ladies' auxiliaries will march.

TELEPHONE ALARM

A telephone alarm at 2:20 o'clock this afternoon called the members of Hose 11 to the Greenwood estate in South Whipple street where a tree was on fire. The blaze was extinguished by the use of chemicals. No damage.

HARVARD CREWS OUT

RED TOP, Conn., June 11.—Get-together rows, snarl, brisk spins were given each of the Harvard boats today, this being the only work of the forenoon. The wind was high but the water less rough than yesterday. No changes were made in any of the crews. The health of the men remains good.

ORGANIZER WHOLEN ILL

MITCHELL BOYS' SCHOOL ROSE FISHWAYST

Annual Field Day and Commencement Exercises Held Today—List of Awards

With ideal weather prevailing, the 45th annual prize drill of the Mitchell Military Boys' school was held today on the beautiful and spacious school grounds in Billerica. With the conclusion of the program early this evening, the students will turn away from their studies for their annual summer vacation and all sessions at the institution will suspend until fall.

Guests present at the exercises included parents and relatives of the young military students, former Mitchell boys and a number of invited guests. The program included drilling and military maneuvers on the grounds adjoining the school and commencement exercises in the gymnasium this afternoon. Music was furnished during the day by Maxwell's orchestra of Everett.

As the guests arrived they were seated in comfortable chairs on the well kept lawn while a short musical program was given by the orchestra. Promptly at 11 o'clock taps sounded in the rear of the school and a moment later the young cadets marched onto the campus headed by Capt. Perry Gardner Thompson of this city.

KANE—Mrs. Elizabeth Kane died today at her home, 27 Fulton street.

Local Association is Determined They Should be Restored

President Simon B. Harris and Secretary Willis S. Holt of the Lowell Fish and Game association are strongly of the opinion that the state fish and game commission will order the fishways restored in Lawrence and Lowell. The local association has been fighting for this for some time and the state commission has paid the Lowell association a very fine compliment. The state board was in Lowell Wednesday and its chairman said that the Lowell association is the best association of its kind on the map and that's going some when one takes into consideration the fact that every city of any consequence in the state has a fish and game association. The members of the state board are Dr. George W. Field, chairman; William C. Adams and George W. Graham. They telephoned to Messrs. Harris and Holt to inform them of Lawrence, but the Lowell men didn't go to Lawrence. They allowed that the state officials could get all the information they wanted in the down-river city and the Lowell men were on hand to meet them when they arrived in Lowell. The state officials made the trip in a big touring car and, after dining at the Harringtons, went up to give the fishway at Pawtucket falls the once over.

They had told Messrs. Harris and Holt that the Lawrence fishway was out of commission and after looking Pawtucket falls over they said no fishway existed there. They also stated that a fishway never ought to have been built in Lawrence. The Lowell men suggested to the state officials that they meet Thomas May, an old fish warden, to hear what he would have to say about the fishway. They had claimed that fish wouldn't live in the Merrimack river because of the pollution from the mills but Mr. May assured them that there are black bass and other fish in the river today, and that there would be lots of salmon, too, if the fishways were kept up. He said that the fishway in Lawrence was destroyed by the freshet in 1895-96. Mr. May said that often upon seeing 10 or 20 salmon at the bottom of the falls he would knock off a flashboard and just as soon, he said, as the water struck the salmon they would square away and shoot up over the falls like a "streak of greased lightning."

Chairman Field of the state board thought it would be best to conserve the mill ponds and stock them with wall-eyed pike, but President Harris of the local association said that his association was not interested in wall-eyed pike; that the association had determined upon the fishways being restored in Lawrence and Lowell in order that the Merrimack might come into her own as a salmon river. "You have cut the salmon off from the upper waters where they went for breeding purposes," he said, "and now we want you to open the way for them so that they may resume their old habits and live their lives as nature intended."

The ponds about Lowell viewed by the state officials included Long-Sought-For pond, Flushing, Keyes, Force and Crystal lake. As the visitors whirled along the boulevard in their high-powered car they spoke in glowing terms of the beauty of the Merrimack river.

"Stream of my fathers! Sweetly still,
The sunbeams ray the valley fill,
Fourfold plenteous down the fertile Wave, and wood and spire beneath them smile."

Mr. Harris was quoting from John Greenleaf Whittier's "The Merrimack," and the state men said they didn't blame Whittier for poetizing on so beautiful a stream.

The ponds, too, they thought, were very beautiful. The state men also said that there were so many fine ponds so near Lowell. They allowed that they would come again for a second view and upon leaving the Lowell men have about made up their minds to do something towards the restoration of the fishways in Lawrence and Lowell.

MONTHLEAU—Mrs. Nicholas Monthleau, nee Rosalie Gaudin, aged 67 years, 10 months and 20 days, died last night at her home, 440 Moody street. She leaves her husband, three sons, Elmore, Robert and William, and five daughters, Mesdames S. Mainville, T. Courtois, G. Lariviere, N. L'Heureux and N. Daigle.

MARIN—Mrs. Hermelinde Marin, nee Elmore Lebel, aged 48 years, 5 months and 5 days, died this morning at her home, 10 Rockdale avenue. She leaves her husband and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lebel. She was a member of St. Anne's society of St. Joseph's parish.

BOARD OF TRADE MEN

OFFICIALS WENT TO BOSTON TO MEET 50 AMERICAN BANKERS THIS MORNING

President Robert F. Marden and Secretary John H. Murphy of the Lowell board of trade went to Boston this morning for the purpose of meeting the Central and South American bankers, who are touring this country, and who today are the guests of the Boston chamber of commerce.

The Lowellites were given an opportunity to meet the bankers, who by the way, are on a tour of the United States for business purposes, and they explained to them what the city of Lowell has to offer. They outlined the various industries of this city and supplied the visitors with considerable literature concerning Lowell, in order to interest them placing manufacturing orders with the local manufacturers. This evening the visitors will be tendered a banquet at the Copple-Plaza hotel.

PREPARING FOR FOURTH

PRINCETON CLUB WILL HAVE A PRIZE FEATURE IN LINE—CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

According to Charles Sloway, chairman of the committee in charge of the feature to be presented in the Fourth of July parade by the Princeton club, the first prize of $150 is sure to go to the Centralville organization. He says there will be over 200 members in line and that the costumes will outlive any ever seen in this city.

A big meeting is scheduled for Sunday morning at which further plans for the parade and other important matters will be discussed. President Thomas McGuire will preside, and a number of prominent officials in charge of the arrangements. The parade will be present to address the members. The committee in charge of the Princeton club feature is as follows: Charles Sloway, chairman; James Burns, Patrick Tarry, William Green and Harold McNeil.

NEW NOTE TO GERMANY

note seemed to open the door to a solution compatible alike with the interests of both Germany and of the United States.

The note, it was said, was purposefully phrased so that it would give Germany an opportunity to meet the wishes of the United States with dignity and in conformity with German public opinion. Many officials wondered why Secretary Bryan declined to sign the note. They claim its friendliness was the very means that he had suggested.

While the state department had no advice from Ambassador Gerard that the American note to Germany had been received in Berlin, they assumed from news despatches last night, announcing its arrival, that the ambassador's messages were again being delayed in transmission. They expected the communication would be laid before the foreign office some time today.

The note which brought on the crisis in President Wilson's cabinet and culminated in the resignation of William J. Bryan as secretary of state, although friendly in character, firmly renews previous demands that the German government give assurances that American lives and vessels shall hereafter be safeguarded.

What action the United States will take in the event that Germany refuses to give such assurances is not indicated in the note.

The note further declares that in the view of the American government, the contention that the Lusitania was carrying contraband of war or that these munitions were exploded by a torpedo, "are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel."

"It is upon this principle of humanity," the note adds, "as well as upon the law founded on this principle that the United States must stand."

The note informs Germany that it must have been misinformed when it assumed that the Lusitania carried guns, but the opportunity is given to Germany to submit any evidence that American officials did not execute their tasks thoroughly in inspecting the Lusitania before sailing.

Not Altered After Bryan Saw It

It became known today that although the note was shown to former Secretary Bryan by direction of President Wilson, just before it was despatched, it was not altered after Mr. Bryan had seen it. Acting Secretary Lansing, who showed Mr. Bryan the note, said today that "not a word or letter" had been changed. Mr. Lansing had not signed the note as secretary ad interim when he took it to Mr. Bryan, and at that time, by the terms of Mr. Bryan's resignation, the latter was still secretary of state. Immediately after the conference Mr. Lansing signed the note and Mr. Bryan's resignation became effective.

Lansing at Cabinet Meeting

Mr. Lansing attended today's cabinet meeting by specific invitation of President Wilson. He was not present at the opening of the session, taking the ground, as it was expressed at the state department, that he should not attend until Mr. Bryan had been removed from office by the president in charge of the state department. The president solved the question immediately by asking him to attend.

The text of the American rejoinder to Germany will be found on the last page.

BRYAN ISSUES STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Former Secretary Bryan today issued a statement expressing his gratification over what he termed a change in the tone of the press regarding the American note to Germany. The statement follows:

"I am glad to note the change in the tone of the press in regard to the note to Germany. From the time the papers began to publish forecasts down to yesterday, the jingo editors have been predicting that the matter would be dealt with with 'great firmness'; that Germany would be told that there must be no more delay in the acceptance of this country's demands, etc."

"Instead of waiting until the note was issued, they put their own construction on it in advance and colored it to suit their own purposes. It is a relief to find the papers now emphasizing the friendly tone of the note and pointing out that it does not necessarily mean war."

"Something has been gained if the warrior journalists at last realize that the country does not want war, but, that, on the contrary, it will support the president in his efforts to find a peaceful solution of the difficult problem raised by the use of the submarine against merchantmen."

COMMENT BY BERLIN PAPERS

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 3:21 p. m.—The American note, though printed in full and given the greatest prominence in the Berlin newspapers, was not accompanied by editorial comment in the editions appearing up to 3 o'clock.

The headlines of the newspapers varied in wording but were similar in tone. Among the captions were "America Stands Firm," "A Very Solemn Warning," "Grave American Warning to Germany" and "A Grave Appeal."

MEXICAN HATRED

It is Shown Against
California

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, San Diego, Cal., June 11.—Feeling against Americans is being exhibited at the Mexican west coast ports of Manzanillo and Mazatlan, held by Carranza forces, according to radiograms received by Admiral Howard today. No overt acts of any kind have been reported, however.

Villa forces remaining in the southern district of lower California are said to be expressing willingness to leave for Guaymas, Sonora, without further fighting.

A MARRIAGE ANNULLED

MAN MARRIED HIS MOTHER'S HALF-SISTER EIGHTEEN YEARS
AGO

NORTH ATTLEBORO, June 11.—The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Hunt, which took place 18 years ago, was annulled yesterday by Judge Duhaque in the superior court at New Bedford, on the ground of blood relationship.

Mr. Hunt is a son of Mrs. Hunt's half sister. The couple lived together 18 years knowing of the relationship, but did not know that the marriage was illegal. The relationship was not brought out at the time the marriage intentions were filed.

Three children have been born to the couple. A few months ago divorce proceedings were started, and when the papers were drawn up the relationship of the couple was noted.

THE WHITNEY WILL CASE

PARTIAL VERDICT UPHOLDS WILL
—LEGALLY EXECUTED AND TESTATOR OF SOUND MIND

BOSTON, June 11.—The jury in the Whitney will case, after having been out 23 hours, rendered a partial verdict yesterday morning, sustaining the will on two issues, holding that it was legally executed and that the testator was of sound mind, but the jury could not agree on the question of whether undue influence was exerted by Mrs. Amy H. Barker on testator, Theodore D. Whitney. The judge discharged the jury.

Ex-Congressman Joseph F. O'Connell, counsel for Mrs. Whitney, widow of testator, declared his intention to have the case tried again, if possible as early as next fall. George L. Mayberry, counsel for the will, would make no comment on the outcome.

NEW ENGLAND SICK GET BACK HEALTH

Wonderful Effect of Remedy

Many New England stomach sufferers and, in fact, people all over the United States, have found remarkable results from the use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

Hundreds in this state alone have taken this remedy and tell today of the benefits they received. Its effects come quickly—the first dose convinces; no long treatment. Here is what two who have taken it say:

MRS. S. E. JOHNSON, 61 Whitmore street, Hartford, Conn., wrote: "My pains left me the next day after taking the treatment. It is simply wonderful how it relieved me."

MRS. CLARE SHAW, 493 Dexter street, Providence, R. I., wrote: "I received your treatment and it saved my life. I am better now than I have been for twenty years."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating. Pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

PAPER OFFICE WRECKED

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE AT
JURED

BUTTE, Mont., June 11.—The plant of the Butte Socialist, a weekly newspaper, was wrecked by an explosion, presumably of dynamite, early today. The interior of the building was wrecked and the front was hurled into the street. A gallery at the rear was blown loose and fell on machinery below. The police believe the explosion took place in the rear of the structure. The upper story of the building, occupied a rooming house was not badly damaged. So far as is known, no one was hurt. An investigation is in progress.

NO MENTION OF AMERICAN NOTE
BERLIN, June 11, via London, 4:45 a. m.—None of the morning newspapers refers in any way to the American note or the fact that it has been received and there is no comment on the general situation.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

D. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Another ten-strike feature may be recorded to the credit of the management of the D. F. Keith theatre, with the presentation of the Metro five-part picture called "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," in which Edmund Brees, the eminent American actor, is cast in the leading part. Yesterday this wonderful picture was given twice, and on each occasion the audience followed breathlessly the development of the story. Brees in his character study of the man whose wife was stolen from him, and who for 12 years faced the world with revenge tearing at his heart, will contribute a punch which is seldom duplicated even on the legitimate stage. How he found the man who wrecked his home in the Malamaute saloon, found him with his wife, and how they turned on each other and "shot up" the place, furnishes a climax that is tremendous. The natural scenery brought forward in this picture is of the highest possible class.

OPENED NEW QUARTERS

A pretty gathering of friends took place at the new quarters of the Young Men's Hebrew association, 231 Central street, last evening, the occasion being the formal opening of the new rooms and the inspection of the same by the many friends of the organization. The special guests of the evening were the members of the Young Women's Hebrew association, an auxiliary body.

A varied entertainment program was carried out in Post 155, C. A. R., hall with Neyman's orchestra in attendance. Among those who participated in the entertainment were the following:

Percy Lightman, Miss Sarah Paterlosky and Master William L. Abrams, Leopold Albertson, John Dalton, Samuel Kopelman and others. The principal speaker of the evening was Benett Silverblatt, who outlined the high aims of the organization and congratulated the members upon the success already attained.

Refreshments were served by a committee of young women of the Y. W. H. A., comprising Misses Frances Goldman, Elsie Herlink, Fanny Silverblatt, Ida Lashovitch and Beatrice Brans.

The reception committee included Mrs. Sarah Klein, Mrs. S. Porter and Mrs. A. S. Goldman, of the Y. W. H. A. The committee in charge of the general arrangements were: Julius Neyman, chairman; Leopold Albertson and Max Goldman.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

pany and is shown in 5 acts. In this celebrated play which gladdened the hearts of so many when presented on the stage with Eleanor Robson, and the screen version of which will cheer as many thousands more, Mary Pickford portrays the weird and wonderful character of Glad, the London slum whose ragged girl of the London slums whose undying optimism and heroic courage even deadly peril is unable to quench. The delicacy and simple force of Miss Pickford's portrayal makes an unforgettable impression of the spectator. Another big feature on the program for today and tomorrow is the appearance of Mr. William Anderson, better known as "Broncho Billy," in the thrilling story of western life with a graphic war scene of the fight between the cowboys and the harnessing Indians. Make it a point to take in this thriller. The comedy end of this show is well taken care of by the inimitable duo, Weber and Fields in "Two of the Best," which is a farce bubbling over with mirth and wholesome humor. Several other reels of high grade, interesting pictures complete this well selected program at the Merrimack Square theatre for today and tomorrow.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC
Because of the many people who were unable to see the Amateur Charlie Chaplin perform at the Academy of Music last week, the management has decided to hold a repetition of this contest this evening. This will give the public one final chance of witnessing what proved the biggest, funniest, laugh-a-second comedy feature of the kind ever shown in the city. The idea of putting up prizes for the best amateur imitation of the world famous Charlie originated with the Academy management and was carried out with great success. So tonight the amateur Charlies will once more perform for prizes of $25. In addition to their imitation, each contestant will be required to give a little original act, which will make the event doubly interesting. This contest is, of course, an added feature and the regular picture program will also be shown.

The pictures: The leading feature of the photo-play program at the Academy is "The Governor's Lady," featuring Edith Wynne Matthison, an actress of note, who appears to great effect in this evening. The picture is an adaptation of the celebrated dramatic production of the same name which was so successful on the metropolitan stage. Miss Matthison is supported by an excellent cast of artists and the production is in every way up to the high standard required by the Academy management. This picture will be shown today and Saturday. The remainder of the program, too, is highly attractive, and consists of dramas and comedies, six reels in all, in addition to the main production of live reels. Nobody should miss the opportunity for a genuine big time with barrels of fun. Come and see all the Charlie Chaplins do their little act on the Academy stage.

JEWEL THEATRE
Ever heard of Alexander the Great? The most remarkable vaudeville act of the season. Well, Lowell will have a chance to see this wonderful chimpanzee in pictures. A comedy called "Should We Eat Pie?" introduces this marvelous animal to the public. He will be shown in connection with other great attractions, among them a Chaplin comedy. Charles is some boy, and every goat that thinks he can act plays the fool in the streets, trying to imitate him. The real goat, however, is the first ever in his inapproachable comedy, which are shown nearly on every change of the Jewel program. The fourth episode of "The Diamond from the Sky," featuring Lotte Pickford and Irving Cummings, will be shown. Maudie McQuarrie in the "Old Doctor," Charles Ogle in "Memory Tree," "The Jungle Queen" with Marie Walden and many other new pictures will complete a delightful end-of-the-week program at the alluring little Jewel round the corner. Go to the Jewel and see a real movie show for a change. Admission is always the same—5 and 10 cents.

Sale Before Stocktaking Commences Today

Every garment in our establishment must go regardless of cost. It is easier for us to count money than to take count of our stock, therefore we have decided to hold a special sale right now, in the heart of the season, the time when you need your summer garments.

Every garment in our establishment is fresh and new, up-to-date in style, and superior in quality. We have not got to praise our merchandise. It is well known to the public, not only in Lowell and vicinity, but all over New England. Our make has been established for the past twenty years, and is not only known to private trade, but to retailers all over New England as well, that the Boston Ladies' Outfitters have always planned to manufacture the best that money could produce. When you buy from us you buy direct from the manufacturer.

This before stock taking sale will surely break the records of all sales ever heard or seen for legitimate, honest made garments. We want to call your attention to the fact that our sale is not a hurrah sale, it is not a fake sale, and it is not a lot of rubbish picked up, neither is it seconds or damaged merchandise or misfits, nor soiled merchandise, nor sweepings of shops. We are putting before you honest merchandise manufactured in our own factory, the Boston Ladies' Outfitters, a concern with a reputation. We are not gypsy travelers who travel from town to town misrepresenting themselves before the public with a lot of rubbish or rags. Keep your eyes open when you see such fake advertisements and paper talk. Do not be humbugged by them, and do not give them an opportunity to think they can fool the public. We are sure of the fact that the public of Lowell and vicinity are too wise for that class of fakers.

Our before stock taking sale began this morning. Come yourself and bring your neighbors. There are hundreds of styles and bargains awaiting you. You do not have to buy, but come and see what we have to offer you at this monster stock taking sale. We are sure that you can buy two honest garments of good quality for the price that you will pay for one elsewhere.

Look everywhere. See what you can get. Keep your eyes open. Use your own judgment. Pay no attention to fake advertisements. Visit our store—The Boston Ladies' Outfitters, 94 Merrimack street, and that will convince you.

MINERS' TROUBLE

National Guard on Patrol at Johnson City to Prevent Clash

JOHNSON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Three companies of the Illinois national guard were patrolling the streets today as a precaution against further disturbance between American and foreign miners, growing out of the lynching of Joseph Strando, one of the foreigners.

Strando with three others was accused of shooting to death W. E. Chapman, a wealthy resident of this place, and wounding his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Schull, wife of the manager of a local mine.

Several members of the mob which yesterday hanged Strando carried arms today in expectation of attack from the foreign quarter.

DUFFY'S BODY FOUND

WILSONVILLE, Conn., June 11.—The body of Hugh Duffy who has been missing since last Wednesday night was found last night in a small pool one-quarter of a mile from the home of James Welch, with whom he lived.

Since the disappearance the woods and fields for miles about the house have been searched. The pond in which he was found had been dynamited in attempts to locate him.

A reward of $100 had been offered for the finding of the body. Suffering from rheumatism Mr. Duffy is thought to have become temporarily demented and to have wandered into the pond.

MR. BRYAN AGAIN

HE ISSUES ANOTHER NOTE, THIS TIME TO GERMAN AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the issuance today of another statement—an appeal to "German-Americans," William Jennings Bryan was expected to rest his case. This is his third since his resignation. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the statement in advance.

In his second statement, addressed to the American people and which was coincidentally issued with the publication of the American rejoinder to the German government's reply to the note following the sinking of the Lusitania, Mr. Bryan asked the public to "sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than share responsibility for it."

He contends that the American note conforms to the standards of the old system of force, while he is an advocate of the new system of persuasion and "as an humble follower of the Prince of Peace," pleads that the United States lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Mr. Bryan expresses confidence that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, but says good intentions are not enough. He adds that if the public verdict is against him he asks no mercy, declaring that public men must be "willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution."

A MURDER CONFESSION

BOSTON, June 11.—Joseph, alias Delevan Rogers, one of the two implicated in the murder of Samuel Cohen, the South End junkman, at 116 Springfield street, on May 29, arrived at police headquarters yesterday from Jersey City in custody of Sergeant William Livingston and Inspector Thomas Towle.

Rogers, who had already made a confession in Jersey City to the Boston officers, confirmed it when he made a lengthy statement to Captain Anisley Armstrong.

Rogers plainly showed the ordeal he has been through, and he told the officers that he realized his position, but denied that he fired the shot that killed Cohen after he and his accomplice now at large had robbed him of $36.

GARMENT WORKERS CASE

TWO JAIL SENTENCES IMPOSED AND ABOUT FIFTY DEFENDANTS FINED

BOSTON, June 11.—Judge Irwin of the superior criminal court yesterday disposed of 62 strike cases, the aftermath of the recent strike of the garment workers. Pleas of nolo were accepted in some cases and pleas of guilty to various offenses in others, and the remaining defendants were discharged. Although the judges in the lower courts had imposed many prison sentences in disposing of the cases, only two imprisonments, of one month each, were given by Judge Irwin.

Giuseppe Festa, one of the strikers, charged with disorderly conduct, and Rattacio Losco, charged with assaulting a garment worker, were the two sentenced to prison. Max Vally was at first sentenced for the same term, but when Judge Irwin learned he had just purchased a business of his own, and has a wife and two children, one of them in the hospital, he placed the case on file.

Fines of $50 each were imposed on Meyer Segal and David Stefano, who were charged with striking the proprietor of a shop, and Max Silverman was fined $50 and Vincenzo Savengano $25 for assaults. Max Cohen was fined $20 and Max Lipren $15, also for assaults. Lipren paid his fine but the others were committed to jail in default of the money.

SACRED HEART FEAST

OBSERVED BY CHILDREN OF ST. MICHAEL'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL THIS MORNING

The feast of the Sacred Heart was observed in an impressive manner by the children of St. Michael's parochial school this morning, who attended mass at 9 o'clock, which was sung by Rev. Fr. Mullen in the absence of the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw. A feature of the service was the consecration of the children to the Sacred Heart, each child receiving a Sacred Heart badge which was blessed during the mass, the children reciting in unison the act of consecration. Fr. Mullen preached on the apostleship of prayer and love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament.

The music incidental to the service was inspiring, being given by the entire school, a chorus of over 500 juvenile voices and the hymns sung were "Hymn to the Sacred Heart," "O Salutaris," "Tantum Ergo" and "Holy God We Praise Thy Name." There were many adults at the mass.

KING OF GREECE

His Condition Shows Little if Any Improvement

LONDON, June 11, 3.35 a. m.—The bulletin issued at Athens last evening regarding the condition of King Constantine, says a Reuter despatch, was as follows:

"The king's temperature is 98.8; his pulse 102 and his respiration 17. There is an abundant flow of matter, which is not of good quality. The inflammation in the kidneys continues with a slight increase of albumen."

CONDUCTOR CONROY DEAD

VICTIM OF YESTERDAY'S ACCIDENT PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

The many friends of Walter J. Conroy and especially the members of the Street Car Men's union, will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred last evening at St. John's hospital, where he had been removed in the morning following a car accident which took place in Bridge street shortly after nine o'clock.

As was stated in yesterday's issues of The Sun, Mr. Conroy was changing the signs of his car which was going to Draught Centre, when he was struck and thrown to the ground by an inbound car, receiving a fracture of the skull. After an examination at the hospital all hope for his recovery was given up and despite the best of medical attendance the young man passed away shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Deceased was 34 years of age and is survived by his wife, two children, Edward W. and Francis A. his mother, Mrs. Anna Conroy; three brothers, James, Frank and William, and two sisters, Mrs. William Smith and Miss Anna C. Conroy. He was a member of local 250, Street Railway Men's union. For a number of years Mr. Conroy was conductor on the Nashua line, where he made a host of friends through polite manners and genial disposition. Deceased was always very courteous with the passengers and all who knew him had a good word for him. His demise will be keenly felt by his many acquaintances and particularly by his superior officers, who were well aware of his efficiency as a railroad man.

TAKING THE DARDANELLES

CAPTAIN VON MUECKE SAYS IT IS IMPOSSIBLE—SAYS WATER SUPPLY CAN BE CUT OFF

VIENNA, via wireless to London, June 11, 8.45 a. m.—An interview with Captain von Muecke, formerly of the German cruiser Emden, in which he says the forcing of the Dardanelles and the taking of Constantinople are impossible, is published by the newspapers here. He declares submarines are likely to cut off the water supply of allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula which would compel them to surrender as they would be unable to return to their transports.

Captain von Muecke says the guns of the British warships have been damaged by hard usage and super-dreadnaught Queen Elizabeth soon will be compelled to withdraw on this account. He asserts that the Turks have plenty of ammunition and are magnificent fighters. They lost heavily at first under the fire of guns from the fleet but now have dug themselves in and are using the best means possible to destroy allied landing parties.

Captain von Muecke apparently has arrived at Vienna on his way to Berlin after having piloted the landing party which was under his command when the Emden was sunk, from Cocos island to safety at Damascus, whence it was not difficult for them to reach Constantinople.

BEATEN AND ROBBED

LEWISTON, Me., June 11.—Thomas McNamara was beaten into insensibility by three men near his home, two miles out of this city, last night and robbed of between $500 and $700. Mr. McNamara was unable to give any clue to his assailants, one of whom wore a mask. The assault and robbery took place on an unfrequented road and the police believe the men escaped in an automobile.

LOST NURSE FOUND

FRAMINGHAM, June 11.—Following a search of the past few days which involved the police departments of five cities and towns, Miss Helen Carter, 28, a nurse, who disappeared from Framingham, was located Wednesday at the home of a brother in Revere. Miss Carter, it is understood, was suffering from a mental strain.

Going Out of the Furniture Business

The above statement is not merely a catch phrase to create some extra business, but a fact. For the past several years we specialized in handling stove repair parts, carrying same in stock, for all kinds of stoves and ranges. This branch of our business has grown to such an extent that we must give it more space, and in order to accomplish this we have decided to give up everything in the furniture line and in the future confine our stock to Stoves, Floor Coverings and Bedding only and an increased stock of stove repairs.

YES WE ARE SELLING OUT

Entire stock of Refrigerators, Go-Carts, Baby Carriages, Buffets, Dining Tables, Dressers, Art Squares, Linoleums, Oil Cloths and Bedding reduced to prices never heard of before. Act quickly. Our stock is not large and will not last long. This is a chance of a lifetime for you to get some real bargains.

REMEMBER, we are not going out of business and we are not going to move from our present location. Our future business will be confined specially to stove repair parts for all kinds of stoves and ranges and an increased stock of stoves, iron and brass beds and floor coverings of all kinds. Nothing in furniture. We are going to change our name, too. It will be Quinn Stove Repair & Supply Co.

ANOTHER VICTORY OVER LEWISTON

Lowell Earned Verdict
in Hard Fought 3-1
GameInside Baseball Enabled
Home Team to Win
Contest

Lowell triumphed over Lewiston yesterday for the second time in as many days, defeating the Maine club by giving a fast, heady exhibition of the national pastime to a 3-1 finish.

Opposed to the local batters was a person named Whittaker and this same person can pitch, by the way. Lohman was on duty for Lowell and his heating was also good. Although classy fielding behind him helped him on several occasions, Whittaker twisted gilt edge ball.

Two of Lowell's runs came across as the result of squeeze plays and the other tally was scored when the Lewiston pitcher cut loose a wild heave with Barrows on third. The game in detail:

First Inning
Lohman took Maloney's grounder and umpire McGauley called the runner out. The play was close. Becker hit a grounder toward third and beat Fahey's throw. The ball went beyond McGauley's reach to the bleachers and Becker went to second. He was caught stealing, taking a big lead. The Lewiston speed boy did not appreciate the ump's ruling and he tried to slide into the base but he failed. Denoville died to Barrows in right center. No runs, one hit, one error.

Swayne's ground was taken by Prysock while coming in hard. It was a slow grounder and the Lewiston shortstop played it the only way to get the speedy Swayne. Whittaker hoped into the air and took Dee's grounder although the ball threatened to leap over his head into safe territory. Barrows' bat swept the ball over the fence for a long triple to center. It was a great clout and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Barrows at third and Whittaker at first and his fourth had one to Bennie proved to be a wide one which Holmes could not handle and Barrows crossed the plate before the catcher could reach the sphere. Bowcock went out trying to steal second and the first inning was over with Lowell one run to the good. One run, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.Second Inning
Denoville struck out going after Lohman's curve on his last strike. Fahey trotted into the diamond near the box where he caught McCarthy's high fly. Fahey then made a great stop of Phillips' hard smash over his head, but found it impossible to get the runner at first. Ritter tried to drive a liner through out third sack, but this time the ball was low enough for Fahey to hold onto. Both of these last two plays were beauties. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Stimpson's grounder over second and threw to Denoville at second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was retired by the same method as Stimpson. McGauley struck out the first sacker notswinging at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning
Prysock drove out a double to left. Stimpson tried to smother the ball but it bounced over his shoulders. Prysock took a long lead off second and snappy work by Ahearn enabled him between second and third. Ahearn ran into the diamond before pegging and the Lewiston shortstop hopped it for third but found Fahey waiting at the hot corner with the ball. Whittaker died on a grounder to Bowcock. Maloney paid no attention to his pitcher's fate but he smashed one at Bennie and the result was just the same as in the previous instance. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ritter stopped Fahey's hard grounder and his throw to first reached the bag ahead of Howard. Lohman got one on the end of his pole and the ball rolled between Becker and Maloney for three bases. On the signal for a squeeze play, Swayne hit to the box and Lohman crossed the plate although Swayne was out at first. The Lowell team is beginning to look like an "honest to goodness" ball club. Dee's hard grounder bounced off Whittaker's glove but McCarthy got hold of it and threw to first for "Shorty's" extinction. One run, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 0.Fourth Inning
Becker's short fly to left was gathered in by Stimpson though it looked as if the ball would drop in safe territory. Bowcock was the main squeeze in the next two Lewiston deaths. Holmes poked a grounder to our new second baseman, Bennie. But he throw got him easily at the first depot. Denoville then sent an easy liner at him and the Barrows crowd went to bat. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Whittaker smacked Barrows with his curve. The ball smote him in the back and seemed to hurt some for he sauntered along the base line with a pained expression about his face. Barrows took second on a passed ball. He came close to being thrown out. He started late and then ran over the bag but McCarthy dropped the ball so it was all right. Barrows went to third on Bowcock's sacrifice and the official scorer got ready to chalk up another Lowell run. Lowell once more worked the squeeze play when Barrows scored on Stimpson's bunt in front of the plate. Each of Lowell's runs was made via the squeeze route. Ahearn's drive to right was pulled down by Phillips and the inning was over. One run, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 0.

McCarthy's bat crashed through the atmosphere thrice. McGauley took care of Phillips' line drive without moving from his tracks. Ritter lifted a fly that was foul by a few feet in short left. Dee shouted for the ball and Stimpson allowed him to make the catch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fahey's fly in right center went into Phillips' hands. Lohman was easily thrown out by Whittaker on his weak grounder to the box. No runs, no hits, no errors.

ing pitcher was a weak proposition at the bat, his three swings in this inning being useless. Fahey made a nice stop of Maloney's hard grounder along the third base line, but could not recover it in time to get the batter. If the blow had gotten by Fahey, Maloney would surely have gone to second. Becker drove a long triple to right center which easily scored Maloney. Becker overran the bag and Ahearn pointed out to McGauley that a coacher in the third base coaching box had touched Becker. McGauley called him out and a howl of indignation arose from the Lewiston bench as the players surrounded the ump. After a lot of talking the game was resumed under protest of the Lewiston team, their claim being that the runner touched the coach instead of the reverse. One run, two hits, no errors.

Swayne singled to right but Dee, following him by into a double play when he groundered to Whittaker. The latter threw to second, forcing out Swayne, and Dee was shut out at first. Prysock scooped up Barrows' double and his throw to Denoville sent the Lowell players back to their fielding positions. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.Seventh Inning
Dee pulled down Holmes' short drive toward left and Fahey tucked away Denoville's infield fly. McCarthy dumped a Texas leaguer into short center and then stole second. Ahearn's throw being slow. Phillips was allowed to pass to first when the umpire called four bad ones. Ritter then struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The Lewiston players made several satirical remarks about Ahearn, claiming that he was influencing the umpire's decisions. "Ah, get a job as an umpire, one of them yelled," while another asked Umpire McGauley if he carried Ahearn with him to call balls and strikes. Some of the remarks were very funny. Bowcock died on a grounder to McCarthy. Stimpson's long smash was tucked away by Becker. Ahearn concluded the seventh round with a strike-out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.Eighth Inning
Fahey yanked down Prysock's grounder and pegged to McGauley for the runner's retirement. Bowcock threw out Whittaker on his slow roller. Maloney slashed a single between Fahey and Dee in the left but went out a moment later when he tried to steal second. Ahearn's tag being O. K. runs, one hit, no errors.

McGinn hit to Prysock. Prysock picked up the ball a few inches from the ground and threw to first. The ball was low and went to the first base bleachers, McGinn taking second. The umpire called him out, however, ruling that Prysock made a clean catch of the drive. Fahey crossed up the Lewiston defense when he bunted safely and then stole second. Lohman

ATHLETE ACTORS

Princeton Stadium the Scene of Greek Plays
Today and Tomorrow

PRINCETON, N. J., June 11.—Princeton's athletes will perform in the stadium this afternoon, but in the role of actors and not as athletes. A number of the prominent football and crew men have responded to Granville Barker's call for students to sup in his Greek plays, which are to be given in the Palmer stadium.

The list includes I. Swart and W. Swart, R. Nourse, track and football man; Heyniger and Longstreth, substitute guards; Kaufman and Halsey, two freshmen eleven men, and McKibben, Jeffron and Winant of the crew. Present indications point to a crowd of about 10,000 at the performances this afternoon and Saturday morning.

DIAMOND DAZZLES

Lowell looks like a different aggregation nowadays than the club which well might be called the "Diamond Dazzles." One couldn't ask for better baseball than the locals have furnished during the past two days at Spaulding park.

It looks as though Pres. Roach was jinxed. There hasn't been a sign of ivory displayed since he found himself a seat on the home bench. Perhaps the thoughts of lost meal tickets has cleared up what haze there was among the local players.

Walter Ahearn must be given the largest share of credit for the present jinx among our ranks. The big catcher has instilled more life in the team than it seemed possible.

The Lewiston players surely took a dislike to Ahearn yesterday. The Lowell catcher talked to Umpire McGauley quite frequently and the visitors accused him of giving decisions. Perhaps he did at that. Anyhow the ump did not reprove Irwin's crew.

Out of the cellar at last and now let's see that they stay out and climb up into faster company. The kind of baseball we have seen the past couple of days is too speedy for any place other than the top positions.

Matty Zeiser of the Lowell team is on a fair way to hang up a record for hitting players. If he continues as he has started the present season, up to Wednesday he hit 14 players, which is an unusually large number. On May 1, he hit Gardella of Worcester; May 2, Sullivan of Canton; May 3, Fitchburg; May 4, Fitchburg; May 5, Fitchburg; May 6, Fitchburg; May 7, Fitchburg; May 8, Fitchburg; May 9, Fitchburg; May 10, Fitchburg; If any one wants a jinx for a pet or companion he may obtain a well-trained one from Raymond Keating of Bridgeport, Conn., and the Polo Grounds. Ray is of the opinion that Leon Ames' old Polo Grounds jinx wishes to be adopted by the Keating family, and Brother Jinx hangs around despite "Rea's" warm objection. History is repeating itself for Ray. Last season the big ball artist took a game early in April, which was his home triumph until late July. He went into July with one win and ten defeats, despite the fact that he pitched some pretty fair ball. After that he broke a 10th inning shutout. He closed the season with seven victories against eleven defeats.

This season Keating is moving along in his 1914 manner. He won his first game from the Red Sox, 2 to 0. Since then he always has pitched good ball but is generally on the short end of one run. The Athletics beat him, 1 to 1; the Indians, 7 to 1; the White Sox, 7 to 6; the Red Sox, 1 to 3 (thirteen innings); and the Tigers, 2 to 2. It is any wonder that "Rea" feels certain that he and the fates are on bad terms?

The oldest baseball in existence is owned by the president of the East end church baseball league in Pittsboro. The ball is nearly 53 years old. It was used in a championship game between the Eclipse team of Kingston, N. Y., and the Hudson team of Newburgh, N. Y. The game was played June 20, 1862 and ended 19 to 18 in favor of the Kingston team. The ball is made of one piece horsehide, sewed in the center. The ball carries $500 burglary insurance and $500 fire insurance. It was given to its present owner by John Miller, who is 100 years old and who played first base on the Eclipse team.

Jesse C. Burkett of the Worcester team lost Catcher Walter Ahearn because Worcester was on the road last week. Ahearn wrote to Burkett, but Burkett did not get the letter until he got back to Worcester. In the meantime Walter signed with Lowell—Exchange.

Our old friend Rube DeGroff has been heard from and the old boy is just sticking in old time form for the Wilkesbarre team of the New York State league. When Manager Pete Noonan signed up the former Lowell outfielder the fans of Wilkesbarre yelled murder at Noonan at getting a player, who was supposed to be "all in." The 30-year-old player, who is hitting the ball very hard, while his fielding has been excellent.

Billy Peters of the Lawrence Tribune says: There has been a load on my shoulders for some time and I know no better way to shake it off. When Dan Noonan announced last winter that he had traded Larry Mahoney to New London for Jake Warner we yelled murder, failing for the bunk that Warner was an "old truck horse"—that the locals were getting stung very badly. It so happened the Eastern association did not start and Mahoney was saved to the champs, for which turn of affairs the fans were most thankful. As for Warner, he may be an "awkwardly slow feller," but he has no ground, but if this characterization is so Jake has not shown it in the games he played for Lawrence to date. Warner is the premier second sacker of the New England league and performing to the satisfaction of the club and the fans.

The game played between Worcester and Lowell May 1 was really the shortest game played in the New England league this season. The full nine innings took up one hour and 23 minutes. Manchester and Worcester played nine innings in one hour and 20 minutes May 11, but it was only eight and one-half innings.

The veteran Ben Bowcock is back in the New England league, playing with Lowell. Bowcock went west last fall and this spring joined the Seattle club of the Northwestern league along with Louie Courtney. Courtney was released by Lowell, while Bowcock gave Bowcock that liberty. Courtney returned east some time ago.

If the Fitchburg reports are correct that Mike Lynch threw the third sack into left field he should be forcibly reminded that he is but a small part of the national game. He did a "fresh" thing here last Saturday when just because Lynn lost he threw the ball last into play into right field—Lawrence Tribune.

Harry H. Aubrey has yet to umpire a game in Lowell. The season is six weeks old yet Harry has not worked in the Spindle city.

INJURIES TO ATHLETES
MALDEN, June 11.—After a controversy the athletic board of Malden high school has agreed to pay Capt. Arthur C. Doyle of the baseball team $35 for medical treatment following an injury sustained by him during the football season last fall. Doyle was hurt during a contest, but the athletes board refused to pay the bill when it was first tendered.

Walter Rowe of this season's baseball team will receive $1.50 to have repairs made on two teeth which were damaged when he was struck in the mouth with a bat.

TO GET RID OF UNSIGHTLY HAIRS

There is only one safe and sure way to get rid of hairs—and that is to dissolve them—then you kill the hair roots entirely. To do this, get one ounce of simple sulfo solution from your druggist—apply with the finger tips—keep the hairs moist for a minute or two. You will see them gradually shrivel up and dissolve—wash the parts with warm water—and you will find that the hairs have disappeared at the tips—leaving the skin soft and smooth as velvet, without a mark or scar of any kind.

People Used to Call Me "Skinny"

But Now My Name Has Changed
Gained 15 Pounds and
Look Like a New Man

A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. Have gained 15 pounds and am gaining yet. I look like a new man." Sargol is a man who had just finished the Sargol treatment.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work. I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put 15 pounds on me in 14 days," writes W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

Would you, too, like to quickly put from 10 to 30 pounds of good, solid "stay-there" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bones? Don't say it can't be done. Try it.

More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the test, and that Sargol does succeed, does make thin folks fat even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic diet, flesh creams, massage, oils or emulsions, but a simple, harmless home treatment. Louis L. Leggett, Co. Carter & Sherburne Co., Falls & Burkinshaw, C. E. George & Co., P. H. Butler & Co., Fred Howard, Lowell Pharmacy, Phelan's Pharmacy, Thos. C. Walker, Roy F. Webster, L. Fields and other leading druggists in Lowell and vicinity sell SARGOL in large boxes—forty tablets to a package—a guarantee of weight increase or money back.

HIS NOSE BROKEN

Bobby Schang Got an Awful Bang in the Face

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—Bobby Schang, the Pirate catcher, is in a hospital today suffering from injuries received during batting practice yesterday, when a bat slipped from the hands of Bill Hinchman and struck him in the face. Schang's nose was broken in two places, three teeth were knocked out and he was badly bruised.

Although his injuries are painful, physicians do not believe he will be kept out of the game long.

CHARLEY WHITE
Charley White, the Chicago lightweight, now has a record of winning seven of his last eight bouts with knockouts. He naturally feels that such performance entitles him to a match with Lightweight Champion Welsh, but he isn't passing any of the tough nuts up on his way to the championship goal.

He is taking on Young Brown, the rugged New Yorker, at the American Sporting club next Wednesday night. Brown won his last bout with a knockout, too, and enjoyed the distinction of having put Mat Wells flat on his back when the latter was England's champion lightweight.

THE MARRIED TEACHER

BOSTON CHAIRMAN OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND SUPERINTENDENT CONDEMN HAVERRHILL RULE

BOSTON, June 11.—The precedent established by the school committee in the city of Haverhill yesterday, when, after a lengthy meeting, it was voted that a woman teacher who married was still eligible to remain on the teaching staff, is not a welcome attitude and would not be received with approval in Boston, according to the views of Michael Corcoran, chairman of the school committee, and Superintendent Franklin P. Dyer.

"I would positively oppose such a measure as this instance in Haverhill," declared Chairman Corcoran, when interviewed on the question last night. "You can also quote me as saying," continued the chairman, "I do not believe in it for a minute. That is my personal opinion regarding the matter, but as far as such a thing ever occurring here, I would say that it is out of the question."

When asked for a statement regarding the Haverhill case, Superintendent Dyer refused to pronounce judgment on that individual case. He said:

"From my years of experience, I have always found that when a teacher marries she is ready to resign her position—as a rule she marries for a home, and her home duties do not permit her either the time or inclination for further carrying on the school work."

"I can truthfully say that in the 39 years I have been identified with school work I have never known but one instance when a teacher married and was reluctant about handling in her resignation. That case, though I would not want to state positively, was due to what I would call a convenience marriage. The woman had been on the teaching staff for several years."

JURY COULDN'T AGREE

BOSTON, June 11.—After seven hours of futile deliberation, the jury in the suit of Miss Maude Birch, formerly a seamstress in the employ of the family of Prof. Percival Lowell, against the latter's wife, Mrs. Constance S. Lowell, for damages for alleged slander and malicious prosecution, reported a disagreement yesterday before Judge Raymond in the superior court.

BRYAN'S MISSION

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has once again discovered that he has a great mission to perform, and true to his inspiration he has set out to perform it. What matters it that he has embarrassed the government, put grave obstacles in the way of President Wilson, made of American diplomacy a thing to be ridiculed in the government circles of all nations and run counter to the expressed opinion of the American people? The super-sensitive conscience of Bryan has whispered, and it is for him to obey, as Don Quixote obeyed the call of chivalry. Like Don Quixote, too, Mr. Bryan has discovered great wrongs and he is up and away to right them.

It was inevitable that in any crisis demanding close attention to details and familiarity with international affairs, a break should come between President Wilson and his premier. Mr. Bryan is pre-eminently a man of peace, and it is so hard to keep at peace permanently if you send diplomatic notes to foreign governments. Far better in the opinion of the former secretary that we put all thoughts of evil out of our hearts, persuade ourselves that every government on earth is ready to throw sugar plums at us, and send messages of love and exalted inspiration to everybody. Of course there is such a thing as international law but it is mostly scraps of paper as some people seem to imagine.

Mr. Bryan is in many ways a most remarkable man and a great force for good, but he should never have been made secretary of state, unless it was meant to show the American people what a mistake he would have been as president. His honesty of motive is above question; his sincerity is undoubted and his ideals glitter like soap bubbles, but his judgment is warped and his sense of proportion has been torpedoed. He suffers too from the exaggerated ego, though he puts his manifold perfections at the service of America and the world.

America has no great fault to find with Mr. Bryan's resignation in its relation to this country, but there is one grave impropriety in it that would have kept a less self-centered man in the cabinet. It will create a very bad impression abroad and give unfriendly governments an opportunity to allege that the American public is not united behind President Wilson. In this light, Bryan's resignation is an act of great indecency and disloyalty, and though he pays homage to his chief, his action proves otherwise, and actions still speak louder than words. The country will follow the immediate career of our great peace prophet with intense curiosity, waiting to see how much of the resignation was prompted by his heart and how much by his head.

Mr. Bryan is about to go into the highways and byways of the nation in the cause of peace. He does not wish this nation to go to war. Who wishes this nation to go to war? What is Bryan going to fight? He has admitted that President Wilson seeks the same ends, and if it comes to a choice between the two men, the American people will stand with the great leader who has steered the ship of state so wisely through dangerous seas and earned for himself the confidence of his own country and the admiration of the world. Mr. Bryan on the contrary has attracted considerable attention, but most complimentary notices of him of late have been prefaced by an apology. He means well but—! Only goes to prove that good men are not necessarily great and that something is needed in the game of practical diplomacy besides a benign expression, a good voice, peerless vocabulary and supernatural confidence in the motives of all foreign powers.

How will Bryan's resignation and his announcement of his peace mission affect the German answer to the American note? How would Von Jagow's resignation affect us, under similar circumstances? Suppose that before the last German reply was sent us, Von Jagow had gone to the kaiser, refused to sign the note and announced his intention of preaching a different policy. Would it not make the German note look a little sick? If the American note does not look sick to the German government, it is not Bryan's fault. True, it is, however, that Bryan, in this, speaks for a section of the American public of which the greater part is Bryan himself. Yet his arguments will probably be seized by Germany and hurled back at President Wilson in reply to the note just sent. That is how Mr. Bryan will assist in opposing President Wilson in standing for the rights and interests of this nation. If Mr. Bryan could not conscientiously support President Wilson in his attitude, he was justified in resigning, but he is not justified in going out on the public platform to assail the president's stand and stir up factional strife that will embarrass the administration and give comfort to the enemies of our country.

THAT NEW BRIDGE

In planning for the new bridge at Pawtucketville, the municipal council seems to have gone very loosely about the work to say the least. Without adequately informing the public as to the details of the plan, or providing for any competition, the city authorities have arranged for its construction on very uncertain grounds and without safeguarding the public interest in an adequate manner. In a minor proposition, this mode of procedure might be overlooked, but in an undertaking that will surely involve the spending of $80,000 and that may possibly involve the spending of considerably more, the public would like to see business done differently.

If the occasion was so pressing that we were compelled to erect the bridge without delay, one might understand the haste of the municipal council, but the building of bridges, the supplying of steel and the making of cement are not confined to one firm, and there should have been a fair and open opportunity for all bridge builders who cared to bid to submit their plans before anything definite was done. But Mayor Murphy said he would have no contract work and the council assented. Furthermore, the municipal council did not act with a proper sense of responsibility to the public in agreeing as to cost before the specifications were drawn up. It would be better that we had definite plans before we talked price; all private concerns readily understand the danger of deciding on a certain sum for improvements and making plans to suit.

So far as the actual cost is concerned, the bridge may possibly be erected within the $80,000 if Engineer Denham and Commissioner Morse agree on the labor question. The out of town engineer had some very positive views as to contract labor, etc., at the start, but he has moderated them considerably in the face of local opposition. Possibly if the specifications were rigid on the question of cost, his views would be more rigid. City jobs have a way of running away ahead of appropriations, even when the specifications or contracts are more specific and satisfactory than in this case. The municipal council has taken a great deal for granted, and has acted in a slipshod fashion, calculated to endanger the public interest. Consequently, if the bridge is in any way a disappointment, in cost or otherwise, the people of Lowell may be pardoned for asking why fair competition was not provided for, and why the preliminary plans for the bridge were not made more definite, more protective of the city's interests.

SUPERVISED SUMMER PLAY

The last meeting of the park board resulted in action being taken connected with the summer playgrounds that will mean a great deal to the young people of the city and their parents for the next few months. Though practically a new institution in Lowell, the abandonment of the playgrounds would be considered a great hardship, and still it is doubtful if we have yet brought out all their possibilities. In a few years, organized and supervised summer play may be considered as important for the proper development of children as the school attendance in the winter season.

As before, the playgrounds at the North and South commons, Allen street, Textile school, and Paige street will be opened, and additional playgrounds will be opened in the regular school grounds. Mr. Weed made the excellent suggestion that the Franklin school triangle be opened for the exclusive use of the women and small children. This, though new, is not radical, and it is in line with the movement to make the use of schools more common for community purposes. Cheap benches might easily be placed in most of the school playgrounds all over the city and in this way many grateful breathing spots might be opened without additional expense. Parks have been called the lungs of the city, and the opening of little spots such as the school grounds would afford relief and relaxation to many.

The park board has done well also in opening a temporary recreation field at the Horn land in the Highlands, and in Shedd park, and it would seem that there is an opportunity for such playgrounds in all sections. With a little co-operation between the park department and private owners, temporary ball grounds might be opened during the summer months without much cost to the department in many lots and stretches, of undeveloped property. We cannot go too far in promoting organized and supervised play, for nothing conduces more to crime than the promiscuous mixing of youngsters without safeguard or protection against the influence of toughs and undesirable.

The young women who have volunteered their services as supervisors over the summer playgrounds deserve the thanks of the city, and it is to be hoped that their unselfish service will bring to them some of the pleasure it will give to others.

LYMAN ABBOTT'S VIEWS

Dr. Lyman Abbott of the Outlook is well known as a pacifist, or what Mr. Taft calls a pacifist, but there is something more inspiring in his ideals of peace than in those of more advertised peace propagandists. He does not believe in peace at any price, as he explained at a recent dinner of the Army and Navy league. The following excerpt from his address will appeal to all good Americans whether they be inclined to follow the banner of Gardner or that of Bryan:

I am sorry to say that recent events have shown myself and a great many others, that the era of the appeal to reason is a great deal farther off than we thought. The first fundamental of government is protection of persons and property. If it does not protect it, it has no right to be called a government. I respect the men of the peace societies, but I do not respect their opinion. They are not preaching peace but anarchy. If there is no navy to protect neutrality on the high seas, then every ship must go armed, and that would mean international piracy. I am not for war, but I do want to be prepared to meet war if it comes to us. One thing is certain, this nation must have an army and navy adequate to fulfill its duty to itself and the world.

It is inevitable that in consideration of such a momentous question as war, there should be widely conflicting opinions, and it is plain that earnest men hold widely diverging views, but the extreme peace theory is as silly as the extreme preparedness theory. This nation does not desire war with any power on earth, but if the theories of some of our workers for peace had obtained in the days of Washington, there would be no United States.

ROAD TO BILLERICA

The improvement of the Boston road from the Lowell-Chelmsford line to Billerica will be an improvement indeed, and one that will give a more favorable impression of Lowell to anybody approaching the city from that direction. This road has been one of the poor entrances to Lowell so persistently condemned by press and public for the past few years, and the improvement of it in the near future will be in keeping with other commendable improvements. The bettering of this link between Lowell and Boston, the improvement of Rogers street and the construction of a new road along the river to join the new state road at Indian Orchard would give Lowell up-to-date entrances and exits and would remove a blemish that has been all too apparent for many years.

PROPOSED PARK

The proposition for a new park in Pawtucketville, favored by the board of trade, is an excellent one, and the only possible exception will be on the ground of cost. Lowell has neglected its river banks too long, and therefore its greatest park opportunities have been discarded, but even at this late date it is gratifying to find that we are recognizing the beauty and potential utility of our river banks. If the land in Pawtucketville is not developed for park purposes, it will be only a short time before it is cut up for building purposes, and another fine stretch of river bank will have gone the way of all the rest. By all means let us have a new park to set off the new bridge, offer a pleasing prospect in the approach to Pawtucketville and be a boon to the children of that congested district.

SEEN AND HEARD

For those who stand on their dignity there is standing room only.

WORKED ALL RIGHT

A minister in a neighboring town a few Sundays ago surprised his audience by reading the following announcement: "The regular session of the Donkey club will be held as usual at the close of the service. Members will line up just outside of the church door, make remarks and stare at the ladies as they pass, as is the custom. Any member known to escort a lady to church and sit with her like a gentleman will be expelled from membership."

The application was to the point and the effect was marvelous.

EARTH'S AWAKENING

I love to watch the earth arise, to rub her dull and drowsy eyes, to yawn and stretch and with a bound land arduous on the velvet ground. I love to see the bright array of colors for a blithesome day, to make the world a fairy den for nature and the haunts of men. I love to feel the wooing breeze, caressing softly through the trees and sunny warmth of the earth, and to see the singing birds and river, but best of all I love the giver, for He has made the whole world sing, that we might have a joyous spring. Juanita H. Ford in The Roller Monthly.

PAY AS YOU GO

It seems hard to live within a limited income, yet people do it. They exist on the bare necessities. They realize that poverty is a cheerless companion. Yet they live within their income. The monthly bills are paid. They look the world in the face, fearlessly. The temptation to spend is great. They can spend because credit is always easily obtained even by the most unworthy. But credit is, in the long run, a nemesis of worry, the destroyer of peace and happiness. Debt is a tyrant, relentless and obdurate. Pay as you go and you will be happy.

AMOS, MY HIPPOPOTAMUS

I thought me a hippopotamus. From a bankrupt animal show. I christened the pachyderm Amos. For he looked like a muss, don't you know. And now he has rendered me famous. For they shout wherever I go: "He's the master of Amos!" Hippopotamus! Don't you know?

I went to a millionaire's party. Feeling at peace in my mind. But they didn't welcome me hearty. And remarks were passed unkind. Then a supercilious snob sneered: "Sir, your brother's behind. I turns, an' 'twas Amos, my hippopotamus. Seekin' myself to find."

O, Amos, my hippopotamus. You've made me famous, 'tis true! Yet, Amos, they blame us, and try to. Because that we're chums, they do. But Amos, Amos, my hippopotamus. They never can shame us—their lies won't lane us. Nor would nor main us, for whatever they name us. They can't break our friendship true.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

THE ZEPPELINS

The Zeppelins have proved to be of slight utility in war. Their known achievements thus far are bombing raids, killing a few score women and children and non-combatant men and destroying some property. Have brought no military advance but much of moral loss. And the thrilling story of the destruction, near Ghent, of a giant airship by a monoplane pursuing it over Belgium from the rail on the east coast of England, shows how easy a prey such a monster gas-bag structure may be for an aeroplane operated by a daring aviator.—Worcester Post.

CONSTANTINOPLE

With Constantinople in the hands of the allies, a decisive barrier will be erected to Germany's aspirations in the southeast. There is no question of her desire to expand eventually through Austria and Turkey to Asia Minor and so on to the Persian gulf. But with Russia entrenched on the Bosphorus, or a neutral state established at the strait, she can no longer hope for the fulfillment of her dream. In scarce another way could her imperial ambitions be more impressively checked than by taking the Turkish capital out of weak hands and placing it in strong ones. The Kaiser must see with bitterness the gradual creeping of his allies towards the famous capital with which he has so long had his eye.—Providence Journal.

TOWN GOVERNMENT

While it is undoubtedly true that no better form of government exists than that of town government as it was known in the days of the colonies, it is equally true that some other form becomes necessary when the voters of a town outnumber the people that can be assembled in the town hall.—Lynn Item.

COUNT BERNSTORFF

These burdens are heavier and more trying for Count Bernstorff than they would be for a man of coarser fibre. Count Bernstorff is a man of culture, of social attainments, inherently and by training a gentleman. It is fitting, therefore, that the people of America should think and speak of him with kindly feeling and with sympathetic appreciation of the burdens he is carrying.—Providence Tribune.

POINT OF VIEW

Dr. Kuno Meyer roundly scores Harvard for allowing its students to impute German principles, and a professor in the University of Rochester declares himself unable to teach German because its present principles are not according to the ideals of Goethe and Schiller. It all seems to depend on the point of view.—Brooklyn Times.

MAJ. A. B. PUTNAM DEAD

MALDEN'S FIRST APPOINTEE TO WEST POINT SECCUMBS SUDDENLY

MALDEN, June 11.—Word was received here yesterday of the sudden death in Little Rock, Ark., of Major Alfred Burrice Putnam, Malden's first appointee to West Point.

Major Putnam died Tuesday. He was 35 years old. He was a native of Malden, a son of the late Henry L. Putnam, sealer of weights and measures. He attended Malden High and was graduated from the military academy in 1899.

Major Putnam had served in the Philippines, San Francisco, Puget Sound and in the south. In Little Rock he had charge of engineering projects. He is survived by a wife, who was Miss Myrtle Harris of this city; a son, two brothers, Frederic L. Putnam and Otis C. Putnam of Melrose, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Bedlow of Texas and Miss Florence Putnam of this city. The body will be brought here next Sunday.

BRYAN TO ADDRESS ELKS

WILL APPEAR IN LYNN MONDAY AND GIVE FIRST PUBLIC TALK SINCE RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Announcement was made yesterday that William J. Bryan had accepted an invitation to be the guest of Lynn lodge of Elks at the flag day celebration to be held in Lynn June 14 under the auspices of that organization.

Ex-Secretary Bryan will make his first public address since parting with President Wilson at Lynn, where he will be the principal speaker at a celebration. The president declined an invitation some time ago and Sec. Daniels of the navy, who had agreed to visit Lynn, cancelled his acceptance last week.

Before retiring as secretary of state Mr. Bryan had tentatively promised Congressman Phelan to make an address in Lynn and in response to a telegraphic inquiry as to his intention of keeping the tentative engagement Mr. Bryan replied yesterday afternoon that he would visit Lynn.

Senator Lodge, it is understood here, is to make a patriotic address and the bringing together upon the same platform of two such prominent persons in national affairs promises to make the flag day celebration in Lynn conspicuous throughout the country.

SIX WERE KILLED READ RIOT ACT

Miners Cut Into Drift of Abandoned Mine—Were Buried

JOPLIN, Mo., June 11.—Six men were buried beneath tons of water, earth and rocks in the Longacre-Chapman mine near here late last night, when they cut into a drift of an abandoned mine. A seventh man was rescued after being buried nearly 700 feet by the force of the cave-in. The six are believed to have been instantly killed.

IN POLICE COURT

George Walsh, who came to this city some months ago and stole 15 Boston & Maine trip tickets, the property of William H. Noonan, the Centralville druggist, walked into the police station last night and gave himself up. He claimed that his conscience has troubled him ever since the theft. He had no visible means of support and when his case came up in police court before Judge Knight this morning he was sentenced to one month in jail.

William Lamsigne came into the clutches of the law for failing to provide for his wife and six children. Mrs. Lamsigne testified that her husband contributed only $7 toward maintaining their home since the first of May, and that all the money he gets he uses to buy drink.

Judge Knight ordered defendant to pay his wife $5 a week and to keep away from drink. If he fails to abide by the court's decision he will go to jail for four months.

A young man was in court charged with too frequently expressing himself in profane language. After heart to heart talk with Judge Knight, in which the young man promised to do better his case was placed on file.

There were four drunken offenders released through the efforts of Probation Officer Slattery.

MATRIMONIAL

Fred H. Russell and Miss Ina D. Collins of Manchester, N. H., were married by Rev. Dr. C. E. Fisher, the ceremony being performed at the home of the officiating clergyman.

RUSSELL-ORCHARD

George F. Russell and Miss Minnie Orchard were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Rule, 551 Varnum avenue, the ceremony being performed by Rev. James Bancroft. The bride was given away by Miss Minnie Gilman, her Sunday school teacher, of Providence, R. I. The happy couple will make their home at 551 Varnum avenue.

New Bedford Cops Must Stop Smoking Pipes—Other Rules

NEW BEDFORD, June 11.—New Bedford's force of 125 policemen can hardly take their place in the sun under the new rules that Chief Thomas C. Allen has just announced. The entire city was stripped of police protection for nearly an hour, while the new police head congregated his subordinates in headquarters and read the riot act to them. So hereafter the background will be the place of operations for the New Bedford bluecoats.

In the first place, patrolmen must not be obstructive at fires. Chief Allen heard that some of the men interfered with the work of the fire fighters at some of the big blazes that have happened in New Bedford, and so the new department rule states that the place for patrolmen at fires is in the background.

Policemen cannot hereafter travel in pairs while on duty, for the taxpayers might think they were having too good a time. One of the most stunning blows is that which Chief Allen struck at pipe smoking. Hereafter the policemen have been allowed to smoke when off duty, even if they were in uniform, but the new regulation forbids the use of pipes when in uniform, although cigars may be smoked. Cigarettes are not mentioned, but the presumption is that they are under the ban.

Still another clause that will affect the policemen during the final hours of their shifts is that which forbids all members of the force from leaning up against buildings. The conversational bent of the members of the law has also been curbed, for the ruling has been read which prohibits patrolmen from engaging in unnecessary tete-a-tetes with civilians while on duty, and also forbids a patrolman from talking with a traffic officer while on duty.

MURDER CHARGE

Chauffeur Refused to Speak When Asked to Plead to Indictment

CAMBRIDGE, June 11.—Charles E. Warren, a chauffeur living in the Allston district of Boston, refused to speak when asked to plead to an indictment charging him with murdering Walter G. Green, a Newton restaurant keeper and shooting fishy H. Stuart, an employee of the establishment on which he was arraigned in the superior court today. After the clerk had twice called upon Warren to enter a plea and court officers had made an unsuccessful effort to get him to answer, Judge Sisk ordered a plea of guilty entered, and held Warren without bail for trial later.

The shooting took place on June 5. Green was killed while trying to protect Miss Stewart from an alleged murderous attack by Warren, who is said to have been jealous of the young woman.

DENMAN DIDN'T SHOW UP

ENGINEER WITH PLANS FOR NEW PAWTUCKET BRIDGE COULDN'T REACH LOWELL

The special meeting of the municipal council scheduled for 9 o'clock this morning and called for the purpose of taking further action on plans, contract and agreements in connection with the new Pawtucket bridge, did not materialize, the council receiving word from Engineer Denman that it would be impossible for him to come to Lowell today with the necessary plans and papers. The mayor called to order, however, and the council adjourned without further ado.

There is a bridge at Nashua that was built by Mr. Denman and as the council had more or less spare time on its hands the members decided to go to Nashua and give the bridge the once over. The trip was made in automobiles and it was a nice day for a ride.

AN INTERESTING CITY

VERONA IN ITALY IS LESS THAN 10 MILES DISTANT FROM AUSTRIAN FRONTIER

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—"Immediately inside the Italian border below the Austrian city of Trento lies the wealthy, ancient city of Verona, an important railway center, a treasury of art, a museum of splendid remains from Roman times through all Italian periods, and altogether one of the most beautiful and interesting cities of northern Italy," according to the geographic statement issued by the National Geographic society today, which deals with the most recent of hostile frontiers in Europe. "Verona is a fortress of the first-class," the statement continues, "and one of the foremost military centres toward the Austrian frontier. In peace times, a garrison of more than 6000 men is stationed here, and here are located the administration offices of Italy's third army corps."

"Verona is less than 10 miles distant from the Austrian frontier, from the part of the Alpine front that projects as a deep wedge into the north Italian hill country. It lies 71 miles west of Venice by rail and 93 miles east of Milan, another great northern railway centre, on both banks of the rapid Adige river. It is 134 feet above sea level, with the main and older part of the city lying within an abrupt loop made by the river. The population of the city, with its suburbs, is about 80,000. The main railway lines from Modena and Mantua to Trento and Bozen, and from Venice to Milan cross in the city. The Verona, Venice, Portogruaro line parallels the Austrian frontier and has many strategic branches of much the same value to the Italians in their present struggle as the Posen-Mist line is to the Germans in their defense of their eastern frontier."

"Verona must be the immediate objective of any invasion from the Trentino salient. From Verona west, the trunkline railway leads through a rich industrial and farming region to the great northern towns of Milan and Turin. To the east lies Venice, and to the south are a constellation of thriving manufacturing towns. The frontiers before Verona is strongly fortified both on the Italian and Austrian sides. In recent years, a wide-hung circle of forts, far outside of the obsolete city walls, were begun as a new scheme for the city's defense. The building of these redoubts raised Verona to the position of a fortress of first rank."

"The beginnings of the Venetian fortifications that still remain standing today date from 1527, when Verona was surrounded with new walls and bastions by Sanmichele. Following the congress of Vienna, Verona fell to Austria's share, and the Austrians caused the city to be strongly fortified. The Austrians further fortified Peschiera, Mantua, and Legnago, forming the famous 'Quadrilateral' upon which powerful series of fortresses the Austrian rule in Italy relied for its principal support until 1866. Verona is the key position to northern Italy. "Both prosperous and progressive, the city has multiplied its industrial endeavor many times during the last score years. Today there are large paper and cotton mills in the city, an immense and piano and organ factories. There is, also, a significant manufacture of war munitions centered here, extensive artillery establishments, and important arsenals. Among the other more important manufactures are silks, soap, candles and sugar. Verona had a large and growing agricultural commerce, being one of the first Italian centres to traffic with Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Germany. It exported wine, fruits, rice and marble, and, twice each year it held a noted horse market."

A city of wonderful art works, of weather-stained, white marble palaces, often richly sculptured and sometimes showing the worn evidences of sumptuous paintings, with impressive, well-preserved ruins from the days of before the Christian era, Verona has somewhat the appearance of luxurious decay, with which a confident, pushing, success-breathing spirit of the last few years has contrasted sharply. The museums, picture galleries, libraries and ancient churches of Verona team with rare treasures. Verona was the birthplace of the famous Romans, Catullus, Cornelius Nepos, Pliny the Younger, and Vitruvius."

their advance. Russia, they declare, has delivered a return blow and a hard one. The great mass of German and Austrian troops which have forced a passage of the Dniester river near Zorawna have, according to the latest announcement of the Russian war office, been flung back with heavy losses in both men and material.

Thus for the moment Lemberg is thought to be safe for now. Elsewhere along the Galician front the Teutonic allies have been making progress recently with the exception of course of their southern extension into Bukovina.

News was received yesterday that Russian reinforcements were moving south along the Dniester river from Mikolajow to Rohatyn, but it was hardly expected here that they would achieve such quick results. If this victory has been decisive it is the first real check delivered by the Russians since the start of the new Austro-German rush through Galicia. Here it is characterized as giving renewed faith to Britain and France in the recuperative powers of Russian arms.

Nothing new has been heard in London concerning the fighting in the Baltic provinces.

The Italians are now less than 20 miles from Trieste, the chief port of Austria.

On the western front the methodical French advance would appear for the moment to have ceased but on the other hand the German counter-attacks do not seem to have been successful.

PARIS OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE FIGHTING IN THE DARDANELLES

PARIS, June 11, 2:30 p. m.—An official announcement concerning the Dardanelles, given out in Paris this afternoon reads as follows:

"In the Dardanelles we have consolidated the results obtained by us in the fighting of June 4."

"At the right end of the ravine of Kereve Dere, we were successful with minor engagements, in making some further progress."

"Prisoners who fell into our hands confirmed previous reports that the losses of the enemy have been considerable."

SWEDISH STEAMER OTAGO, BOUND FOR HULL, TORPEDOED AND SUNK

LONDON, June 11, 1:40 p. m.—The Swedish steamer Otago, bound for Hull, was torpedoed and sunk last night.

The Otago, of 973 tons, net, was 241 feet long and was built in 1882. She was owned in Solvesborg, Sweden.

GLASGOW STEAMER WAS TORPEDOED WITHOUT WARNING BY GERMANY

CARDIFF, via London, June 11, 2:25 a. m.—The Glasgow steamship Strathcarron was torpedoed yesterday without warning by a German submarine while outward bound from Barry. The crew, which put 60 in boats, was rescued by a steamer and landed here.

The Strathcarron was a vessel of 2807 tons, built in 1912, at Greenock, and was owned by the Strathcarron Steamship Co. of Glasgow. She sailed from Barry May 28 for Barry where she arrived June 2 and was reported to have entered the government service.

AUSTRIANS LOSE 10,000 IN BATTLE WITH ITALIANS AT GORIZIA

GENOVA, via Paris, June 11, 4:35 a. m.—A Lathrop dispatch to the Tribune says: "The Italians began their march against Gorizia on the morning of June 8. When the first detachments were near the city Austrian artillery opened fire and heavy masses of infantry which were thrown forward forced the Italians to fall back several times. Italian artillery posted east of the city opened great gaps in the Austrian ranks but up to the morning of the ninth neither side had gained a decisive advantage. The Austrians lost from 8000 to 10,000 men. Gorizia is overflowing with wounded who are being cared for at private houses because of a lack of hospital space."

RUSSIANS CAPTURE 6700 OFFICERS AND MEN AND MANY GUNS

PETROGRAD, June 11.—An official announcement from army headquarters given out today recites a Russian success on the river Dniester.

After hard fighting the Russians yesterday took from their antagonists 17 cannon and 49 machine guns, and captured approximately 6700 officers and men.

The text of the communication follows: "By heroic efforts our troops on Thursday repulsed on the right bank of the river Dniester great forces of the enemy who had crossed near Zorawna, east of Stry. On the front from Julakow to Siewki, the enemy sustained great losses. After a hard fight we captured 17 cannon and 49 machine guns and took prisoner 188 officers and 6500 men. Among the prisoners is one entire company of the Prussian fusilier guards."

RUSSIANS HAVE DRIVEN BACK AUSTRIAN FORCES IN A FIERCE BATTLE

GENOVA, via Paris, June 11, 5:20 a. m.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Innsbruck in the Austrian Tyrol, purports to give details of Russian successes in the Galician campaign. The dispatch says:

"The Russians bombarded the Austrian positions from Stanislaw to Borknik, on the left bank of the Dniester. They have driven the Austrians across the river, taking a large number of prisoners. The Austrians also have been obliged to fall back across the Dniester at Bukaczowce. The Russians stopped the advance of an Austrian column marching on Kolomea. The action was fierce and the losses were heavy on both sides."

SCHOONER EXPRESS AMONG THE NAMES OF VESSELS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

LONDON, June 11, 4:50 a. m.—The list of ships torpedoed by German submarines which is printed by the morning papers, contains the name of the schooner Express, the crew of which was landed at Liverpool.

STRONG BULGARIAN PROTEST SENT TO TURKEY REGARDING TRAFFIC

LONDON, June 11, 7:12 a. m.—The Bulgarian government, says a Bucharest dispatch to the Times has sent a strongly worded protest to Turkey because of the continued indifference of that country regarding traffic on the Dodecanese railway and the detention of passengers and freight.

GERMAN ORDER AGAINST PUBLICATION OF NEWS WITHOUT A PERMIT

BERLIN, via London, June 11, 7:44 a. m.—The military commandant of Berlin has issued a removal of the order prohibiting the publication or communication of military information without a previously granted order. He says the publication of German losses, although based on official lists, "could lay no claim to correctness and in part give greatly exaggerated figures. Publications of this nature are calculated to evoke groundless uneasiness among the people and also occasion incorrect ideas abroad concerning German losses."

The commandant, therefore, forbids the publication of all such articles.

FRENCH CRUISER STOPPED SPANISH STEAMER AND TOOK OFF DUTCH CITIZENS

CADIZ, June 10, via Paris, June 11, 5:35 a. m.—The French cruiser Du Chayla stopped the Spanish steamer Canalejas from Larache, Morocco, and took into custody two persons who declared themselves Dutch citizens but who were regarded as suspects. The Canalejas then was allowed to proceed.

AUSTRIANS AND ITALIANS IN THEIR FIRST CONSIDERABLE BATTLE OF WAR

COLOGNE, Germany, June 11, via London, 12:30 p. m.—The correspondent of the Cologne Gazette attached to the Austrian army headquarters in the south says in a despatch that the first considerable battle of the war with Italy has been fought in the region of the Isonzo river and that it resulted favorably to the Austrians.

The Italians attacked Gorizia, Gradisca and Monfalcone, supporting their advance with artillery fire from places of large and small calibre. The Italian advance, the correspondent says, was checked by the Austrian fire on their flanks.

FRENCH WIN FURTHER SUCCESSSES IN THE LABYRINTH, SAYS PARIS

PARIS, June 11, 2:25 p. m.—The French war office issued the following statement this afternoon on the progress of hostilities:

"There is nothing of importance to add to the announcement given out last night, with the exception of further success in the Labyrinth where we have continued to force the enemy back and some progress to the east of the Labyrinth where we occupied several German side trenches not far from the highway from Arras to Lille."

"In the region of Hebuterne we have extended our advance made to the north and to the south of the battle front on June 7. The occupation of several trenches at this point gave us 100 prisoners and several machine guns."

RUSSIAN STEAMER DANIA TORPEDOED—MEMBERS OF CREW SAVED

LONDON, June 11, 1:10 p. m.—The Russian steamer Dania has been torpedoed by a German submarine. The members of her crew were saved.

The Russian steamer Dania was of 1889 tons net, 314 feet long and was built at Sunderland in 1905. She was owned by the Northern Steamship Co. Ltd. of Liverpool. Maritime records show that she has been running between Liverpool and Archangel.

TWO BRITISH FISHING SMACKS SUNK BY ZEPPELINS IN THE NORTH SEA

MAASLUIS, Holland, June 10, via London, 7:15 a. m.—The British fishing smacks Welford and Laurestina were attacked and sunk by Zeppelins in the North Sea. The crews, which took to their boats were picked up by a Dutch smack and brought here.

BERLIN CLAIMS RUSSIAN ATTACKS ON LOWER DUBYSIA REPULSED

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 3:20 p. m.—The German army headquarters today gave out the following official statement:

"In the western theatre: An advance made by the enemy northeast of the Lorette hills and repeated attacks against our positions north and south of Neuville failed. Fighting at close quarters in the trenches north of Bourcic continues."

"Southeast of Hebuterne and at Beaumont north of the enemy were repulsed yesterday and during the night. Only in the district of Serre-Marne the French made an inconsiderable advance."

"The French attempted last night to take away from us the trenches which we captured in Champagne on June 2. The French attack with strong forces extended along a large front to the north of Mesnil and as far as the north of Reusefont farm. The attack broke down completely with very heavy losses to the French. Repeated attempts to make night attacks were stopped at their very start."

"In the eastern theatre: On the lower Dubysa, northeast of Eirgola, several Russian attacks were repulsed. The enemy lost 300 prisoners."

"In the southeastern theatre: The situation among the German troops fighting in Galicia is unchanged."

FEATURES OF LAST NIGHT'S EUROPEAN WAR NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

American note in moderate terms renews demands on Lusitania and asks assurances for safety of American lives and ships.

French repulse attacks in Champagne and at Lorette.

Berlin says French obtained advantages near Souchez and took trenches in Le Pretre wood.

Germans claim capture of French trenches near Sochain and Les Mesnil. Russians advance south of Lemberg and attack Germans on the Dniester.

In the eastern theatre, the front armies are gaining on the Dniester and have crossed the Pruth.

Russians occupy Turkish territory on Black sea and in Van district. Ignatius O'Brien to retain Irish lord chancellorship in order to appease nationalists.

Sir William R. Nicoll issues a spirited call to Britain to stand by and minister of munitions Lloyd George in his effort to supply the allies with war materials.

War supplies debate in French chamber of deputies develops that skilled men are being sent from armies to factories: 550,000 men now in munitions service.

WITH TWO YEARS' SUPPLIES SHIP SAILS ON EXPEDITION TO RELIEVE MACMILLAN

MACMILLAN RELIEF SHIP

CAPT. PICKLES.

NEW YORK, June 11.—With two years' supplies in her hold—to be used in the event of an early winter up in Baffin bay—the schooner Cluett, owned by the Grenfell mission, slipped out of the harbor, bound for Labrador. Some of the cargo is consigned to the mission, to which the vessel was presented in 1911, after it was built by George B. Cluett of Troy, but the bulk of it will be consumed by members of the Donald B. Macmillan expedition, sent out by the American Museum of Natural History to find Admiral Peary's Land. Captain Pickles, commander of the Cluett, had his vessel all shipshape. Whether he would be able to bring the members of the exploring party out of the north before ice sealed the water he was unable to say. He would do his best. That was his only statement. In the accompanying illustration the ship is shown as she left New York. There also is shown Captain Pickles at the wheel.

MONTEHEY'S BAKERIES REOPENED ON WEDNESDAY—GREAT EVENT FOR STARVING PEOPLE

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Montehey's bakeries reopened Wednesday for the public, a great event in the famine stricken city. Consul General Hanna has advised the state department. No bread has been on sale during the past several weeks. Corn supplied by the American Red Cross was furnished Wednesday to 10,000 hungry people in Montehey. A third carload of corn despatched by the Red Cross left Laredo, Tex., Wednesday night for Montehey.

SERIOUS DIFFERENCES GALVESTON, TEX., JUNE 11.—Reports of serious differences between General Villa and General Angeles have reached the constitutionalist consulate here. The two commanders, it is alleged, accuse each other of cowardice at the battle of Lom. The reports say that each general accuses the other of having ordered the retreat and that the quarrel may lead to open hostility between the two forces.

CONCORD, N. H., June 11.—The state public service commission announced today that on July 31 it would begin an inquiry into railroad expenditures in this state since 1912. In accordance with a resolution passed by the legislature in the closing hours of the recent session, in case the inquiry discloses illegal expenditures designed to influence legislation, the legislative council called for the publication of all the facts.

PHILADELPHIA, June 11.—The Italian bark Tripoli, long overdue at this port, from Barletta, Italy, and feared for the safety of which had been left in shipping circles, was expected to arrive today. She passed in the Delaware capes last night in tow of a tug.

The Tripoli sailed from Barletta on January 29, consuming more than four months for the voyage which ordinarily takes about one-third that long for a vessel of her rig.

P. P. CLAXTON URGES CELEBRATION THROUGHOUT COUNTRY ON JULY 4

WASHINGTON, June 11.—"Americanization day—a day for strengthening the American spirit of nationality and uniting all classes, creeds and races into one intelligent democracy"—is being urged by P. P. Claxton, federal commissioner of education on the municipal and education officials throughout the country for celebration on July 4.

"Americanization day" is a patriotic call to all citizens, American-born and foreign-born alike, adults and children, to rally to American ideals, purposes and common interests of many people united into one nation," says Commissioner Claxton in a letter made public today and sent to mayors of all cities, school superintendents and other educational institution officials. He has appealed to 7000 of these officials and the movement already has begun in 50 cities, whose mayors have appointed committees as a part of the national movement to make Independence day, 1910, "Americanization day."

New York and St. Louis, through their public schools have planned a special civic lesson on Flag day, June 14.

Where the movement already has begun, mayors' committees are arranging citizenship receptions for new naturalized citizens and a national Americanization day committee is assisting in the plan for celebrating Independence day.

INTERNATIONAL PEACE BUREAU CONGRATULATES SOUTH AMERICAN COUNTRIES

BERNE, June 10, via Paris, June 11, 11:40 a. m.—The international peace bureau has sent to the foreign ministers of Argentina, Brazil and Chile letters expressing deep gratification at the signing of peace treaties between the three countries. The letters declare the three South American governments have given to the world an example of good will, uprightness, love of justice and respect of rights which are certain to have a beneficial effect on the relations between their peoples.

N. E. TENNIS TOURNAMENT

HARTFORD, Conn., June 11.—The annual New England tennis championship tournament reached its semi-final stage today. J. G. N. Mitchell of Trinity was matched with T. A. Merriman of New Britain and P. H. Harris of Boston, a former title holder, with W. S. Cushing of Simsbury.

In the doubles the matches were: R. L. James, Springfield, and J. M. Holcombe, Jr., against J. M. Holcombe, Jr., and Walter Roberts, Hartford; L. H. Wiley and Holbrook Hyde, Hartford, against W. S. Cushing, Simsbury and J. T. Richards, Westleyan.

ORDER RESTORED AMERICANS SAFE

Riots Followed Lynching of Man Who Confessed to Killing

JOHNSTON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Order has been restored here today following the riotous scenes of yesterday afternoon when John Strando was lynched after he had confessed complicity in the murder of W. E. Chapman and the wounding of Mrs. Benjamin Schull, Chapman's daughter, Wednesday night.

Three companies of the Illinois state guard were patrolling the streets today and the band of foreign miners which assembled last night had dispersed.

THE ITALIAN OPERATIONS

PLAN TO COMPEL AUSTRIA AND GERMANY TO KEEP ENGAGED AN ARMY OF 1,000,000

LUGANO, Switzerland, June 11, via Paris, 11:45 a. m.—Information has been received here from Italian sources that Italy has made an agreement with her allies as to the extent of her offensive campaign. According to this information, which, however, lacks official confirmation the Italian government has undertaken to conduct operations of a character which will keep up and keep engaged an army of 1,000,000 men.

Italian operations have not been carried to the point necessitating the use by the central empires of an army of such size, but it is expected the development of the Italian campaign beginning with the heavy fighting along the Isonzo river, will compel Italy's opponents to reinforce their armies largely.

The immediate Italian objectives are Trent, Trieste and Villach, the provincial capital of Carinthia.

PRESIDENT'S FIRST VACATION

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Wilson expects to spend the Fourth of July at the summer White House at Cornish, N. H. It will be his first vacation since the foreign situation became acute. Members of his family plan to go to Cornish about June 25.

KEEP TROOPS ON BORDER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Possible interference by local Mexican officials along the border with plans of the Red Cross to distribute through American consular officials and its own agencies food supplies to the famine threatened Mexican people is the reason for orders from the war department to delay the departure of three regiments from the border to the Philippines.

DEFENDS HIS RESIGNATION

Bryan Appeals Against Wilson—Addresses "American People" in Support of His Policy

WASHINGTON, June 11.—William Jennings Bryan, in an appeal addressed "To the American People," last night asks them to hear him before they pass sentence upon his laying down the portfolio of secretary of state in the midst of international stress.

Confident that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, Mr. Bryan frankly says that good intentions are not enough, and that if the public verdict is against him, he asks no mercy, asserting that men in public life must be willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution.

Interpreting the American note to Germany on submarine warfare, which he refused to sign, as conforming to the "old system" of diplomatic standards, precedents for which "are written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history," characterizing himself as a champion of the new system—persuasion instead of force—and as "an humble follower of the Prince of Peace," the former secretary of state pleads for the United States to lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Bryan's Statement

The text of Mr. Bryan's statement follows:

"To the American People: You now have before you the text of the note of Germany—the note which it would have been my official duty to sign had I remained secretary of state. I ask you to sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than to share the responsibility for it."

"I am sure you will credit me with honorable motives, but this is not enough. Good intentions could not atone for a mistake at such a time, on such a subject and under such circumstances. If your verdict is against me, I ask no mercy; I desire none if I have acted unwisely."

"A man in public life must act ac-

ording to his conscience, but however conscientiously he acts, he must be prepared to accept without complaint any condemnation which his own errors may bring upon him; he must be willing to bear any deserved punishment, from ostracism to execution. But hear me before you pass sentence.

Both Want Peace

"The president and I agree in purpose. We desire a peaceful solution of the dispute which has arisen between the United States and Germany. We not only desire it, but with equal fervor we pray for it; but we differ irreconcilably as to the means of securing it."

"If it were merely a personal difference it would be a matter of little moment for all the presumptions that go with power and authority. He is your president—I am a private citizen without office or title—but one of the one hundred million of inhabitants."

"But the real issue is not between persons; it is between systems, and I rely for vindication wholly upon the strength of the position taken."

"Among the influences which governments employ in dealing with each other there are two which are pre-eminent and antagonistic—force and persuasion. Force speaks with firmness and acts through the ultimatum; persuasion employs argument, courts investigation and depends upon negotiation."

"Force represents the old system—the system that must pass away; the persuasion represents the new system—the system that has been growing all too slowly. It is true, but growing for 1900 years. In the old system war is the chief cornerstone—war which at its best is little better than war at its worst; the new system contemplates an universal brotherhood established through the uplifting power of example."

"If I correctly interpret the note to Germany, it conforms to the standards of the old system rather than to the rules of the new, and I cheerfully admit that it is abundantly supported by precedents—precedents written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history."

Results of Old System

"Austria furnishes the most recent precedent; it was Austria's firmness that dictated the ultimatum against Serbia, which set the world at war. Every ruler now participating in this unparalleled conflict has proclaimed his desire for peace and denied responsibility for the war, and it is only charitable that we should credit all of them with good faith. They desired peace, but they sought it according to the rules of the old system. They believed that firmness would

TEXT OF AMERICAN REJOINDER TO GERMANY

THE SECRETARY OF STATE AD INTERIM TO THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR AT BERLIN.

Department of State, Washington, June 9, 1915.
"AMERICAN AMBASSADOR, BERLIN:

"You are instructed to deliver textually the following note to the Minister of Foreign Affairs:

"In compliance with Your Excellency's request I did not fail to transmit to my government immediately upon their receipt of your note of May 28 in reply to my note of May 15, and your supplementary note of June 1, setting forth the conclusions so far as reached by the Imperial German government concerning the attacks on the American steamers Cushing and Guldlight. I am now instructed by my government to communicate the following reply:

"The government of the United States notes with gratification the full recognition by the Imperial German government, in discussing the cases of the Cushing and the Guldlight, of the principles of the freedom of all parts of the open sea to neutral ships and the frank willingness of the Imperial German government to acknowledge and meet its liability where the fact of attack upon neutral ships which have not committed any hostile act, and the government of the United States will in due course lay before the Imperial German government, as it requests, full information concerning the attack on the steamer Cushing."

SURPRISED AT PALABA CONTENTION

"With regard to the sinking of the steamer Palaba, by which an American citizen lost his life, the government of the United States is surprised to find the Imperial German government contending that an effort on the part of a merchantman to escape capture and secure assistance alters the obligation of the officer seeking the capture in respect of the safety of the lives of those on board the merchantman, although the vessel has ceased her attempt to escape when torpedoed."

"These are not new circumstances. They have been in the minds of statesmen and of international jurists throughout the development of naval warfare and the government of the United States does not understand that they have ever been held to alter the principles of humanity upon which it has insisted."

"Nothing but actual and forcible resistance or continued effort to escape by flight when ordered to stop for the purpose of visit on the part of the merchantman has ever been held to forfeit the lives of her passengers or crew."

"The government of the United States, however, does not understand that the Imperial German government is seeking in this case to relieve itself of liability, but only intends to set forth the circumstances which led the commander of the submarine to allow himself to be hurried into the course which he took."

DECLARES LUSITANIA NOT ARMED

"Your Excellency's note, in discussing the loss of American lives resulting from the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, advert at some length to certain information which the Imperial German government has received with regard to the character and outfit of that vessel, and Your Excellency expresses the fear that this information may not have been brought to the attention of the United States."

"It is stated that the Lusitania undoubtedly was supplied with masked guns supplied with trained gunners and special ammunition, transporting troops from Canada, carrying a cargo not permitted under the laws of the United States to a vessel also carrying passengers, and serving, in virtual effect, as an auxiliary to the naval forces of Great Britain."

"Fortunately, these are matters concerning which the government of the United States is in a position to give the Imperial German government official information. Of the facts alleged in Your Excellency's note, if true, the government of the United States would have been bound to take official cognizance in performing its recognized duty as a neutral power, and in enforcing its national law."

"It was its duty to see to it that the Lusitania was not armed for offensive action; that she was not serving as a transport, that she did not carry a cargo prohibited by the statutes of the United States, and that, if in fact she was a naval vessel of Great Britain, she should not receive clearance as a merchantman, and it performed that duty and enforced its statutes with scrupulous vigilance through its regularly constituted officials."

LUSITANIA CLAIMS 'IRRELEVANT'

"It is able, therefore, to assure the Imperial German government that it has been misinformed. If the Imperial German government should deem itself to be in possession of convincing evidence that the officials of the government of the United States did not perform these duties with thoroughness, the government of the United States sincerely hopes that it will submit that evidence for consideration."

"Whatever may be the contentions of the Imperial German government regarding the carriage of contraband of war on board the Lusitania or regarding the explosion of that material by the torpedo, it need only be said that in the view of this government these contentions are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel."

"But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which throw into the background

any special circumstances of detail that may be thought to affect the cases—principles which lift it, as the Imperial German government will no doubt be quick to recognize and acknowledge, out of the class of ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion or of international controversy."

"Whatever be the other facts regarding the Lusitania, the principal fact is that the great steamer, primarily and chiefly a conveyance for passengers and carrying more than a thousand souls who had no part or lot in the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much as a challenge or a warning, and that men, women and children were sent to their death in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare."

GERMANY'S GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

"The fact that more than 100 American citizens were among those who perished made it the duty of the government of the United States to speak of these things, and once more with solemn emphasis to call the attention of the Imperial German government to the grave responsibility which the government of the United States conceives that it has incurred in this tragic occurrence, and to the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests."

"The government of the United States is contending for something much greater than mere rights of property or privileges of commerce. It is contending for nothing less high and sacred than the rights of humanity, which every government honors itself in respecting and which no government is justified in resigning on behalf of those under its care and authority. Only her actual resistance to capture, or refusal to stop when ordered to do so for the purpose of visit, could have afforded the commander of the submarine any justification for so much as putting the lives of those on board the ship in jeopardy."

"This principle the government of the United States understands the explicit instructions issued on August 3, 1914, by the Imperial German admiralty to its commanders at sea to have recognized and embodied, as do the naval codes of all other nations, and upon it every traveler and seaman had a right to depend."

"It is upon this principle of humanity, as well as upon the law founded upon this principle, that the United States must stand."

WILLING TO BE INTERMEDIARY

"The government of the United States is happy to observe that Your Excellency's note closes with the intimation that the Imperial German government is willing, now as before, to accept the good offices of the United States in an attempt to come to an understanding with the government of Great Britain by which the character and conditions of war upon the sea may be changed."

"The government of the United States would consider it a privilege thus to serve its friends and the world. It stands ready at any time to convey to either government any intimation or suggestion the other may be willing to have it convey and cordially invites the Imperial German government to make use of its services in the way at its convenience. The whole world is concerned in anything that may bring about even a partial accommodation of interests or in any way mitigate the terrors of the present distressing conflict."

"In the meantime, whatever arrangements may happily be made between the parties to the war, and whatever may be the opinion of the Imperial German government have been the provocation of their circumstances for the past act of the Imperial German government, the government of the United States confidently looks to the justice and humanity of the government of Germany vindicated in all cases where Americans have been wronged or their rights as neutrals invaded."

CANNOT ADMIT WAR ZONE CLAIM

"The government of the United States therefore very earnestly and very solemnly renounces the representations of its note transmitted to the Imperial German government on the 15th of May, and relies in these representations upon the principles of humanity, the universally recognized understandings of international law and the ancient friendship of the German nation."

"The government of the United States cannot admit that the proclamation of a war zone from which neutral ships have been warned to keep away may be made to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights either of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality. It does not understand the Imperial German government to question those rights."

"It understands it, also, in accept as established beyond question the principle that the lives of non-combatants cannot lawfully or rightfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unresisting merchantman and to recognize the obligation to take sufficient precaution to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belligerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag."

"The government of the United States deems it reasonable to expect that the Imperial German government will adopt the measures necessary to put these principles into practice in respect of the safeguarding of American lives and American ships and asks for assurances that this will be done."

"ROBERT LANSING,
"Secretary of State ad Interim."

SECY DANIELS PLEASED

He Approves Decision of Court to Stop Sale of Bliss-Leavitt Torpedoes to Foreign Powers

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Secretary Daniels today expressed himself as highly gratified over the decision of the federal district court for the eastern district of New York in the injunction suit brought by the navy department against the E. W. Bliss Co., whereby that company was restrained from selling the so-called Bliss-Leavitt torpedo to foreign powers, and from disclosing the secrets of manufacture of any individual, corporation or government.

The opinion of the court, Secretary Daniels declared, approves a policy which he had urged upon congress for a government torpedo manufacturing, he said, congress had made an appropriation to increase the government torpedo plant at Newport. "Work on the plant is being pushed forward," the secretary added, "and toward the latter part of the year the enlarged factory will be in operation."

AMERICAN BOYS ENLIST

RETURNED HOSTLER TELLS OF SYSTEM BY WHICH ARMY SERVICE IS MADE ATTRACTIVE

BOSTON, June 11.—Boston is the only Atlantic port where men ship as hostlers on horse-carrying steamers without pay, according to a statement of one of the returning horse tenders yesterday.

Elsewhere along the coast, he declared, the steamship companies pay wages of from $10 to $20, this being true of Jersey City, Portland, Halifax, and Montreal, and he expressed himself as being curious to know who reaps the profit.

This man, who went to England and return as one of the foremen of a horse crew, said that the shortness of ocean crews is due not so much to military or naval enlistments as to the high wages offered seamen now in England. In the coastwise trade the shortage is such that men can almost set their own price, and, according to this man, $20 is paid stokers for a trip across the channel.

He substantiated many of the charges made by some of the American boys who have returned from England and who declare they were offered bonuses to enlist in the British service.

Soon after his ship docked, he said, a corporal of the Remount Service—the army hostlers—came aboard looking for recruits. "None enlisted at that time, and later a sergeant of a Territorial infantry regiment appealed for recruits, offering 30 shillings tence

(£7.50 a week, with lodgings free and all found.

In London there is more recruiting, and men who join the Army Motor service as chauffeurs on motor trucks are paid $11.70 a week and found. Several Americans have secured jobs in the Woolwich arsenal at a weekly wage of $22.50, minus 12 cents for insurance.

It is the hope of many of the steamship companies, according to the spokesman, to secure college men this summer who will make the trip for the fun of it.

Two Fairs at Half Fare; Railroad Rates Cut in Two

The railroads have greatly reduced their fares and made it possible for you to see both the San Francisco and San Diego expositions on one ticket. By way of the Burlington Route (C. B. & Q. R. R.) the cost of a railroad ticket to California and back will be only about one-half the usual price, and you can take in the incomparable Colorado scenery, including the Royal Gorge, see Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Salt Lake City on the way, stopping off at any point desired.

Returning, you may enjoy a sea trip up the coast to Portland, see Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, and either Glacier National Park or Yellowstone Park—the wonders of the world.

You don't take a trip like this very often. You should see the best scenery on route and not spend any more than is necessary to do it. Tell me when you plan to go, how long you can stay, and let me make up an itinerary to fit your particular needs. Let me explain how and why the Burlington can serve you best. I'll be glad to do it. Write, telephone or call.

give the best assurance of the maintenance of peace, and, faithfully following precedent, they went so near the fire that they were, one after another, sucked into the contest. Never before have the frightful follies of this fatal system been so clearly revealed as now. The most civilized and enlightened—aye, the most Christian—of the nations of Europe are grappling with each other as if in a death struggle.

"They are sacrificing the best and bravest of their sons on the battle-field; they are converting their gardens into cemeteries and their homes into houses of mourning; they are taxing the wealth of today and laying a burden of debt on the toll of the future; they have filled the air with thunderbolts more deadly than those of Jove and they have multiplied the perils of the deep."

"Adding fresh fuel to the flame of hate, they have daily devised new horrors, until one side is endeavoring to drown non-combatant men, women and children at sea, while the other side seeks to starve non-combatant men, women and children on land. And they are so absorbed in alternate retaliations and in competitive cruelties that they seem, for the time being, blind to the rights of neutrals and deaf to the appeals of humanity. A tree is known by its fruit. The war in Europe is the ripened fruit of the old system."

The Bryan Theory

"This is what firmness, supported by force, has done in the old world: shall we invite it to cross the Atlantic? Already the jingoes of our own country have caught the rabies from the dogs of war; shall the opponents of organized slaughter be silent while the disease spreads?"

"As an humble follower of the Prince of Peace, as a devoted believer in the prophecy that 'They that take the sword shall perish with the sword,' I earnestly urge the adoption of a course in this matter which will leave no doubt of our government's willingness to continue negotiations with Germany until an amicable understanding is reached, or at least until the sword is put away, we can appeal from Philip the drunk with carnage to Philip sobered by the memories of an historic friendship and by a recollection of the innumerable ties of kinship that bind the Fatherland to the United States."

"Some nation must lead the world out of the black night of war into the light of that day when 'swords shall be beaten into plowshares.' Why not make that honor ours? Some day why not now?—the nations will learn that enduring peace cannot be built upon fear—that good will does not grow upon the stalk of violence."

"Some day the nations will place their trust in love, the weapon for which there is no shield; in love, that suffereth long and is kind; in love, that is not easily provoked, that loveth all things, beareth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things, in love which, though despised as weakness by the worshippers of Mars, abideth when all else falls."

LARGER BOSTON POSTOFFICE

BOSTON, June 11.—An enlargement of the mail-handling space at the Boston postoffice by taking for that purpose the rooms in the Federal building now used for court procedure and for the subtreasury and the establishment at the South Terminal and the North Station of regular, thoroughly equipped subordinate postal stations in place of the present arrangements, were strongly urged as measures of needed reorganization last night in a speech by Congressman Tinkham at the 16th anniversary dinner at the Quince house of the Jamaica Plain postoffice employees.

Mr. Tinkham said that at the next session of congress he will favor the enactment of laws providing for a Postal Employee Compensation act modeled on the Massachusetts general industrial compensation act, for an adequate pension to postal employees on retirement, and for arbitration between postal supervisors and employees on matters causing difference of opinion.

URGED TO "SPEED UP" OUTPUT OF MUNITIONS

Lloyd George Tells of Dire Need of Ammunition — Compulsory Powers May be Employed

LONDON, June 11, 5:32 p. m.—Ad-dressing representatives of engineering firms at Cardiff, Wales, David Lloyd George, minister of munitions, said that it was his purpose to organize South Wales to "speed up" the output of munitions. Just as Lancashire had been organized and to establish two or three war factories. Referring to the dire need of ammunition, Mr. Lloyd George said:

"I hardly like to say it, but we are still short of shells. We must get them, and it will not do for some to undertake the responsibility and some to shirk. There must be equality of sacrifice and contribution."

"I do not want to talk about compulsory powers. It is an unpleasant topic. But if you know of anyone who is likely to be a shirker, it is just as well that you remind him of the defense of the realm act and the powers under which parliament created the ministry for which it is responsible."

GOOD CROWD AT TODAY'S LOWELL-LYNN BALL GAME

INNINGS	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E
Lowell	-	-	0	0	0	1	0	0	1	3	6	1

The huge truck, used by the Lynn baseball club for transporting its representatives to the nearest cities in the league, trundled into town this morning loaded to the gunwales, so to speak, with Long Louis Pieper and his gang of hired piers. Manager Pieper was the saddest piper of the lot for you know, Louis is suffering from an indefinite suspension. Just because Lou's knuckles are reported to have massaged Umpire McGauley's nasal organ the lengthy personage was forced to sit up and take his medicine by Dr. Tim Marne, our worthy president. Poor Louis expected relief before this and because he hasn't received it was naturally disappointed.

This state of affairs in Lynn's managerial department boosted our old friend, Mike Lynch, right into the limelight. For Mike is Louis' right hand man and, of course, has been handling the team during his manager's enforced vacation.

The victories of the past two days over Lexington brought out a larger crowd to this afternoon's contest than attended either of the Lynn exhibitions. Two good games in a row has evidently aroused renewed interest in the local club and well it might for the boys are going along in fine style. Two better games than the brace of Lexington contests are rarities on any ball field.

The Lynn manager climbed into the grandstand when play was called. It seemed rather strange to see Louis in citizen's clothes.

Tommy White inspired his first game today. He received a telegram today asking him to report to Lowell as McGauley had been suspended. Just why McGauley was suspended is not known but it is probably due to the large number of protests sent in by the visiting managers. Arthur Twiss' protest of yesterday's game probably proved to be the last straw.

The lineup was as follows:

LOWELL	LYNN
Sweeney rf.....3b	Gleason lf.....3b
Dee ss.....ss	Lynch lf.....ss
Barrows cf.....cf	Porter cf.....cf
Bowcock 2b.....2b	Hoez 2b.....2b
Stimpson 1b.....1b	Orcutt 1b.....1b
Ahearn c.....c	McGinn 1b.....c
McGinn 1b.....c	Moulton 1b.....c
Faherty 2b.....2b	Flaherty 2b.....2b
Green p.....p	Williams p.....p

First Inning
Gleason, Lynn's lead-off stickler, was subdued by Green's spitter. Umpire White allowed Lynch his base when Ahearn interfered. The Lowell catcher walked up to the umpire in the box but the decision went just the same. Lynch was caught off first by Green's throw to McGinn but "Shorty" Dee, after doubling him up, spoiled the put-out when he hit Lynch in the back with the ball as Mike was scrambling to reach first. The ball rolled to the bleachers and Lynch went to second. Green then struck out Porter. The Lowell twinner then forced Hoez to hit a fly to Barrows in deep center. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Sweeney opened the first inning for Lowell by dumping a Texas leaguer to right.

Dee finally, after fouling, laid down a sacrifice which placed Sweeney on second. Hoez had no difficulty in getting under Barrows' high fly in short left. Bowcock took a swing at Williams' curve and the result was a roller to the box and a put-out at first. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Second Inning
Orcutt's bat lifted a foul-fly which Ahearn readily gathered in. Halstein came through with a single to left just out of Faherty's reach. Halstein scooted to second and it looked as though Dee had the ball on him, but the umpire called him safe. There was some loud talking by the Lowell players over the decision. Moulton struck out, the bat slipping from his hand on the third swing, and going nearly to the pitcher's box while the crowd laughed. Halstein stood up and stole third as Green threw his fourth ball one with the result of a pass to Flaherty. Flaherty struck second without delay. Green then tightened and struck out Williams with his spitter and hook. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Stimpson went out at first when he rapped a grounder to Moulton. Ahearn followed with a long fly to Hoez in left. Hoez then made a fine catch of McGinn's short fly in his territory. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning
Green started badly by allowing Gleason to reach first on four bad offerings. Lynch hit into a double play when he smacked the ball to Bowcock. Bowcock tossed the ball to Dee, forcing Gleason, and Dee's bad throw was taken care of by McGinn. The first baseman made a nice play: Porter got an infield hit to Bowcock. It was a close decision and there was more kicking from the Lowell players. Porter stole second. On Green's peg with Hoez at the bat, Ahearn was too anxious to make the play and dropped the ball. Hoez died at first on a grounder to Bowcock. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Faherty could not find Williams' delivery and retired after three vain swings. Green hit a slow roller which Williams pounced upon, throwing out Paddy with a peg to Halstein. Sweeney went down via the same route on his grounder to the box. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fourth Inning
Green was unsteady in the fourth and passed Orcutt. Halstein lifted a fly to left and Stimpson was chalked up with a put-out. Orcutt tried to swipe the second sack and Ahearn's short throw to Dee nailed him by a scant margin. Moulton's grounder hopped over Dee's head for a single, the ball rolling into center. Flaherty was called out on strikes, the visiting catcher not lifting the bat from his shoulder. No runs, one hit, no errors.

In Lowell's half of the fourth, Gleason grabbed Dee's grounder and shot it to Halstein far ahead of "Shorty" Barrows' line smash to left landed in Hoez's waiting glove. Hoez also pulled down Bowcock's healthy smash to deep left. It was the fifth put-out in four innings for Lynn. Left Halstein. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Fifth Inning
Williams lifted a high fly to McGinn and then Green passed Gleason for the second time. The Lynn three baseman furnished a classy bit of base running when Lynch singled to right. Gleason scampered around the paths and completed the circuit with the first run of the game. Lynch stole second a few minutes later. Porter could not solve Green's salivary sphere and his best was three false swings. Hoez singled to center and Lynch came through with another run. Hoez was easily thrown out when he tried to steal second. Two runs, two hits, no errors.

Moulton felled Stimpson's grounder with great precision and his third to first got Stimpson easily. Ahearn walked out and was awarded a free ticket. Halstein took McGinn's roller and touched out the runner while Ahearn made second. Faherty smashed the ball to the far left hand corner of the field for three bases. Ahearn crossing the platter. Fast hitting on Hoez's part alone kept the Lowell third sacker from scoring. Williams put a fly on his stuff on the ball and struck out Green. One run, one hit, no errors.

Sixth Inning
Orcutt started off for more. Lynn runs in the sixth with a double to left. Halstein followed with an infield hit, a bunt which Green did not handle. Moulton squeezed in a run with a sacrifice bunt to Green. Orcutt scoring. Dee ran into short left and took Flaherty's high fly. Barrows came in and scooped up Williams' fly, making the catch when the ball was a few inches

NOTE PRESENTED TO GERMAN GOVERNMENT

Comment Says it is Pacific—Little Support for Bryan's Attitude That it is Warlike

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 4 p. m.—Ambassador Gerard presented the American note at the German foreign office at 1:10 p. m. today.

The force of the American embassy worked until 5 o'clock this morning decoding the note as fast as it was received from Washington.

Regarded as Conciliatory
The note handed by Ambassador Gerard to the German foreign office today is regarded in diplomatic circles here as decidedly conciliatory in tone, far more so than the first stories reaching here by cablegram had led the foreign diplomats to expect.

COMMENT ON NOTE
WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the publication today of the latest American note to Germany concerning the sinking of the Lusitania, officials of the United States government and diplomatists generally discussed among themselves the probable character of the German government's answer. The feeling in German quarters was that a favorable response was likely, as the

BODY FOUND IN RIVER

Body of Unknown Man Taken From Merrimack River Just Beyond the Country Club

Medrie Goudy and John Tully, engineers on the state highway in Tyngsboro, discovered the body of an unknown man in the Merrimack river yesterday afternoon. The body was found near Gill's brook, a little way beyond the Country Club. It was stranded against a fallen tree and the two men took it to the shore on the boulevard side. Later the body was removed to the rooms of Undertakers Young & Blake. Associate Medical Examiner T. B. Smith viewed the body and said it had been in the water for several days. It was stated that a man living up the river had been missing for some days, but Dr. Smith could not learn the name of the missing man. The body was so badly decomposed that recognition of the features would be impossible. Dr. Smith thought the man was about 40 years of age, about five feet, nine inches in height, and weighed 175 pounds. He wore a blue suit, blue outing shirt, white cotton underwear and black stockings. He did not wear hat or shoes. In his pockets were found a comb, white handkerchief and two celluloid buttons. On one of the buttons was the picture of a girl and on the other a simple phrase.

NEW NOTE TO ENGLAND SEIZED BY ITALIANS

OFFICIALS AT WASHINGTON ASSEMBLING DATA FOR ANOTHER PROTEST

WASHINGTON, June 11.—It was stated today officially at the state department that while officials had been for more than two months assembling data on which to base a new note to Great Britain on interruptions to American commerce by British naval operations, there was as yet no indication of when the new communication would be ready for transmission to London.

There are many cases of ships and cargoes delayed to be studied. The task of reducing them to a comprehensive note of not too great length is one that requires time. It is intended that the new representations shall be so complete in details as to preclude protracted discussion.

As yet Great Britain has made no reply to the last American note on the orders in council.

FIELD GUNS, MACHINE GUNS AND AEROPLANES FOUND ON INTERMED GERMAN STEAMER

NAPLES, June 11, 1:05 p. m., via Paris, 4:35 p. m.—The German steamer Bayern, which has been interned in this port since last August, was today unloaded by the Italian authorities. A thorough search of her cargo was made. Hidden under goods of no particular importance were field guns, machine guns and several aeroplanes. As none of this war material was mentioned in the ship's papers, the customs authorities seized it all.

The Bayern sailed from Hamburg several days before the opening of hostilities between Austria and Serbia. She put into Naples and remained here for safety.

The German government tried repeatedly to obtain possession of her cargo but permission to remove this always was refused by the Italian authorities.

Petrograd Announces the Capture of 6500—Italians Defeat Austrians at Gorizia With 10,000 Loss—British Warship Sunk—Italians Capture Austrian Town—Terrific Fighting on Gallipoli Peninsula—British, Russian and Neutral Ships Sunk by Germans

Following their success in the Baltic regions, the Russians now claim an important victory in Galicia. The Austro-German forces which are attempting to advance on Lemberg from the south are said by the Russian war office to have been defeated in a fierce battle along the Dniester near Zuzawna, east of Styr. Many prisoners and guns were captured by Russian forces.

An unofficial despatch from Geneva states that the Teutonic forces were driven back at two points on the Dniester.

Italian Victory
The first large battle of the Italian campaign is now under way, having been brought on by an attempt of the Italians to force the Isonzo river, which enters the Gulf of Trieste from the north. Despatches from Cologne and Geneva mention heavy fighting, particularly near Gorizia, on the east side of the river, 22 miles northwest of Trieste. The Cologne report states that the Italians were repulsed at this

LANCASHIRE COTTON MILL EMPLOYEES WANT MORE PAY—MAY TIE UP 40,000,000 SPINDLES

MANCHESTER, Eng., June 11, 5:40 p. m.—A group of trade union officials returned here today from London where they were in conference with the government authorities. They made the statement that the government had explained to them plainly that there must be no stoppage in the Lancashire cotton industry.

The Lancashire operatives are today demanding a 10 per cent. increase in wages, and the spinners are prepared to issue lock-out notices the end of this week, which would tie up no less than forty million spindles.

STAHL ARRESTED

Charged With Perjury in
Story of Lusitania
Guns

NEW YORK, June 11.—A federal grand jury investigation to determine whether there was a conspiracy "to defraud" the United States in connection with the affidavits submitted by the German embassy to the state department to prove that there were guns aboard the steamship Lusitania, was begun here yesterday by the federal grand jury.

It is specifically directed against Paul Koenig, also known as Stenier, who according to the federal authorities is head of a secret service department maintained by the Hamburg-American Steamship Line.

The first result of the investigation was the arrest yesterday for perjury of Gustave Stahl, a German reservist, who made one of the affidavits submitted by the embassy, and who is alleged to be closely associated with Koenig. The warrant on which he was arrested alleges that he committed perjury in an investigation by the jury against "Paul Koenig, alias Stenier, and others," under that section of the penal code covering conspiracy to defraud the United States.

He was taken into custody immediately upon the conclusion of his testimony and sent to the Tombs for lack of the $10,000 bail demanded by the government.

Stahl, in his affidavit, which was made before a city notary public, swore that he visited the Lusitania on April 20, the day before she sailed, and saw four guns on her deck concealed by leather covers. The repetition of this story when he was called as a witness in the investigation of Koenig's activities was the basis of the perjury charge.

In addition to the statement by Dudley Field Malone, collector of the port, and by officials of the Cunard line that the Lusitania was unarmed, the government authorities said last night that they had evidence by which they would prove that Stahl was not on board the Lusitania, either on April 20 or on any other day before the departure of the Lusitania on her fatal trip. This has been gathered by agents of the department of justice, who, since his disappearance a week ago, have been investigating his activities.

Stahl was located Wednesday in Albany, and immediately brought here. While not under arrest, he was kept under close surveillance by the federal agents and submitted to a searching examination. Certain information which Stahl furnished, together with other evidence collected in the case, is understood to have led to the empanelling of the special grand jury which met yesterday.

It was intimated, however, that when called upon before the jury to repeat this information, Stahl was not so communicative. During the two days since he was brought back here, he was permitted to consult counsel and was in consultation with Edward Sandford, who acted as attorney for the Hamburg-American line in the government's case against it, charging violation of the neutrality laws. When arraigned before United States Commissioner Houghton after his arrest, he asked that Mr. Sandford be communicated with.

"Mr. Stenier (Koenig) got him for me," he told the commissioner in German.

Questioned about the case last night, Mr. Sandford said he was acting for Koenig in the case and would get Stahl another lawyer. Koenig had nothing to conceal in the matter, he declared, and had already given full information to the government authorities. His client, he said, had procured the affidavit from Stahl in good faith.

SAYS ALLIES FACE CRISIS

SIR WILLIAM R. NICOLL CALLS ON
BRITAIN TO STAND BEHIND THE
MINISTER OF MUNITIONS

LONDON, June 11.—"Where Germany once had a marked superiority in men, she now has a superiority in ammunition, an advantage she will press to its fullest. The only way for the allies to avert disaster is to equip themselves, and to do this Great Britain must stand behind David Lloyd George as minister of munitions as one man. Moreover, if he is not given a free hand he may resign."

Sir William Robertson Nicoll thus sums up the situation as he sees it in the current issue of the British Weekly, one of the best known journals in England. Sir William is the editor of the publication and, in addition, he is a close friend of the head of the newly created ministry of munitions. He writes:

"We say with certainty that the next three months of the war will be extremely critical ones for the allies. The superior strength of Germany in

NERVOUS CHILDREN

From early spring until July is the time that St. Vitus' dance usually develops and nervous children should be carefully watched during that time for symptoms of the disease. Irritability is one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome, cannot be amused and does not sleep well. The jerky movements and weakness characteristic of the disease come a little later. The patient becomes pale, languid, has little appetite and is usually constipated. Such a child should not be allowed to study but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible and take Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood and strengthen the nerves. If unusual symptoms develop or if the nervousness continues to the point of hysteria, a physician should be called. In most cases the tonic treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is sufficient. Without treatment, St. Vitus' dance may become chronic.

Parents of nervous children should write to the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., for a copy of the free booklet "Nervous Disorders. A Method of Home Treatment" and a diet book called "What to Eat and How to Eat." Your own druggist sells Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with directions for use.

WHAT THE FRENCH MAID SAID

DRESSING A LIBRARY TABLE

"Father thinks we should have a covering for the library table," petulantly complained Marjorie to Marie. "But I think the table is so beautiful and has such good lines it is a shame to hide it. What do you think?"

"I think I must agree with you in reference to the table," answered Marie. "If it has good lines and a fine polish I would leave it as nearly bare as possible."

"A handsome mat might protect the place where your reading lamp stands. This mat could be of embroidered crash or, still better, a handsome piece of Chinese or Japanese embroidery in rich colors."

The leather spreads are used on such tables, but to my mind they are much more suitable for mission tables and for use in dens or strictly masculine rooms.

"The only difficulty in leaving your table uncovered is the greater danger of its being marred when in use, and, personally, I dislike to have in a living room any article of furniture too good to be used for the purpose for which it was designed."

Comfort and utility should be the first considerations in selecting living room furniture. In some rooms and on some tables the ecrú linen runners are very effective, but I do not think I should care for one on your mahogany table of the Queen Anne period.

"The Oriental embroideries or some dainty lace or embroidered mats would be better, preferably the former, since the table is a library table and designed to hold books, a reading lamp, etc."

"If it were a parlor table designed for a library table, it would be better to have a mat of some kind, but I do not think I should care for one on your mahogany table of the Queen Anne period."

KILLED BY HORSE

John Robeson Kicked
Tyngsboro

John Robeson, aged 22 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Robeson of Tyngsboro, was almost instantly killed yesterday afternoon when he was kicked on the head by a horse while adjusting a trace. Besides his parents the victim leaves a brother George, and a sister, Clara. The young man was playing on land belonging to Adolph Eckstrom, a neighbor, when a trace attached to one of the horses became twisted. Robeson stopped to adjust it and the horse suddenly kicked, striking him on the head. Mr. Eckstrom saw the man fall and rushed to the spot where he found him unconscious. Help was summoned but the victim died a few minutes afterward.

Associate Medical Examiner T. B.

Smith viewed the body and pronounced death due to a compound fracture of the skull.

REPORT IS WITHHELD

TAUNTON CASE INVOLVING DEATH
OF INSANE PATIENT INVESTI-
GATED

TAUNTON, June 11.—A committee of the trustees of the Taunton insane asylum has reported on the death of William C. Coffin, a patient from Quincy, at a meeting of the trustees. Coffin died on April 21 of multiple injuries inflicted while at the hospital, according to the findings of Judge Frederick E. Austin, who presided at the inquest. It was voted to submit the action of the trustees to the state board of insanity, at a conference to be held next week, when the report will probably be made public.

THE RINGLING CIRCUS

GREAT AGGREGATION CERTAINLY
GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

Well, the big show, in the words of Billy Banty "has come and went," and the attendance at Ringling Brothers' circus, it is stated on all sides, discounted all former circus attendances in this city. It was almost a case of "standing room at a premium," and little wonder that the circus people were happy. As to the merits of the show it may justly lay claim to the title, the greatest show on earth.

For the first time in the circus history in Lowell women were requested to remove their hats. The stentorian voiced announcer asked the women folks present to doff their hats. Most of the dear things removed the scenery, but some of them made militant faces and allowed their hats to remain. The fact that the great circus was not big enough to hold the attendance speaks well for the prosperity of Lowell.

The small boy said the circus was a "dandy." There were thrills, but none of the type popular a few years ago, when the performers risked their lives to make the cold shivers run up and down the back of the audience for a few brief moments. The Ringlings have decided that the public wishes to be entertained, not horrified.

Clown? Yes, a plenty and funny, with new conceits. A good imitation of Charlie Chaplin was among the number, not to mention many take-offs on fads and fashions, of the day. There was a miniature replica of the Kaiser of Germany. The clowns appeared at opportune moments and furnished much fun in a program that was not allowed to drag.

The show opened with what the program described as Ringling Bros' stupendous new spectacle feature, "Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. Hundreds of bespangled and richly costumed people had a part in the production, which was presented on a stage at one side of the tent. It was really a magnificent production. Solomon's decision to divide a baby equally between two women claiming to be its mother, was well portrayed.

SPLIT IN PEACE SOCIETY

MASSACHUSETTS ORGANIZATION
PROPOSED BY REV. C. F. DOLE

BOSTON, June 11.—The Massachusetts Peace society split apart at its annual meeting yesterday over peace resolutions proposed by the Rev. Charles F. Dole of Jamaica Plain, after a vigorous verbal battle, at the end of which the resolutions were defeated.

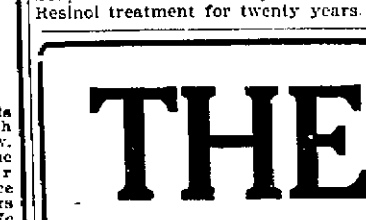

On the ground that this is no time to complicate the international affairs of the country by crying for peace, a majority of the members present, following the lead of the Hon. Samuel J. Elder, the Hon. Joseph Walker and Altona Rothschild, refused to support the resolutions, which declared in part that it is better for the United States to have a delayed justice through the willing consent of those who have hurt us than to seek to compel justice by bloodshed.

HOW SHE ENDED TEN YEARS OF SKIN TORTURE

Oct. 25, 1914.—"I had eczema on my face for ten years. Little red pimples formed in a small spot on my chin and then spread all over my face. They itched and burned me awfully. It was certainly embarrassing to me, and I would not go amongst people. I tried almost every remedy and treatment that could be used for this trouble, but nothing did me any good. I used Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, and was relieved in a day or two. In one month I was cured. This was six months ago and the trouble has never returned." (Signed) Mrs. C. C. Roberts, Weatherford, Okla. Every drugist sells Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap and doctors have prescribed the Resinol treatment for twenty years.

program. The elephants opened the show and made a great hit with young and old. They did some clever things, including "telephoning" to their friends.

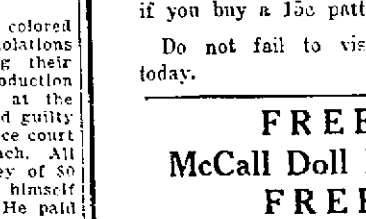

To follow all that happened in the three rings and on the two stages would require several pairs of eyes; for after the first great spectacle the show was continuous in all parts of the tent.

Daring riders, both male and female, showed some new tricks of the savadust ring, while acrobats on the flying trapeze, on rings, balancing on poles and tight and slack wires kept the interest at fever heat. Among the many performers of excellence the work of a young and petite woman, Mlle. Letzel, stood out. Mlle. Letzel who was called "a dainty, daring queen of the air," performed some astonishing feats.

Men and women gasped when Josephson's Iceland Glimma troupe showed what could be accomplished with tricks of self-defence, as practiced by the people of Iceland since the 11th century.

At one time three of the rings were swept by the wings of "human butterflies" in other words young women who did aerial stunts while suspended by their teeth.

An exhibition of statuesque posing by horses, men, women and dogs, all in white, brought forth much applause.

LOWELL MEN PRESENT
ROYAL ARCANUM DELEGATES REPORT TO GRAND COUNCIL IN BOSTON

BOSTON, June 11.—The executive committee of the grand council of the Royal Arcanum met last night at Hotel Bellevue to hear the reports of the delegates to the supreme council meeting, which was held last month at Fortress Monroe, Old Point Comfort. The supreme representatives present were A. G. Walsh of Lowell, John J. Higgins of Lowell, Ernest L. Hobson of Palmer, Edward J. Barnes of Allston and C. Edgar Searing of Stockbridge. Judge David F. Dillon of Palmer, grand regent for Massachusetts, presided at the business meeting. John Haskell Butler, past supreme regent and present examiner of claims, was a speaker at the meeting. All the members pledged their support to Judge Dillon.

TO HAVE PRETTY HAIR

If your hair is not as soft, and pretty, or as fresh and full as that of some friend, do as she does—give it daily attention, just the same care you would give a plant to make it grow healthy and beautiful. Luxuriant hair—soft, fluffy, thick and lustrous—is really a matter of care. If it is too thin, stimulate the hair roots and bring out the new hairs. If it is too dry and brittle, soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp and all dandruff disappears.

An inexpensive tonic, called Parisian Sage, which you can get from any drug counter, is just what you need—it softens the scalp, nourishes and invigorates the hair roots, immediately removes all dandruff and makes the hair fluffy, lustrous and abundant. One application will stop itching head, and cleanse the hair of dust and excess oil. Parisian Sage takes away the dryness and brittleness, makes the hair seem twice as abundant and beautifies it until it is soft and lustrous.

By the use of this helpful tonic any woman can easily have beautiful hair; and pretty hair will surely increase charm and beauty.

BY GWEN SEARS

UNSIGHTLY BLACKHEADS

Blackheads are so unsightly we wonder how people tolerate them, as many do. To treat blackheads, cleanse the face and throat with a good cleansing cream, then steam the face for ten minutes, wipe moisture off and press out the blackheads with a little metal blackhead extractor which can be purchased at any drug store.

If there are any pimples, massage the face with a good cream for ten or fifteen minutes each day. Wipe the cream off, dampen a portion of a soft towel with toilet water and mop the face all over very gently, then a little fine face powder may be used. If the treatment is taken at night, do not use pimple as well.

either the toilet water or the face powder.

Once or twice a week is as often as the face should be treated. The cleansing cream should be used every night. This rule holds good for every face as it is so much better for the skin than soap and water. All pimples that form a yellow head should be opened very carefully with a sterilized needle and the contents pressed out very gently with the finger nails. When there are no pimples, the massage cream should be used for the massage. Remember that getting rid of blackheads prevents pimples as well.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Lieut. Brauer and "certain men of the crew" of the German commerce raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who left the ship before she was formally interned, and have not returned at the Norfolk navy yard are believed to have left the country. Customs Collector Hamilton at Norfolk made this report today to the treasury department.

Special agents of the department of justice now are conducting an investigation at the instance of the state department to which Collector Hamilton's report was referred. It appears that Brauer and the men were not on parole because the ship had not been interned, but Collector Hamilton understood that the word of Capt. Thierichens that none of his officers or men would leave the vicinity of Newport News while the status of the cruiser was in suspense.

"It has come to my attention," Collector Hamilton reported today, "that one Lieutenant Brauer who was the first officer or the executive officer of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich when she arrived at Newport News, Va., March 10, 1915, has left the ship and is not now aboard. There is also reason to believe that Lieut. Brauer may have left the United States and that certain other members of the crew of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, who were aboard the ship when she arrived March 10, are not now aboard, and may have possibly left the United States with Lieut. Brauer."

"The commander of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich admits that Lieut. Brauer is not now aboard, nor at the present time of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich's crew. He states that Lieut. Brauer left the Prinz Eitel soon after her arrival at Newport News, as did also any members of the crew who may not now be aboard and asserts that since the internment of the Prinz Eitel and the giving of his written parole no officer nor men have been severed from the ship."

"The commander's assertion that Lieut. Brauer and any others who may not now be of the crew of the Prinz

Eitel were absent, led to the publishing of the report. Captain Thierichens is aboard the Prinz Eitel. Third Surgeon Nolle is said to be away from the ship and an investigation is being made.

IDENTIFY BODY

That of C. F. Fowles, Not A. Vanderbilt as Was First Reported

QUEENSTOWN, June 11, via London, 2:45 p. m.—Officials of the Cunard steamship line today announced that the body of the Lusitania victim which was recovered yesterday and at first was supposed to be that of A. G. Vanderbilt, proved to be that of Charles F. Fowles of New York city, who was a first cabin passenger on the Cunard liner.

CUT HER THROAT

Mother Alleged to Have First Given Four Children Poison

WAKEFIELD, June 11.—Despondent over the recent death of a child, Mrs. Harry Ennis, wife of a carpet maker, is alleged to have given her four remaining children poison today and then to have cut her throat with a razor. The efforts of several doctors probably saved the lives of the children, but the mother's condition was considered hopeless.

YALE CREWS PRACTICE
SALES FERRY, Conn., June 11.—Yale's second and freshman eight were sent over a half mile under the watch today. The second varsity, rowing a 30-stroke, covered the distance upstream in 2:22. The freshmen, who rowed their test on the upper part of the river, made the distance in 2:52. The water was rough and the work had to be done under shelter of the west bank of the river. Even then all of the shells shipped water. The varsity eight was sent out for a paddle.

EXPECTS PROMPT REPLY

Pres. Wilson Thinks Answer From Germany Will Come in Two Weeks—Cabinet Meeting

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The cabinet met today with Acting Secretary Lansing sitting in place of former Secretary Bryan. While the situation with Germany was discussed, it was agreed nothing more can be done in the German situation pending a reply to the latest American note, delivered today by Ambassador Gerard to the Berlin foreign office.

While the president expects a prompt answer it is realized that it may be two weeks in coming. In the meantime Germany will be informed of the facts gathered by the American government in connection with the dropping of bombs and an aeroplane on the American liner Cushing.

The meeting today was held in President Wilson's private study in the White House proper.

Officials refused to make any comment, formal or informal, on Mr. Bryan's statement of last night and his announced intention of issuing orders. It was declared, however, that there were outward indications, however, that administration officials generally are not pleased. The cabinet discussed the Mexican situation.

THE ANNAPOLIS SCANDAL

Midshipman Price Testifies Before Court of Inquiry on Circulation of "Dope"

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 11.—Midshipman George D. Price, a member of the first class at the naval academy today told the court of inquiry which is investigating irregularities in examinations that he knew of but one man out of the first and second classes who did not have advance information concerning the last annual examination in the department of modern languages. This was in the form of capsules of sentences and matters that had been emphasized in class.

He had no knowledge that any of the so-called "dope" that was being given orally circulated had been copied from questions in an official examination paper.

The combined membership of the first and second classes, Price said, was about 325.

It was always the custom to get a little "dope" just before an examination, Price said. Some of this was in the nature of suggestions given out in class room by instructors to study certain things that were important. Not all instructors gave out such suggestions, he said in reply to another question, and a midshipman in a section where such suggestions were not given was at a disadvantage as compared with one in a section pursuing the same course of study who received suggestions.

Many women who a short time ago must have open necks in order to breathe and be at all comfortable, are rushing to purchase the neck ruffles of one sort or another with which to complete their spring costumes, for at every turn, these things are exploited and purchasers are trying to get the best effects. What are known as neck ruffles come in various colors and in tulle, velvet, satin and silk.

Neck ruffles and full as suggested by their name and they are worn up close around the neck and finished with ribbon loops and ends. Box-plaited ruffles of black and of colored tulle are much worn also and very pretty ones are finished with bunches of bright colored flowers, arranged just a little to the left of the front. The high, upstanding ruffles serve as frames for the face and are apt to be becoming. Black is being generally worn with all colors, but there are ruffles to be found to match any special costume and in many instances, they are to be preferred. Some are of course of exaggerated depth, giving something of a Pierrette impression, but wise women always choose such accessories with reference to their own needs and what some may look well in the very wide ruffles that completely conceal the throat and the ears, those of moderate width are apt to be more generally becoming.

WASHINGTON, June 11.—The United States has instructed its diplomats abroad to ask for the amendment of those paragraphs of commercial treaties which conflict with the new seamen's law.

FOR FLAG DAY PARADE

BIG TURNOUT EXPECTED UPON THE SOUTH COMMON-A. D. MITCHELL CHIEF MARSHAL

Arrangements for the flag day parade and exercises on the South common, Sunday, will be completed at a meeting of the committee in charge to be held this evening at city hall. Several patriotic and fraternal organizations have voted to participate in the parade and the committee wishes to invite all local organizations, as well as individuals, to meet at city hall at 2 o'clock and form in line. It is hoped that a large number of Lowell societies, patriotic or not, will accept the invitation and join the ranks. Sunday afternoon, a small American flag will be given to each person who enters the parade. Alex. D. Mitchell, commander of the Spanish War Veterans, is chief marshal of the parade, and Spanish War Veterans, Sons of Veterans, Company C, G and K, the O. M. cadets and all ladies' auxiliaries will march.

M. C. O. F. CONVENTION

TWO LOWELL MEN AMONG THE OFFICERS WHICH WERE CHOSEN AT FALL RIVER

Joseph N. Gregoire, chief ranger of Court St. Antoine, C. O. F. of this city will represent the Lowell members of the Catholic Order of Foresters at the international convention of the order, which will be held in Providence, R. I. next August. He was chosen a delegate at the state court convention held in Fall River this week. Another Lowell man, Paul T. Charbonneau, past chief ranger of Court St. Paul, was also honored at the state convention, being chosen a trustee of the state court.

The Lowell delegates who attended the convention were J. N. Gregoire and Dr. Adolard Payette of Court St. Antoine, the latter being vice chief ranger of the state court; Paul T. Charbonneau and Raoul H. Monier, both past chief rangers of Court St. Paul.

The election of officers for the state court at this week's convention resulted as follows:

Chief ranger: N. V. Marcotte, Cambridge; vice chief ranger: J. A. Dauphinais, New Bedford; secretary: Simeon Viger, Lawrence; treasurer: J. B. N. Souliere, Worcester; trustees: Eugene Lapalme, Fall River; Camille Champagne, Haverhill; John J. Murphy, Boston; W. C. Lamoureux, Southbridge; and Paul T. Charbonneau, Lowell.

Delegates chosen to the Providence convention are: J. N. Gregoire, Lowell; Oscar Paquette, Fall River; E. P. Talbot, Fall River; A. Robitaille, Taunton; G. Parent, Lawrence; E. Chabot, Haverhill and P. Allard, Southbridge.

The international convention was scheduled to be held in Ontario, Canada, but on account of a large number of delegates being of German descent, it was deemed advisable in this time of war to hold the convention in the states and accordingly Providence, R. I. was chosen as the convention city. This will be the first time Lowell delegates attend the international convention, for four years ago Dr. Adolard Payette attended the convention held in Cleveland, O.

HAVERHILL HEARING HALTED

Civil Service Commissioners to Decide Whether Miss Marshall Is Legally an Office Holder

HAVERHILL, June 11.—The hearing on charges of inefficiency against Miss Alice C. Marshall, superintendent of the tuberculosis hospital, was adjourned by the municipal council yesterday until this afternoon to allow the civil service commissioners to report on her legal standing as an officeholder.

Miss Marshall was appointed provisional superintendent at a salary of $720 a year at a time when there was no "eligible list." Since then her salary has been increased without the approval of the civil service commissioners, so that she is said to be not legally an officeholder, her former place having been vacated when she accepted more salary. The finding of the commissioners will affect the superintendent's right of appeal to the district court from the municipal council's decision in her case.

REMARKABLE CASE of Mrs. HAM

Declares Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Saved Her Life and Sanity.

Shamrock, Mo.—"I feel it my duty to tell the public the condition of my health before using your medicine. I had falling, inflammation and congestion, female weakness, pains in both sides, backaches and bearing down pains, was short of memory, nervous, impatient, passed sleepless nights, and had neither strength nor energy. There was always a fear and dread in my mind, I had cold, nervous, weak spells, hot flashes over my body. I had a place in my right side that was so sore that I could hardly bear the weight of my clothes. I tried medicines and doctors, but they did me little good, and I never expected to get out again. I got Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier, and I certainly would have been in grave or in an asylum if your medicines had not saved me. But now I can work all day, sleep well at night, eat anything I want, have no hot flashes or weak, nervous spells. All pains, aches, fears and dreads are gone, my house, children and husband are no longer neglected, as I am almost entirely free of the bad symptoms I had before taking your remedies, and all is pleasure and happiness in my home."

Mrs. JOSIE HAM, R. F. D. 1, Box 22, Shamrock, Missouri.

All our testimonials are guaranteed genuine and truthful. They came to us entirely unsolicited and are sincere expressions of gratitude to the benefits received from the medicine.

RICKARD SHOE COMPANY DECIDES TO GIVE UP ITS LYNN FACTORY—HAS EMPLOYED 350 HANDS

LYNN, June 11.—After much deliberation, the Rickard Shoe company, which for four years has operated one of the most successful factories in Lynn, decided yesterday to remove to Haverhill. The firm has employed 350 hands.

Edward M. Rickard, the president, refused tonight to discuss the reasons for the decision to leave here. He came here as superintendent of the Watson Shoe company and eight years afterward the firm of Rickard & Gregory was formed. Four years later Mr. Rickard retired and organized a company bearing his name.

Boston Elevated Road Petitioners Public Service Commission—Spot Pond Station to Be Moved

BOSTON, June 11.—Because the Metropolitan water and sewerage commission feared that Spot pond might be polluted by crowds at the Middlesex Fells station of the Boston Elevated and Bay State Street railways, the two companies and the commission have agreed upon a new site for the station, about 1000 feet nearer Stoneham. The new station will also mark the fare limit on the Elevated.

The Elevated road has prepared plans and sent a petition to the public service commission to build loops in Broadway, Somerville, for the operation of trailer cars on the Highland avenue Viaduct line at the southern carhouse at Arlington Heights, at Harvard Square and in Beacon street at the reservoir.

The space between the tracks on Dorchester avenue, from Summer street to Andrew square will be built and a new curve will be built from Summer street into Chauncy street.

SPOT CASH BOUGHT

60 Full Pieces of Blue Serge

NEVER in the history of my Lowell store have I shown you a stock of woollens so exclusively high grade. I don't hesitate to make the broad statement that not another concern in New England is showing a line of serges that begins to approach my stock during this

JUNE BLUE SERGE SALE

When I make that assertion I have in mind, of course, alone the high priced houses, because I don't for an instant associate my qualities, even in comparison only, with the grade of goods that usually find their way into the construction of medium priced clothing.

Men who have never traded with me or who have never taken the trouble to investigate my claims or examine my stock may falter before they believe that I could have goods worthy of such sweeping praise. But I am conscious of what I say herein, and stand ready to prove it to the most usual observations of any man who has been accustomed to wearing $25.00 to $35.00 suitings.

Believe me when I tell you nice goods are scarce today---and they promise even scarcer in the cloth marts of the country. There is a problem in front of the clothing and tailoring trade. The great American people demand nice stuff. The market is empty and where some of them are going to get the goods of required quality is hard to see. I can sell my stock wholesale to the biggest houses in the land at a big advance in ten minutes.

Instead, I am giving them to the people who stuck by me through my six years in Lowell. Buy them, gentlemen, on my recommendation. You can't go wrong. I have them in light and heavy weights. I am giving you a lot more than I would be able to do under conditions today, but not a bit more than you are entitled to.

INDUSTRIAL AND STORE NEWS

The majority of the store clerks observed their second Thursday afternoon off by attending the circus.

The Milliner's union is scheduled to meet tonight in Carpenters' hall, Runnels building.

"Billy" Heelon, the popular Belvidere tenorsorial artist, has become a hard working member of the Woodbine club.

A dividend of 5 per cent was payable at the office of the treasurer of the Ap-

leton mills in Boston last Monday.

Arthur Flanders of the Lamson Store Service Co. will try out his new motorcycle in the Oakland on Sunday.

Business at the Saco-Lowell shops is on the increase and several of the employees are employed six full days a week.

Nearly all the shoe concerns of the city are running to capacity, while business in the other industries is also good.

The majority of the mill employees were given a brief respite yesterday during the parade hour and they enjoyed the long and gorgeous pageant.

Citizens night affected the labor men, and but few meetings were held, the majority of members being in attendance at the big show.

Walter Lygas, the well known manager of the South End ball team, has accepted a position at the Saco-Lowell shops. He was formerly employed at the Hamilton Manufacturing Co.

Seventy-five national and international organizations have been formed during the past 19 years out of local unions directly chartered by the American Federation of Labor.

Unionists in Toronto, Canada, are insisting on the appointment of a "fair wages" officer who will enforce the payment of prevailing rates on city work.

Great indignation has been aroused in London by the knowledge that about 2500 Germans and Austrians are still being employed in certain London hotels.

Easton Gibbs & Sons, contractors for Rosyth dockyard, Scotland will give women whose husbands have been called to war house rent free in the village during their absence and also a certain amount of coal each month.

Walter McEvoy of the Ben March Co. says there will be something doing every minute at the camp on Sunday.

Walter is chairman of the committee in charge of the outing to be conducted by the members of the Upper Five.

The past year 255 charters have been issued by the American Federation of Labor. Of this number two were granted Internationals, one state branch, 129 trade unions, 50 federal unions and 44 central bodies.

James Lislon, formerly employed at the U. S. Bunting Co., and now attending the local high school, is playing great ball for his school team. "Jim" is a catcher, but he has been placed in the outfield because of his great hitting abilities.

Clyde E. Hockmeyer, a graduate of the Lowell Textile school, has now actively connected with the Waterhead mills, of which his father, Otto Hockmeyer, is the head. He is also treasurer of the new concern that has started operations at the plant.

It is said that Traffic Officer "Billy" Grady holds court with the pigeons at his stand at the corner of Market and Central streets every day. The officer, it is reported, carries a pocketful of corn to work every morning and never misses a day in feeding the birds, which have also acquired the habit of coming around on an appointed hour.

Painters Union

The Painters union held its regular meeting despite the circus, and there was a good attendance. President Geo. Fifield was in the chair and called to order promptly at 8 o'clock. A list of routine business was transacted and a number of reports and communications were read and passed on. Business Agent Dale's report showed business employed. Several of the members spoke on the good of the union, and the secretary's report showed the organization to be in a flourishing financial condition.

Graft in Purchasing

It may be that the textile alliance won't be able to uncover, prove and stop the graft that does go on in the purchase of supplies by textile mills, but it can be stopped. The way to stop it is for the mill agent, or superintendent, to do the buying. A little worse mill up in New Hampshire made a change in the soap used for scouring wool. The lucky salesman in this instance put in his soap at 5 1/2 cents. He was not asked for any graft, and thought he had one good customer. He sold ten barrels of soap, a few weeks later another ten barrels, the third ten barrels a little later, and very recently a fourth ten barrels. The other day the soap salesman called at the mill, and was told that his soap was no good—that it had spoiled about 1,000 pounds of wool in the scouring. The salesman said that if his soap spoiled the mill's wool, the soap company would pay for the wool, but he must go out into the mill to see the material that was spoiled.

So the soap salesman went out into the scouring room, and for the first time saw the boss scourer. The salesman explained to the boss scourer that it was funny that 30 odd barrels of soap were used without making any trouble, and that it was then discovered that the soap was no good. The scourer said to the salesman, "Can I talk with you?" He then explained that for all the soap that had been used in the past the mill paid 5 1/2 cents, and that he got a cent a pound of soap from the scaper maker. He thought he ought to have something on this new soap. The salesman explained that at 5 1/2 cents there wasn't any chance to pay graft. He did, however, give the boss scourer a $10 bill. Then the salesman went home and threw up his job.

We know of a very bad worsted mill that pays 5 cents for palm oil soap. We are certain that the mill could get the same soap for 6 1/2 cents, and still give the soap maker a margin for graft. We know of a small carded woolen mill which pays 7 1/2 cents for the same palm oil soap—at least a cent a pound too much. Where does the excess price go? There is only one answer.

So far as the several large dyestuffs manufacturers and merchandising houses are concerned, we believe there is mighty little graft being done, but it is the dyestuff people themselves who have put an end to it. Small dyestuffs chemical concerns, however, are not so clean. There are soap manufacturers who will not pay a cent of tribute. Those concerns are well known by name, we imagine, to every textile manufacturer. Where graft makes the sale, selling ability counts for nothing. Industry is not rewarded. Salary is not dependent upon personal effort.

MITCHELL BOYS' SCHOOL

Annual Field Day and Commencement Exercises Held Today—List of Awards

With ideal weather prevailing, the 45th annual prize drill of the Mitchell Military Boys' school was held today on the beautiful and spacious school grounds in Billerica. With the conclusion of the program early this evening, the students will turn away from their studies for their annual summer vacation and all sessions at the institution will suspend until fall.

Guests present at the exercises included parents and relatives of the young military students, former Mitchell boys and a number of invited guests. The program included drill and military maneuvers on the grounds adjoining the school and commencement exercises in the gymnasium this afternoon. Music was furnished during the day by Maxwell's orchestra of Everett.

As the guests arrived they were seated in comfortable chairs on the well kept lawn while a short musical program was given by the orchestra. Promptly at 11 o'clock taps sounded in the rear of the school and a moment later the young cadets marched onto the campus headed by Capt. Perry Gardner Thompson of this city.

KANE—Mrs. Elizabeth Kane died today at her home, 27 Fulton street.

HOSE FISHWAYST

Local Association is Determined They Should be Restored

President Simon B. Harris and Secretary Willis S. Holt of the Lowell Fish and Game association are strongly of the opinion that the state fish and game commission will order the fishways restored in Lawrence and Lowell. The local association has been fighting for this for some time and the state commission has paid the Lowell association a very fine compliment. The state board was in Lowell Wednesday and its chairman said that the Lowell association is the liveliest association of its kind on the map, and that's going some when one takes into consideration the fact that every city of any consequence in the state has a fish and game association. The members of the state board are Dr. George W. Field, chairman, William C. Adams and George W. Graham. They telephoned to Messrs. Harris and Holt to meet them at Lawrence, but the Lowell men didn't go to Lawrence. They allowed that the state officials could get all the information they wanted in the downtown city and the Lowell men were on hand to meet them when they arrived in Lowell. The state officials made the trip in a big touring car and, after dining at the Harrisonia, went up to give the fishway at Pawtucket falls the once over.

They had told Messrs. Harris and Holt that the Lawrence fishway was out of commission and after looking at Pawtucket falls over they said no fishway existed there. They also stated that a fishway never ought to have been built in Lawrence.

The Lowell men suggested to the state officials that they meet Thomas May, an old fish warden, to hear what he would have to say about the fishway. They had claimed that fish wouldn't live in the Merrimack river because of the pollution from the mills but Mr. May assured them that there are black bass and other fish in the river today, and that there would be lots of salmon, too, if the fishways were kept up. He said that the fishway in Lawrence was destroyed by the freshet in 1905-06. Mr. May said that often upon seeing 40 or 50 salmon at the bottom of the falls he would knock off a flashboard and just as soon, he said, as the water struck the salmon they would square away and shoot up over the falls like a "streak of greased lightning."

Chairman Field of the state board thought it would be a good idea to conserve the mill ponds and stock them with wall-eyed pike, but President Harris of the local association said that his association was not interested in wall-eyed pike; that the association had determined upon the fishways being restored in Lawrence and Lowell in order that the Merrimack might come into her own as a salmon river. "You have cut the salmon off from the under water where they went for breeding purposes," he said, "and now we want you to open the way for them so that they may resume their old habits and live their lives as nature intended."

The ponds about Lowell viewed by the state officials included Long-Sought-For pond, Flushing, Keyes, Forge and Cryslar. As the visitors whirled along the boulevard in their high-powered car they spoke in glowing terms of the beauty of the Merrimack river.

"Stream of my fathers' sweetly still. The sunset rays the valley fill. Peered sidewise down the long defile. Wave upon and spire beneath them smile."

Mr. Harris was quoting from John Greenleaf Whittier's "The Merrimack," and the state officials said they didn't blame Whittier for poetizing on so beautiful a stream.

The ponds, too, they thought, were very beautiful. They had no idea, they said, that there were so many fine ponds so near Lowell. They allowed that they would come again for a second view and upon leaving the Lowell officials have about made up their minds to do something towards the restoration of the fishways in Lawrence and Lowell.

BOARD OF TRADE MEN

OFFICIALS WENT TO BOSTON TO MEET SO. AMERICAN BANKERS THIS MORNING

President Robert H. Marden and Secretary John H. Murphy of the Lowell board of trade went to Boston this morning for the purpose of meeting the Central and South American bankers, who are touring this country, and who today are the guests of the Boston chamber of commerce.

The Lowellites were given an opportunity to meet the bankers, who by the way, are on a tour of the United States for business purposes, and they explained to them what the city of Lowell has to offer. They outlined the various industries of this city and supplied the visitors with considerable literature concerning Lowell, in order to interest them placing manufacturing orders with the local manufacturers. This evening the visitors will be tendered a banquet at the Copple-Plaza hotel.

PREPARING FOR FOURTH

PRINCETON CLUB WILL HAVE A PRIZE FEATURE IN LINE—CONFIDENT OF SUCCESS

According to Charles Slowey, chairman of the committee in charge of the feature to be presented in the Fourth of July parade by the Princeton club, the first prize of $150 is sure to go to the Centralville organization. He says there will be over 200 members in line and that the costumes will outlive any ever seen in this city.

A big meeting is scheduled for Sunday morning at which further plans for the parade and other important matters will be discussed. President Thomas McGowan will preside, and a number of prominent officials in charge of the arrangements for the parade will be present to address the members. The committee in charge of the Princeton club feature is as follows: Charles Slowey, chairman; James Burns, Patrick Tarry, William Green and Harold McNell.

MEN OF ROUND TABLE

ATTO FARTY FROM FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH PILOTED BY F. J. FLEMING

The Men of the Round Table of the First Baptist church held an enjoyable automobile ride yesterday afternoon. About 50 men participated in the spin and a most pleasant afternoon was spent. The automobiles were fully decorated and made an attractive appearance while passing through the streets. The route included North Chelmsford, Tyngsboro, East Peppereli, Townsend, Fitchburg and Ayer.

The automobiles of the following members were in line:

F. J. Fleming, pilot; Harry G. Pollard, E. P. Little, H. C. Fuller, Perry D. Thompson, William T. Sheppard, William Patten, Arthur G. Pollard, Frank Kimball, Dr. W. H. Depin, Charles Flemings, L. A. Derby, F. B. Hill, Donald Dewar and Robert Fried. The arrangements of the outing were in charge of the president, Harry G. Pollard.

NEW NOTE TO GERMANY

note seemed to open the door to a solution compatible alike with the interests of both Germany and of the United States.

The note, it was said, was purposefully phrased so that it would give Germany an opportunity to meet the wishes of the United States with dignity and in conformity with German public opinion. Many officials wondered why Secretary Bryan declined to sign the note. They claim its friendliness was the very means that he had suggested—persuasion to accomplish the American purpose. In official circles there were few who agreed with Mr. Bryan that the note might lead to war. Germany's answer to the note was not looked for under ten days or two weeks.

While the state department had no advice from Ambassador Gerard that the American note to Germany had been received in Berlin, they assumed from news despatches last night, announcing its arrival, that the ambassador's messages were again being delayed in transmission. They expected the communication would be laid before the foreign office some time today.

The note which brought on the crisis in President Wilson's cabinet and culminated in the resignation of William J. Bryan as secretary of state, although friendly in character, firmly renews previous demands that the German government give assurances that American lives and vessels shall hereafter be safeguarded. What action the United States will take in the event that Germany refuses to give such assurances is not indicated in this note.

The note further declares that in the view of the American government, the contention that the Lusitania was carrying contraband of war or that there munitions were exploded by a torpedo, "are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel."

"It is upon this principle of humanity," the note adds, "as well as upon the law founded on this principle that the United States must stand."

The note informs Germany that it must have been misinformed when it assumed that the Lusitania carried munitions, but the opportunity is given to Germany to submit any evidence that American officials did not execute their tasks thoroughly in inspecting the Lusitania before sailing.

Not Altered After Bryan Saw It

It became known today that although the note was shown to former Secretary Bryan by direction of President Wilson, just before it was dispatched, it was not altered after Mr. Bryan had seen it. Acting Secretary Lansing, who showed Mr. Bryan the note, said today that "not a word or letter" had been changed. Mr. Lansing had not signed the note as secretary of state, but he had signed it as acting secretary of state. Mr. Lansing had not signed the note as secretary of state, but he had signed it as acting secretary of state.

Lansing at Cabinet Meeting

Mr. Lansing attended today's cabinet meeting by specific invitation of President Wilson. He was not present at the opening of the session, taking the ground, as it was expressed at the state department, that he should not attend unless invited. In view of the interim nature of his appointment in charge of the state department, the president solved the question immediately by asking him to attend.

The Text of the American Rejoinder to Germany will be found on the last page.

GERMAN ISSUES STATEMENT

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Former Secretary Bryan today issued a statement expressing his gratification over what he termed a change in the tone of the press regarding the American note to Germany. The statement follows:

"I am glad to note the change in the tone of the press in regard to the note to Germany. From the time the papers began to publish forecasts down to yesterday, the jingo editors have been predicting that the matter would be dealt with with 'great firmness'; that Germany would be told that there must be no more delay in the acceptance of this country's demands, etc.

"Instead of waiting until the note was issued, they in advance colored it to suit their own purposes. It is a relief to find the papers now emphasizing the friendly tone of the note and pointing out that it does not necessarily mean war."

"Something has been gained if the warrior journalists at last realize that the country does not want war, but that, on the contrary, it will support the president in his efforts to find a peaceful solution of the difficult problem raised by the use of the submarine against merchantmen."

COMMENT BY BERLIN PAPERS

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 3:31 p. m.—The American note, though printed in full and given the greatest prominence in the Berlin newspapers, was not accompanied by editorial comment in the editions appearing up to 3 o'clock.

The headlines of the newspapers varied in wording but were similar in tone. Among the captions were "America Stands Firm," "A Very Solemn Warning," "Grave American Warning to Germany" and "A Grave Appeal."

MEXICAN HATRED

It is Shown Against
California

ON BOARD U. S. S. COLORADO, San Diego, Cal., June 11.—Feeling against Americans is being exhibited at the Mexican west coast ports of Manzanillo and Mazatlan, held by Carranza forces, according to radiograms received by Admiral Howard today. No overt acts of any kind have been reported, however.

Villa forces remaining in the southern district of lower California are said to be expressing willingness to leave for Guaymas, Sonora, without further fighting.

A MARRIAGE ANNULLED

MAN MARRIED HIS MOTHER'S HALF-SISTER EIGHTEEN YEARS
AGO

NORTH ATTLEBORO, June 11.—The marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin A. Hunt, which took place 18 years ago, was annulled yesterday by Judge DuBois in the superior court at New Bedford, on the ground of blood relationship.

Mr. Hunt is a son of Mrs. Hunt's half sister. The couple lived together 18 years knowing of the relationship, but did not know that the marriage was illegal. The relationship was not brought out at the time the marriage intentions were filed.

Three children have been born to the couple. A few months ago divorce proceedings were started, and when the papers were drawn up the relationship of the couple was noted.

THE WHITNEY WILL CASE

PARTIAL VERDICT UPHOLDS WILL
ATOR OF SOUND MIND

BOSTON, June 11.—The jury in the Whitney will case, after having been out 23 hours, rendered a partial verdict yesterday morning, sustaining the will on two issues, holding that it was legally executed and that the testator was of sound mind, but the jury could not agree on the question of whether undue influence was exerted by Mrs. Amy H. Barker on testator, Theodore D. Whitney. The judge discharged the jury.

Ex-Congressman Joseph P. O'Connell, counsel for Mrs. Whitney, widow of testator, declared his intention to have the case tried again, if possible as early as next fall. George L. Mayberry, counsel for the will, would make no comment on the outcome.

NEW ENGLAND SICK GET BACK HEALTH

Victims of Digestive Disorders Tell of
Wonderful Effect of Remedy

Many New England stomach sufferers and, in fact, people all over the United States, have found remarkable results from the use of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy.

Hundreds in this state alone have taken this remedy and tell today of the benefits they received. Its effects come quickly—the first dose convinces; no long treatment. Here is what two who have taken it say:

MRS. S. E. JOHNSON, 61 Whitmore street, Hartford, Conn., writes: "My pains left me the next day after taking the treatment. It is simply wonderful how it relieved me."

MRS. CLARE SHAW, 493 Dexter street, Providence, R. I., writes: "I received your treatment and it saved my life. I am better now than I have been for twenty years."

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy gives permanent results for stomach, liver and intestinal ailments. Eat as much and whatever you like. No more distress after eating, pressure of gas in the stomach and around the heart. Get one bottle of your druggist now and try it on an absolute guarantee—if not satisfactory money will be returned.

PAPER OFFICE WRECKED

EXPLOSION OF DYNAMITE AT BUTTE BUT NOBODY WAS IN-JURED

BUTTE, Mont., June 11.—The plant of the Butte Socialist, a weekly newspaper, was wrecked by an explosion, presumably of dynamite, early today. The interior of the building was wrecked and the front was hurled into the street. A gallery at the rear was blown loose and fell on machinery below. The police believe the explosion took place in the rear of the structure. The upper story of the building, occupied as a rooming house, was not badly damaged. So far as is known, no one was hurt. An investigation is in progress.

NO MENTION OF AMERICAN NOTE
BERLIN, June 11, via London, 4.45 a. m.—None of the morning newspapers refers in any way to the American note or the fact that it has been received and there is no comment on the general situation.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Another ten-strike feature may be recorded to the credit of the management of the R. F. Keith theatre, with the presentation of the Metro five-part picture called "The Shooting of Dan McGrew," in which Edmund Breese, the eminent American actor, is cast in the leading part. Yesterday this wonderful picture was given twice, and on each occasion the audience followed breathlessly the development of the story. Breese in his character study of the man whose wife was stolen from him, and who for 12 years faced the world with revenge tearing at his heart, will contribute a punch which is seldom duplicated even on the legitimate stage. How he found the man who wrecked his home in the Malama scene, found him with his wife and how the two turned on each other and "shot up" the place, furnishes a climax that is tremendous. The natural scenery brought forward in this picture is of the highest possible class.

OPENED NEW QUARTERS

A pretty gathering of friends took place at the new quarters of the Young Men's Hebrew association, 231 Central street, last evening, the occasion being the formal opening of the new rooms and the inspection of the same by the many friends of the organization. The special guests of the evening were the members of the Young Women's Hebrew association, an auxiliary body.

A varied entertainment program was carried out in Post 155, G. A. R., hall with Neyman's orchestra in attendance. Among those who participated in the entertainment were the following:

Percy Lightman, Miss Sarah Paterlosky and Master William L. Abrams, Leopold Albertson, John Dalton, Samuel Kopelman and others. The principal speaker of the evening was Benoit Silverblatt, who outlined the high aims of the organization and congratulated the members upon the success already attained.

Refreshments were served by a committee of young women of the Y. W. H. A., comprising Misses Frances Goldman, Elsie Hortink, Fanny Silverblatt, Ida Lashowitch and Beatrice Brans.

The reception committee included Mrs. Sarah Klein, Mrs. S. Porter and Mrs. A. S. Goldman, of the Y. W. H. A. The committee in charge of the general arrangements were: Julius Neyman, chairman; Leopold Albertson and Max Goldman.

It should be remembered that all of the scenes were taken in Alaska, and that the rugged scenery of this bitterly cold country is pictured in many of the scenes. In addition to this there is a Chaplin picture, with several one-reelers of note. On Monday, and Tuesday, the first three days of the touring, Ethel Barrymore in "The Nightingale" will be shown.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Charming Mary Pickford is appearing at the Merrimack Square theatre in her latest and greatest dramatic success, "The Dawn of Tomorrow." This superb picture has just been released by the Paramount Film company and is shown in 5 acts. In this celebrated play which gladdened the hearts of so many when presented on the stage with Eleanor Robson, and the screen version of which will cheer as many thousands more, Mary Pickford portrays the weird and wonderful character of Glad, the beautiful and ragged girl of the London slums whose undying optimism and heroic courage even deathly peril is unable to quench. The delicate and simple force of Miss Pickford's portrayal makes an unforgettable impression of the spectator. Another big feature on the program for today and tomorrow is the appearance of Mr. William Anderson better known as "Broncho Billy" in the thrilling story of western life with a graphic war scene of the fight between the cowboys and the harassing Indians. Make it a point to take in this thriller. The comedy end of this show is well taken care of by the inevitable Weber and Fields in "Two of the Bravest," which is a farce bubbling over with mirth and wholesome humor. Several other bits of high grade, interesting pictures complete this long, well selected program at the Merrimack Square theatre for today and tomorrow.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Because of the many people who were unable to see the Amateur Charlie Chaplin perform at the Academy of Music last week, the management has decided to hold a repetition of this contest this evening. This will give the public one final chance of witnessing what proved the biggest, funniest, laugh-a-second comedy feature of the kind ever shown in the city. The idea of putting up prizes for the best amateur imitation of the world famous Charlie Chaplin, which was so successful on the metropolitan stage, Miss Mathison is supported by an excellent cast of artists and the production is in every way up to the high standard required by the Academy management. This picture will be shown today and Saturday. The remainder of the program, too, is highly attractive, and consists of dramas and comedies, six reels in all. In addition to the main production of five reels, nobody should miss the opportunity for a genuine big time with barrels of fun. Come and see all the Charlie Chaplin and their little act on the Academy stage.

JEWEL THEATRE

Ever heard of Alexander the Great? The most remarkable vaudeville act of the season. Well! Lowell will have a chance to see this wonderful chimpanzee in pictures. A comedy called "Should We Eat Pie?" introduces this marvel as animal to the public. He will be shown in connection with other great attractions, among them a Chaplin comedy. Charles is some boy, and every gent that thinks he cannot play the fool in the streets, trying to imitate him. The real goods, however, are found only in his inapproachable comedies, which are shown nearly on every change of the program. The fourth episode of "The Diamond from the Sky," featuring Lotie Pickford and Irving Cummings will be shown. Murdock McQuarrie in the "Old Doctor," Charles in "Memory Tree," "The Jungle Queen" with Marie Wicamp and many other new pictures will complete a delightful end-of-the-week program at the alluring little house round the corner. Go to the Jewel and see a real movie show for a change. Admission is always the same—5 and 10 cents.

Sale Before Stocktaking Commences Today

Every garment in our establishment must go regardless of cost. It is easier for us to count money than to take count of our stock, therefore we have decided to hold a special sale right now, in the heart of the season, the time when you need your summer garments.

Every garment in our establishment is fresh and new, up-to-date in style, and superior in quality. We have not got to praise our merchandise. It is well known to the public, not only in Lowell and vicinity, but all over New England. Our make has been established for the past twenty years, and is not only known to private trade, but to retailers all over New England as well, that the Boston Ladies' Outfitters have always planned to manufacture the best that money could produce. When you buy from us you buy direct from the manufacturer.

This before stock taking sale will surely break the records of all sales ever heard or seen for legitimate, honest made garments. We want to call your attention to the fact that our sale is not a hurrah sale, it is not a fake sale, and it is not a lot of rubbish picked up, neither is it seconds or damaged merchandise or misfits, nor soiled merchandise, nor sweepings of shops. We are putting before you honest merchandise manufactured in our own factory, the Boston Ladies' Outfitters, a concern with a reputation. We are not gypsy travelers who travel from town to town misrepresenting themselves before the public with a lot of rubbish or rags. Keep your eyes open when you see such fake advertisements and paper talk. Do not be humbugged by them, and do not give them an opportunity to think they can fool the public. We are sure of the fact that the public of Lowell and vicinity are too wise for that class of fakers.

Our before stock taking sale began this morning. Come yourself and bring your neighbors. There are hundreds of styles and bargains awaiting you. You do not have to buy, but come and see what we have to offer you at this monster stock taking sale. We are sure that you can buy two honest garments of good quality for the price that you will pay for one elsewhere.

Look everywhere. See what you can get. Keep your eyes open. Use your own judgment. Pay no attention to fake advertisements. Visit our store—The Boston Ladies' Outfitters, 94 Merrimack street, and that will convince you.

MINERS' TROUBLE

National Guard on Patrol at Johnson City to Prevent Clash

JOHNSON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Three companies of the Illinois national guard were patrolling the streets today as a precaution against further disturbance between American and foreign miners, growing out of the lynching of Joseph Strando, one of the foreigners.

Strando with three others was accused of shooting to death W. E. Chapman, a wealthy resident of this place, and wounding his daughter, Mrs. Benjamin Schull, wife of the manager of a local mine.

Several members of the mob which yesterday hanged Strando carried arms today in expectation of attack from the foreign quarter.

DUFFY'S BODY FOUND

WILSONVILLE, Conn., June 11.—The body of Hugh Duffy who has been missing since last Wednesday night was found last night in a small pool one-quarter of a mile from the home of James Welch, with whom he lived.

Since the disappearance the woods and fields for miles about the house have been searched. The pond in which he was found had been dynamited in attempts to locate him.

A reward of $100 had been offered for the finding of the body. Suffering from rheumatism Mr. Duffy is thought to have become temporarily demented and to have wandered into the pond.

MR. BRYAN AGAIN

HE ISSUES ANOTHER NOTE, THIS TIME TO GERMAN AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, June 11.—With the issuance today of another statement—an appeal to "German-Americans," William Jennings Bryan was expected to rest his case. This is his third since his resignation. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the statement in advance.

In his second statement, addressed to the American people and which was coincidentally issued with the publication of the American rejoinder to the German government's reply to the note following the sinking of the Lusitania, Mr. Bryan asked the public to "sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than share responsibility for it."

He contends that the American note conforms to the standards of the old system of force, while he is an advocate of the new system of persuasion and "as an humble follower of the Prince of Peace," pleads that the United States lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Mr. Bryan expresses confidence that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, but says good intentions are not enough. He adds that if the public verdict is against him he asks no mercy, declaring that public men must be "willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution."

A MURDER CONFESSION

BOSTON, June 11.—Joseph, alias Delavan Rogers, one of the two implicated in the murder of Samuel Cohen, the South End junkman, at 116 Springfield street, on May 29, arrived at police headquarters yesterday from Jersey City in custody of Sergeant William Livingston and Inspector Thomas Towle.

Rogers, who had already made a confession in Jersey City to the Boston officers, confronted it when he made a lengthy statement to Captain Anselmy Armstrong.

Rogers plainly showed the ordeal he has been through, and he told the officers that he realized his position, but denied that he fired the shot that killed Cohen after he and his accomplice now at large had robbed him of $10.

GARMENT WORKERS CASE

TWO JAIL SENTENCES IMPOSED AND ABOUT FIFTY DEFENDANTS FINED

BOSTON, June 11.—Judge Irwin of the superior criminal court yesterday disposed of 52 strike cases, the aftermath of the recent strike of the garment workers. Pleas of nolo were accepted in some cases and pleas of guilty to various offenses in others, and the remaining defendants were discharged. Although the judges in the lower courts had imposed many prison sentences in disposing of the cases, only two imprisonments, of one month each, were given by Judge Irwin.

Giuseppe Festa, one of the strikers, charged with disorderly conduct, and (Lafayette) Losco, charged with assault, were sentenced to prison. Max Yaffy was at first sentenced for the same term, but when Judge Irwin learned he had just purchased a business of his own, and has a wife and two children, one of them in the hospital, he placed the case on file.

Fines of $50 each were imposed on Meyer Surtz and David Stefano, who were charged with striking the proprietor of a shop, and Max Silverman was fined $50 and Vincenzo Savignano $25 for assaults. Peter Cohen was fined $20 and Max Lipren $15, also for assaults. Lipren paid his fine but the others were committed to jail in default of the money.

SACRED HEART FEAST

OBSERVED BY CHILDREN OF ST. MICHAEL'S PAROCHIAL SCHOOL THIS MORNING

The feast of the Sacred Heart was observed in an impressive manner by the children of St. Michael's parochial school this morning, who attended mass at 9 o'clock, which was sung by Rev. Fr. Mullen in the absence of the pastor, Rev. John J. Shaw. A feature of the service was the consecration of the children to the Sacred Heart, each child receiving a Sacred Heart badge which was blessed during the mass, the children reciting in unison the act of consecration. Fr. Mullen preached on the apostleship of prayer and love for our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. The music incidental to the service was inspiring, being given by the entire school, a chorus of over 500 juvenile voices and the hymns sung were "Hymn to the Sacred Heart," "O Salutaris," "Tantum Ergo" and "Holy God We Praise Thy Name." There were many adults at the mass.

KING OF GREECE

His Condition Shows Little if Any Improvement

LONDON, June 11, 8.33 a. m.—The bulletin issued at Athens last evening regarding the condition of King Constantine, says a Reuter despatch, was as follows:

"The king's temperature is 98.8; his pulse 102 and his respiration 17. There is an abundant flow of matter, which is not of good quality. The inflammation in the kidneys continues with a slight increase of albumen."

CONDUCTOR CONROY DEAD

VICTIM OF YESTERDAY'S ACCIDENT PASSED AWAY LAST NIGHT

The many friends of Walter J. Conroy and especially the members of the Street Car Men's union, will be grieved to learn of his death which occurred last evening at St. John's hospital, where he had been removed in the morning following a car accident which took place in Bridge street shortly after nine o'clock.

As was stated in yesterday's issues of The Sun, Mr. Conroy was changing the signs of his car which was going to Dracut Centre, when he was struck and thrown to the ground by an inbound car, receiving a fracture of the skull. After an examination at the hospital all hope for his recovery was given up and despite the best of medical attendance the young man passed away shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Deceased was 34 years of age and is survived by his wife, two children, Edward W. and Francis A., his mother, Mrs. Anna Conroy; three brothers, James, Frank and William, and two sisters, Mrs. William Smith and Miss Anna C. Conroy. He was a member of local 230, Street Railway Men's Union. For a number of years Mr. Conroy was conductor on the Nashua line, where he made a host of friends through polite manners and genial disposition. Deceased was always very courteous with the passengers and all who knew him had a good word for him. His demise will be keenly felt by his many acquaintances and particularly by his superior officers, who were well aware of his efficiency as a railroad man.

TAKING THE DARDANELLES

CAPTAIN VON MUECKE SAYS IT IS IMPOSSIBLE—SAYS WATER SUPPLY CAN BE CUT OFF

VIENNA, via wireless to London, June 11, 8.45 a. m.—An interview with Captain von Muecke, formerly of the German cruiser Emden, in which he says the forcing of the Dardanelles and the taking of Constantinople are impossible, is published by the newspapers here. He declares submarines are likely to cut off the water supply of allied troops on the Gallipoli peninsula, which would compel them to surrender as they would be unable to return to their transports.

Captain von Muecke says the guns of the British warships have been damaged by hard usage and super-dreadnought Queen Elizabeth soon will be compelled to withdraw on this account. He asserts that the Turks have plenty of ammunition and are magnificent fighters. They lost heavily at first under the fire of guns from the fleet but now have dug themselves in and are using the best means possible to destroy allied landing parties.

Captain von Muecke apparently has arrived at Vienna on his way to Berlin after having piloted the landing party which was under his command when the Emden was sunk from Coos island to safety at Damascus, whence it was not difficult for them to reach Constantinople.

BEATEN AND ROBBED

LEWISTON, Me., June 11.—Thomas McNamara was beaten into insensibility by three men near his home, two miles out of this city, last night and robbed of between $600 and $700. Mr. McNamara was unable to give any clue to his assailants, one of whom wore a mask. The assault and robbery took place on an unfrequented road and the police believe the men escaped in an automobile.

LOST NURSE FOUND

FRAMINGHAM, June 11.—Following a search of the past few days which involved the police departments of five cities and towns, Miss Helen Carter, 28, a nurse, who disappeared from Framingham, was located Wednesday at the home of a brother in Revere. Miss Carter, it is understood, was suffering from a mental strain.

Going Out of the Furniture Business

The above statement is not merely a catch phrase to create some extra business, but a fact. For the past several years we specialized in handling stove repair parts, carrying same in stock, for all kinds of stoves and ranges. This branch of our business has grown to such an extent that we must give it more space, and in order to accomplish this we have decided to give up everything in the furniture line and in the future confine our stock to Stoves, Floor Coverings and Bedding only and an increased stock of stove repairs.

YES WE ARE SELLING OUT

Entire stock of Refrigerators, Go-Carts, Baby Carriages, Buffets, Dining Tables, Dressers, Art Squares, Linoleums, Oil Cloths and Bedding reduced to prices never heard of before. Act quickly. Our stock is not large and will not last long. This is a chance of a lifetime for you to get some real bargains.

REMEMBER, we are not going out of business and we are not going to move from our present location. Our future business will be confined specially to stove repair parts for all kinds of stoves and ranges and an increased stock of stoves, iron and brass beds and floor coverings of all kinds. Nothing in furniture. We are going to change our name, too. It will be Quinn Stove Repair & Supply Co.

ANOTHER VICTORY OVER LEWISTON

Lowell Earned Verdict
in Hard Fought 3-1
GameInside Baseball Enabled
Home Team to Win
Contest

Lowell triumphed over Lewiston yesterday for the second time in as many days, defeating the Maine club by giving a fast, heady exhibition of the national pastime to a 3-1 finish.

Opposed to the local batters was a person named Whittaker and this same person can pitch, by the way. Lohman was on duty for Lowell and his heavy-lift was also good although classy fielding behind him helped him on several occasions. Whittaker twirled gilt edge ball.

Two of Lowell's runs came across as the result of squeeze plays and the other was scored when the Lewiston pitcher cut loose a wild heave with Barrows on third. The game in detail:

First Inning
Lohman took Maloney's grounder and Umpire McGauley called the runner out. The play was close. Becker hit a grounder toward third and beat the throw. The ball went beyond McGauley's reach to the bleachers and Becker went to second. He was caught on second, taking a big leap. The Lewiston pitcher did not appreciate the ump's ruling and kicked on the decision but to no avail. Denoville died to Barrows in right center. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Swayne's grounder was taken by Prysock while coming in hard. It was a slow grounder and the Lewiston pitcher played it the only way to get the speedy Swayne. Whittaker hopped into the air and took Dec's grounder although the ball hit the catcher's head and he had to wait for the ball to come in. Barrows' bat swept the ball over Becker's head for a long triple to center. It was a great clutch and the crowd showed its appreciation. With Barrows at the bat, Whittaker was wild and his fourth ball one to Bernie provided the home team with a run. Whittaker did not handle Barrows' cross the plate before the catcher could reach the sphere. Becker went out trying to steal second and the first inning was over with Lowell one run to the good. One run, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Second Inning
Denoville struck out going after Lohman's curve on his last strike. Fahey trotted into the diamond near the box where he caught McCarthy's high fly. Fahey then made a great stop of Phillips' hard smash over his head, but found it impossible to get the runner at first base. Ritter tried to drive a liner through our third sack, but this time the ball was low enough for Fahey to hold onto. Both of these last two plays were beauties. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Prysock made a fine play when he leaped in front of Simpson's grounder over second and threw to Denoville at second for a fair decision in favor of the defense. Ahearn's grounder also went to the visitors' shortstop and the big catcher was relieved by the same method as Simpson. Lohman struck out the first sacker not swinging at the last one. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 1, Lewiston 0.

Third Inning
Prysock drove out a double to left. Simpson tried to smother the ball but it bounced over his shoulder. Prysock took a long lead off second and knappy work by Ahearn doubled him between second and third. Ahearn ran into the diamond before the pitcher and the Lewiston shortstop hoped it for third but found Fahey waiting at the hot corner with the ball. Whittaker fired on a grounder to Denoville. Maloney paid no attention to his pitcher's fate for he also smashed one to Bernie and the result was just the same as in the previous instance. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Ritter stopped Fahey's hard grounder and his throw to first reached the bag ahead of Howard. Lohman got out at the end of his pole and the ball rolled between Becker and Maloney for three bases. On the signal for a squeeze play, Swayne hit to the box and Lohman crossed the plate although Swayne was out at first. The Lowell team is beginning to look like an "outest to goodness" ball club. Dec's hard grounder bounced off Whittaker's glove but McCarthy got hold of it and threw to first for "Shorty's" extinction. One run, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 2, Lewiston 0.

Fourth Inning
Becker's short fly to left was gathered in by Simpson though it looked as if the ball would drop in safe territory. Bowcock was the main squeeze in the matter. Two Lewiston deaths. Holmes poked a grounder to our new second baseman and Bernie's throw got him easily at the first depot. Denoville then sent an easy liner at him and the Barrows crowd went to bat. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Whittaker smacked Barrows with his curve. The ball smote him in the back and seemed to hurt some for he sauntered along the base line with a pained expression about his face. Barrows took second on a passed ball. He came close to being thrown out. He started late and then ran over the bag, but McCarthy dropped the ball as it was all right. Barrows went to third on Bowcock's sacrifice and the official scorer got ready to chalk up another Lowell run. Lowell once more worked the squeeze play when Bowcock scored on Simpson's bunt in front of the plate. Each of Lowell's runs was made via the squeeze route. Ahearn's drive to right was pulled down by Phillips and the inning was over. One run, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 0.

Fifth Inning
McCarthy's bat crashed through the atmosphere thrice. McGuinn took care of Phillips' line drive without moving from his tracks. Ritter fired a fly that was foul by a few feet in short left. Dec shouted for the ball and Simpson allowed him to make the catch. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Denoville juggled McGuinn's ground-

er but managed to field it in time to Whittaker who covered the sack for a put-out, or at least, the umpire called it that. McGauley did not look any better today on his decisions than yesterday. Fahey's fly in right center went into Phillips' hands. Lohman was easily thrown out by Whittaker on his weak grounder to the box. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 0.

Sixth Inning
Lohman speared Prysock's grounder and threw him out at first. The visiting pitcher was a weak proposition at the bat, his three swings in this inning being useless. Fahey made a nice stop of Maloney's hard grounder along the third base line, but could not recover it in time to get the batter. If the blow had gotten by Fahey, Maloney would surely have gone to second. Becker drove a long triple to right center which easily scored Maloney. Becker overran the bag and Ahearn pointed out to McGauley that a coacher in the third base coaching box had touched Becker. McGauley called him out and a howl of indignation arose from the Lewiston bench as the players surrounded the ump. After a lot of talking the game was resumed under protest of the Lewiston team, their claim being that the runner touched the coach instead of the reverse. One run, two hits, no errors.

Swayne singled to right but Dec, following him, hit into a double play when he grounded to Whittaker. The latter threw to second, forcing out Swayne, and Dec was shut off at first. Prysock scooped up Barrows' creeper and his throw to Denoville sent the Lowell players back to their fielding positions. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.

Seventh Inning
Dec pulled down Holmes' short drive toward left and Fahey tucked away Denoville's infield fly. McCarthy dumped a Texas leaguer into short center and then stole second. Ahearn's throw being slow, Phillips was allowed to pass to first while the umpire called four bad ones. Ritter then struck out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

The Lewiston players made several satirical remarks about Ahearn. They claimed that he was influencing the umpire's decisions. "Ah, get a job as an umpire, one of them yelled," while Ahearn asked Umpire McGauley if he carried Ahearn with him to call balls and strikes. Some of the remarks were very funny. Bowcock died on a grounder to McCarthy. Stimpson's long smash was tucked away by Becker. Ahearn concluded the seventh round with a strike-out. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.

Eighth Inning
Fahey yanked down Prysock's grounder and pegged to McGuinn for the runner's retirement. Bowcock threw out Whittaker on his slow roller. Maloney slashed a single between Fahey and Dec in the left but went out a second later when he tried to steal second. Ahearn's peg being O. K. runs, one hit, no errors.

McGuinn hit to Prysock. Prysock picked up the ball from the ground and threw to first. The ball was low and went to the first base bleachers. McGuinn taking second. The umpire called him out, however, ruling that Prysock made a clean catch of the drive. Fahey crossed up the Lewiston defense when he hunted safely and then stole second. Lohman threw to Maloney at short left Swayne was thrown out at first by Ritter. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Score: Lowell 3, Lewiston 1.

Ninth Inning
Becker went on a close decision on a grounder to Denoville. No runs, no hits, no errors.

ATHLETE ACTORS

Princeton Stadium the Scene of Greek Plays
Today and Tomorrow

PRINCETON, N. J., June 11.—Princeton's athletes will perform in the stadium this afternoon, but in the role of actors and not as athletes. A number of the prominent football and crew men have responded to Granville Barker's call for students to sup in his Greek plays, which are to be given in the Palmer stadium.

The list includes I. Swart and W. Swart, R. Nourse, track and football man; Heyniger and Longstreth, substitute guards; Kaufman and Halsey, two freshmen eleven men, and McKibben, Heffron and Winant of the crew. Present indications point to a crowd of about 10,000 at the performances this afternoon and Saturday morning.

DIAMOND DAZZLES

Lowell looks like a different aggregation nowadays than the club which well nigh disgusted us all with its ragged fielding and poor judgment. One couldn't ask for better baseball than the locals have furnished during the past two days at Spalding park.

It looks as though Pres. Roach was jinx chaser. There hasn't been a sign of ivory displayed since he found himself a seat on the home bench. Perhaps the thoughts of lost meal tickets has cleared up what bone there was among the local players.

Walter Ahearn must be given the largest share of credit for the present ginger among our ranks. The big catcher has instilled more life in the team than it seemed possible.

The Lewiston players surely took a dislike to Ahearn yesterday. The Lowell catcher talked to Umpire McGauley quite frequently and the visitors accused him of giving decisions. Perhaps he did at that. Anyhow the umpires did not approve of Ahearn's crew.

Out of the cellar at last and now let's see that we stay out and climb up into faster company. The kind of baseball we have seen the past couple of days is too speedy for any place other than the top positions.

Matty Zieser of the Lowell team is on a fair way to hang up a record for hitting players. He continues as he has started the present season. Up to Wednesday he hit 14 players, which is an unusually large number. On May 1, he hit Graydon of Worcester; May 4, Sullivan and Gaston of Fitchburg; May 8, Kilhullen of Manchester; May 11, Lynch of Lynn; May 18, Ritter, Duggan and Smith of Fitchburg; May 27, Collins twice; June 1, McGeehan and Kane of Manchester; June 4, Flaherty of Lawrence; June 7, Keegan of Worcester.—Lawrence Tribune.

If any one wants a jinx for a pet or companion he may obtain a well-trained one from Raymond Keating of Bridgeport, Conn., and the Polo Grounds. Ray is of the opinion that Leon Ames' old Polo Grounds jinx wishes to be adopted by the Keating family, and Brother Jinx hangs around despite "Keat's" warm objection.

History is repeating itself for Ray. Last season the big ball artist took 2 games early in April, which was his lone triumph until late July. He went into July with one win and ten defeats, despite the fact that he pitched some pretty fair ball. After that, luck broke a little better, and Ray closed the season with seven victories against eleven defeats.

This season Keating is moving along in his 1915 manner. He won his first game from the Red Sox, 2 to 0. Since then he always has pitched good ball but is generally on the short end by one run. The Athletics beat him, 2 to 1; the Indians, 3 to 1; the White Sox, 7 to 6; the Red Sox, 1 to 3 (thirteen innings), and the Tigers, 1 to 0. Ray is not sure of his fate, but is certain that he and the fates are on bad terms.

The oldest baseball in existence is owned by the president of the East end church baseball league in Pittsburgh. The ball is nearly 35 years old. It was used in a championship game between the Eclipse team of Hingham, N. Y., and the Hudson team of Newburgh, N. Y. The game was played June 20, 1882 and ended 19 to 18 in favor of the Kingston team. The ball is made of one piece horsehide, sewed in the center. The ball carries $500 burglary insurance and $500 fire insurance. It was given to its present owner by John Miller, who is 100 years old and who played first base on the Eclipse team.

Jesse C. Burkett of the Worcester team lost Catcher Walter Ahearn last week. Ahearn wrote to Burkett, but Burkett did not get the letter until he got back to Worcester. In the meantime Walter signed with Lowell.—Exchange.

Our old friend Rube DeGroff has been heard from and the old boy is just sticking in old time form for the Wilkesbarre team of the New York State league. When Manager Pete Noonan signed up the former Lowell outfielder the fans of Wilkesbarre yelled murder at Noonan at getting a player who was supposed to be "all in." The Rube has shown them that he is far from being "all in" and he is hitting the ball very hard, while his fielding has been excellent.

Billy Peters of the Lawrence Tribune says: "There has been a load on my shoulders for some time and I know of no better time to shake it off. When Dan Noonan announced last winter that he had traded Larry Mahoney to New York for Jake Warner we yelled blue murder, falling for the bunk that Warner was an 'old truck horse'—that the locals were getting stung very badly. It so happened the Eastern association did not start and Mahoney was saved to the champs, for which turn of affairs the fans were most thankful. Warner, however, may be an 'awkwardly slow felder,' who covers no ground," but if this characterization is so Jake played for shown it in the game. Warner is the premier second sacker of the New England league and performing to the satisfaction of the club and the fans.

The game played between Worcester and Lowell May 1 was really the shortest game played in the New England league this season. The full nine innings took up one hour and 23 minutes. Manchester and Worcester played a game in one hour and 20 minutes May 11, but it was only eight and one-half innings.

The veteran Benny Bowcock is back in the New England league, playing with Lowell. Bowcock went west last fall and this spring joined the Seattle club of the Northwestern league along with Louie Courtney. Courtney was released by Lynn, while Portland gave Bowcock that liberty. Courtney returned east some time ago.

If the Fitchburg reports are correct—that Mike Lynch threw the third sack into left field he should be forcibly reminded that he is but a small part of the national game. He did a "fresh" thing here last Saturday when just because Lynn lost he threw the ball into play into right field.—Lawrence Tribune.

Harry H. Aubrey has yet to umpire a game in Lowell. The season's sixth game of the yet Harry has not worked in the Spindle city.

INJURIES TO ATHLETES

MALDEN, June 11.—After a controversy the athletic board of Malden high school has agreed to pay Capt. Arthur C. Doyle of the baseball team $35 for medical treatment following an injury sustained by him during the football season last fall. Doyle was hurt during a contest, but the athletic board refused to pay the bill when it was first tendered.

Walter Rows of this season's baseball team will receive $150 to have repairs made on two teeth which were damaged when he was struck in the mouth with a bat.

TO GET RID OF UNSIGHTLY HAIRS

There is only one safe and sure way to get rid of hair—and that is to dissolve them—then you kill the hair roots entirely. To do this, get one ounce of simple sulfo solution from your druggist—apply with the finger tip—keep the hair moist for a minute or two. You will see them gradually shrivel up and dissolve—wash the parts with water—and you will find that the hairs have disappeared entirely—leaving the skin soft and smooth as velvet, without a mark or scar of any kind.

Gained 16 Pounds and

Look Like a New Man

A PLUMP, STRONG, ROBUST BODY

"Before I took Sargol people used to call me 'skinny' but now my name is changed. My whole body is stout. I have gained 16 pounds and am gaining yet. I look like a new man," declared a man who had just finished the Sargol treatment.

"I was all run down to the very bottom," writes F. Gagnon. "I had to quit work. I was so weak. Now, thanks to Sargol, I look like a new man. I gained 22 pounds in 23 days."

"Sargol has put 10 pounds on me in 14 days," writes W. O. Roberts. "It has made me sleep well, enjoy what I ate and enabled me to work with interest and pleasure."

Would you, too, like to quickly put from 10 to 30 pounds of good, solid "stay-where" flesh, fat and muscular tissue between your skin and bones?

Don't say it can't be done. Try it. More than half a million thin men and women have gladly made the thin folks fat even where all else has failed, is best proved by the tremendous business we have done. No drastic diet, flesh creams, massage, oils or emulsions, but a simple, harmless home treatment. Louis K. Liggett Co., Carter & Sherburne Co., Falls & Perkins, C. P. George & Co., F. H. HIS NOSE BROKEN

Bobby Schang Got an Awful Bang in the Face

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 11.—Bobby Schang, the Pirate catcher, is in a hospital today suffering from injuries received during batting practice yesterday, when a bat slipped from the hands of Bill Hinchman and struck him in the face. Schang's nose was broken in two places and his face was knocked out and he was badly bruised. Although his injuries are painful, physicians do not believe he will be kept out of the game long.

CHARLEY WHITE

Charley White, the Chicago lightweight, now has a record of winning seven of his last eight bouts with knockouts. He naturally feels that such performances entitle him to a match with Lightweight Champion Welsh, but he isn't passing any of the tough nuts up on his way to the championship goal. He shows this by taking on Young Brown, the rugged New Yorker, at the American Sporting Club next Wednesday night. Brown won his last bout with a knockout, too, and enjoyed the distinction of having put Mat Wells flat on his back when the latter was England's champion lightweight.

THE MARRIED TEACHER

BOSTON CHAIRMAN OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE AND SUPERINTENDENT CONDEMN HAVERRILL RULE

BOSTON, June 11.—The precedent established by the school committee in the city of Haverhill yesterday, when, after a lengthy meeting, it was voted that a woman teacher who married was still eligible to remain on the teaching staff, is not a welcome attitude and would not be received with approval in Boston, according to the views of Michael Corcoran, chairman of the school committee, and Superintendent Franklin F. Dyer.

"I would positively oppose such a measure as this instance in Haverhill," declared Chairman Corcoran, when interviewed on the question last night. "You can also quote me as saying," continued the chairman, "that I do not believe in it for a minute. That is my personal opinion regarding the matter, but as far as such a thing ever occurring here, I would say that it is out of the question."

When asked for a statement regarding the Haverhill case, Superintendent Dyer refused to pronounce judgment on that individual case. He said: "From my years of experience I have always found that when a teacher marries, she is ready to resign her position—as a rule she marries for a home, and her home duties do not permit her either the time or inclination for further carrying on the school work."

"I can truthfully say that in the 30 years I have been identified with school work I have never known but one instance when a teacher married and was reluctant about handing in her resignation. That case, though I would not want to state positively, was due to what I would call a convenience marriage. The woman had been on the teaching staff for several years."

JURY COULDN'T AGREE

BOSTON, June 11.—After seven hours of deliberation, the jury in the suit of Miss Maude Birch, formerly a seamstress in the employ of the family of Prof. Percival Lowell, against the latter's wife, Mrs. Constance S. Lowell, for damages for alleged slander and malicious prosecution, reported a disagreement yesterday before Judge Raymond in the superior court.

BRYAN'S MISSION

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has once again discovered that he has a great mission to perform, and true to his inspiration he has set out to perform it. What matters it that he has embarrassed the government, put grave obstacles in the way of President Wilson, made of American diplomacy a thing to be ridiculed in the government circles of all nations and run counter to the expressed opinion of the American people? The super-sensitive conscience of Bryan has whispered, and it is for him to obey, as Don Quixote obeyed the call of chivalry. Like Don Quixote, too, Mr. Bryan has discovered great wrongs and he is up and away to right them.

It was inevitable that in any crisis demanding close attention to details and familiarity with international affairs, a break should come between President Wilson and his premier. Mr. Bryan is pre-eminently a man of peace, and it is so hard to know to keep at peace permanently if you send diplomatic notes to foreign governments. Far better in the opinion of the former secretary that we put all thoughts of evil out of our hearts, persuade ourselves that every government on earth is ready to throw sugar plums at us, and send messages of love and exalted inspiration to everybody. Of course there is such a thing as international law but it is mostly scraps of paper as some people seem to imagine.

Mr. Bryan is in many ways a most remarkable man and a great force for good, but he should never have been made secretary of state, unless it was meant to show the American people what a mistake he would have been as president. His honesty of motive is above question; his sincerity is undoubted and his ideals glitter like soap bubbles, but his judgment is warped and his sense of proportion has been torpedoed. He suffers too from the exaggerated ego, though he puts his manifold perfections at the service of America and the world.

America has no great fault to find with Mr. Bryan's resignation in its relation to this country, but there is one grave impropriety in it that would have kept a less self-centered man in the cabinet. It will create a very bad impression abroad and give unfriendly governments an opportunity to allege that the American public is not united behind President Wilson. In this light, Bryan's resignation is an act of great indecency and disloyalty, and though he pays homage to his chief, his action proves otherwise, and actions still speak louder than words. The country will follow the immediate career of our great peace prophet with intense curiosity, waiting to see how much of the resignation was prompted by his heart and how much by his head.

Mr. Bryan is about to go into the highways and byways of the nation in the cause of peace. He does not wish this nation to go to war. Who wishes this nation to go to war? What is Bryan going to fight? He has admitted that President Wilson seeks the same ends, and if it comes to a choice between the two men, the American people will stand with the great leader who has steered the ship of state so wisely through dangerous seas and earned for himself the confidence of his own country and the admiration of the world. Mr. Bryan on the contrary has attracted considerable attention, but most complimentary notices of him of late have been prefaced by an apology. He means well but—! Only goes to prove that good men are not necessarily great and that something is needed in the game of practical diplomacy besides a benign expression, a good voice, peerless vocabulary and supernatural confidence in the motives of all foreign powers.

How will Bryan's resignation and his announcement of his peace mission affect the German answer to the American note? How would Von Jagow's resignation affect us, under similar circumstances? Suppose that before the last German reply was sent us, Von Jagow had gone to the kaiser, refused to sign the note and announced his intention of preaching a different policy. Would it not make the German note look a little sick? If the American note does not look sick to the German government, it is not Bryan's fault. True, it is, however, that Bryan, in this, speaks for a section of the American public of which the greater part is Bryan himself. Yet his arguments will probably be seized by Germany and hurled back at President Wilson in reply to the note just sent. That is how Mr. Bryan will assist in opposing President Wilson in standing for the rights and interests of this nation. If Mr. Bryan could not conscientiously support President Wilson in his attitude, he was justified in resigning, but he is not justified in going out on the public platform to assail the president's stand and stir up factional strife that will embarrass the administration and give comfort to the enemies of our country.

THAT NEW BRIDGE

In planning for the new bridge at Pawtucketville, the municipal council seems to have gone very loosely about the work to say the least. Without adequately informing the public as to the details of the plan, or providing for any competition, the city authorities have arranged for its construction on very uncertain grounds and without safeguarding the public interest in an adequate manner. In a minor proposition, this mode of procedure might be overlooked, but in an undertaking that will surely involve the spending of $50,000 and that may possibly involve the spending of considerably more, the public would like to see business done differently.

If the occasion was so pressing that we were compelled to erect the bridge without delay, one might understand the haste of the municipal council, but the building of bridges, the supplying of steel and the making of cement are not confined to one firm, and there should have been a fair and open opportunity for all bridge builders who cared to bid to submit their plans before anything definite was done. But Mayor Murphy said he would have no contract work and the council assented. Furthermore, the municipal council did not act with a proper sense of responsibility to the public in agreeing as to cost before the specifications were drawn up. It would be better that we had definite plans before we talked price; all private concerns readily understand the danger of deciding on a certain sum for improvements and making plans to suit.

So far as the actual cost is concerned, the bridge may possibly be erected within the $50,000 if Engineer Denman and Commissioner Morse agree on the labor question. The out of town engineer had some very positive views as to contract labor, etc., at the start, but he has moderated them considerably in the face of local opposition. Possibly if the specifications were rigid on the question of cost, his views would be more rigid. City jobs have a way of running away ahead of appropriations, even when the specifications or contracts are more specific and satisfactory than in this case. The municipal council has taken a great deal for granted, and has acted in a slipshod fashion, calculated to endanger the public interest. Consequently, if the bridge is in any way a disappointment, in cost or otherwise, the people of Lowell may be pardoned for asking why fair competition was not provided for, and why the preliminary plans for the bridge were not made more definite, more protective of the city's interests.

SUPERVISED SUMMER PLAY

The last meeting of the park board resulted in action being taken connected with the summer playgrounds that will mean a great deal to the young people of the city and their parents for the next few months. Though practically a new institution in Lowell, the abandonment of the playgrounds would be considered a great hardship, and still it is doubtful if we have yet brought out all their possibilities. In a few years, organized and supervised summer play may be considered as important for the proper development of children as the school attendance in the winter season.

As before, the playgrounds at the North and South commons, Aiken street, Textile school, and Paige street will be opened, and additional playgrounds will be opened in the regular school grounds. Mr. Weed made the excellent suggestion that the Franklin school triangle be opened for the exclusive use of the women and small children. This, though new, is not radical, and it is in line with the movement to make the use of schools more common for community purposes. Cheap benches might easily be placed in most of the school playgrounds all over the city and in this way many grateful breathing spots might be opened without additional expense. Parks have been called the lungs of the city, and the opening of little spaces such as the school grounds would afford relief and relaxation to many.

The park board has done well also in opening a temporary recreation field at the Horn land in the Highlands, and in Shedd park, and it would seem that there is an opportunity for such playgrounds in all sections. With a little co-operation between the park department and private owners, temporary ball grounds might be opened during the summer months without much cost to the department in many lots and stretches of undeveloped property. We cannot go too far in promoting organized and supervised play, for nothing conduces more to crime than the promiscuous mixing of youngsters without safeguard or protection against the influence of toughs and undesirables.

The young women who have volunteered their services as supervisors over the summer playgrounds deserve the thanks of the city, and it is to be hoped that their unselfish service will bring to them some of the pleasure it will give to others.

LYMAN ABBOTT'S VIEWS

Dr. Lyman Abbott of the Outlook is well known as a pacifist, or what Mr. Taft calls a pacifist, but there is something more inspiring in his ideals of peace than in those of more advertised peace propagandists. He does not believe in peace at any price, as he explained at a recent dinner of the Army and Navy league. The following excerpt from his address will appeal to all good Americans whether they be inclined to follow the banner of Gardner or that of Bryan:

I am sorry to say that recent events have shown myself and a great many others that the era of the appeal to reason is a great deal farther off than we thought. The first fundamental of government is protection of persons and property. If it does not protect it, it has no right to be called a government. I respect the men of the peace societies, but I do not respect their opinion. They are not preaching peace but anarchy. If there is no navy to protect our ships on the high seas then every ship is a pirate ship, and that would mean international piracy. I am not for war, but we do want to be prepared to meet war if it comes to us. One thing is certain, this nation must have an army and navy adequate to fulfill its duty to itself and the world.

It is inevitable that in consideration of such a momentous question as war, there should be widely conflicting opinions, and it is plain that earnest men hold widely diverging views, but the extreme peace theory is as silly as the extreme preparedness theory. This nation does not desire war with any power on earth, but if the theories of some of our workers for peace had obtained in the days of Washington, there would be no United States.

ROAD TO BILLERICA

The improvement of the Boston road from the Lowell-Chelmsford line to Billerica will be an improvement indeed, and one that will give a more favorable impression of Lowell to anybody approaching the city from that direction. This road has been one of the poor entrances to Lowell so persistently condemned by press and public for the past few years, and the improvement of it in the near future will be in keeping with other commendable improvements. The bettering of this link between Lowell and Boston, the improvement of Rogers street and the construction of a new road along the river to join the new state road at Indian Orchard would give Lowell up-to-date entrances and exits and would remove a blemish that has been all too apparent for many years.

PROPOSED PARK

The proposition for a new park in Pawtucketville, favored by the board of trade, is an excellent one, and the only possible exception will be on the ground of cost. Lowell has neglected its river banks too long, and therefore its greatest park opportunities have been discarded, but even at this late date it is gratifying to find that we are recognizing the beauty and potential utility of our river banks. If the land in Pawtucketville is not developed for park purposes, it will be only a short time before it is cut up for building purposes, and another fine stretch of river bank will have gone the way of all the rest. By all means let us have a new park to set off the new bridge, offer a pleasing prospect in the approach to Pawtucketville and be a boon to the children of that congested district.

WORKED ALL RIGHT

A minister in a neighboring town a few Sundays ago surprised his audience by reading the following announcement:

"The regular session of the Donkey club will be held as usual at the close of the service. Members will line up just outside of the church door, make remarks and stare at the ladies as they pass, as is their custom. Any member known to escort a lady to church and sit with her like a gentleman will be expelled from membership. The application was to the point and the effect was marvelous."

EARTH'S AWAKENING

I love to watch the earth arise, to rub her dull and drowsy eyes, to yawn and stretch and with a bound land firmly on the velvet ground. I love to see the bright array of stars, for a bilious day, to make the world a fairy den for nature and the haunts of men. I love to feel the wooing breeze, caressing softly through the trees and sunny warmth of earth and sky to winter calls a last goodbye. I love the singing birds and river, but best of all I love the giver, for life has made the whole world sing that we might have a joyous spring.—Juanita H. Ford in The Roller Monthly.

PAY AS YOU GO

It seems hard to live within a limited income, yet people do it. They exist on the bare necessities. They realize that poverty is a cheerless companion. Yet they live within their income. The monthly bills are paid. They look the world in the face, fearlessly.

The temptation to spend is great. They can spend because credit is always easily obtained even by the most unworthy. But credit is, in the long run, a nemesis of woe, the destroyer of peace and happiness. Debt is a tyrant, relentless and obdurate. Pay as you go and you will be happy.

AMOS, MY HIPPOPOTAMUS

I bought me a hippopotamus. From a bankrupt animal show. I christened the pachyderm Amos. For he looked like a muss, don't you know. And he has rendered me famous. For they shout wherever I go: "He's the master of Amos! The famous! Hippopotamus!"

Don't you know. I went to a millionaire's party. Feeling at peace in my mind. But they didn't welcome me heartily. And remarks were passed unkindly. Then a supercilious smarty sneered: "Sir, your brat's behind. I think it was Amos, my hippopotamus. Seeking myself to find."

O Amos, my hippopotamus. You've made me famous, 'tis true! Yet Amos, they blame us, and try to defame us. Because that we're chums, they do put Amos, Amos, my hippopotamus. They never can shame us—their lies won't lame us. Nor would nor maim us, for whatever their malice is.

They can't break our friendship true. "Never mind the right pronunciation.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

THE ZEPPELINS

The Zeppelins have proved to be of slight utility in war. Their known achievements thus far in bomb-dropping raids, killing a few score women and children and non-combatant men and destroying some property have brought no military advance but much of moral loss. And the thrilling story of the destruction, near Ghent, of a giant airship by a monoplane pursuing it over Belgium from the raid on the east coast of England, shows how easy a prey such a monster gas-bag structure may be for an airplane operated by a daring aviator.—Worcester Post.

CONSTANTINOPLE

With Constantinople in the hands of the allies, a decisive barrier will be erected to Germany's aspirations in the southeast. There is no question of her desire to expand eventually through Austria and Turkey to Asia Minor and so on to the Persian gulf. But with Russia entrenched on the Bosphorus, or a neutral state established at the strait, she can no longer hope for the fulfillment of her dream. In scarcely another year could her imperial ambitions be more impressively checked than by taking the Turkish capital out of weak hands and placing it in strong ones. The Kaiser must see with bitterness the gradual creeping of the allies towards the famous capital on which he has so long had his eye.—Providence Journal.

TOWN GOVERNMENT

While it is undoubtedly true that no better form of democracy exists than that of town government as it was known in the days of the colonies, it is equally true that some other form becomes necessary when the voters of a town outnumber the people that can be assembled in the town hall.—Lynn Item.

COUNT BERNSTORFF

These burdens are heavier and more trying for Count Bernstorff than they would be for a man of coarser fibre. Count Bernstorff is a man of culture, of social attainments, inherently, and by training a gentleman. It is fitting, therefore, that the people of America should think and speak of him with kindly feeling and with sympathetic appreciation of the burdens that he is carrying.—Providence Tribune.

POINT OF VIEW

Dr. Knno Meyer roundly scores Harvard for allowing its students to study upon German principles, and a professor in the University of Rochester declares himself unable to teach German because its present principles are not according to the ideals of Goethe and Schiller. It all seems to depend on the point of view.—Brooklyn Times.

MAJ. A. B. PUTNAM DEAD

MALDEN'S FIRST APPOINTEE TO WEST POINT SUCCEUMS SUDDENLY

MALDEN, June 11.—Word was received here yesterday of the sudden death in Little Rock, Ark., of Major Alfred Burpee Putnam, Malden's first appointee to West Point.

Major Putnam died Tuesday. He was 35 years old. He was a native of Malden, a son of the late Henry L. Putnam, sealer of weights and measures. He attended Malden High and was graduated from the military academy in 1899.

Major Putnam had served in the Philippines, San Francisco, Puget Sound and in the south. In Little Rock he had charge of engineering projects. He is survived by a wife, who was Miss Myrtle Harris of this city; a son, two brothers, Frederic L. Putnam and Otis C. Putnam of Melrose, and two sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Bedlow of Texas and Miss Florence Putnam of this city. The body will be brought here next Sunday.

BRYAN TO ADDRESS ELKS

WILL APPEAR IN LYNN MONDAY AND GIVE FIRST PUBLIC TALK SINCE RESIGNATION

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Announcement was made yesterday that William J. Bryan had accepted an invitation to be the guest of Lynn lodge of Elks at the flag day celebration to be held in Lynn June 14 under the auspices of that organization.

Ex-Secretary Bryan will make his first public address since parting with President Wilson at Lynn, where he will be the principal speaker at a celebration. The president declined an invitation some time ago and Sec. Daniels of the navy, who had agreed to visit Lynn, cancelled his acceptance last week.

Before retiring as secretary of state Mr. Bryan had tentatively promised Congressman Phelan to make an address in Lynn and in response to a telegramic inquiry as to his intention of keeping the tentative engagement Mr. Bryan replied yesterday afternoon that he would visit Lynn.

Senator Lodge, it is understood here, is to make a patriotic address and the ingling together upon the same platform of two such prominent persons in national affairs promises to make the flag day celebration in Lynn conspicuous throughout the country.

Miners Cut Into Drift of Abandoned Mine—Were Buried

JOPLIN, Mo., June 11.—Six men were buried beneath tons of water, earth and rocks in the Longacre-Chapman mine near here late last night, when they cut into a drift of an abandoned mine. A seventh man was rescued after being hurried nearly 700 feet by the force of the cave-in. The six are believed to have been instantly killed.

IN POLICE COURT

George Walsh, who came to this city some months ago and stole 15 Boston & Maine trip tickets, the property of William H. Noonan, the Centralville druggist, walked into the police station last night and gave himself up. He claimed that his conscience had troubled him ever since the theft.

He had no visible means of support and when his case came up in police court before Judge Enright this morning he was sentenced to one month in jail.

William Lamselme came into the clutches of the law for failing to provide for his wife and six children. Mrs. Lamselme testified that her husband contributed only $7 towards maintaining their home since the first of May, and that all the money he gets he uses to buy drink.

Judge Enright ordered defendant to pay his wife $5 a week and to keep away from drink. If he fails to abide by the court's decision he will go to jail for four months.

A young man was in court charged with too frequently expressing himself in profane language. After a heart to heart talk with Judge Enright, in which the young man promised to do better his case was placed on file.

There were four drunken offenders released through the efforts of Probation Officer Slattery.

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

New Bedford Cops Must Stop Smoking Pipes—Other Rules

NEW BEDFORD, June 11.—New Bedford's force of 125 policemen can hardly take their place in the sun under the new rules that Chief Thomas C. Allen has just announced. The entire city was stripped of police protection for nearly an hour, while the new police head congregated his subordinates in headquarters and read the riot act to them. So hereafter the background will be the place of operations for the New Bedford bluecoats.

In the first place, patrolmen must not be obstructive at fires. Chief Allen heard that some of the men interfered with the work of the fire fighters at some of the big blazes that have happened in New Bedford, and so the new department rule states that the place for patrolmen at fires is in the background.

Patrolmen cannot hereafter travel in pairs while on duty, for the taxpayers might think they were having too good a time. One of the most stunning blows is that which Chief Allen struck at pipe smoking. Hereafter the policemen have been allowed to smoke when off duty, even if they were in uniform, but the new regulation forbids the use of pipes when in uniform, although cigars may be smoked. Cigarettes are not mentioned, but the presumption is that they are under the ban.

Still another clause that will affect the policemen during the final hours of their shifts is that which forbids all members of the force from coming up against buildings. The conversational habit of the policemen of the law has been read which prohibits patrolmen from engaging in unnecessary tete-a-tetes with civilians while on duty, and also forbids a patrolman from talking with a traffic officer while on duty.

MURDER CHARGE

Chauffeur Refused to Speak When Asked to Plead to Indictment

CAMBRIDGE, June 11.—Charles E. Warren, a chauffeur living in the Allston district of Boston, refused to speak when asked to plead to an indictment charging him with murdering Walter G. Green, a New ton restaurant keeper and shooting Ruby H. Stenart, an employee of the establishment on which he was arraigned in the superior court today. After the clerk had twice called upon Warren to enter a plea and court officers had made an unsuccessful effort to get him to answer Judge Sisk ordered a plea of not guilty entered and held Warren without bail for trial later.

The shooting took place on June 3. Green was killed while trying to protect Miss Stewart from an alleged murderous attack by Warren, who is said to have been jealous of the young woman.

DENMAN DIDN'T SHOW UP
ENGINEER WITH PLANS FOR NEW PAWTUCKET BRIDGE COULDN'T REACH LOWELL

The special meeting of the municipal council scheduled for 5 o'clock this morning and called for the purpose of taking further action on plans, contract and agreements in connection with the new Pawtucket bridge, did not materialize, the council receiving word from Engineer Denman that it would be impossible for him to come to Lowell today with the necessary plans and papers. The mayor called to order, however, and the council adjourned without further ado.

AN INTERESTING CITY

VERONA IN ITALY IS LESS THAN 10 MILES DISTANT FROM AUSTRIAN FRONTIER

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 11.—"Immediately inside the Italian border below the Austrian city of Trent, lies the wealthy, ancient city of Verona; an important railway center, a treasury of art, a museum of splendid remains from Roman times through all Italian periods, and altogether one of the most beautiful and interesting cities of northern Italy," according to the geographic statement issued by the National Geographic society today, which deals with the most recent of hostile frontiers in Europe. "Verona is a fortress of the first-class," the statement continues, "and one of the foremost military centres toward the Austrian frontier. In peace times, a garrison of more than 6000 men is stationed here, and here are located the administration offices of Italy's third army corps."

"Verona is less than 10 miles distant from the Austrian frontier, from that part of the Austrian Tyrol that projects as a deep wedge into the north Italian hill country. It lies 71 miles west of Venice by rail and 93 miles east of Milan, another great northern railway centre, on both banks of the rapid Adige river. It is 194 feet above sea level, with the main and older part of the city lying within an abrupt loop made by the river. The population of the city, with its suburbs, is about 80,000. The main railway lines from Modena and Mantua to Trent and Bozen, and from Venice to Milan cross in the city. The Verona, Venice, Portogruaro line parallels the Austrian frontier and has many strategic branches of much the same value to the Italians in their present struggle as the Posen-Tilsit line is to the Germans in their defense of their eastern frontier."

"Verona must be the immediate objective of any invasion from the Trentino salient. From Verona west, the trunkline railway leads through a rich industrial and farming region to the great northern towns of Milan and Turin. To the east lies Venice, and to the south are a constellation of thriving manufacturing towns. The frontiers before Verona is strongly fortified both on the Italian and Austrian sides. In recent years, a wide-flung circle of forts, far outside of the obsolete city walls, were begun as a new scheme for the city's defense. The building of these redoubts raised Verona to the position of a fortress of first rank."

"The beginnings of the Veronese fortifications still remain standing today date from 1527, when Verona was surrounded with new walls and bastions by Sarmicelli. Following the congress of Vienna, Verona fell to Austria's share, and the Austrians caused the city to be strongly fortified. The Austrians further fortified Peschiera, Mantua, and Legnago, forming the famous 'Quadrilateral,' upon which powerful series of fortresses the Austrian rule in Italy relied for its principal support until 1866. Verona is the key position to northern Italy."

"Both prosperous and progressive, the city has multiplied its industrial endeavor many times during the last score years. Today there are large paper and cotton mills in the city, an immense nail factory, and piano and organ factories. There is also, a significant manufacture of war munitions centered here, extensive artillery establishments, and important arsenals. Among the other more important manufactures are silks, soap, candles and sugar. Verona had a large and growing agricultural commerce, being one of the first Italian centres to traffic with Austria-Hungary, Switzerland and Germany. It exported wines, fruits, rice and marble, and twice each year it held a noted horse market."

"A city of wonderful art works, of weather-stained, white marble palaces, often richly sculptured and sometimes showing the worn evidences of sumptuous paintings, with impressive, well-preserved ruins from the days of before the Christian era, Verona has somewhat the appearance of a luxurious decay, with which a confident, pushing, success-breathing spirit of the last few years has contrasted sharply. The museums, picture galleries, libraries, and ancient churches of Verona teem with rare treasures. Verona was the birthplace of the famous Romans, Catullus, Cornelius Nepos, Pliny the Younger, and Vitruvius."

their advance. Russia, they declare, has delivered a return blow and a hard one. The great Russian army and German troops which have forced a passage of the Dniester river near Zbarazna have, according to the latest announcement of the Russian war office, been hung back with heavy losses in both men and material.

Thus for the moment Lemberg is thought to be safe for nowhere else along the Galician front have the Teutonic allies been making progress recently with the exception of course of their southern extension into Bukovina.

News was received yesterday that Russian reinforcements were moving south along the Dniester river from Nikolai to Rohatyn, but it was hardly expected here that they would achieve such quick results. If this victory has been decisive it is the first real check delivered by the Russians since the start of the new Austro-German rush through Galicia. Here it is characterized as giving renewed faith to Britain and France in the recuperative powers of Russian arms. Nothing new has been heard in London concerning the fighting in the Baltic provinces.

The Italians are now less than 20 miles from Trieste, the chief port of Austria.

On the western front the methodical French advance would appear for the moment to have ceased but on the other hand the German counter-attacks do not seem to have been successful.

PARIS OFFICIAL REPORT ON THE FIGHTING IN THE DARDANELLES

PARIS, June 11, 2:30 p. m.—An official announcement concerning the Dardanelles, given out in Paris this afternoon reads as follows:

"In the Dardanelles we have consolidated the results obtained by us in the fighting of June 4 and 5. At the right end of the ravine of Kerive Dere, we were successful with minor engagements, in making some further progress.

"Prisoners who fell into our hands confirmed previous reports that the losses of the enemy have been considerable."

SWEDISH STEAMER OTAGO, BOUND FOR HULL, TORPEDOED AND SUNK

LONDON, June 11, 1:40 p. m.—The Swedish steamer Otago, bound for Hull, was torpedoed and sunk last night.

The Otago, of 979 tons, net, was 241 feet long and was built in 1882. She was owned in Solvesborg, Sweden.

GLASGOW STEAMER WAS TORPEDOED WITHOUT WARNING

CARDIFF, via London, June 11, 2:29 a. m.—The Glasgow steamship Strathcarron was torpedoed yesterday without warning by a German submarine while outward bound from Barry. The crew, which put 2 in boats and were rescued by a steamer and landed here.

The Strathcarron was a vessel of 2807 tons, built in 1912, at Greenock, and was owned by the Strathcarron Steamship Co. of Glasgow. She sailed from Barry May 28 for Barry where she arrived June 2 and was reported to have entered the government service.

AUSTRIANS LOSE 10,000 IN BATTLE WITH ITALIANS AT GORIZIA

GENEVA, via Paris, June 11, 4:35 a. m.—A Lullbach dispatch to the Tribune says: "The Italians began their march against Gorizia on the morning of June 8. When the first detachments were near the city Austrian artillery opened fire and heavy masses of infantry which were thrown forward forced the Italians to fall back several times. Italian artillery posted east of the city opened great gaps in the Austrian ranks but up to the morning of the ninth neither side had gained a decisive advantage. The Austrians lost from 8000 to 10,000 men. Gorizia is overrunning with wounded who are being cared for at private houses because of a lack of hospital space."

RUSSIANS CAPTURE 6700 OFFICERS AND MEN AND MANY GUNS

PETROGRAD, June 11.—An official announcement from army headquarters given out today recites a Russian success on the river Dniester.

After hard fighting the Russians yesterday took from their antagonists 17 machine guns and 40 machine guns and captured approximately 6700 officers and men.

The text of the communication follows: "By heroic efforts our troops on Thursday repulsed on the right bank of the river Dniester great forces of the enemy who had crossed near Zbarazna, east of Str. On the front from Julakow to Siewki, the enemy sustained great losses. After a hard fight we captured 17 cannon and 40 machine guns and took prisoner 133 officers and 6500 men. Among the prisoners is one entire company of the Prussian fusilier guards."

RUSSIANS HAVE DRIVEN BACK AUSTRIAN FORCES IN A FIERCE BATTLE

GENEVA, via Paris, June 11, 5:20 a. m.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Innsbruck in the Austrian Tyrol, purports to give details of Russian successes in the Galician campaign. The dispatch says:

"The Russians bombarded the Austrian positions from Stanislaw to Borzh on the left bank of the Dniester. They have driven the Austrians across the river, taking a large number of prisoners. The Austrians also have been obliged to fall back across the Dniester at Bukasowice. The Russians stopped the advance of an Austrian column marching on Kolomea. The action was fierce and the losses were heavy on both sides."

SCHOONER EXPRESS AMONG THE NAMES OF VESSELS SUNK BY SUBMARINES

LONDON, June 11, 4:59 a. m.—The list of ships torpedoed by German submarines which is printed by the morning papers, contains the name of the schooner Express, the crew of which was landed at Liverpool.

STRONG BULGARIAN PROTEST SENT TO TURKEY REGARDING TRAFFIC

LONDON, June 11, 7:12 a. m.—The Bulgarian government, says a Bucharest dispatch to the Times has sent a strongly worded protest to Turkey because of the continued indifference of that country regarding traffic on the Danubian railway and the detention of passengers and freight.

GERMAN ORDER AGAINST PUBLICATION OF NEWS WITHOUT A PERMIT

BERLIN, via London, June 11, 7:44 a. m.—The military commandant of Berlin has issued a renewal of the order prohibiting the publication or communication of military information without a previously granted order. He says the publication of German losses, although based on official lists, "could lay no claim to correctness and in part give greatly exaggerated figures. Publications of this nature are calculated to evoke groundless uneasiness among the people and also occasion incorrect ideas abroad concerning German losses."

FRENCH CRUISER STOPPED SPANISH STEAMER AND TOOK OFF DUTCH CITIZENS

CADIZ, June 10, via Paris, June 11, 5:35 a. m.—The French cruiser Du Chayla stopped the Spanish steamer Canalejas from Larache, Morocco, and took into custody two persons who declared themselves Dutch citizens but who were regarded as suspects. The Canalejas then was allowed to proceed.

AUSTRIANS AND ITALIANS IN THEIR FIRST CONSIDERABLE BATTLE OF WAR

COLOGNE, Germany, June 11, via London, 12:30 p. m.—The correspondent of the Cologne Gazette attached to the Austrian army headquarters in the south says in a despatch that the first considerable battle of the war with Italy has been fought in the region of the Isonzo river and that it resulted favorably to the Austrians.

The Italians attacked Gorizia, Gradisca and Monfalcone, supporting their advance with artillery fire from pieces of large and small calibre. The Italian advance, the correspondent says, was checked by the Austrian fire on their flanks.

FRENCH WIN FURTHER SUCCESSES IN THE LABYRINTH, SAYS PARIS

PARIS, June 11, 2:25 p. m.—The French war office issued the following statement this afternoon on the progress of hostilities:

"There is nothing of importance to add to the announcement given out last night, with the exception of further successes in the Labyrinth where we have continued to force the enemy back and some progress to the east of the Labyrinth where we occupied several German side trenches not far from the highway from Arras to Lille.

"In the region of Hebuterne we have extended our advance made to the north and to the south of the battle front on June 7. The occupation of several trenches at this point gave us 100 prisoners and several machine guns."

RUSSIAN STEAMER DANIA TORPEDOED—MEMBERS OF CREW SAVED

LONDON, June 11, 1:10 p. m.—The Russian steamer Dania has been torpedoed by a German submarine. The members of her crew were saved.

The Russian steamer Dania was of 1659 tons net, 314 feet long and was built at Sunderland in 1908. She was owned by the Northern Steamship Co. Ltd. of Petrograd. Maritime records show that she has been running between Liverpool and Archangel.

TWO BRITISH FISHING SMACKS SUNK BY ZEPPELINS IN THE NORTH SEA

MAASLUIS, Holland, June 10, via London, 7:15 p. m.—The British fishing smacks Welfare and Laurestina were attacked and sunk by Zeppelins in the North Sea. The crews, which took to their boats were picked up by a Dutch smack and brought here.

BERLIN CLAIMS RUSSIAN ATTACKS ON LOWER DUBYSIA REPULSED

BERLIN, June 11, via London, 3:20 p. m.—The German army headquarters today gave out the following official statement:

"In the western theatre: An advance made by the enemy northeast of the Lorette hills and repeated attacks against our positions north and south of Neuville failed. Fighting at close quarters in the trenches north of Bourcille continues.

Southeast of Hebuterne and at Beaumont attacks of the enemy were repulsed yesterday and during the night. Only in the district of Serre-Marne the French made an inconsiderable advance.

"The French attempted last night to take away from us the trenches which we captured in Champagne on June 2. The French attack with strong forces extended along a large front to the north of Mesnil and as far as the north of Beausjour farm. The attack broke down completely with very heavy losses to the French. Repeated attempts to make night attacks were stopped at their very start."

"In the eastern theatre: On the lower Dubysia, northeast of Birgola, several Russian attacks were repulsed. The enemy lost 200 prisoners.

"In the southeastern theatre: The situation among the German troops fighting in Galicia is unchanged."

FEATURES OF LAST NIGHT'S EUROPEAN WAR NEWS IN BRIEF FORM

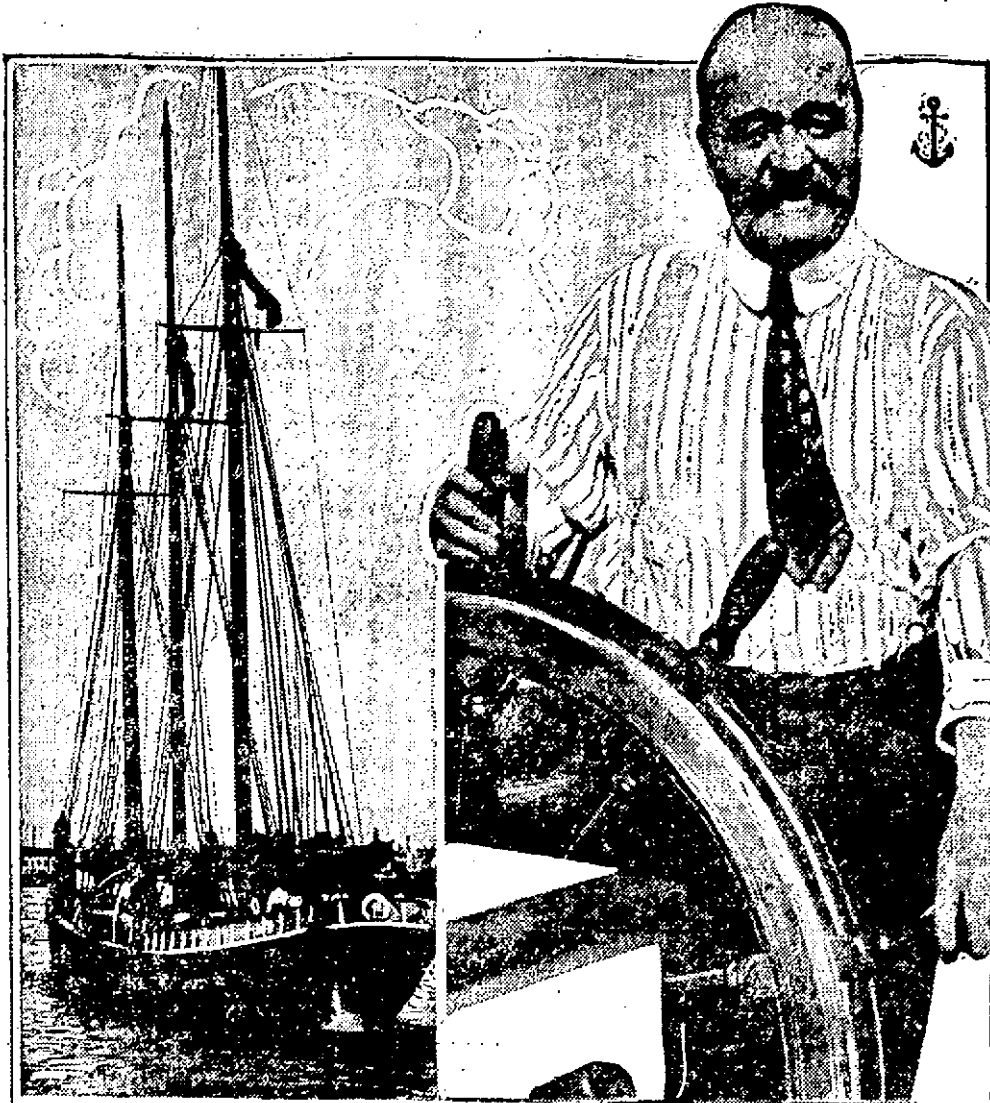

American note in moderate terms renews demands on Lusitania and asks assurances for safety of American lives and ships. French report attacks in Champagne and at Lorette.

Berlin says French obtained advantages near Somme and took trenches in Le Pretre wood.

Germans claim capture of French trenches near Souain and Les Mesnil. Russians advance south of Lemberg and attack German in the Dniester.

Viennois Teutonic armies are gaining on the Dniester and have crossed the Pruth.

MACMILLAN RELIEF SHIP

CAPT. PICKLES.

NEW YORK, June 11.—With two years' supplies in her hold—to be used in the event of an early winter up in Baffin bay—the schooner Cluett, owned by the Grenfell mission, slipped out of the harbor, bound for Labrador. Some of the cargo is consigned to the mission, to which the vessel was presented in 1911, after it was built by George B. Cluett of Troy, but the bulk of it will be consumed by members of the Donald B. Macmillan expedition, sent out by the American Museum of Natural History to find Admiral Peary's Land. Captain Pickles, commander of the Cluett, had his vessel all shipshape. Whether he would be able to bring the members of the exploring party out of the north before ice sealed the water he was unable to say. He would do his best. That was his only statement. In the accompanying illustration the ship is shown as she left New York. There also is shown Captain Pickles at the wheel.

MONTEREY'S BAKERIES REOPENED ON WEDNESDAY—GREAT EVENT FOR STARVING PEOPLE

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Monterey's bakeries reopened Wednesday for the public, a great event in the famine stricken city. Consul General Hanna has advised the state department. No bread has been on sale during the past several weeks. Corn supplied by the American Red Cross was furnished Wednesday to 10,000 hungry people in Monterey. A third carload of corn despatched by the Red Cross left Laredo, Tex., Wednesday night for Monterey.

SERIOUS DIFFERENCES GALVESTON, TEX., JUNE 11.—Reports of serious differences between General Villa and General Angeles have reached the constitutionalist consulate here. The two commanders, it is alleged, accuse each other of cowardice at the battle of Leon. The reports say that each general accuses the other of having ordered the retreat and add that the quarrel may lead to open hostility between the two forces.

AMERICANIZATION DAY

P. P. CLAXTON URGES CELEBRATION THROUGHOUT COUNTRY ON JULY 4

WASHINGTON, June 11.—"Americanization day—a day for strengthening the American spirit of nationality and uniting all classes, creeds and races into one intelligent democracy"—is being urged by P. P. Claxton, federal commissioner of education on the municipal and education officials throughout the country for celebration on July 4.

"Americanization day" is a patriotic call to all citizens, American-born and foreign-born alike, adults and children, to rally to American ideals, purposes and common interests of many people united into one nation," says Commissioner Claxton in a letter made public today and sent to mayors of all cities, school superintendents and other educational institution officials. He has appealed to 7000 of these officials and the movement already has begun in 30 cities, whose mayors have appointed committees as a part of the national movement to make Independence day, 1910, "Americanization day." New York and St. Louis, through their public schools have planned a special civic lesson on Flag day, June 14.

Where the movement already has begun, mayors' committees are arranging citizenship receptions for new naturalized citizens and a national Americanization day committee is assisting in the plan for celebrating Independence day.

ORDER RESTORED AMERICANS SAFE

Riots Followed Lynching of Man Who Confessed to Killing

JOHNSTON CITY, Ill., June 11.—Order has been restored here today following the riotous scenes of yesterday afternoon when John Strando was lynched after he had confessed complicity in the murder of W. E. Chapman and the wounding of Mrs. Benjamin Schull, Chapman's daughter, Wednesday night.

Three companies of the Illinois state guard were patrolling the streets today and the band of foreign miners which assembled last night had dispersed.

THE ITALIAN OPERATIONS

PLAN TO COMPEL AUSTRIA AND GERMANY TO KEEP ENGAGED AN ARMY OF 1,000,000

LUGANO, Switzerland, June 11, via Paris, 11:45 a. m.—Information has been received here from Italian sources that Italy has made an agreement with her allies as to the extent of her offensive campaign. According to this information, which, however, lacks official confirmation the Italian government has undertaken to conduct operations of a character which will compel Austria and Germany to bring up and keep engaged an army of 1,000,000 men.

Italian operations have not been carried to the point necessitating the use by the central empires of an army of such size, but it is expected the development of the Italian campaign beginning with the heavy fighting along the Isonzo river, will compel Italy's opponents to reinforce their armies largely.

The immediate Italian objectives are Trent, Trieste and Villach, the provincial capital of Carinthia.

PRESIDENT'S FIRST VACATION

WASHINGTON, June 11.—President Wilson expects to spend the Fourth of July at the summer White House at Cornish, N. H. It will be his first vacation since the foreign situation became acute. Members of his family plan to go to Cornish about June 25.

KEEP TROOPS ON BORDER

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Possible interference by local Mexican officials along the border with plans of the Red Cross to distribute through American consular officials and its own agencies food supplies to the famine threatened Mexican people is the reason for orders from the war department to delay the departure of three regiments from the border to the Philippines.

HELD SURPRISE PARTY

Miss Elizabeth Curran was surprised by a number of friends at her home, 178 Concord street on Tuesday evening and presented a pretty hand bag, which was carried out by her and refreshments were served. Miss Curran is employed at the U. S. Cartilage shop.

CHINESE-AMERICAN BANK

BOSTON, June 11.—Participation of Boston financiers in a proposed Chinese-American bank was the subject of a conference arranged for today between Cheng-Hsun Chang, president of the honorary commercial commission of the Chinese and several local bankers. The project, which was recently discussed by the commissioners with New York bank heads, is said to be well under way.

JOHNSON, PLAYING OUTFIELD, TO SHOW TEAMMATES HOW GAMES ARE WON

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Walter Johnson, the Washington speed marvel, has lost quite a few games this year chiefly because his team failed to bat behind him, and now after has essayed the role of instructor and in order that he may be in position to give practical lessons in run getting he is playing in the outfield on the days when he is not called upon to pitch. The "Big Swede" is a fairly good stick, and it is because of his ability with the "willow" that Clark Griffith is allowing his star boxman to experiment in the outer garden. Since the experiment was started the ashington squad has picked up somewhat in team batting, and on at least two occasions timely bingles inserted by the big moundman have carried the victory to the Senators. If Johnson should ever lose his speed and cunning he would still be a great ball player, for he has already demonstrated that he can bat and field as well as some outfielders who are rated as stars.

Bryan Appeals Against Wilson—Addresses "American People" in Support of His Policy

WASHINGTON, June 11.—William Jennings Bryan, in an appeal addressed "To the American People," last night asks them to hear him before they pass sentence upon his laying down the portfolio of secretary of state in the midst of international stress.

Confident that the public will credit him with honorable intentions, Mr. Bryan frankly says that good intentions are not enough, and that if the public verdict is against him, he asks no mercy, asserting that men in public life must be "willing to bear any deserved punishment from ostracism to execution."

Interpreting the American note to Germany on submarine warfare, which he refused to sign, as conforming to the "old system" of diplomatic standards, precedents for which "are written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history," and characterizing himself as a champion of the new system—persuasion instead of force—and as "an humble follower of the Prince of Peace," the former secretary of state pleads for the United States to lead the world "out of the black night of war into the light of that day when swords shall be beaten into plowshares."

Mr. Bryan's statement follows: "To the American People: 'You now have before you the text of the note of Germany—the note which it would have been my official duty to sign had I remained secretary of state. I ask you to sit in judgment upon my decision to resign rather than to share the responsibility for it.'

"I am sure you will credit me with honorable motives, but this is not enough. Good intentions could not atone for a mistake at such a time, on such a subject and under such circumstances. If your verdict is against me, I ask no mercy; I desire none if I have acted unwisely.

"A man in public life must act according to his conscience, but however conscientiously he acts, he must be prepared to accept without complaint any condemnation which his own errors may bring upon him; he must be willing to bear any deserved punishment, from ostracism to execution. But hear me before you pass sentence."

Both Want Peace

"The president and I agree in purpose; we desire a peaceful solution of the dispute which has arisen between the United States and Germany. We not only desire it, but with equal fervor we pray for it; but we differ irreconcilably as to the means of securing it."

"If it were merely a personal difference it would be a matter of little moment, for all the presumptions that go with power and authority. He is your president—I am a private citizen without office or title—but one of the one hundred million of inhabitants."

"But the real issue is not between persons; it is between systems, and I rely for vindication wholly upon the strength of the position taken."

"Among the influences which governments employ in dealing with each other there are two which are pre-eminent and antagonistic—force and persuasion. Force speaks with firmness and acts through the ultimatum; persuasion employs argument, courts investigation and depends upon negotiation."

"Force represents the old system—the system that must pass away; the persuasion represents the new system—the system that has been growing all too slowly, it is true, but growing for 1900 years. In the old system war was the chief cornerstone—war which at its best is little better than war at its worst; the new system contemplates an universal brotherhood established through the uplifting power of example."

"If I correctly interpret the note to Germany, it conforms to the standards of the old system rather than to the rules of the new, and I cheerfully admit that it is abundantly supported by precedents—precedents written in characters of blood upon almost every page of human history."

Results of Old System

"Austria furnishes the most recent precedent; it was Austria's firmness that dictated the ultimatum against Serbia, which set the world at war. Every ruler now participating in this unparalleled conflict has proclaimed his desire for peace and denied responsibility for the war, and it is only charitable that we should credit all of them with good faith. They desired peace, but they sought it according to the rules of the old system. They believed that firmness would

TEXT OF AMERICAN REJOINDER TO GERMANY

THE SECRETARY OF STATE AD INTERIM TO THE AMERICAN AMBASSADOR AT BERLIN.
"Department of State, Washington, June 9, 1915."
"AMERICAN AMBASSADOR, BERLIN:

"You are instructed to deliver textually the following note to the Minister of Foreign Affairs: 'In compliance with Your Excellency's request I did not fail to transmit to my government immediately upon their receipt of your note of May 28 in reply to my note of May 15, and your supplementary note of June 1, setting forth the conclusions so far as reached by the Imperial German government concerning the attacks on the American steamers Cushing and Gulllight. I am now instructed by my government to communicate the following reply:

"The government of the United States notes with gratification the full recognition by the Imperial German government, in discussing the cases of the Cushing and the Gulllight, of the principles of the freedom of all parts of the open sea to neutral ships and the frank willingness of the Imperial German government to acknowledge and meet its liability where the fact of attack upon neutral ships which have not been guilty of any hostile act, by German aircraft or vessels of war is satisfactorily established; and the government of the United States will in due course lay before the Imperial German government, in response to its request, full information concerning the attack on the steamer Cushing."

SURPRISED AT PALABA CONTENTION

"With regard to the sinking of the steamer Palaba, by which an American citizen lost his life, the government of the United States is surprised to find the Imperial German government contending that an effort on the part of a merchantman to escape capture and secure assistance alters the obligation of the officer commanding the vessel in respect of the safety of the lives of those on board. The merchantman, although the vessel has ceased her attempt to escape when torpedoed."

"These are not new circumstances. They have been in the minds of statesmen and of international jurists throughout the development of naval warfare and the government of the United States does not understand that they have ever been held to alter the principles of humanity upon which it has insisted."

"Nothing in but actual and forcible resistance or continued effort to escape by light when ordered to stop for the purpose of visit on the part of the merchantman has ever been held to forfeit the lives of her passengers or crew."

"The government of the United States, however, does not understand that the Imperial German government is seeking in this case to relieve itself of liability, but only intends to set forth the circumstances which led the commander of the submarine to allow himself to be hurried into the course which he took."

DECLARES LUSITANIA NOT ARMED

"Your Excellency's note, in discussing the loss of American lives resulting from the sinking of the steamship Lusitania, adverts at some length to certain information which the Imperial German government has received with regard to the character and outfit of that vessel, and Your Excellency expresses the fear that this information may not have been brought to the attention of the United States."

"It is stated that the Lusitania undoubtedly was supplied with masked guns supplied with trained gunners and special ammunition, transporting troops from Canada, carrying a cargo not permitted under the laws of the United States to a vessel also carrying passengers, and serving, in virtual effect, as an auxiliary to the naval forces of Great Britain."

"Fortunately, these are matters concerning which the government of the United States is in a position to give the Imperial German government official information. Of the facts alleged in Your Excellency's note, if true, the government of the United States would have been bound to take official cognizance in performing its recognized duty as a neutral power, and in enforcing its national laws."

"It was its duty to see to it that the Lusitania was not armed for offensive action; that she was not serving as a transport, that she did not carry a cargo prohibited by the statutes of the United States, and that if in fact she was a naval vessel of Great Britain, she should not receive clearance as a merchantman; and it performed that duty and enforced its statutes with scrupulous vigilance through its regularly constituted officials."

LUSITANIA CLAIMS "IRRELEVANT"

"It is able, therefore, to assure the Imperial German government that it has been misinformed. If the Imperial German government should deem itself to be in possession of convincing evidence that the officials of the government of the United States did not perform these duties with thoroughness, the government of the United States sincerely hopes that it will submit that evidence for consideration."

"Whatever may be the contentions of the Imperial German government regarding the carriage of contraband of war on board the Lusitania or regarding the explosion of that material by the torpedo, it need only be said that in the view of this government these contentions are irrelevant to the question of the legality of the methods used by the German naval authorities in sinking the vessel."

"But the sinking of passenger ships involves principles of humanity which throw into the background

any special circumstances of detail that may be thought to affect the cases—principles which lift it, as the Imperial German government will not doubt be quick to recognize and acknowledge, out of the class of ordinary subjects of diplomatic discussion or of international controversy."

"Whatever be the other facts regarding the Lusitania, the principal fact is that a great steamer, primarily and chiefly a conveyance for passengers and carrying more than a thousand souls who had no part to play in the conduct of the war, was torpedoed and sunk without so much as a challenge or a warning, and that men, women and children were sent to their death in circumstances unparalleled in modern warfare."

GERMANY'S GRAVE RESPONSIBILITY

"The fact that more than 100 American citizens were among those who perished made it the duty of the government of the United States to speak of these things, and to do so with solemn emphasis to call the attention of the Imperial German government to the grave responsibility which the government of the United States conceives that it has incurred in this tragic occurrence, and to the indisputable principle upon which that responsibility rests."

"The government of the United States is contending for something much greater than mere rights of property or privileges of commerce. It is contending for nothing less high and sacred than the rights of humanity, which every government honors itself in respecting, and which no government is justified in resigning on behalf of those under its care and authority. Only her actual resistance to capture, or refusal to stop when ordered to do so for the purpose of visit, could have afforded the commander of the submarine any justification for so much as putting the lives of those on board the ship in jeopardy."

"This principle the government of the United States understands the explicit instructions issued on August 3, 1914, by the Imperial German admiralty to its commanders at sea, have recognized and embodied, as do the naval codes of all other nations, and upon it every traveler and seaman had a right to depend."

"It is upon this principle of humanity, as well as upon the law founded upon this principle, that the United States must stand."

WILLING TO BE INTERMEDIARY

"The government of the United States is happy to observe that Your Excellency's note closes with the intimation that the Imperial German government is willing, now as before, to accept the good offices of the United States in an attempt to come to an understanding with the government of Great Britain by which the character and conditions of war upon the sea may be changed."

"The government of the United States would consider it a privilege thus to serve its friends and the world. It stands ready at any time to convey to either government any intimation or suggestion the other may be willing to have conveyed cordially invites the Imperial German government to make use of its services in this way at its convenience. The whole world is concerned in anything that may bring about even a partial accommodation of interests or in any way mitigate the terrors of the present distressing conflict."

"In the meantime, whatever arrangements may happily be made between the parties to the war, and whatever may be the opinion of the Imperial German government have been the provocation of their circumstantial justification for the past acts of its commanders at sea, the government of the United States confidently looks to see the justice and humanity of the government of Germany vindicated in all cases where Americans have been wronged or their rights as neutrals invaded."

CANNOT ADMIT WAR ZONE CLAIM

"The government of the United States therefore very earnestly and very solemnly renews the representations of its note transmitted to the Imperial German government on the 15th of May, and relies in these representations upon the principles of humanity, the universally recognized understandings of international law and the ancient friendship of the German nation."

"The government of the United States cannot admit that the proclamation of a war zone from which neutral ships have been warned to keep away, may be made to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights either of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers, on merchant ships of belligerent nationality. It does not understand the Imperial German government to question those rights."

"It understands it, also, to accept as established beyond question the principle that the lives of non-combatants cannot lawfully or rightfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unresisting merchantman and to recognize the obligation to take sufficient precaution to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belligerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag."

"The government of the United States deems it reasonable to expect that the Imperial German government will adopt the measures necessary to put these principles into practice in respect of the safeguarding of American lives and American ships and asks for assurances that this will be done."

"ROBERT LANSING,
"Secretary of State ad Interim."

SEC'Y DANIELS PLEASED

He Approves Decision of Court to Stop Sale of Bliss-Leavitt Torpedoes to Foreign Powers

WASHINGTON, June 11.—Secretary Daniels today expressed himself as highly gratified over the decision of the federal district court for the eastern district of New York in the injunction suit brought by the navy department against the E. W. Bliss Co., whereby that company was restrained from selling the so-called Bliss-Leavitt torpedo to foreign powers and from disclosing the secrets of manufacture to any individual, corporation or government.

The opinion of the court, Secretary Daniels declared, approves a policy which he had urged upon congress for a government torpedo manufacture. In response to his recommendation, he said, congress had made an appropriation to increase the government torpedo plant at Newport. "Work on the plant is being pushed forward," the secretary added, "and toward the latter part of the year the enlarged factory will be in operation."

AMERICAN BOYS ENLIST

RETURNED HOSTLER TELLS OF SYSTEM BY WHICH ARMY SERVICE IS MADE ATTRACTIVE

BOSTON, June 11.—Boston is the only Atlantic port where men ship as hostlers on horse-carrying steamers without pay, according to a statement of one of the returning horse tenders yesterday.

Elsewhere along the coast, he declared, the steamship companies pay wages of from $10 to $20, this being true of Jersey City, Portland, Halifax, and Montreal, and he expressed himself as being curious to know who reaps the profit.

This man, who went to England and returned as one of the foremen of a horse crew, said that the shortage of ocean crews is due not so much to military or naval enlistments as to the high wages offered seamen down in England. In the coastwise trade the shortage is such that men can almost set their own price, and, according to this man, $20 is paid stokers for a trip across the channel.

He substantiates many of the charges made by some of the American boys who have returned from England and who declare they were offered bonuses to enlist in the British service.

Soon after his ship docked, he said, a corporal of the Remount Service—the army hostlers—came aboard looking for recruits. None enlisted at that time, and later a sergeant of a Territorial infantry regiment appealed for recruits, offering 30 shillings per week.

Two Fairs at Half Fare; Railroad Rates Cut In Two

The railroads have greatly reduced their fares and made it possible for you to see both the San Francisco and San Diego Expositions on one ticket. By way of the Burlington Route (C. & N. W. R.), the cost of a railroad ticket to California and back will be only about one-half the usual price, and you can take in the incomparable Colorado scenery, including the Royal Gorge, see Denver, Colorado Springs, Pueblo and Salt Lake City on the way, stopping off at any point desired.

Returning, you may enjoy a sea trip up the coast to Portland, see Tacoma, Seattle and Spokane, and either Glacier National Park or Yellowstone Park—the wonders of the world—on the way.

You don't take a trip like this very often. You should see the best scenery en route and not spend any more than is necessary to do it. Tell me when you plan to go, how long you can stay, and let me make up an itinerary to fit your particular needs. Let me explain how and why the Burlington can serve you best. I'll be glad to do it. Write, telephone or call.

LARGER BOSTON POSTOFFICE

BOSTON, June 11.—An enlargement of the mail-handling space at the Boston postoffice by taking for that purpose the rooms in the Federal building now used for court procedure and for the subtreasury and the establishment of a new terminal and the North Station of regular, thoroughly equipped subordinate postal stations, in place of the present arrangements, was announced today, as necessary to meet the increasing volume of mail needed for the necessary repairs made to his machine, which was damaged in the Indianapolis event.
